ONEY SCATTERED TO WINDS IN PAY FOR WASTED TIME

ORTY THOUSAND MORE CLERKS THAN REQUIRED ON GOVERNMENT WORK AT CAPITOL.

Washington, Dec. 30.—How public oney is being wasted and thrown to winds in Washington by keeping the payrolls many thousands of ployes whose services are not needed was described to the House by pr sentative Madden of Chicago.

Most people in the country know what conditions in Washington were not what they should be, Mr. Madden proceeded:

Before the war, I think the Department had together about 30,000 who, a few more than that, clerks all branches of the service, and now there we have about 110,000, and I think everybody concedes that those about 40,000 more than we ought have even under present conditions. I do not have to remind gentlemen the that not long since, during the early part of this year, we went so far as to appropriate to pay the transportation charges of those who were going to separate themselves from service to their homes, and after we could not get them separated from the service.

I have gone through branches of service where I have had come in contact with at least a thousand people between the hours of 10 o'clock and 11 o'clock in the morning, and one would suppose that would be the busiest part of the day. I have gone into the rooms where they had groups of stenographers anywhere from five to ten in a room, and not a stenographer

William C. Robinson of Marbury was in Clanton Monday. Mr. Robinson has been proprietor of the hotel at Marbury for the last [illegible] years. She has relinquished her interests at Marbury now and will take charge of the Wade hotel Cahaba right away.

The Best Cough Medinice.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself or in his family. This is why druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Wilson, well known druggist of Cubero, N. M., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past five years, and have found it the best cough medicine I have known."

ENCOURAGING WORDS OF MR. J. O. MIDDLETON

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 26, 1919.

Dear Mr. Editor:

This is the "morning after", and I trust you enjoyed your Xmas turkey and your egg(minus)nogg, and that the New Year may bring you many blessings. But I am thinking of the Republican party of Chilton County. The Republicans of Chilton County have many things upon which they are to be congratulated: they are to be congratulated that in Oliver D. Street and Pope Long, they have a national committeeman and a state chairman who really believe in building up the party in Alabama; they are to be congratulated that in the Union-Banner, they have the best weekly paper in the state; they are to be congratulated upon the efficiency and faithfulness of their county officers, and that Chilton is the best governed county in the state; they are to be congratulated upon their new and commodious courthouse—it is a thing of beauty, a model of convenience, and a monument to the honesty, business ability and patriotism of those officers responsible for its construction, and will, I trust, be a joy forever.

Mr. C. R. Foss, Cashier of the Bank of Thorsby, and Mr. Riggins of the New Thorsby Hardware Store, were visitors to Clanton last Saturday afternoon. Mr. Foss reports splendid progress for the Thorsby Bank. Mr. Riggins comes to Thorsby from Atlanta. He has been a railroad office man for the past seventeen years. He is to become interested in a new hardware concern which is to become incorporated soon.

I was delighted when I was up there at the last court to learn of the spirit of harmony prevailing amongst the Republicans of the county; that spirit means victory next year. I was pleased to note the optimistic spirit sounded by Walter H. Gillespie. There is no better party workers than Walter Gillespie. I know, for I heard a good democrat say that he'd be dad-burned if Jim Grant and Walter Gillespie hadn't walked five thousand miles in Beats 5 and 10 working for the Republican party." I was also impressed with the quaint philosophy of old Jim Grant that "when fellows begin to pay up back poll taxes they are getting ready to vote against something." Of course, they are going to vote against the Democratic party.

Mr. Editor, tell the boys to pay up their poll taxes, and, with harmony as the watchword, the results of the next election will proclaim to the country that, down here, we carry the flag and keep step to the music of the union.

J. OSMOND MIDDLETON.

WILSON STRUCTURE IS ABOUT TO FALL

Drifting From Bad to Worse

Washington, Dec. 30.—Although it is widely recognized in Washington that the bricks are rapidly dropping out of the tottering structure of the Wilson administration, the fact that Secretary of the Interior Lane is to go has caused more than usual comment.

It accentuates the fact that the administration is drifting weekly from bad to worse, that the stronger officials are quitting it, that democrats of prominence see the hand-writing of defeat next year for their party and that there are marked internal dissensions in administration circles. The Wilson policies, it is more clear than ever, have not had the support or sympathy of the men about him most competent to judge of them.

With news of the forthcoming retirement of Mr. Lane, the prospective resignation of Secretary Lansing is once more figuring in the dispatches from Washington.

Made Deep Impression.

One does not have to go to republicans these days to head the Lane resignation talked about with entertaining and enlightening freedom. A dispatch from Washington in the Baltimore Sun, a leading administration paper, is engagingly frank. It says:

"Announcement by Frank K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, of his resignation from the Cabinet has made a profound impression in Washington.

"While a compelling reason is one of financial consideration, it is nevertheless recognized that at the bottom of Mr. Lane's action lies a strong protest against some of the policies recently adopted by the administration and to unpleasantness that has developed in the Cabinet during the president's illness.

"Close friends of the Secretary declare that he strongly resented the course of the government in dealing with the coal strike and feels that the settlement effected by Attorney General Palmer involves a sacrifice of principle. It is stated that Mr. Lane strongly upheld the Garfield proposition on the ground that it offered the only plan whereby the government could bring to an end the constant increase in the wages of employees and the prices to consumers.

Friction in Cabinet.

"It is declared that in recent weeks there has been a decided division in the cabinet on this and other questions, with Secdetary Lane heading one group and Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Secretary of War Baker the other.

"Democrats in Washington consider the decisions of Mr. Lane as a serious blow to the administration. Regarded as one of the ablest and best equipped members of the cabinet, his career in the administration has been such as to inspire widespread confidence. But for the fact that he is a Canadian by birth, and therefore debarred by the Constitution from being a candidate for President, he would undoubtedly be in the forefront of those mentioned for the Democratic nomination.

Influence Waned

"At one time Mr. Lane was regarded as o ne of the closest advisers of the President in matters of public policy. Always aggresive, he was known to have urged the entry of the United States into the war againt Germany from the day when the Lusitania was sunk. He was constantly at odds with former Secretary of State Bryan on this score, and since then his influence in the administration has more or less waned.

"His differences with Secretary Baker and Secretary Daniels grew out of the actions of the heads of the War and Navy departments in repudiating at the outset of the war of an arrangement which Mr. Lane, on behalf of the government and through the medium of the coal committee of the Council of National Defense, had made with the coal operators to sell their output to the government and to the war industries at a fixed price at the mines of $3 a ton. Both Mr. Baker and Mr. Daniels refused to pay this price for War and Navy department orders, and the President then created the Fuel Administration to fix prices."

SIXTY MILLION WASTE LOOMS IN DISCLOSURE

Washington, Dec. 30.—The special war investigating committee of the House, through the sub-committee on foreign expenditures, is conducting a thorough inquiry into the establishment and administration of the motor transport depot at Verneuil, France, and it is believed that when the hearings are concluded a total waste of public funds aggregating more than $60,000,000 will have been conclusively shown. It was here that rubber tires valued at approximately $35,000,000 were permitted to stand in the open for over a year and become worthless, and in addition to this terrific waste it has been shown that costly mess halls and other conveniences not enjoyed during the war were under construction after the armistice was signed and completed only a few weeks before the vast camp was abandoned.

The committee has been getting the story both from officers and enlisted men stationed at the motor transport depot, and to the story of extravagance has been added many accounts of severe discipline and hardships which were undergone by the enlisted men. The commanding officer has been accused by one of his junior officers and a number of enlisted men of the most unreasoning severity. A witness made the statement that the son of a prominent American diplomat stationed in Europe, who was an enlited man at the station, was constantly permitted to go on leave to Paris on orders issued outsode of the depot.

BRYAN PLANS TO RISE ON WILSON'S FAILURE

Washington, Dec. 30.—Commotion has been caused in democratic circles, not to mention political interest elsewhere, by signs and symptoms that William J. Bryan intends to crowd himself to the front in the affairs of his party as the year of 1920 nears.

Mr. Bryan is not yet an avowed presidential candidate, but there is talk that he will in due course become one.

Former Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, gave a dinner here recently, attended by a large number of Democratic Senators and others. Mr. Bryan spoke at length. He was, in fact, the guest of honor.

Mr. Bryan was extolled in the evening's speechmaking and following on the dinner it came out that he counseled the ratification of the Versailles treaty even if reservations had to be accepted. Outwardly praising President, he nevertheless made it clear he was not for the "no concession" plan of Mr. Wilson. It seems Mr. Bryan does not believe the democrats stand any show of getting anywhere next year with the treaty as an issue.

Emergence of Mr. Bryan at this particular time is deemed peculiarly significant here. It is taken to mean, looking at such matters as the recent elections, the Lane resignation, and much else that might be cited, believes the Wilson administration is headingly rapidly for the political rocks. It is evident Mr. Bryan believes the Wilson leadership is losing its grip.

LIBERTY HILL

The Liberty Hill Singing Society met Sunday afternoon with a large crowd and good singing. We had several visitors from other communities, whom we were glad to see.

Singing was opened by chairman, Prof. J. W. Lowery, and prayer by Rev. A. L. Foshee. Directors for the afternoon were: Profs. J. W. Lowery and Blanco Durbin; organists, Miss Zelma Lowery.

This is the last time the society will meet for this year. We have had good singings since the society was organized. We hope to have better singing this coming year.

The society will meet again the first Sunday afternoon in January, 1920. New officers will be elected for the coming year, and arrangements will be made for getting new song books. We hope to have a large crowd.

Bonnie Littlejohn, Secy.

Mr. Z. J. Jones, the faithful correspndent of the Union-Banner at West Chilton, was a visitor here on Tuesday. Mr. Jones is one of the census enumerators for Chilton County, and was attending a conference of the enumerators here Tuesday.

PALMER PUMPING PIFFLE INSTEAD OF PROSECUTING

WITH FULL POWER TO ACT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL SPENDS TIME IN SPEECHMAKING

Washington, December 30.—While figures from the bureau of labor statistics of the Department of Labor demonstrate that the cost of living continues to soar, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer is making a fierce speechifying drive against the H. C. L. and calling [illegible] that the profiteers are "[illegible] who ought to be hanged [illegible] as Haman."

Mr. Palmer in his speech recently at Chicago urged mayors and states attorneys—those not being federal officials—to put the profiteers on the gibbet before they got through with them.

However, careful reading of Mr. Palmer's utterances discloses, that he is still calling for more legislation at the hands of Congress.

It will be recalled that he demanded power to penalize the profiteer.

In response to that demand, congress gave him the authority. That was a good while ago. If Mr. Palmer has jailed any large number of conspicious profiteers, or if he has lowered the prices of necessities, the country would gladly learn the facts.

It is obvious to everybody that up to the present time, at least, the government's so-called campaign against the high cost of living has not given the people relief.

Also, it is obvious that Mr. Palmer will have a hard time convincing the nation that failure to afford relief is due to lack of ample federal authority.

MINOOKA NEWS

Bro. L. P. Martin of Dora, Ala., preached at Minooka Sunday, December 21st. The service was enjoyed very much by his many friends and pray for his success in this cause.

The prayer service also was attended by a large crowd Sunday night, conducted by G. W. Bailey.

The Busy Bee Club wants to thank all the girls and ladies for their nice boxes prepared for the box supper on December 18th, and boys and men to be so freely to buy. Also Mrs. J. F. Brown for baking the guess cake. The boxes and cake together brought the nice sum of $92.05. The money for two boxes being refunded back, left $82.30. This money will go for the benefit of the school house.

Mrs. Shaw of Ocampo died suddenly Saturday night, December 25th, at 11 o'clock. Remain interred at Rock Spring Cemetery.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

The editor of the Union-Banner and the other members of the force, join in extending to our subscribers and friends everywhere the heartiest of wishes for happiness and prosperity during the new year which we are entering upon with this weeks issue of the paper.

During the year just closed we have enjoyed a full measure of support from the bountiful hands of hundreds of people in Chilton county; and we have at all times tried to make the paper measure up to the merits of that support which we have enjoyed.

We thank you, friends, for what you have done for us in the past, and we assure you that we do not regard our duties fulfilled toward you in your goodness toward us. We shall continue on and on in our effort to make a still better paper with which to repay you for your courtesies.

Now, again, may it be a happy and prosperous year for each and every one of you during 1920, is out sincerest wish.

One suggestion we have for beginning the new year is that you pay your poll tax before February the 1st, so you can take part in the elections that are to come off during 1920. This is going to be a very important year in respect of elections, and you will want to exercise your right of suffrage. It all depends on your poll tax, so get busy now, and get some of your friends busy also.

The County Registrar will be at the Court House from January the first to January the fifth for the purpose of registering voters who are qualified to register under the laws of the state. Bear this in mind and don't fail to remind your friend who is not registered. Urge him to come and register and pay his poll tax so he can vote in the elections this year.

We want our readers to fully enjoy the rich morsel that is extended through the Banner this week from the hand and heart of J. Osmond Middleton of Mobile. That genial friend of so many Chilton County people is warm in his felicitations for our well being and we know everybody will enjoy the things he says. And we, too, yea hundreds of us here in Chilton County, are ever hopeful that the hand of fortune may be generous with Mr. Middleton wherever he may go, and freely scatter his pathway with roses.

MILLIONS USED ILLEGALLY.

In a report to the House the Military Affairs Committee charges the War Department with the illegal use of millions of the people's money for the purchase of land in direct defiance of law. The claim is made that funds appropriated by Congress for the prosecution of the war were diverted by Secretary Baker in the acquisition of additions to camp sites long after the signing of the armistice. The report is submitted in connection with a bill proposing to limit specifically future expenditures of the Department along those lines. It is charged that not only was Mr. Baker without authoriy to use the public money for the purpose to which it was put, but that the Senate and House had defiantly refused to appropriate money for further land purchases.

The illegal use of funds was mostly at Camp Benning, Georgia, Camp Bragg, North Carolina, and Camp Knox, Kentucky, involving from 50,000 to 100,000 acres. The action of the Department has so incensed the House Military Committee that in the bill recenly reported the abandonment is ordered of other camps in the immediate vicinity of the three named above.

To the Dyspeptic.

Would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles are over, that you can eat any kind of food you crave? Consider then the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you. There are many who have been retored to health by taking these tablets and can now eat any kind of food that they crave.

HOW MANY ACRES CAN ONE MAN TAKE CARE OF?

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

An interesting and valuable circular has recently been issued by the Alabama Extension Service entitled "Man Labor Requirement of Some Principle Southern Crops." It is written by F. D. Stevens, Farm Management Specialist, located at Birmingham, and cannot but prove of timely interest to thoughtful farmers, whose production in the past has been limited by a lack of labor supply. This Circular, No. 33, first propounds the question, "How many acres of crops can one man handle?" and proceeds to show how on an average, one-horse cotton farm, the time of a farmer and his family, (four in all) is practically taken up in caring for 16 acres of cotton, 14 acres of corn and 3 acres of cowpeas, 33 acres in all. The wastefulness of this plan, however, is shown in that it actually uses only 150 days or 66 per cent of the available time of the farmer. "Available time" is calculated to be 229 days in the year, the balance of the 136 days being classed as unavailable for field work on account of weather conditions and includes Sundays and Holidays.

And so another crop rotation is planned, wherein an attempt is made to show the maximum acreage it is possible for one man and his family to care for, where cotton is still retained in the system of planting. This plan contemplates a four year rotation on four fields of ten acres each, a total of 40 acres, on which 60 acres of crops are grown.

These crops include 10 acres in cotton, 10 acres in Spanish peanuts, 10 acres in grain harvested, 10 acres in soy beans harvested, 10 acres in cover crops pastured and 10 acres in a mixture of corn, velvet beans and peanuts. In this plan the farmer uses 82 per cent of his total available time and about 16 per cent of that of his family.

But there are some sections, or some men in various sections, who desire to drop cotton entirely from their cropping system and so a final plan is offered to meet this situation. This contemplates a five year rotation on five fields of 15 acres each, making 75 acres in all whereon 105 acres of crops are handled by one man and his family.

This includes crops planted with the avowed purpose of pasturing them; crops so arranged in sequence that the labor in harvesting one can be turned to account in the preparation for another crop following, and crops wherein a proper advantage is taken of catch crops and broadcasted crops that require no labor of cultivation. This plan makes use of:

15 acres in lezpedeza or beggar weed pastured.
15 acres in corn, velvet beans and peanuts.
15 acres in sorghum and peas pastured.
15 acres in rye, clover and vetch pastured.
15 acres in soy beans harvested and thrashed.

This gives 60 acres harvested as cash and feed crops. 40 acres harvested directly by grazing animals and 30 acres of crop refused in above items, Nos. 1 and4, 80 per cent of the farmers available time is consumed, and only 80 days are required in the year from the family and extra labor hired at harvest time.

In this critical time of high priced, inefficient and scant labor supply, Southern farmers will study a circular of this character with interest and profit. Write to Alabama Extension Service, Auburn, Alabama and a copy will be sent to you.

CONTROL THE CORN WEEVIL.

By W. E. Hinds, Entomologist.
Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

The black weevil or rice weevil and other insects infesting stored corn seem to be unusually abundant this season. Reports from the northern part of Alabama indicate that such is the case in that section, as well as in the southern part of the State where they occur regularly each year.

The most effective method for reducing the damage done by these insects is to shuck the corn as it is gathered in the field, storing it in the bare ear. This leaves most of the adults in the field and repeated experiments have shown that the corn is injured less in the crib where it has been shucked before storage.

However, most corn in Alabama is stored in the shuck, and the degree of infestation cannot be determined. It must therefore be assumed that most of such corn in the southern part of the state will need fumigation this year to stop the work of these insects. This fumigation can be given in any tight room or bin with carbon disulphide. It is fortunate that this material is being offered at a lower price from the manufacturers this year than has been the case for several seasons past.

The Alabama Extension Service through the Department of Entomology will be glad to co-operate with growers of large amounts of corn who may desire to fumigate for the control of these insects. Information as to methods and sources of supply for carbon disulphide will be given upon request, and wherever possible, an assistant will be detailed to aid in applying the fumigant in the most effective and economical way.

Be it ordained by the Town Council of Clanton, Alabama, that there be and is hereby levied for the expenses of the Town of Clanton, Alabama, for the current year of 1919, a Tax of Five (5) mills on each dollars worth of taxable property and the amount of other subjects of taxation in said Town of Clanton, as assessed, for revenue to the said Town of Clanton, as shown by the books of assessments for the year 1919, as corrected, such Tax of Five (5) mills on each dollars worth of taxable property.

SECTION TWO.

Be it further ordained by said Town Council of Clanton, Ala., that it deemed necessary by said Mayor and Council, together with all other revenue coming into the said Town of Clanton, to defray the expense of said Town of Clanton, for the current year of 1919.

SECTION THREE.

It further appearing to said Council that due notice by publication for ten days in the Union-Banner, to tax payers in said Town that objection to said levy would be heard on the 26th day of December, 1919, as required by law, and that no tax payer appeared and objected to said assessment as prepared by Victor J. Heard, Town Tax Assessor. It is therefore ordained by the Town Council of Clanton, Alabama, that said assessment duly prepared by said Town Assessor be and is hereby adopted, and that 5 mills on each dollars worth of property as shown tax by said assessment books for the said Town of Clanton, Alabama be paid to said Town's tax collector, Victor J. Heard.

SECTION FOUR.

That said Town of Clanton, hereby adopts as its ordinances, Article 23 and Sections 1311 to 1337 both inclusive of the Code of Alabama, 1907.

J. W. STANFIELD, Mayor.

Authenticated:
Victor J. Heard, Clerk.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Lawrence F. Gerald, Attorney of the Complainant, that the Defendants—Martha Jane Stewart, Minnie Hale, Fannie Busby and Daniel W. Stewart, are non-residents, and that their residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendants are of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring them the said Martha Jane Stewart, Fannie Busby, Minnie Hale and Daniel W. Stewart, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 30th day of January, 1920, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against them.

FAIR - ROBINSON WEDDING

After the showers of good wishes that fell to Mr. and Mrs. Fair, a beautiful dinner was served. Immediately afterwards they left for Birmingham, and from there they will go to Duncanville to make their future home.

The bride was a prominent young lady, a graduate from the Chilton County High School a few years ago. Both bride and groom are widely known. They have many friends who hope them much happiness.

THE SPIRIT of the Season prompts us to extend an expression of good will to our many friends and customers, and to those who may become as such in days to follow.

We wish you health and happiness, and may the New Year be bright and prosperous.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF ALABAMA.
Executive Department.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at its regular session in the year 1919, has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session:

AND WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on, to-wit: Monday, February 16th, 1920, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Article XX. Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges in this State serviceable for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five million ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issuance, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of ten dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined, subject to the approval of the Governor by the Highway Commission, who shall also be Highway Bond Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission together with the approval of the Governor thereto, reduced to writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him; that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, attested by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the facsimile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed in lieu of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment thereof the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged that the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. B.—That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, to place sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund, and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges continuously in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicle privilege license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for their maturity and the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that county roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National Government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the county and national government, that said State Highway, roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department, and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended as the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C.—That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department shall locate, construct and maintain the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held, shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments; said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 93 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 31st day of October, 1919.

WHOLE SYSTEM RUN-DOWN

Quick Improvement Is Noted After A Few Doses of ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Increase in appetite, the coming back of strength, disappearance of headaches and other ills, are a few of the many good results obtained from the use of a new remedy (Ziron Iron Tonic).

Mr. Sim Grimsley, of Cordele, Ga., tried Ziron and has this to say:

"When I began to take Ziron, it seemed that my whole system was run-down, but soon after I began to take Ziron, I could eat more each day and would feel a great deal better. Ever since it seems that my health has been improving, as I seldom have the headache or feel bad the least bit."

Ziron is a new scientific combination of pure medicinal inorganic iron, combined with phosphorus, the active principle of nux vomica and the hypophosphites of lime and soda. It will help to add more red corpuscles to your blood, resulting in more color in your cheeks—more vitality in your system.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Judging from the number of colored people in town, the three days preceding Christmas day, it seemed that if every colored person from the neighboring towns and villages was in Clanton trading.

One of the shoppers from Jemison told me that she bought a dress here for $35.00, for which she would have had to pay $50.00 elsewhere.

The Christmas Tree down at Salem Church was quite a success. Every body was made to feel happy with preents. The children in their recitations acquited themselves splendidly.

On Thursday night Mrs. Carrie Bedsoe had a family reunion at her home. Many of her friends were invited. Everybody seemed to have enjoyed themselves splendidly.

Sunday, December 28th was Pastor Mixon's regular day at Salem. There was a large crowd at all the services. The pastor electrified his hearers with his logical discourses. Everybody was happy and two persons joined the church.

Pastor Mixon is a great up-builder of Clanton. His work enters into every phase of the people's life. He is one of the leaders in the school movement and was about the fourth man to pledge his $25.00 for the erection of our school house.

On Monday, December 29th, the women of the Missionary Society gave a quilting entertainment at the home of Mrs. Maggie Benjamin, which was quite a success. I take this opportunity to remind the colored people of the Emancipation Celebration on Jan. 1st, 1920, Thursday. We expect to make that day a red letter day in our history. There will be day and night services. We also take this opportunity of extending our invitation to the white people of Clanton. As many of the white people who would like to address us on the occasion, will be given an opportunity.

Dr. Maye of the white Methodist Church will speak for us at night. The choirs of Salem and Friendship Churches will render music.

"GREATEST TONIC ON EARTH," SAYS DOCTOR

Dr. E. L. Sims, of Houston, Explains Why He Prefers Sul-Ferro-Sol to All Other Forms of Iron.

"The trouble with most forms of Iron is that it never enters the system at all," said Dr. Sims.

"While some doctors," continued Dr. Sims, "even prescribe Iron fillings in an effort to get a form of Iron that the system will take up, I find most forms of Iron to be very unreliable. It is an excellent tonic when once accepted by the system, but getting it into the blood is the hard job.

"I find that Sul-Ferro-Sol offers a form of Iron that is acceptable to everybody, and in my opinion it is the greatest tonic that we have today."

Could the Doctor have said more?

The use of Sul-Ferro-Sol is highly recommended to those in need of a general tonic. For creating a good appetite, and reconstructing a run down condition—Sul-Ferro-Sol—Always.

TIME EXTENDED FOR REGISTERING OF DOGS

You now have Until First of March to Register your Dogs.

Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee has received the following letter from the State Tax Commission, in regard to the registration of dogs:

"Owing to the delay that we are experiencing in getting the necessary tags for carrying out the dog registration law, the State Tax Commission hereby directs that no person be charged with a double tax on dogs until after the first of March, 1920. Due notice to this effect should be given by Circuit Clerks. After March 1st, we direct that the double fee be charged and collected as the law in all respects be duly enforced. It is the purpose of this commission to see that this law is rigidly enforced and all officials who are charged with any duty in connection with its enforcement will be held to a strict accountability. The extension of the date of delinquency under this law is caused solely by the failure to secure the necessary supplies for the administration of the law."

CANE CREEK

Dear Editor:

Please allow me space to say a few words in regard to this place.

Health of this community is good. Everybody enjoyed Christmas fine, because the weather was so beautiful.

Our school is progressing fine at this time. Prof. H. W. Lowery is our teacher and we sure have a fine teacher too.

We are very sorry that we lost one of our school mates during Christmas, Miss Gorvis Stevens, who got married to Mr. Jean Smitherman. We hope for them a long and happy life.

Our box supper Saturday night, December 20, was fine; everybody enjoyed themselves fine. On account of the weather being so bad we did not have as large a crowd as we most always do.

Prof. and Mrs. H. W. Lowery spent Christmas in Clanton.

Misses Lillie Mae Weldon, Bertha Giles, Drenda Hadnot, Pearl Robinson and Sarah Lambert pent Sunday with Miss Flora Williams, and reported a nice time.

Miss Pearl Giles spent Saturday night with Miss Ada Giles.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Giles and Mary Killgore spent Christmas in Birmingham.

Mr. Oscar Giles, who is at work at Tennessee spent Saturday night with home folks, and went back Sunday afternoon to take up his work again.

Mr. Monroe Giles is at work in the steel plant at Attalla, Ala.

Mr. Walter Fiquett came home on a visit.

R. J. Williams of Maplesville was here Tuesday. He came to bring the returns from his election precinct.

BACK ACHED ALL THE TIME SAYS WELL KNOWN MAN

To all who are troubled with the twisting, dragging pains of rheumatism, or the distressing, painful symptoms of kidney disorders, here is a message from a fellow-sufferer that will carry its own lesson.

"For a number of years I have suffered from rheumatism and awful pains in my back and limbs. Sometimes it seemed I could not keep at work for those terrible pains. My appetite fell off, I didn't sleep well, and was bothered with constipation very much. Recently my joints and hands began to swell up and were very painful, and my muscles ached. I had about decided that I couldn't ever get straight again, as everything I had tried failed. A friend asked me one day why I didn't give Dreco a trial, as it was working wonders with many people. I bought a bottle, and it helped so much I got the second, and it is truly wonderful the good it has done me. The swelling is all gone and the pains have left me. My appetite has returned; I sleep sound, and am entirely relieved of constipation. Dreco has surely helped me when other things have failed, and I don't hesitate to speak a good word for it."

Dreco is a combination of juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and berries which act directly upon the liver, kidneys, bladder, stomach and blood, and banishes from the system all other ailments, such as rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, nervousness, headaches, loss of appetite, indigestion, gas on the stomach, eczema, skin eruptions, boils, chilblains and constipation, when given a fair trial.

THE NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

No product can be bigger than the brain that evolves it. No other brain in the world today has the inventive ability of Edison's. That fact alone is sufficient proof of the absolute superiority of the Amberola.

But the Amberola can quickly and easily prove its own superiority. Its tone—oh, what a revelation, compared to metallic "talking machines" and shrill-sounding phonographs! None but Edison could work that miracle of tone.

Then the Amberol Records, made for the Amberola alone! They are practically unbreakable and everlasting—what a contrast to the costly fragileness of other phonograph records.

And for range of music—the widest in the world—all the best, all the greatest, all the latest. An endless feast of fascinating melody.

Yet the biggest surprise of all is the price! This wonder phonograph costs less than inferior competitors! There is not a single draw-back to your owning an Amberola right now!

Don't listen to the claims of other manufacturers—listen to their machines. Then come in and compare the matchless tone of the Amberola. Edison's wizardry will win you every time.

We'll expect you in today—now don't forget.

FREE Trial Offer

We will place an Amberola in your home for 3 Days' Trial, which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days, if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

BACK ACHED ALL THE TIME SAYS WELL KNOWN MAN

To all who are troubled with the twisting, dragging pains of rheumatism, or the distressing, painful symptoms of kidney disorders, here is a message from a fellow-sufferer that will carry its own cheer.

"A number of years I have suffered with rheumatism and awful pains in my back and limbs. Sometimes it seemed I could not keep at work for those terrible pains. My appetite fell off, I didn't sleep well and was bothered with constipation very much. Recently my joints and hands began to swell up and were very painful, and my muscles ached. I had decided that I couldn't ever get well again, as everything I had tried failed. A friend asked me one day why I didn't give Dreco a trial, as it was doing wonders with many people. I got a bottle, and it helped so much I bought a second, and it is truly wonderful the good it has done me. The swelling is gone and the pains have left me. My appetite has returned; I sleep sound, and am entirely relieved of constipation. Dreco surely helped me when other remedies failed, and I don't hesitate to say a good word for it."

Dreco is a combination of juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and berries which act directly on the liver, kidneys, bladder, stomach and bowels, banishes from the system ailments such as rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, nervousness, headache, indigestion, gas on stomach, eczema, skin eruptions, dizziness and constipation,—when due to torpid liver.

UPCHURCH DRUG CO., Clanton.

A vast amount of work now remains to be done which the intervention of war has necessarily delayed and accumulated, and the result is that * * * * very large capital expenditures ought to be made to make up for the interruptions inevitably due to the war, and to prepare the railroads to serve adequately the increased traffic throughout the country.

WALKER D. HINES,
Director General of Railroads.

Work more—
Produce more—
Save more—

But we can't continue increasing our production unless we continue increasing our railroad facilities.

The farms, mines and factories cannot increase their output beyond the capacity of the railroads to haul their products.

Railroads are now near the peak of their carrying capacity.

Without railroad expansion—more engines, more cars, more tracks, more terminals—there can be little increase in production.

But this country of ours is going to keep right on growing—and the railroads must grow with it.

To command in the investment markets the flow of new capital to expand railroad facilities—and so increase production—there must be public confidence in the future earning power of railroads.

The nation's business can grow only as fast as the railroads grow.

This advertisement is published by the Association of Railway Executives.

Those desiring information concerning the railroad situation may obtain literature by writing to the Association of Railway Executives, 61 Broadway, New York.

NIGHTFALL.

The day dies,
The last faint ember of the setting sun
Goes out; and long dark night come on apace.
A stillness wraps the world in solemn thought,
No song of bird, no rustle of the breeze
Disturbs the secret silence of the hours.
On rapid wing a solitary dove
Pursues her lonely and belated flight
To eastward skies o'er cast with leaden clouds.
So white, so sad, so lost in such a sky!
Her course is straight and swift as an arrow's flight—
A star peeps out and night is on the world.

WEST CHILTON

Happy new year to the entire Banner force.

Had a good singing the afternoon of the 21st, the best afternoon singing in quite a while.

Mrs. Howard and Miss Larkin had a school concert and Christmas Tree at Freeman the night of the 19th. It was a most excellently constructed program, largely attended, but owing to so much noise in the audience, the beauty and enjoyment of the occasion was somewhat marred, so reported.

Mrs. McGee of Florida is visiting her grand parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gentry.

Mr. Ed Smitherman of Adams visited here during the holidays.

Mr. Manly Atchison and Miss Leola Scott attended the Christmas tree at Randolph the night of the 24th.

Miss Mae Waldrup has gone on an extended visit to friends in Bessemer Since leaving it is reported in the daily papers that she is married to Mr. J. Henry Posey of Adamsville.

Mis Fanny Merchant of Birmingham visited her father's family here Christmas. Several of our boys attended the Christmas tree at Randolph the night of the 24th.

Mr. Lum Pate of Adams visited his mother here Christmas.

Thomas Waldrup went to Birmingham the 23rd returning on Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Waldrup of Randolph visited here on the 26th.

Dr. Johnson was called to visit Mr. W. R. Redden the 24th, who is now better.

Z. J. Jones visited friends at Randolph the 26th.

Allen D. Mahan has purchased a car load of mules.

Mrs. Bell Waldrup of Rocky Mount is visiting her husband's people here. She will later join her husband in Baldwin County, where he has recently located.

As we start over the untried way of the New Year in pursuit of happiness, experience justifies us in saying one of the best ways to obtain it is due appreciation of your friends. Do not forget them. As time rolls on the memory of friends and loved ones will come back to you. Did you appreciate them fully, if so, your memory will be pleasant while you long for their presence again, if not regret will haunt you. Let parents and children duly appreciate each other. While the old year sleeps with its predecessors it brings us another year nearer the Golden Age.

THANKS

The Pastor of Thorsby Baptist Church, Rev. W. P. Lowery, and family, wish to thank the good people of Thorsby for their kindness to them on the night of the 23rd. There were about twenty-six of the ones who brought lots of good eatables and other things. They were all indeed nice, and we can never forget you for it. Sincerely,

W. P. LOWERY.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time...

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. ———about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles...After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 24

DR. MAYE TO PREACH NEXT SUNDAY ON SPECIAL SUBJECT

Dr. E. C. Maye is going to run a big double header at the Clanton Methodist Church next Sunday. His subject will deal with the taking of inventories. He says the merchants are now taking stock of their worldly goods, and he will try to help them next Sunday and Sunday night to take stock of their spiritual goods.

These two sermons will be particularly valuable and appropriate at this time of the new year, when we are all starting out on another twelve months of activity. Let us hear Dr. Maye next Sunday and take stock of our spiritual things as well as our temporal possessions.

Dr. G. R. Stone of the Soldiers Home came up to Clanton Tuesday to bring the returns of the election from the Mt. Creek box.

SCHOOLS OF STATE WILL OBSERVE GOOD ROADS DAY

Good Roads instruction in the public schools will be revived this year for all of the pupils will be taught how to build, enjoy and appreciate dependable highways. This will be accomplished with two or three weeks of class work on the subject, culminating in Good Roads Day, Friday, January 30th.

The State department of education has prepared and distributed to all of the schools an elaborate bulletin covering many features of highway construction and maintenance, taken from authorative sources, and presented in such form as to adopt the various lessons to the different years and grades.

A valuable collection of literature on the subject of good roads has been compiled with great care for reading and recitation in connection with the lesson series, making the bulletin one of the most interesting publications of its kind ever issued in Alabama, as a public document.

The program for observance of Good Roads Day in the schools is merely suggestive, and will be varied to accord with local conditions and the ideas of the instructors. On January 30 pupils and patron are expected to gather at the schools and the exercises will begin with the singing of "America." A selected chapter from the Bible will be read and there will be speeches, dialogues, readings, a debate and a play by the pupils. One address, limited to fifteen minutes, will be made by a visitor, and the day closes with a social hour.

State Superintendent of Education Spright Dowell, in a "Foreword," says "In view of the fact that the good roads bond issue is to be voted on February 16, and because of the very practical bearing that good roads have upon good schools, it seems entirely proper to designate January 30th as Good Road Day for the State, to bring vividly before the people the need for improving our highways."

SIMS REBUKE TO DANIELS

In his now famous letter to Secretary Daniels, Admiral Sims said: "The commanding officer of a vessel that is sunk by a submarine should not receive the same reward as the commanding officer of a vessel which sinks a submarine." Direct and fitting rebuke for Mr. Daniels who bestowed the distinguished service medal on his nephew Lieut. David Worth Bagley, whose ship was lost during the war, while officers whose ships assisted in clearing the high seas of the enemy submarines go on "unhonored and unsung."

EGYPT'S SLEEP IS RESTLESS

The National Geographic Society terms egypt "a perennial Rip Van Winkle of history." And since listening to Mr. Wilson's principles of self determination Egypt appears to be in fair way for twenty years of ignorance.

OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY

Washington, D. C., November 14, 1919.

WHEREAS, By satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that in the Town of Clanton, in the County of Chilton, and the State of Alabama, has complied with all the provisions of the Statutes of the United States, required to be complied with before an association shall be authorized to commence the business of banking;

The First National Bank of Clanton

NOW THEREFORE, I, Thomas P. Kane, Acting Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CLANTON, in the Town of Clanton, in the County of Chilton, and the State of Alabama, is authorized to commence the business of banking, as provided in Section Fifty one hundred and sixty nine, of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness my hand and seal of office, this fourteenth day of November, 1919.

T. P. KANE,

[Seal] Acting Comptroller of the Currency.

CLANTON READING CIRCLE BE IN SESSION HERE SOON

January 30th, 1920, at the County High School, 9:00 to 9:30.

I.—What kind of educational results are most valued by the advocates of culture? How would they have the studies organized for the purpose? What specific kinds of educational results are most valued by practical minded men? Upon what basis would they choose the materials that are to make up the study?—Mr. Arthur J. Mims.

II.—Draw up a list of science topics that are of practical value in the care of health, gardening, cooking or other fields of practical responsibility. What topics are of no practical use to most people?—C. B. Hughes.

III.—What impels pupils to play? How are they educated by their play? Is there any relation between the kind of play of children as promoted by instinct and the lives they are to lead as men and women? What are some of the school studies that may be regarded as intellectual play? How can play be introduced into drill work of spelling, arithmetic, etc?—Mr. H. L. Davis.

IV.—What is the essential difference between play and work? What are some of the educational values in vocational training of having the boy work half time in an actual trade shop and half time in school? Are there any proper activities which belong neither to the play type nor the work type?—Mr. J. L. Johnson.

VI.—Disscuss fully the "Place of Ideas in Work Experience."—Miss Effie Askins.

VII.—What should the schools do by way of preparing the student for properly performing home and community activities? How can the school supervise these activities?—W. E. Martin.

VIII.—Song.

IX.—What are some of the general purposes of education as our profession use to enumerate them? Why were these purposes so useless for the actual day by day directions? Why must the curriculum-maker take into account both the directed and undirected experience of children? Which is the most important in the total education of the child?—Mr. J. L. Wilson.

X.—Recess.

XI.—How can one discover the words which people in general should know how to spell and which therefore should be included in the spelling course? How is one to discover the words to which large attention should be given in teaching, and those which can mainly be left undirected?—Mr. H. W. Lowery.

XII.—Explain a method of discovering what people actually need to know and to be able to do in the field of arithmetic. Why is the problem of discovering the particular purpose of history, literature and geography so much more difficult than arithmetic or spelling? After one has discovered all of the things actually needed, how are teachers to decide as to the things upon which large emphasis is to be placed, and the things which need not be given very much attention?—Mr. H. G. Carter.

XIII.—Why should there be so strong a prejudice against including so useful a thing in public schools as vocational training? What are the purposes of occupational training? What part has education to play in the process of making less desirable occupations more attractive and socially satisfying? How must the schools be the primary agencies of social progress in the occupational field?—Miss Annie Gragg.

XIV.—Discuss "Social Aspects of Occupational Training."—Mr. C. M. Baker.

Noon.

II.—What are some of the things that our nation as a nation has been doing for promoting the welfare of those who make it up? What stories of national activity ought to be presented fully?—Mrs. Leon Brown.

III.—Discuss "Moral and Religious Education."—Mr. J. W. Moore.

IV.—Explain the use of the dictionary. When should pupils begin to use it?—Mr. J. Z. Mims.

ATTENTION COTTON GROWERS

Great Britain announces that she is ready to release American owned goods seized during the war upon the establishment of their American ownership at the time the goods were shipped. Praise be! Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, can now recover the Georgia cotton consigned to Germany.

ENLIST MILLION MEMBERS IS COTTON GROWERS PLAN

AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION PASSES INTO NEW YEAR OF 1920 FLUSHED WITH VICTORY

The slogan of the American Cotton Association during the summer and fall months of 1919, was for the organization of the State Divisions Counties and Parishes of the various Cotton growing States. We close the year of 1919 with every State Division fully organized under the banner and leadership of the American Cotton Association, and a very large number of the 800 cotton growing counties officered and a big membership enrolled. The accomplishment of a concrete organization in the States and Counties during so short a period has been the result of tremendous activities on the part of the splendid loyal and patriotic men who have been at the head of the movement in each State. It further emphasizes the fact that the plans and purposes of the American Cotton Association have touched a responsive cord in the hearts of the people of the South, and in its general endorsement the active co-operation and support of the farmers, bankers, merchants and their allied business interests is assured for the future. The machinery of the Association is complete in every State from Virginia to Texas, Arizona and California. The fair and reasonable prices for spot cotton advocated by the Association has been realized to date by the cotton growers in the face of the most desperate efforts made to beat down prices, and adverse world conditions ever before known in the cotton trade of the South.

The Association passes into the New Year of 1920 flushed with victory and gaining additional strength with the decline of each day's sun. The slogan for 1920 must be the enrollment of One Million Members, active, patriotic and loyal. The association must have upon the membership rolls of the various States, 6,000 Southern Bankers, 100,000 merchants, 20,000 ginners, 10,000 warehousemen, 800,000 farmers and 50,000 business and professional men in other allied avocations. The various State Divisions will enter cheerfully into the contest to secure 100 per cent success in the great membership drive for 1920. It has been conclusively proven in numerous tests already made that every class of the Association membership is readily enrolled when the opportunity is properly given. This opportunity will be given in every City, Town and hamlet, and in every rural home throughout the length and breadth of the cotton growing area in this country during the year of 1920. The Association must have an average of one thousand members in each one of the eight hundred cotton growing counties. Many of the counties have already exceeded this number, and in some cases have more than doubled it. There must be a fixed and definite goal to work for. One Million Members is to be the slogan. With one million members the American Cotton Association can safely go forward to success for the solution of its great economic problems relating to cotton and agriculture, bringing to Southern farmers prosperity and happiness, and to the whole South progress and undiminishing development along all lines of industrial, commercial and financial endeavor.

Let the Slogan for 1920 be: ONE MILLION MEMBERS—and win it.

Don't wait for the canvassers in your County to call on you, but send us your application for membership immediately to State Headquarters addressed to W. R. Green, Secretary. You can determine the amount of your dues, which should be on a basis of 25c. on each bale of cotton produced in 1917 or 25c. per thousand invested in your business, provided you raised over twelve bales of cotton or have over $12,000 invested in your business. If less than these amounts the minimum membership fee is $3.00 per annum.

HUMBUGING THE YELLOW MAN

P. T. Barnum, Jr., son of the circus man who originated the expression, "the public loves to be humbugged," has presented President Wilson with a pair of Chinese chow dogs. It has been suggested that the dogs be named Shantung and Kiao-chu to commemorate the double-crossing which Mr. Wilson practiced on our celestial ally.

SYMPATHY FOR LABOR IN FAR EAST

Japan is also having an experience with strikes, no less than 421 having broken out in her various industries up to the end of October. Surely Japanese labor by this time must have succeeded in raising the wage level to all of fifty cents a day of ten hours work.

W. W. Hand of Deatsville spent Friday night with relatives in Clanton.

FREE SPRINGS.

Times are unsettled in this community; things are uncertain. Indecision and restlessness noticeable here as well as in the large cities. (Your humble scribbler frequents not the big cities, but anyone with half an eye can see.)

Quite a few families around here have moved and are moving again. Mr. Ab and Shep Barnett move from here out about Wilton about two months ago, and they are ready to move again. Graham Sims moved to Hatcher's a month ago, and now he is moved away. Numan Crumpton moved to Newt Ervin's last week, but he is now gone from there. Marion and Jim Evans have moved to W. H. Splawn's. Henry Thacker has gone to the old Alvis place and Major Foshee is on the old Will Brown place.

Miss Rosa White was the guest of Mis Edna Foshee Sunday.

We are without a school again this winter and I can't think of anything mean enough to say about it.

The bridge at the Hatcher place went with the flood and has not been rebuilt.

There was no Christmas tree at Free Springs, but we heard of one at an adjacent church where the forbidden fluid flowed freely and the erstwhile sanctuary lapsed into a veritable pandemonium.

All were delighted with the Christmas edition of the Banner.

Come to Free Springs every second Sunday and hear the beloved pastor, Rev. W. E. Skelton, tell "the glad tidings of great joy."

HELPING THE TRUSTS.

Writing in the "Protectionist," Edgar J. Dwyer of New Jersey recalls the fact that after the second election of Cleveland, the Democrats enacted the Wilson-German tariff law to "bust the trusts," yet during that disastrous administration there were 75,000 business failures and not one prominent trust among them. On the contrary, it pointed out that during the depression the so-called trusts were able to buy out their weak competitors at depression prices. The Democrats, therefore, helped rather than hurt the trusts. The Democratic party has many times made great promises of performances for the benefit of the "common people" but the performances have never been fulfilled. The chief promise on which the Wilson administration came into power in 1912 was reduction of the cost of living, but there has not been a day since the first Wilson inauguration when the cost of living has been lower than it was bfore. The cost of living went up even before the war began.

CLANTON WILL HAVE POWER FROM RIVER

For several months we have been hearing varied, and in many cases conflicting rumors as to the coming of electric power from Lock 12 to Clanton. You could find one fellow who knew all about it and told the story one way; then you would directly meet another wise guy who knew the inside of the thing and he would up and tell you something all to the contrary. But this week The Union-Banner carries to the people the gratifying assurance that we are to have "juice" from Lock 12 in a few more months. This assurance is none less than the official ordinances and documents of the Town Council concerning the matter.

We are glad that persistent efforts on the part of some of our good citizens has held out till we can see their efforts taking the form of actual operations of the Alabama Power Company in Clanton. This is one of the first steps in the brilliant future that lies before our city.

Some cities are born prosperous; others achieve prosperity; and others have prosperity thrust upon them. Clanton has always been in the latter class. We have had some two or three spells of progress and prosprity thrust upon us in the past. There is going to be a still bigger progress and prosperity thrust upon us in the future. The coming of electric power from Lock 12 is the first impulse of the thrust. First thins you know some body will thrust a building boom on us and we will have added to our city a number of fine store and office buildings. Along with those too will come some more residences which are badly needed now. Then for all we know somebody will come along and make us provide a location for a cotton factory or some other industry.

Step by step, the way will be cleared for Clanton to move on down the avenue of progress. There are stumbling blocks in the way, but thanks to the stern hand of fate and father time, with his grass blade, those obstructions cannot stay in the way forever.

You can place a safe bet on the future of Clanton. She is bound to come to the front.

ARTIFICIAL DEPTH FOR DEMO PLATFORMS

Dr. Louis Pech of France, has invented the concave motion picture screen that gives the effect of a third dimension — an appearance of thickness or depth. What a splendid medium by which to visualize Democratic party platforms, which have length interminable, breadth impracticable, but depth none at all.

BILL MISSED IT.

Judge Brandon made one of his usual good speeches at the courthouse in Clanton on New Years night. He paid appropriate tribute to the old year just passed, voicing his disappointments at what 1919 had failed to bring to the world (we suppose he meant the league of nations) and expressing his thanks for the blessings that have been strewn along our pathway.

All in all, Bill's speech was a fine one, as all of his addresses are masterpieces in a way, but he sure did make one bad blunder when he said that he was of the firm conviction that the hand of the Almighty had been laid on the head of Woodrow Wilson to lead the people of the world out of darkness into light. Bill missed it in that statement. It is not the hand of the Almighty that has been laid on the head of Woodrow. It is the hand of Pope Benedict of Rome. And the object of this laying on of hands was not to bring the people of the world out of darkness into light, but to lead them from darkness into utter everlasting night—the hopeless night and blackness of Romanism. That's the hand that has been laid on Woodrow's head and that is the purpose of the laying on. We don't think the Pope could have laid his hand on the head of anyone who would have served him any better than Wilson has served him.

We don't know why Bill Brandon mistook the hand of Benedict for the hand of the Almighty. It looks to us like there is enough difference between the two to make it impossible to mistake one for the other.

The League of Nations has been defeated in the Senate now for over a month, and so far as we can learn the heart of the world has not broken yet. The only heart that is broken is the one that stays in the White House at Washington and passes off as the President of the United States.

The good year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and nineteen failed to bring the United States a league of nations and we hope that nineteen hundred and twenty will go out with the same delinquency charged against it.

THE NEW HARDWARE STORE.

The newest thing in Clanton is the Chilton Hardware Company, located in the Arthur Johnson Building next to Will Kemp's, and their store is one of the niftiest we have ever seen. The business is under the management of Mr. Oscar W. Jones, one of Clanton's most promising young business men. He is well known in trade circles of Chilton County , having been connected with the Clanton Mercantile Company for severtl years past. He has many friends here who will be glad to see him in his new place.

We predict a successful career for this new institution.

LIMITED NUMBER OF

Vacant Lots in Clanton

And Houses to put on Them

I have a limited number of vacant lots in Clanton that are very desirable for choice residences. And I have 32 good houses in two different locations that can be easily wrecked and placed on these lots. By this combination of houses and lots I can show you where you can provide a splendid residence in Clanton at a saving of 50 per cent of the cost of buying other lots and building houses.

I can sell you a lot and a house to put on it cheaper than you can get the lot from anyone else in Clanton.

If you are interested in buying property in Clanton I suggest that you see me and let me show you the figures on my proposition before buying from anybody else. You will find that it will be a great saving of money to you.

To those of limited means, I can arrange to sell this property and houses on terms of 50 per cent cash and 50 per cent on time.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF ALABAMA.
Executive Department.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at its regular session in the year 1919, has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session;

AND WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on, to-wit: Monday, February 16th, 1920, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Article XX. Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges in this State serviceable for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five million ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issuance, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of ten dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined, subject to the approval of the Governor by the Highway Commission, who shall also be Highway Bond Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission together with the approval of the Governor thereto, reduced to writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him; that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, attested by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the fac simile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed in lieu of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment thereof the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged that the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. B.—That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, to place sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund, and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges continuously in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicle privilege license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for their maturity and the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that county roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National Government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the county and national government, that said State Highway, roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department, and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended as the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C.—That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department, shall locate, construct and maintain, the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held, shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments; said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 93 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 31st day of October, 1919.

Contract for Electric Power, ALABAMA POWER COMPANY, Clanton Operations.—Retail Rates.

AGREEMENT made this the..... day of.....1920, between Alabama Power Company, hereinafter called the Company, and the City of Clanton, a municipal corporation, hereinafter called the Consumer.

In consideration of the mutual agreements hereinafter contained, it is agreed:

FIRST: That during the term of five years from the beginning of service (not later than the 1st day of April, 1920) and thereafter until the expiration of at least thirty (30) days' written notice to either party of intention to terminate this agreement, the Company shall maintain electric power ready for delivery to the Consumer in the form of approximately sixty (60) cycles, 3 phase, alternating current at a potential of approximately 110 volts, at a division switch located at City's Pumping Plant in Chilton County, Alabama, for the operation of Consumer's Pumping Plant, a total of 7½ horsepower rated capacity, for which the Consumer agrees to pay the following rates:

For the first 200 kilowatt hours or less, per month, 7 cents per kilowatt hour.

For the next 300 kilowatt hours or less, per month, 3½ cents per kilowatt hour.

All over 500 kilowatt hours, per month, 2 cents per kilowatt hour.

In consideration of the Company's readiness to furnish such service the Consumer guarantees to the Company a minimum monthly payment of $1.50 per horsepower for the first ten (10) horsepower; $1.00 per horsepower for the next forty (40) horsepower and for all installations above fifty (50) horsepower, $1.00 per horsepower whether energy to that amount has been used or not. Such minimum payment shall be based upon the total rated capacity of the motors connected.

All bills for electric energy in excess of the minimum payment herein provided for shall be subject to a discount of ten per cent. (10 per cent) if paid at the Company's office within ten (10) days after the day on which the bill is rendered.

SECOND: Bills shall be rendered monthly and if not paid at the Company's office within ten (10) days the Company may upon five (5) days' written notice suspend service, and if not paid within a further period of fifteen (15) days the Company may at its option, treat this agreement as cancelled and at an end, whereupon all rights of the Consumer hereunder shall cease.

THIRD: The Consumer shall notify the Company in writing at least thirty (30) days before making any increase in the connected equipment utilizing the service hereunder.

FOURTH: The Consumer shall not use any electric power other than that furnished hereunder, or any other power where that furnished hereunder has once been used, without first obtaining the written consent of the Company; nor shall the Consumer sell or dispose of any power furnished hereunder, or which may be generated directly or indirectly therefrom.

FIFTH: All transformers, switches, machinery and materials up to and including the division switch, and all the Company's meters wherever placed, shall be supplied, maintained and owned by the Company, and shall at all times be subject to its inspection, repair and alteration, and removable at its option; and the Consumer shall supply without charge suitable buildings and accommodations therefor. Everything beyond the division switch shall be supplied, maintained and operated by the Consumer, and shall be subject at all times to the inspection, testing and approval of the Company in so far as the same may in any way affect the safe, economical and successful operation of the Company and no change which might affect such operation shall be made without its approval.

The Consumer shall use reasonable diligence to protect the property of the Company, and shall reimburse the Company for injury or damage suffered by it resulting from defects beyond the division switch, or from the negligence of the Consumer, and shall indemnify it against liability for injury or damage so suffered by third parties; and except as herein provided, the Company shall not be liable for any accident, damage or injury to any person or property whatsoever arising out of or in any way connected with the service furnished or to be furnished hereunder.

The Consumer shall allow the Company free access to the Consumer's premises at all reasonable hours for the purpose of examining, repairing or removing its transformers, meters, switches, machinery, materials, or

The World's Greatest Phonograph Value

EDISON'S NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

Quick! Read this through and grasp this extraordinary opportunity today! This remarkable offer is the result of Mr. Edison's expressed wish to see a phonograph in every home in the U. S. A.

He has given his consent to this Free Trial of the Amberola in your home. There are absolutely no "strings" to this offer. You do not have to pay or promise to pay one cent in connection with this Free Trial. You are not placed under the slightest obligation.

Come to our store today or tomorrow, pick out your Amberola and a dozen Amberol Records. We will deliver them promptly to your home. Let the Amberola entertain you for three days—ample time for careful judgment and comparison. At the end of the three days' Free Trial if you do not want the Amberola we will call for it—and thank you for giving the Amberola this trial. If you do want it, we will arrange terms of payment to suit you.

How can Amberola dealers afford to give these Free Trials? Because in the overwhelming majority of these Free Trials, people never want to part with the Amberola! Edison's great inventive brain has made the Amberola so superior to ordinary phonographs and "talking machines" that in those three days of Free Trial it sings its way into peoples' hearts and homes forever!

Numbers of people will instantly avail themselves of this Free Trial offer. If you do not act at once we may have to put you on a waiting list. So let us hear from you right away!

TENNESSEE LADY RUN-DOWN

After severe illness, overwork, worry, grief, accidents, etc., the greatest need of the weakened system is a tonic that gives quick, dependable strength. In such cases, try Ziron Iron Tonic.

Ziron is a pleasant medicine, having the strengthening effects of iron with other valuable building ingredients. Read what Mrs. Emma Manus, of Lascassas, Tenn., says about it:

"I was weak and run-down, not able to do my work. My trouble was all in the side of my head. I heard of Ziron and got a bottle, and I am glad to say it has done me more good than anything. Ziron is a splendid tonic."

Try Ziron. It may be just the medicine you need. Ziron contains no habit-forming drugs. It is a safe, reliable tonic good for children, men and women.

Sold by druggists on a money-back guarantee.

Don't You Forget It.

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digetion. They contain no pepsin or other digetive ferment but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally.

CAN'T REMEMBER WHEN I'VE FELT QUITE SO WELL

Am Full of Energy and Vitality; Have Fine Appetite; Sleep Sound; Constipation Overcome; Stomach Right Again, Since Taking Dreco.

When a person has been half sick, feeling dull, tired and "no account," then gets a medicine that puts new energy and vim into his every-day life, he feels like letting others know about it. That's how this man feels. He is Mr. D. T. Carter of 405 Pine street, Anniston, Ala.

"For years I've suffered awful pains in my back from deranged kidneys. Sometimes I'd have to get up five or six times during the night. I also had headaches and was badly constipated, and my food seemed to ferment in my stomach and form sour gas, which caused much uneasiness and distress. I was very dizzy at times and had about lost my appetite. I had tried many different medicines, but none helped me, and I'd given up all hope of ever getting well again. I heard so much about Dreco I bought a bottle, and right from the start it did me good. It soothed my stomach and stopped the gas; put a stop to the constipation and headaches, also the dizziness, and my appetite got better every day. The pains in my back and kidneys have been entirely relieved, and now I go to bed and sleep all night long, and never have to get up during the night as I formerly did."

Dreco is made of the juices and extracts of many herbal plants, which act on the kidneys, liver, bladder, stomach and blood, and corrects many troubles, such as gas on the stomach, constipation, weakness, poor appetite, nervousness, headaches, biliousness, catarrh, rheumatism, and such blood disorders as eczema, pimples, blotches, boils and eruptions. The first bottle usually shows splendid results, and a full treatment brings permanent results.

Watch the Little Pimples; They are Nature's Warning

Unsightly and Disfiguring Signals of Bad Blood

Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire.

They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is one of the greatest vegetable compounds known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin.

Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, get rid of those unsightly, disfiguring pimples, and other skin irritations. It will cleanse your blood thoroughly. For special medical advice free, address Medical Director, 41 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Keep Well

Do not allow the poisons of undigested food to accumulate in your bowels, where they are absorbed into your system. Indigestion, constipation, headache, bad blood, and numerous other troubles are bound to follow. Keep your system clean, as thousands of others do, by taking an occasional dose of the old, reliable, vegetable, family liver medicine.

Thedford's

Black-Draught

Mrs. W. F. Pickle, of Rising Fawn, Ga., writes: "We have used Thedford's Black-Draught as a family medicine. My mother-in-law could not take calomel as it seemed too strong for her, so she used Black-Draught as a mild laxative and liver regulator . . . We use it in the family and believe it is the best medicine for the liver made." Try it. Insist on the genuine—Thedford's. 25c a package. E-75

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Beyond any disputing, the largest and most constructive gathering of the colored people, met at Salem Church for the Celebration of Emancipation Day on January 1st.

Long before the time set for the beginning of the morning services, scores of people could be seen winding their way towards the church. At 11:30 sharp the services began with prayer meeting, after which the National Anthem was sung. Pastor Mixon read a portion of the 139 Psalm and then the meeting was opened to any who wanted to speak on anything fitting to the occasion. Several persons spoke on the providence of God in sparing them to see the 1st day of the New Year, and also of their using Abraham Lincoln and the abolitionists of the North as instruments in bringing about the emancipation of their fore-fathers.

Uncle Junio who came up through slavery, depicted that institution in a clear and vivid manner.

The night services began promptly at 7:00 o'clock, with Mrs. Bedsoe and Miss Mamie Sewell, one of our 6th grade girls leading the prayer meeting. To our regret Dr. E. C. Maye was prevented from attending on account of the illness of his wife.

Prof. Rhodes of Verbena, Miss Pearl Wright and Willie Draper of Clanton read excellent papers quoting from statistics the marvelous growth of the negro since 1863. The proceeds of the meeting went to help in the erection of our school.

"I have been at home from school to spend the Xmas. While here I visited the public school on the 30th and found Prof. Colley, the principal, doing a great work, which we are glad to know is going on at home. They have begun building a school house for colored children--something that is greatly needed in this town.

On the 31st we visited Miss Young's school at Hopewell on the edge of Clanton. We found her doing excellent work."

We are always glad for the visits of these ex-students, and their kind words of appreciation towards us.

The Sunday School at Salem Church was well attended on January 4. Everybody enjoyed how the leson was taught and reviewed.

AN ORDINANCE

Granting an Electric Franchise to Coosa Electric Company, its Successors and Assigns, in the City of Clanton, Alabama.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Clanton, Alabama, as follows:

Section 1. In consideration of the benefits that will accrue to said City of Clanton and the inhabitants thereof, Coosa Electric Company, its successors and assigns, hereinafter referred to as the Grantee, is hereby given and vested with the right, authority, easement, privilege and franchise to construct, erect, suspend, install, renew, repair, maintain, operate and conduct in said City of Clanton a plant or plants and system for the manufacture of electric current for all purposes whatsoever.

Section 2. The said Grantee is hereby further given and vested with the right, authority, easement, privilege and franchise to construct, erect, suspend, install, renew, repair, maintain, operate and conduct in said City of Clanton a system of poles, towers, conduits, cables, conductors, transforming stations, fittings and all appliances or appurtenances necessary or desirable to the transmission, distribution, or sale of electric current for all purposes whatsoever in, over, under, along, upon and across all streets, avenues, alleys, ways, bridges, and public places in said City of Clanton, as they now exist or may hereafter be laid out or extended, together with the further right, privilege and franchise to construct, erect, suspend, install, renew, repair, maintain and operate such poles, towers, conduits, cables, wires, conductors, transforming stations, fittings, and all appliances and appurtenances necessary or desirable to the transmission within, unto, through, over and beyond said City, and furnishing, supplying and distributing to said City and to the inhabitants and corporations both within and beyond the limits thereof, electric energy for lighting, heating, power and all other purposes for which electric energy may be used now or hereafter, and for the purpose of extending its lines and furnishing electric current beyond the limits of said City of Clanton.

Section 3. The poles, towers, conduits, cables, conductors, transforming stations, fittings, appliances and appurtenances shall be so constructed as not to unreasonably interfere with the proper use of the streets, avenues, alleys, ways, bridges, and public places in said City, and shall be maintained in reasonably good condition and repair.

Section 4. Whenever the Grantee shall cause any opening or alteration to be made in any of the streets, avenues, alleys, ways, bridges or public places of said City, for the purpose of installing, maintaining, operating, or repairing any poles, towers, conduits, cables and other appliances, the work shall be completed within a reasonable time, and the Grantee shall upon the completion of such work restore such portion of the streets, avenues, alleys, ways, bridges or other public places to as good condition as it was before the opening or alteration was so made.

Section 5. The Grantee shall hold said City harmless from any and all liability or damages resulting from the negligence of the Grantee in the construction, maintenance, or operation of said poles, towers, conduits, wires, cables, and other appliances.

Section 6. The Grantee may, from time to time, declare, make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations as a condition for the sale or distribution by it of electric current to any person, firm or corporation.

Section 7. In the event the supply of electric energy should be interrupted or fail by reason of accident or otherwise beyond control of the Grantee, the Grantee shall restore the service within a reasonable time, and such interruption shall not constitute a breach of this franchise, nor shall the Grantee be liable for damages by reason of such interruption or failure.

Section 8. The Grantee shall install and maintain meters for measuring current, and shall have free access into the premises of the consumer, from time to time, for the purpose of reading, repairing, testing and maintaining the meters and appurtenances, and shall have the right to make a minimum charge of one dollar per month per meter for ervice furnished hereunder, whether electric current of that value is used or not. Such meters shall be furnished and maintained by the Grantee free of charge, and shall remain the property of the Grantee.

Section 9. The Grantee shall have the right to charge for electricity furnished by it for lighting purposes under this franchise at the following rates:

For the first 200 kilowatt hours, per month, 10c per kilowatt hour; for the next 300 kilowatt hours, per month, 7½c per kilowatt hour; for the next 500 kilowatt hours, per month, 5½c per kildwatt hour; for all over 1,000 kilowatt hours, per month 5c per kilowatt hour.

The Grantee shall not be required to furnish electricity to any person, firm or corporation until sataisfied of their financial responsibility and may require reasonable security to insure payment for electric energy to be furnished hereunder. All bills for electric energy used for lighting purposes shall be subject to a discount of 10 per cent, if paid at the office of the Grantee in said City within ten days after the date on which the bill is rendered, which discount shall not, however, reduce the net monthly bill below said minimum charge of one dollar.

Section 10. The rates charged for electric energy furnished hereunder shall at all times be subject to regulation and revision by the Alabama Public Service Commission, or other State Commission vested with such power.

Section 11. Wherever in this ordinance either the City or the Grantee is named or referred to, it shall be deemed to include the respective successor, successors or assigns of either, and all rights, privileges and obligations herein conferred shall bind and inure to the benefit of such uccessor, successors, or assigns of said City or of the Grantee.

Section 12. The Grantee, its successors or assigns, shall within ninety (90) days after the approval of this ordinance by the Mayor, file a written acceptance of the ordinance with the City Clerk.

Section 13. The Grantee shall pay the City Clerk the cost of publishing this ordinance, which publication shall be made in one issue of the Union-Banner, a newspaper of general circulation in and published within the limits of said City of Clanton.

Adopted and approved, this the 2nd day of January, 1920.

J. W. STANFIELD, Mayor.
V. J. HEARD,
City Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to approve the sale and conveyance by A. C. Wade, doing business under the firm name of Wade Electric Light and Power Company, of the property of a public utility consisting of an electric light and power plant and system in the City of Clanton, owned by him together with his franchises, contracts, good will and other assets of said public utility, to Coosa Electric Company, its successors and assigns."

Whereas, A. C. Wade, doing business under the firm name of Wade Electric Light and Power Company, owns the property of a public utility in the City of Clanton consisting of an electric light and power plant and system, together with certain franchises, contracts, good will and other assets of said public utility, and is supplying and selling electric light and power to the public of the City of Clanton; and

Whereas, the property of said public utility owned by the said A. C. Wade, doing business under the firm name of Wade Electric Light and Power Company, lies within and the franchises and public duties thereof relate to a single municipality, namely, the City of Clanton; and

Whereas, the Coosa Eleceric Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama and proposes to engage in the electric light and power business in the City of Clanton; and

Whereas, the said A. C. Wade, doing business under the firm name of Wade Electric Light and Power Company, and the said Coosa Eleceric Company have filed with this City Council their joint petition reciting the foregoing fact and praying for the approval of the sale and conveyance by the said A. C. Wade of the entire property of said public utility conisting of an electric light and power plant and system together with his franchises, contracts, good will and other assets to the said Coosa Electric Company.

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the City Council of Clanton, Alabama, as follows:

Section 1. That the said proposed sale and conveyance by A. C. Wade, doing business under the firm name of Wade Electric Light and Power Company, of the property of said public utility consisting of an electric light and power plant and system owned by the said A. C. Wade together with his franchises, contracts, good will and other assets to the said Coosa Electric Company is now determined and found by the City Council of Clanton to be consitent with the interests of the public; and the said proposed sale and conveyance be and the same is hereby approved, and when the instrument of conveyance is executed by the said A. C. Wade, the Mayor be and is hereby authorized and empowered for and in the name of said City of Clanton to endorse the approval of the said City Council of Clanton on the said instrument, which endorsement shall be attested by the City Clerk.

Adopted and apprived this the 2nd day of January, 1920.

J. W. STANFIELD, Mayor.
V. J. HEARD,
City Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance authorizing and directing the execution by the Mayor of a contract between the City of Clanton and Coosa Electric Company, it successors and assigns, for furnishing to said City electric lights for a period of ten (10) years.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Clanton, as follows:

Section 1. That the Mayor be and is hereby authorized, empowered and directed for and on behalf of the City of Clanton, to enter into a contract with Coosa Electric Company, its successors and assigns, the terms of which are herein set out and approved in all things by the City Council, to-wit:

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,]
CHILTON COUNTY,]

This agreement made and entered into on this the.....day of ..... 1920, by and between Coosa Electric Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns, hereinafter called the Company, and the City of Clanton a municipal corporation, hereinafter called the City:

WITNESSETH:

First: For and in consideration of the mutual agreements herein contained and the amount hereinafter agreed to be paid to the Company by the City, the Company hereby agrees for a period of ten (10) years from the beginning of service (not later than the 1st day of April, 1920), to furnish and maintain and furnish electric current for the following street lamps to be located at the places designated below at the following rates:

100-c.p., as follows:—2 Ave. S & 1 St; 1 Ave. S. & 1 St; 2 Ave. N & 1 St; 2 Ave. N & 3 St; 2 Ave. S & 4 St; 3 Ave. N & 5 St; 2 Ave. N. & 5 St; 4 Ave. N & 6 St; 3 Ave. N & 6 St; 2 Ave. N & 6 St; 4 Ave.N & 7 St; 2 Ave. N & 7 St; 2 Ave. N & R.R.; 4 Ave. N & 8 St; 2 Ave. N & 8 St; 4 Ave. N & 10 St; 2 Ave. N & 10 St; 4 Ave. N & 12 St; 2 Ave. N & West End; 1 Ave. S & 7 St.

80-c.p., as follows:—2 Ave. & Wade's Gin; 5 Ave. N & 10 St; 6 St. J. R. Mullins; 4 Ave. N. & 5 St; 1 St. and J. Gore's House.

Second: The City agrees to take and pay for the said 25 lamps at the rate of $675 per year, payable at the office of the Company in said city in equal monthly installments on or before the 10th day of the month following the month during which service was rendered.

Third: The Company further agrees to furnish and the City agrees to take from the Company and pay for such additional lamps as the City may need or require during the continuance of this contract at the following prices:

100-candle power Mazda Lamps, at $27.50 per lamp per year;

60-candle power Mazda Lamps, at $22.50 per lamp per year;

40-candle power Mazda Lamps, at $20.00 per lamp per year.

Each additional lamp ordered installed by the City shall immediately upon its installation become subject to all the terms and conditions of this contract.

Fourth:—It is further understood and agreed that any additional lamps ordered installed by the City shall be located at such places along the existing lines of the Company within the limits of its distribution system as the City may direct; but it is understood and agreed that no lamp shall be located more than five hundred (500) feet from the nearest mazda lamp circuit of the Company unless the actual cost of placing said lamp beyond the said five hundred (500) feet limit is first paid to the Company.

Fifth:—It is further understood and agreed that when any lamp is once located, should the city desire it moved at any time to a different location, the Company will move such lamp to such new location along the existing line of the Company within the limits of its distribution system upon receiving all cost and expense of moving and installing such lamp.

Sixth:—It is further understood and agreed that no additional lamp shall be installed by the City during the last two years of this agreement unless the actual cost of installing such additional lamp is first paid to the Company.

Seventh:—The Company further agrees that all lamps shall burn each night from evening twilight to morning twilight.

Eighth:—In the event the City fails to pay such monthly installments for all lamps as it may owe under this contract, the Company may, at its option, discontinue such service until full payment is made therefor with interest thereon, but this contract shall not be otherwise affected and upon full payment of all sums due hereunder, with interest, service shall be renewed by the Company.

Ninth:—It is further agreed that in the event the supply of electric energy should be interrupted or fail by reason of accident or conditions beyond the control of the Company, the Company shall restore the service within a reasonable time and such interruption shall not constitute a breach of this contract, nor shall the Company be liable for damages by reason of such interruption or failure, but for any such interruption or failure of one or more lamps longer than five (5) hours shall for such time credit the city for the pro rata cost of the lighting of said lamp or lamps during such time as it or they may be out.

Tenth:—Wherever in this contract either the City or the Company is named or referred to, it shall be deemed to include the respective successor, successors or assigns of either and all rights, privileges, and obligtions herein contained by or on behalf of said City or by or on behalf of the Company, shall bind and inure to the benefit of the respective successor, successors or assigns of said City or of said Company, whether so expressed or not.

Eleventh:—A waiver of one or more defaults shall not be considered a waiver of any other or subsequent default.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said Coosa Electric Company has caused this agreement to be executed in its name by Thos. W. Martin as its President and attested by Walter M. Hood its Secretary, and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed, and the said City of Clanton has caused this contract to be executed in its name and its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed by its Mayor and attested by its City Clerk, on the day and year first above written.

TELLS DAN WHERE TO GET OFF

It took old fightin' Bill Sims to tell Josephus Daniels where to get off! The Admiral has the old love for the honor and the traditions of the United States Navy and Mr. Daniels has no use for them. Therefore he made the honor of the navy a thing for favoritism. What a rebuke to the men who have given their lives to the service!

Many Whiskey Cases Disposed

Clanton, Ala., January 13, 1920

Editor Union-Banner:—There seem to have been so many cases in the County Court recently, that could have been avoided that I feel like writing this lettter and calling the attention of the people to the conditions in our county.

Whiskey seems to be nearly all the trouble, and if we could get rid of it our boys would be safe nearly anywhere. I regret to see our people throwing away their money as they are. I do not understand why anyone will take the risk of handling the stuff in any form, when the laws are so hard against the traffic. The national government has passed laws so tight that it does not seem that there is a loop hole for anyone to get out at. The state has passed law after law against handling whiskey in any way and the law makes it binding on the court convicting anyone for violating the prohibition laws the second time to give them not less than three months hard labor, and a fine also of not less than $50.00.

Won't the good people of every community in this county wake up and see if the boys and young men cannot be prevailed upon to stop the handling of whiskey in any way? We all know that it will ruin anyone that fools with it.

I have had some hard propositions before me as Judge of the county court recently. I have tried in every case that I have had to pass on to do my duty. But I would have much rather not to have had the responsibility; but I asked for the office, the people elected me, and if I get to where I can't do my duty as I see it, I will resign.

I hope no other person will violate the prohibition law during my term; in fact I wish no one would violate any law.

Again let me appeal to the young men of our county to stop and think before they take another drink of whiskey. You cannot touch whiskey now without violating the law, unless you have a doctor's certificate for alcohol, and then onl yhalf a pint is permissible, which must be recorded in the Probate office.

If our citizens will persist in the handling and making of whiskey they cannot blame anyone for their punishment. It is the duty of the Sheriff to bring to justice every violator of the prohibition law, and to confiscate the vehicles used in the transportation of whiskey.

I wish I could have the time and get the ear of every boy and young man in this county, and get them to stop and think and reflect before they touch whiskey again and help them to see the danger of the stuff. Father where were you when your neighbors were putting down a still with which to destroy the lives of your boys?

I would like to picture the happy condition of our county to-day if we had no whiskey. The opportunities were never so great for young men. We can do most anything we want to do in a business way, money is plentiful. We have over five hundred automobiles registered in the county. In fact we ought to be a happy people, and yet the first Monday in each month the county court looks like the circuit court once looked. May I ask what the trouble is? It is because the penalties have not been sufficient to deter those who would violate the law?

I hope this will cause someone who is handling whiskey to stop and think before they get into trouble; and if it may result in the means of causing one single young man to quit fooling with whiskey, I would feel amply paid for this letter.

In conclusion permit me to ask if all the people in the county are doing their duty to help save our boys from the evils of whiskey?

Respectfully,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR OBSERVING OF TEMPERANCE DAY IN THE SCHOOLS.

Mr. Howard L. Foshee, County Superintendent of Education wishes to give wide publicity to a letter which he has received from State Department of Education relating to the observance of Temperance Day in the schools of the county. The attention of teachers in particular is called to the letter which appears below:

To County and City Superintendents:

Inasmuch as the Temperance Day programs, which have already been sent you, will probably not reach you in time for you to place them in the hands of the teachers early enough to insure the necessary preparation, I suggest that you issue instructions for the observance of the day on the 23d instead of the 16th of January.

You understand that the law makes it obligatory to observe the day and in order that we may comply with it literally, I have thought it my duty to suggest the above change to meet conditions. SPRIGHT DOWELL,
State Superintendent.

LETTER TO THE ROAD APPORTIONERS OF CHILTON COUNTY.

Clanton, Ala., Jan. 10.

To the Road Apportioners of Chilton County:

By order of the Commissioners Court held on January 1st, 1920, I am directed to request you to ascertain the number of days that each overseer in your pricinct has worked the hands that were apportioned to him during the year 1919, and bring this report to the Commissioners Court February 9, 1920. L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

HOW TO STORE AND CARE FOR YOUR VELVET BEANS

More than one half of the supply of velvet beans of last winter was damaged and unfit for planting or feeding. This loss was due largely to improper harvesting and storing. Shall last winter's experience be repeated this year, or will the necessary precaution be taken against heating and decay of the velvet beans?

Velvet beans when harvested after killing frost include a large number which are not matured and contain a large amount of moisture. Velvet beans harvested during, or soon after wet weather will contain a large amount of moisture. When these beans containing a high per cent of moisture are stored in large piles heating will soon take place, followed by mold and other forms of decay. The beans are then unfit for seed and their value as stock feed greatly decreased.

Velvet beans dry out in best condition for storage while in the field hanging on the vines in the bright sunshine. Therefore, the best time to harvest velvet beans for storing in good condition is after several days of bright sunny weather. However, if it becomes necessary to harvest velvet beans in wet weather, they should be spread out in thin layers in a dry place and allowed to dry out thoroughly before sorting in piles. Houses in which velvet beans are stored should be so constructed that no water will be allowed to enter, at the same time allowing a free passage of air. A poorly ventilated storage room is most favorable to the worst forms of decay, and prevents the removal of excess moisture.

Especial care should be taken with the beans which are to be used for planting next season's crop. The germinating power of velvet beans is easily weakened and destroyed. Beans for planting purposes should be harvested before frost, making sure that only matured beans are harvested. These should then be stored in a dry, well ventilated place in small piles.

GRAGG AND ATKINSON ELECTED MEMBERS OF THE TOWN COUNCIL.

At the election held in the Town of Clanton on last Monday for the purpose of filling the vacancies of B. E. Jones and J. H. Roberts on the Town Council, the result was the election of Dr. V. J. Gragg and Hon. J. B. Atkinson to membership on the Council.

The following is the vote as cast for the various candidates whose names had been placed in nomination by their friends:

V. J. Gragg	113
J. B. Atkinson	103
J. P. Hayes	29
T. C. McSwain	16
F. R. Woodyard	19
H. T. Pipes	1

The Union-Banner wishes to commend the voters of Clanton for the wise selection they have made for Councilmen in the persons of Messrs. Gragg and Atkinson. They are both men of sterling qualities who believe that the affairs of a town should be run on the same equitable basis as the affairs of an individual business concern. It is just such ideas as these that are needed in the administration of Clanton's city government.

F. LOYD TATE ANNOUNCES FOR JUDGE 19TH CIRCUIT

In this issue apepars the announcement of Judge F. Loyd Tate, as a candidate for Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit, which is composed of the counties of Autauga, Chilton and Elmore.

The recent legislature abolished the position of Supernumerary Judge, the position now held by Judge Tate, to take effect next November, so if the people are to retain Judge Tate's services as a judge they will have to nominate him in the May primary.

Since Nov. 18th, 1918, when he accepted the position of Supernumerary Judge, succeeding the able and lamented jurist A. H. Austin, Judge Tate has held courts in various sections of the State, having been actually on the bench more than 26 weeks, and during all that time, only one mistrial has occurred in his courts.

Wherever he has held courts, both the bar and the people generally have spoken of the able manner in which he has dispatched the business of the court, his clear charges to the juries, and his fair and impartial manner in presiding in the trial of cases.

Judge Tate is known to practically every voter in the three counties comprising the Circuit, as he served as Solicitor of this circuit for more than seven years. Since which time he has acted as Attorney General of the State, and, as stated, is now Supernumerary Judge. Judge Tate's experience, his absolute fairness, his conscientious discharge of his duty and the pleasant, efficient and rapid manner of discharging the business of the courts should commend him to the voters and taxpayers of the Circuit.

Washington, Jan. 13—The signs of disaffection in the Administration and throughout the entire Democratic party which have been so numerous of late have set political bystanders to wondering just how deep-seated this condition really is, and how far it will eventually go before it is brought to a halt.

It is well known that former Secretary of Commerce, Redfield left the Cabinet a thoroughly disillusioned man as to the supposed intimate relations between a Cabinet Officer and the Chief Executive, and the announced intention of Secretary of the Interior Lane to resign at an early date is attributed to the notorious lack of courtesy and co-operation extended to him from the White House during the past two years. The similar plight of the Secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, has long been known to the public and the greatest surprise has been expresed that he has not resigned.

And now comes the generally accepted intimation that Colonel House has definitely parted company with his late patron, President Wilson, and has shifted his interests and his influences elsewhere. On top of all of these incidents comes the announcement that William Gibbs McAdoo, a leading Democratic possibility, will not partake of the festivities of the Democrats at their grooming functions. It was naturally supposed that McAdoo would be one of the high lights at these Democratic functions, but he has decided otherwise, and his fellow-democrats, with the possible exception of those closest to him, must be content with the bare statement that "he has another engagement." Efforts are being made to get McAdoo to change his mind, as his absence in the Democratic functions of late has caused a great wagging of tongues and great embarrassment to National Chairman Cummings and the national committee.

FIVE SUNDAYS IN FEBRUARY.

Uncle Dock Wells calls our attention to the fact that next month has five Sundays, although it is the shortest month in the year. He says this this is the first time he ever knew it to happen that there were five Sundays in February. The reason he noticed it this time is because his birthday comes on February 29th, and this year is the first birthday he has ever had on Sunday. Uncle Dock wants to know if anyone has ever known of five Sundays in February before.

Another party advances the idea that there are five Sundays in February once every forty years. His contentions are that it happened in 1880 and will happen this year and again in 1960. We will wait and see if he is right, Uncle Dock.

New Pastor of Baptist Church

NEW BAPTIST PREACHER COMES TO US WITH HIGH RECOMMENDATIONS FROM OXFORD.

Rev. P. G. Carter, the newly elected pastor of the Clanton Baptist church, took charge of his work here last Sunday, and preached at the morning and evening services. His sermons were received with much favor by the members and visitors who heard him.

As Mr. Carter is a new man here, a few side lights on his previous work and accomplishments would be interesting right at this time. He came to Clanton from Oxford, Ala. We have before us a copy of The Union Advocate, the local newspaper at Oxford, in which we note the following send-off which they gave Rev. Carter as he was preparing to leave his work there to come here:

"Rev. Carter has proven to be one of the widest-awake and most progressive preachers Oxford has ever had. During the past year more members have been received in the church than during any year for the past ten. The congregations that have heard his sermons have been on an average much larger than is common for the city of Oxford. He is recognized by everybody here as an excellent preacher.

"In community affairs Rev. Carter has done more than any other preacher has ever done for the town. Largely through his influence a three-mill tax was successfully carried. He organized the commercial club and was elected as its secretary.

"We heartily recommend him to any community desiring an excellent preacher and a wide awake progressive citizen."

The Oxford correspondent of the Anniston Star has this to say about Rev. Carter:

"Mr. Carter is not only a church man, but he takes an active interest in civic affairs of the community in which he lives, believing that a preacher should be a good citizen as well as a good preacher."

Our impression of the man so far is that the above is true of him in every word. We believe he is a live wire and wide-awake. He comes into our midst with a glowing opportunity for the right kind of work to bear fruit bountifully. And we believe Mr. Carter has got the right kind of dope on planting the seed in Clanton that will produce a golden harvest for the Baptist cause here.

Leonard Farley has changed from a pill roller to a hardware clerk. He has given up his job at Alred's and is now associated with the new Chilton Hardware Company.

COULD TALK FOR HOURS ABOUT IT

Declares Change is Marvelous Since Taking Dreco, the Great Root and Herb Remedy. Relieved Stomach and Liver Troubles, Also Constipation.

"Honestly, I thought I had the worst liver and stomach in the State," says Mrs. Fannie E. Norris of Route 5, Montgomery, Ala.

"It seemed like there was a big lump in my throat; my bowels were constipated, so I had to take something every night. I often had sick headache, and my liver was lazy. Pains in the small of my back and in my limbs caused me much suffering, and it seemed I could not sleep.

"I have been taking Dreco now for some time, and it sure has brought a change in my condition. My food digests as well as it ever did in my life, without any gas at all. I never have a headache nor pain in my back, and I lie down at night and go right off into a restful sleep. Dreco has done me a lot of good, and I could talk for hours about the good it did me, and then not tell half."

Many people are daily testing the merits of Dreco in cases of gastritis, pains in back and limbs, catarrh, headaches, rheumatism, constipation and general debility. It increases the appetite, soothes tired nerves, arouses sluggish liver and kidneys, and drives the impurities from the blood. Being made of juices of roots, herbs, barks and berries, it does not contain any mercury, potash, or other harmful minerals.

Upchurch Drug Co., Clanton, Ala.

AND WILSON LOST THE HANDLE

President Wilson is supporting himself on a gold-headed cane presented to George Washington by Lafayette. There was another staff which Lafayette aided materially in securing to this nation. It was the staff of independence to which George Washington fitted the handle of "no entanglements." That staff has supported us along the straight and broad highway for a century and a half, yet Mr. Wilson would consign it to the flames of European jealousies. Whilst he leans on Washington's stick the country rests on Washington's teachings.

Joints that ache, muscles that are drawn or contracted should be treated with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It penetrates to the spot where it is needed and relieves suffering. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

Dr. J. Earle Gowan has figured up a scheme of combining his residence lots in Clanton with some ready-built houses that he has acquired near the city that looks mighty intteresting to us from the standpoint of those who might desire to have a residence in Clanton. His advertisement in this paper tells about the proposition, and those interested might find it of great advantage to confer with him about the matter.

Mr. J. M. Grant has moved from his former location down near Coopers to a farm just west of Clanton. He says he wanted to get up here so he could be closer to the court house and keep a better line on some of the local politicians next year.

Rev. Jno. F. Gable moved his family to Gainesville, Fla., last week.

LOVE—THE ILLUSION.

Love is just a cobweb wet with morning dew,
Love is just a fairy spell invisible to view.
A thread, a touch too heavy, and the cobweb is not there;
A sigh too long, and lo! the spell has vanished in the air.
Love is just a morning glory, doomed at noon to die;
Love is only half a story told in passing by.
Love is gold so delicate the faintest flame would melt it;

Brazil has been allotted six German torpedo boats by the peace council. Comparing our war contributions with those of Brazil, how many should we get? And how many will we get? For reply ask the American arbitrators who turned over the Imperator to Geat Britain.

ANOTHER UNKEPT PROMISE

Expressing the belief that there was less fear now than formerly of American massacres, Earl Curzon, British secretary of state for foreign affairs gives as his reason the fact that massacres in former years "were ordered from Constantinople for political reasons, but Constantinoule now is voiceless and powerless." The less reason to fear these massacres, the les reason for an American mandatory in Armenia. And, by the way, was it not promised to the soldiers and to the people that Turkey's penance for having sided with the Hun would be national deportation from Europe? Why was that promise not kept?

Rev. Longerier of Columbiana, was a visitor to our city last Monday. He paid the Union-Banner a welcome call while here.

LIMITED NUMBER OF

Vacant Lots in Clanton

And Houses to put on Them

I have a limited number of vacant lots in Clanton that are very desirable for choice residences. And I have 32 good houses in two different locations that can be easily wrecked and placed on these lots. By this combination of houses and lots I can show you where you can provide a splendid residence in Clanton at a saving of 50 per cent of the cost of buying other lots and building houses.

I can sell you a lot and a house to put on it cheaper than you can get the lot from anyone else in Clanton.

If you are interested in buying property in Clanton I suggest that you see me and let me show you the figures on my proposition before buying from anybody else. You will find that it will be a great saving of money to you.

To those of limited means, I can arrange to sell this property and houses on terms of 50 per cent cash and 50 per cent on time.

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER FROM CATARRH

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing difficult breathing and other discomforts. Real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface. To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood.

Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S. which acts on the catarrh germs in the blood.

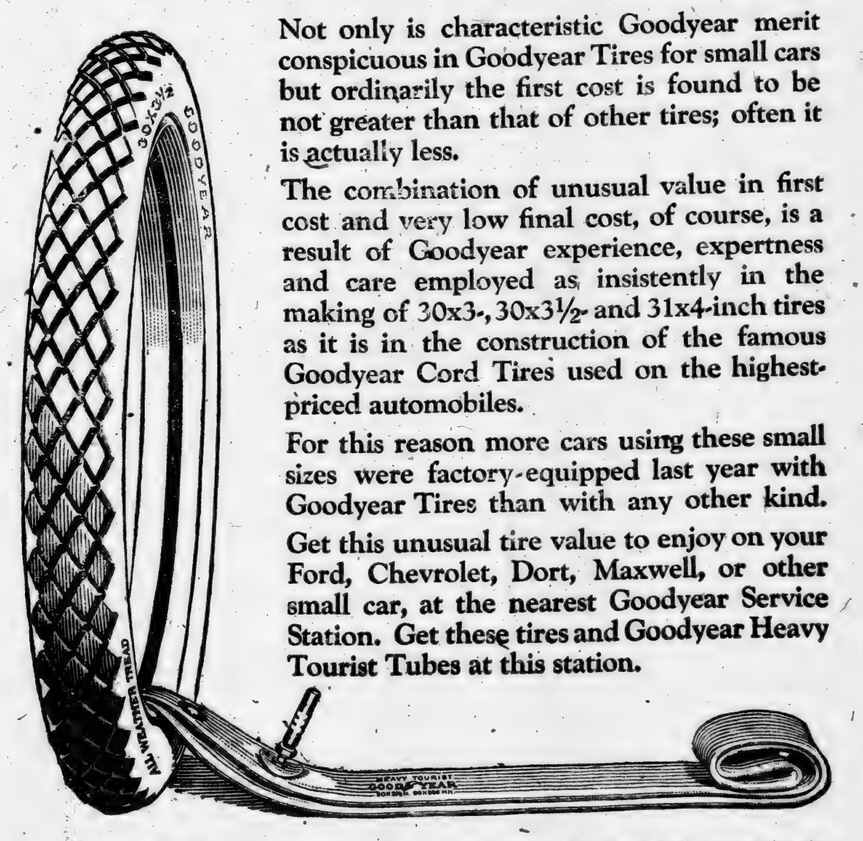
Unusual Value—In Tires for Small Cars



Not only is characteristic Goodyear merit conspicuous in Goodyear Tires for small cars but ordinarily the first cost is found to be not greater than that of other tires; often it is actually less.

The combination of unusual value in first cost and very low final cost, of course, is a result of Goodyear experience, expertness and care employed as insistently in the making of 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch tires as it is in the construction of the famous Goodyear Cord Tires used on the highest-priced automobiles.

For this reason more cars using these small sizes were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

Get this unusual tire value to enjoy on your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Get these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at this station.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag..... $3.90

REDDING - DURBIN WEDDING

A pretty wedding of the New Year was that of Mr. R. Redding of Mobile and Miss Pearl Durbin of Clanton, which was solemnized at the Methodist Parsonage, Wednesday evening, January 6, at seven o'clock, Rev. E. C. Maye performing the ceremony.

The only attendants were Miss Durbin and Mr. Durbin, brother and sister of the bride.

Mr. Redding is a prominent business man of Mobile, and has a host of friends who will welcome his bride most cordially.

EMBROIDERY CLUB ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Philip Horn entertained the Embroidery Club on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. L. F. Gerald. The parlor and dining room were thrown together and were beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations.

Mr. Frank Weston Stevens announces the marriage of his daughter Ethel Elizabeth, to Mr. Hollis Gordon Thornhill, Tuesday, January the 6th, 1920, Selma, Ala.

Miss Stevens has many friends in Clanton where she has been the attractive guest of Mrs. L. C. Reynolds.

The Best Cough Medinice.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jone, a well-known druggist of Cubrun, says "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

HOW WE MADE GOOD MONEY LAST YEAR

Hastings Declares That Southern Farmers Can Repeat the Past Year's Prosperity, If They Will

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special)—"The generality of Southern farmers made real money out of their farming operations in 1919, more profit than most of them ever made before, despite boll weevil, unfavorable seasons and labor shortage."

This statement was made recently by H. G. Hastings, president of both the Southeastern Fair Association and the Georgia State Chamber of Commerce, in discussing general farm conditions in the South.

"Very naturally most of this farm prosperity is credited to the high price of cotton and, of course, the high price helped, but the real down-at-the-bottom reason was that most farmers owned their cotton when it was made instead of 'owing' it for food and grain bought on credit, as used to be the case when the practice was to grow all or nearly all cotton and buy on credit all or nearly all food, grain, etc.

"Present farm prosperity is due largely to what Dr. Bradford Knapp, head of the demonstration work, has so aptly termed 'Safe Farming,' which is nothing more or less than growing on home acres every pound of food, grain and forage needed for family and live stock use. When this is done every other available acre can wisely and safely be put in cotton or other cash crop.

"The expense of making cotton or other cash crop is, either directly or indirectly, the cost of food for man and beast that works the crop. Most items of food and grain can be produced on southern farms at one-third to one-half what those same items cost from supply merchants.

"We made money last year by following the only way that insures permanent farm prosperity, home production of home food and grain needs. We can repeat this money making in 1920 by following the same common sense way that put us right last year and will keep us right in 1920 and every year, if we follow it up and not gamble in cotton planting.

"It's a great temptation to gamble in cotton in 1920—gamble in cotton in the field, which is just as bad as gambling in cotton on the New York or New Orleans exchanges. I know some folks who are planning to double cotton acreage this year. They are headed for disaster sooner or later. The wise farmer will play safe in 1920—play safe by doing 'safe farming.'"

RECEPTION OF DR. AND MRS. J. P. HAYES.

An event long to be remembered by many was the reception given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Hayes on Saturday evening, in honor of their 20th anniversary. The fine home had been elaborately decorated in Southern Smilax and ferns, tall vases and baskets of Killarney roses were seen here and there, while in the parlor 10 white candles burned brightly in crystal candlelabras. Here Dr. and Mrs. Hayes greeted their many friends who had come to wish many more happy years for them together.

The guets were received by Mrs. Grady Broadhead, the attractive and accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs Hayes. Mr. Grady Broadhead and Mr. L. C. Reynolds assisted by Mrs. E. E. Upchurch and Miss Della Latham, Miss Izora Callen and Irene Jones served punch from a beautiful ly decorated punch bowl, in the library.

Misses Williamson, Preston, and Key had charge of the interesting contest; the prize fell to Mrs. J. R. Mullins—a beautiful salad bowl.

The lovely gifts received by Dr. and Mrs. Hayes were numbered in the hundreds and displayed in the drawing room.

Late in the evening the guests were invited into the dining room by Mrs. J. C. Jones where a delicious salad course was served.

Mrs. Hayes was handsomely dressed in white georgette and wore pink and white carnations.

No Great Act of Heroim Required.

If some great act of heroism were necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the forst indication of croup apepars, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual.

REPUBLICANS WILL ADHERE TO POLICY WHICH THEY ADOPTED IN TAKING CONTROL

Washington Jan. 13—Although the steering committee of the House has not yet mapped out a complete legislative program for the next few months, Representative Mondell, the Republican leader, has completed a plan which doubtless will be followed. Upon the opening of Congress following the holidays he said:

"The paramount work of importance which lies immediately before the House is the consideration and passage of the appropriation bills, upon which some of the committees have been at work for some time. The Indian appropriation bill will be the first of these money measures to be taken up, and the others will be considered and adopted as rapidly as they can be properly handled. They should all be disposed of well in advance of the end of the fiscal year, and I hope to see them practically completed by the middle of March. We intend to practice the strictest economy in making appropriations for the various departments. This has been the Republican policy ever since it came into control of Congress, and it will not be altered in the least."

It Helps!

There can be no doubt as to the merit of Cardui, the woman's tonic, in the treatment of many troubles peculiar to women. The thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in the past 40 years, is conclusive proof that it is a good medicine for women who suffer. It should help you, too.

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. N. E. Varner, of Hixson, Tenn., writes: "I was passing through the . . . My back and sides were terrible, and my suffering indescribable. I can't tell just how and where I hurt, about all over, I think . . . I began Cardui, and my pains grew less and less, until I was cured. I am remarkably strong for a woman 64 years of age. I do all my housework." Try Cardui, today. E-70

I

Am arranging to open a regular Sewing Machine Store in Clanton at once, the Singer to be the leading machine carried in stock; but I will have many other makes, and you can buy a Machine from $25.00 up. You can buy a new Singer on easy payments, and trade in your old machine at a good price. I will always have several slightly used Singer Machines that I can sell at a big discount. A COMPLETE STOCK OF SINGER SUPPLIES WILL BE CARRIED.

In connection with my Singer Machine Store I will have my Insurance Office fully equipped for writing all kinds and classes of insurance. My place of business is located next door to the Upchurch Drug Co. With best wishes for a happy and prosperous year to one and all, I am,

Yours to serve,

C. Reese Mullins, Agt.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY SPLIT WIDE OPEN AT LATE "LOVE FEAST."

Washington, Jan. 14—One of the greatest party splits in the history of American politics was presaged at the Jackson Day banquet staged by Democratic leaders in Washington on the night of January 8. Opportunism as embodied in the Washington regime its office holders and the controlling elements of the Democratic National Committee came to a head-on collision with conviction as embodied in Willam Jennngs Bryan and that large element of the Democratic party that for a quarter of a century has sworn by Bryan in season and out of season, in calm and in storm, and that looks to him, in spite of all the reverses and buffetings of political fortune as a truer representative of the Democracy of Jefferson and Jackson than any other leader.

While President Wilson, who is still sick, and was unable to attend the festivities, was sending a message to the banqueteers which in effect demanded ratification of the peace treaty and league covenant unchanged and without reservations, while the President was clearly planning to throw the peace treaty issues into the 1920 campaign, Mr. Bryan in his old time fighting fashion was taking a square issue with the President, demanding the immediate ratification of the treaty on whatever terms the senate democrats could obtain, and was advising the Democratic leaders to take up with his own program of proposed domestic legislation to give relief from the conditions from which the American people are suffering.

Solemn warning was given by Bryan to the fashionably arrayed audienc of Democratic chieftains, men and women assembled at the sumptuous banquet tables that if they went to the American people opposing reservations to the treaty they would be overwhelmingly defeated.

Among other things, he pictured to them the situation in which they would be if they went before the people advocating the adoption of article 10 of the treaty unmodified and in such fashion as to deprive Congres of the power of declaring war and of saying whether or not American troop and American ships should be plunged into the broils of another hemisphere. In effect, Mr. Bryan wanted to know whether American boys were going to be sent abroad to fight the battles of Europe without Congress and the people having anything to say about it and at the command of a foreign superstate. He made it plain that if the Democratic party, following the behest of Wilson and his doctrines of internationalism, took such a postion, opposed to all the instincts of Americanism, it would be overwhelmingly buried at the polls in November. No one who heard Mr. Bryan as he spoke in militant fashion at the Willard in the gray hour of 2:30 Friday morning could have the slightest question as to his meaning.

Hecklers of the administration forces in vain tried to silence Mr. Bryan. He said that while they might not hear him at the banquet, millions of American voters would listen to him. His speech at the Willard, which followed on one at the Hotel Washington, and in which he used no manuscript, was his chief effort of the evening. Moreover, he leaves Washington to appeal to the people. The plain implication is, though he says he has no favors to ask, is that he is a receptive candidate.

It is impossible, in any brief summary, to do full justice to what has occurred here in connection with the Jackson Day banquet, really two banquets, and the meeting of the Democratic National Committee.

Broadly speaking, Presirent Wilson served notice through his letter to the Democratic National Committee that he would not stand for any worthwhile reservations to the treaty and still stubborn, would insist on his program of internationalism; that he desired to project the isue into the 1920 campaign. Mr. Bryan, holding for Americanism as against internationalism, in effect warned the party that the Wilson program would spell disaster for the Democratic party. He advised the party chiefs to stop talking about the past and to consider the legislation needed by the country to meet the pressing and unprecedented conditions of the reconstruction period we are now in.

As to domestic legislation, Mr. Bryan advocated his well-known ideas on government ownership, on labor and the like, as to which many other democratic leaders are flatly opposed to him.

The Jackson Day banquet, advertised as a love feast, of the Democratic party, makes a break in the party as great as the historic one of 1896. Probably it means that no matter what the Senate may do to compose peace with Germany, President Wilson will block it. It looks as if the President, despite his illness, harbors the third term ambition and wants the renomination.

McMORRIS MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT FOR JUDGE.

To the People of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit:

I am a candidate to succeed myself as Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in May.

I was born and raised at Wetumpka, in Elmore County, Alabama, and have lived there most of my life except during the time I was in the navy before, during and after the Spanish-American War, in which I saw service off the coast of Cuba, and the time I was in the army, in which I saw service on the Mexican Border, in this country, and in France.

I was admitted to the practice of law at Wetumpka in Elmore County, in 1905 and continued in active practice until 1916, the year I entered the army to go to the Mexican Border. After my discharge from the army early in 1919 I resumed the practice of law at Wetumpka.

My official duties as Judge of the Circuit will engage most of my time before the primary, and I will not be able to see many of the voters in person.

I have never held, or been an applicant or candidate for any other political office.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated. If elected I will perform the duties of the office, without fear or favor, to the best of my ability.

B. K. McMORRIS.

(Paid political adv. by B. K. McMorris, Wetumpka, Alabama.)

OPERATION NOT SUCCESSFUL

"Sixteen years ago I was operated upon for appendicitis and later operated on again for gall stones. Neither did me any good, and I have suffered torture ever since. Five years ago I took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and have felt no symptoms or pain since. All stomach sufferers should take it." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamamtion which causes practically all the stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose wll convince you or your money refunded.—Alred Drug Co., Clanton, Ala. Adv.

Hastings' 1920 Seed Catalog Free

It's ready now. One hundred handsomely illustrated pages with brilliant cover in natural colors. It is both beautiful and helpful, and all that is necessary to get it is a postal card request. You will find our 1920 catalogue a well worth while seed book.

Hastings' Seeds are sold direct by mail. You will never find them on sale in the stores. We have some five hundred thousand customers who buy from us by mail. We please and satisfy them, and we can please and satisfy you in 1920.

Planting Hastings' Seeds in your garden or in your fields insures "good luck" so far as results can be determined by the seed planted. For 30 years Hastings' Seeds have been the standard of seed excellence and purity in the South. Only varieties adapted to the South are listed. Quality of the best and prices often less than those you pay at home. Write for free copy of this splendid catalogue now. H. G. HASTINGS CO., Seedsmen, Atlanta, Ga.—(Advt.)

NO MORE NITRATE OF SODA.

Mr. J. N. Dennis asks us this week to state to the people that he cannot at present accept any more orders for nitrate of soda. If he can make the proper arrangements to handle any more orders this season, due notice of the fact will be given through the paper.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

It would be a move in the right direction if our real estate promoters would build houses in some desirable location for the accommodation of colored people. The private owners of lands in desirable locations would be performing a patriotic duty if they would sell on easy terms lots to colored people for the purpose of building homes.

Several people from out of town have expressed their willingness of late to move to Clanton, but on account of the housing facilities they are deterred.

It is to the interest of all concerned to see that all these conditions obtain, because as a town grows in population it grows also in wealth, and every line of business is benefitted. At present it eems as the west side of town is the logical location for the colored population of Clanton, but most of the lands there are flat and insanitary. Several people bought lots sometime ago around Friendship Church and are now trying to sell them at a sacrifice, for the reason that they are too low. This should not be the case; with a little expenditure of money by the owner of the unsold lots and the city, the lots can be made very desirable by drainage. Several towns in Alabama are built upon lands that were at one time flat and undesirable, but by careful drainage and building up of the soil, they are now handsome towns.

The whole of the west side can be made inviting by good streets or even roads, proper drainage and lighting. These conditions moke good citzens and good ctizens are a credit to a town or city. A few years ago, the Tennesse Co., a branch of the United States Steel Corporation, found it difficult to keep labor around its mines. After investigation it was found that the housng condition was responsible. It improved that condition, and now the people instead of moving from the works to town are moving from the towns to the works.

On Sunday the writer visited Thomson's Chapel, Clanton. The Sunday School under the superintendence of Mrs. D. B. Brown is doing a great work.

The pastor has just returned from conference and brought valuable information to his members. He preached an excellent sermon, and a neat collection was raised for our school house in Clanton, now in course of erection.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF F. L. TATE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE, 19 CIRCUIT

Having served the people of this Circuit for more than seven years as their solicitor, since which time, serving a year in the office of Attorney General; and since November 18th, 1918 having held courts in various sections of the State as Supernumerary Judge; I feel that this experience has, in a measure, qualified me to serve as Circuit Judge. Therefore I respectfully announce myself a candidate for Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit, subject to the Democratic Primary in May, 1920.

Respectfully,
F. LOYD TATE.

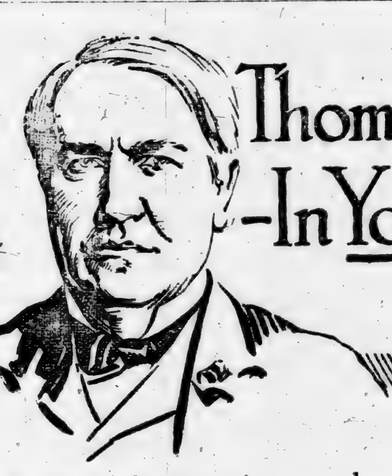
Will You Let Entertain You



Thomas A. Edison -In Your Home?

That is what happens when an Amberola comes into your home. The wizardry of Edison—the Master Product of his Master Mind—furnishes you with years and years of entertainment—all the best music of all the world—reproduced in a superior way that none but Edison could accomplish.

EDISON'S NEW DIAMOND

AMBEROLA

Among the large number of phonographs and "talking machines" on the market, the genius of Edison makes the Amberola stand out as the one perfect instrument for your home.

Thousands of families in the U. S. A. have purchased phonographs hastily, without careful comparison—and as a result they are repenting their choice at leisure.

You can safely trust the phonograph that has been perfected by the greatest inventor of the age. Choose the Amberola, and you will never regret your selection. The longer you possess an Amberola, the more you will appreciate its marked superiority over ordinary phonographs and "talking machines."

Its marvelous, pure tone will afford perpetual delight to yourself, your family, your friends. No metallic sound or shrillness—common phonograph faults—nothing but pure melody in every note from your Amberola.

No needles to change, with constant bother and expense. The genuine Diamond Point Reproducer of the Amberola is permanent.

And the wonderful Amberol Records are practically unbreakable and everlasting. You can handle them quickly, carelessly—yes, drop them—without fear. (You know how easily other phonograph records are broken.) And on these Amberol Records you have all the world's best music—the greatest singers, the latest songs and dances—to select from.

We will gladly demonstrate the superiority of the Amberola to you at any time. Come in today, tomorrow—bring the family along.

FREE TRIAL In Your Home

We will place an Amberola in your home for a 3 Days' Trial which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days, if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

Article XX, Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges rendering State service able for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five millions, ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise in not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issue, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of one hundred dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined subject to the approval of the commission by the Highways Commission, who shall also be Highway Finance Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission together with the approval of the Governor thereto, recorded in writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him; that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, countersigned by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the facsimile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed instead of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged and the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used for the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. That for the purpose of assuring the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, that sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges continuously in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicles, in addition to license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for their retirement and the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that said roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National Government, that such State highways, roads and bridges may be constructed and maintained by the aid of the State and National governments, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the counties and national government, that said State highways, roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department, and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended as the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C. That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department, shall locate, construct and maintain the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments; said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 93 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

"ZIRON IS A GOOD MEDICINE"

Says Rock City, Ala. Gentleman, After Having Given It Conscientious Trial.

Ziron is a new scientific combination of pure, inorganic, official, U. S. Pharmacopeia iron, with the hypophosphites of lime and soda and other valuable tonic ingredients, recommended by the best medical authorities in the treatment of anemic conditions.

Ziron helps to put iron into your blood and this helps to build strength for you, when you are pale, weak, nervous, depressed.

Read what Mr. Sidney Fry, of Rock City, Ala., says, and then try Ziron. He makes the following statement:

"Something over a week ago I used Ziron for the first time. I was troubled with indigestion and had a spell of weakness. Ziron helped both troubles. I felt stronger and my stomach quit hurting. I really feel that Ziron is a good medicine. It surely helped me."

Your druggist will sell you Ziron on a guarantee that if the first bottle does not benefit you, he will refund the money you paid him.

The Successful Farmer Raises Bigger Crops

and cuts down costs by investment in labor-saving machinery.

Good prices for the farmers' crops encourage new investment, more production and greater prosperity.

But the success of agriculture depends on the growth of railroads—the modern beasts of burden that haul the crops to the world's markets.

The railroads—like the farms—increase their output and cut down unit costs by the constant investment of new capital.

With fair prices for the work they do, the railroads are able to attract new capital for expanding their facilities.

Rates high enough to yield a fair return will insure railroad growth, and prevent costly traffic congestion, which invariably results in poorer service at higher cost.

Poor railroad service is dear at any price. No growing country can long pay the price of inadequate transportation facilities.

RECEPTION FOR BAPTIST PASTOR, REV. P. G. CARTER.

More than three hundred people comfortably filled the Baptist church on Sunday night when, at the suggestion of Dr. Maye of the Methodist church, the Methodist brethtren gave way their services to worship with the congregation of the Baptist church on the occasion of the coming to this city of Rev. P. G. Carter, as Pastor of the Baptist Church. In a well-chosen address Dr. Maye extended on behalf of his church a cordial welcome and hearty good wishes for the success of his work in Clanton, and emphasized the need of the hearty co-operation of the membership of the church as no man could do the work alone.

The sermon was preached by the Pastor of the Baptist Church, who took for his subject, "The Evidences of Faith," based on the text found in Hebrews 2:1: "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, and the evidence of things not seen." A great deal of interest was manifested in the sermon, and all went to their homes feeling that a spirit of friendship and co-operation had been established between the two churches, and we believe it should exist in every city.

CANE CREEK

Everything is moving along nicely at this place.

The "Busy Bee" committee together with the Canvassing Committee, has realized a nice sum of money for the purpose of equipping the school with the necessary equipment. Although they are still at work. We thank the people for their liberal contributions to this cause. A list will appear in next weeks issue of the people who who have contributed to this cause.

Don't miss the box supper at this place next Saturday night, January 24th because there will be lots of good eats here, and don't forget your pocket book.

BOX SUPPER AT CANE CREEK

There will be a box supper at Cane Creek Saturday night, January 24th. Everybody come and bring someone along with you.

SMOOT IN THE RACE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

We carry this week the announcement of Hon. Geo. F. Smoot of Wetumpka, who is the third entry in the race for Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama. Mr. Smoot is a lawyer who has practiced his profession successfully since 1910 at Wetumpka. He is at present the County Treasurer of Elmore County.

Mr. Smoot is well known among the members of the bar in Clanton, and he has several other friends in the county.

He is of course running on the Democratic ticket. We wish he was a Republican so we could give him our vote and influence for the office.

LITTLE SAND MOUNTAIN

(This article was written for our last week's issue, but reached us too late to get in.—Editor.)

Our literary school is moving on nicely with Miss Mollie Brown as our Principal and Mrs. Bessie Garner as Assistant.

We are sorry to say that we have no Sunday school at present, but we are going to organize on the Fourth Sunday in this month, and we want everyone who is interested in Sunday school to be present on that day.

Miss Mae Hamrick and Miss Eva Hall spent Saturday night with Mrs. Ellis, and report a nice time.

Miss Myrtle McAfee spent Saturday night with Miss Pearl Oden.

The pound supper at Mr. Cleve Latham's last Saturday night was enjoyed by all who were present.

We are glad to hear that our pastor Rev. F. W. C. Bice, is improving from his recent illness. We hope he will be able to take up his work again soon.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOC'Y

An interesting meeting of the Methodist Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. L. H. Reynolds Monday afternoon. The meeting was led by Mrs. Barney Roberts.

Officers were to be elected, but the members decided to keep the same officers for this year. Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. W. W. Fox were elected to fill vacancies.

Mrs. Reynolds was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R. E. Luckey and Mrs. L. C. Reynolds.

A salad course was served.

Mrs. L. H. Reynolds, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, entertained the Courthouse girls: Cuba Keith, Dewey Branch, Jella Collum, Bessie Hitt and Gertrude Popwell.

About thirty-five little friends of Master J. P. Crumpton gathered at the home of his parents Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Crumpton on Monday afternoon to celebrate with him his 12th birthday. Games in and out doors were enjoyed, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Crumpton was assisted by Miss Clara Crumpton, Miss Inez Higgins and Mrs. L. C. Reynolds. A number of pretty gifts were received.

B. Guy Smith, of Washington, D.C., blowed in Clanton last Saturday and happily surprised his many friends here. Guy was once engaged in the practice of law here, as some people no doubt will recall, in which capacity he will be remembered by a host of friends made during his stay here.

Uncle Mose Robinson has decided to cut his stay in Clanton a little bit shorter than he first anticipated. He has already gone back to his farm in Beat 16, where he will begin to straighten things out for his next year's crop season.

Mrs. Grady Reynolds and children spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. J. Morgan, in Montgomery.

FOURTH CLASS POSTMASTER EXAMINATION.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Selma, Ala., on Feb. 13, 1920, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of Fourth Class Postmaster at Riderville, Ala., and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill any vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $585 for the last fiscal year.

Application blanks and full information concerning the requirement of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at the place of vacancy, or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

LIBERTY HILL.

The Liberty Hill Singing Society met Sunday afternoon with a large crowd and very good singing. The program was opened with song by the chairman, J. W. Lowery, and a prayer by Prof. Sam Henley. The directors for the afternoon were J. W. Lowery, Sam Henley, W. G. Culp, and Glover Smith. Organists were W. G. Culp and Miss Zelma Lowery. The Society will meet again the first Sunday afternoon.—Bonnie Littlejohn, Secretary.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL.

The young people of the Baptist Church enjoyed an interesting social occasion at the High School Building on Friday, January 16th, which was held for the purpose of reorganizing the Young Peoples Union. The following officers were elected for the ensuing term of six months: President, Miss Mary Upchurch; Vice-President, Grady Heflin; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Anice Kemp; Musician, Miss Gillis; Assistant Musician, Miss Marzelle Mullins; Chorister, Willie Murphy; Corresponding Secretary, Evan Edwards.

The membership was divided up into four groups with Cecil Smith, Frank Mullins, Clyde Foshee and Miss Preston as Captains. The Union now starts off with an enthusiastic membership if 35. A blue and red contest is now in progress, Groups 1 and 4 representing the reds and Groups 2 and 3 representing the blues. The largest number in attendance and the most new members secured during the next eight weeks will be the deciding factors in the contest. The losing contestants will provide a banquet or a social to the winners. The new Pastor of the Baptist church is already taking a great interest in the work of the young people, which is beginning to show good results.

T. C. Jones of Mulberry was in Town Tuesday.

PRESIDENT STANDS IN WAY OF TREATY

SENATOR LODGE DECLARES IT IS EXECUTIVE ATTITUDE WHICH HALTS ACTION.

Forces An Appeal to People

Senate Reservations Designed Solely For the Protection of the United States.

Washington, Jan. 20—Interpreting the recent statement of the President rejecting effective reservations to the treaty, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts said:

"The President has made his position very plain. He rejects absolutely the reservations adopted by a decisive majority of the Senate. He says we must take the treaty with or any change which alters its meaning or leaves it. He will permit interpretations whatever that may mean expressing its undoubted meaning, when there is hardly a line of it which has not been questioned and given many meanings. This permission is valueless. He stands as he has always stood, for the treaty just as it is.

"The issue is clearly drawn. The reservations intended solely to protect the United States in its sovereignty and independence are discarded by the President. The President places himself squarely in behalf of internationalism against Americanism.

"I had hoped that in the Senate we might have come together and ratified the treaty protected by the principles set forth in the fourteen reservations. The President, I fear has made this hope impossible. If it is impossible, then we must bear the delay inseparable from the President's attitude and appeal to the people which I for one shall most cordially welcome."

Senator Lenroot said:

"If the President wants to be consistent, why doesn't he accept the partial ratification that the Senate desires to make and then carry the question of unconditional ratification into the campaign?

"The people of the United States should not be compelled to wait another whole year for peace while the issue is being settled at the polls."

LET US HONOR THESE MEN.

The birthdays of two of the most eminent Republicans in history will occur shortly and it is enjoined on all patriotic American citizens not to permit these notable anniversaries to pass unobserved.

January 29th is the natal day of William McKinley, the twenty-fifth President of these United States. Soldier and statesman, he typified and stood for Americanism at its very best. His administration signalized an era of national prosperity, unity and constructive progress which people, without regard for party, recall with lofty pride. The memory of that era will ever be bright. His career cruelly terminated at the hands of an alien assassin, the lessons of his patriotic Christian life are of enduring value. The birthday of the beloved McKinley should be made the occasion of an annual observance and celebration.

February 12th is Lincoln day—the anniversary of the birth of the Great Emancipator, whose fame will live throughout the ages. The Republican party, at its birth, gave Abraham Lincoln to the nation and to the world and a union insoluble became his everlasting monument on earth. His preeminent service to mankind is recognized and revered wherever history is known and read. A half century gone has added lustre to his name. No sectional lines are drawn in paying affectionate tribute to his greatness. Many states have fittingly set apart this date as a holiday. In these abnormal times it becomes doubly incumbent upon Americans to give heed to the precepts of the immortal Lincoln. His counsels have gained weight with the passing years. Let them be revived and reread on this his anniversary to strengthen the nation for the working out of its destiny.

Let us remember these two dates—January 29th and February the 12th—and see to it that the events are properly recognized in our schools, in our homes, and most of all in our hearts. Honoring these two great men is a splendid manifestation of patriotic Americanism for anyone.

In his letter in this week's paper favoring the twenty-five million dollar road bond issue in Alabama, "A Voter" sets out by wondering why The Union-Banner does not come out for the bond issue. And likewise, the Union-Banner editor wonders why "A Voter" did not sign his real name to his letter and let his readers know who he is. Looks like "A Voter" is one of those who believe in the theory of "Let George do it." We very often find people who would have the editor come out for this thing or that thing and be the goat. But this editor has been an editor for more than a day or a week.

If "A Voter" wants to know how we stand on the bond issue, we can tell him right here that personally the editor is in favor of it. But we are not caring whether anybody else is for it or against it. If the rest of the people want to vote for it or against it we shall not place as much as a straw in their way. We are not going out through the paper or any other way and take any part in the campaign. In this matter we like to regard ourselves as only a voter just like any other voter, with nothing to do but vote just as we want to and let all the other voters do likewise.

Thos. J. Dorminey, one of our County Commissioners, from Stumps Hills, was in Clanton last Saturday just fooling around and having a good time. He says the roads are bad up toward the hills, and the weather too. He told us a whole mess about how he sits around the fire and bakes his shins, and what he told the old lady about this, that and the other. You know how T. J. is when he gets started (and he is always started.) He finished by saying that the moon still shines in Stumps Hills sometimes, and went his way in joyful anticipation of a Republican landslide this fall.

There will be five eclipses this year. Two of the sun, two of the moon, and a total eclipse of the Democratic party.—Yellow Jacket.

"A VOTER" ENDORSES THE BIG BOND ISSUE FOR ROADS IN ALABAMA.

Editor The Union-Banner:

I am at a loss to understand why some of our correspondents do not touch on the twenty-five milion dollar bond issue. Why is it our Union-Banner does not come out for it?

I am aware of the fact that several of our counties have made the mistake of issuing the limit of bonds for road building, with no provision for up-keep. This is just as foolish as a farmer spending his last dollar for a mule without anyway of obtaining feed for him.

With the 25 million bond issue it is different. All of the mistakes of our several counties have been lessons to us, so in this issue ample provisions have been made for both the building and up-keep of the roads, and for retirement of bonds at the day of their maturity.

Good roads are the entering wedges of progress and prosperity. They promote good schools, make lands more valuable, make it possible to obtain at smaller cost the necessaries for better farming. They bring the markets closer to our farms, because it takes less time to travel the distance, and haul larger loads in less time, save our teams by making the work lighter.

They promote consolidated schools for one can hardly exist with poor roads.

Montgomery county began road building in a small way just as Chilton did, by running two roads in opposite directions. They proved to be a good investment, so road building has continued until to-day their roads are among the best in the south. The reputation of Montgomery county roads has brought many investors who have established first class farms on lands where negro tenants had for years barely made a living.

It has also been true of Dallas and other counties.

The two highways across Chilton county have pushed it forward many years, and have been and are worth to the county many times the cost.

Now to the point. The 25 million bond issue for roads will benefit every county alike. The auto license will pay every cent of interest and will retire the bonds at maturity so we need have no fears of increase in property taxes. The auto has come to stay and in a few years will be as common on farms as buggies are now. The auto is taxed anyway, so let's vote for the bond issue and thereby get benefit of the auto license.

Let others speak out that we may know how we stand. A VOTER.

WEST CHILTON.

Singing Sunday afternoon was a good one and largely attended.

Eddie Atchison of Shelby came on Saturday to visit the home folks.

Mrs. Martha Crumpton at this writing is at the point of death. She is one of the oldest ladies in this part of the county.

Yes, we had five Sundays in February, 1880.

Mr. Chapman of Bibb has located on the Mahan farm.

Everything on the farms here is at a stand-still waiting for good weather.

The Free Springs correspondent alluded to a Christmas tree where pandemonium reigned. That proves that fathers mothers and church members have lapsed into indifference, which the noted Claude Chilton has described as Satan's last resort. Indifference is the most baneful of all conditions either politically, religiously, educationally, in business, in the home or anywhere. Yet it is increasing, particularly in church circles, and also in the home. It will produce a bitter harvest. It will sink any community or nation into heathenism if it is allowed to go unchecked.

Singing at James Terry's Sunday night, last.

SOME FACTS CONCERNING THE FIVE-SUNDAY FEBRUARY.

Thorsby, Ala., Jan. 16.

Editor Union-Banner:—I notice a discussion in your current issue, of the five-Sunday February. It happens once every 28 years (once every seven leap years) except when the end of the century comes, as 1900, and we have eight years between leap years. Then it is either twelve or forty years between five-Sunday Februarys. Uncle Dock Wells has forgotten his Sunday birthday in 1880. The next five-Sunday February will be in 1948.

Yours truly,
E. W. BUTLER.

MR. BRYAN FIGHTS A LOSING BATTLE.

The net result of Mr. Bryan's political resurrection will be further disruption of the Democratic party. He can get no following from any but dissatisfied Wilsonites. Any man who has government ownership and treaty compromise planks in his platform must look for support elsewhere than in the ranks of Republicans.

In accepting federal aid the State does not give up any part of its control over the highways, nor of the labor that goes into their construction.

Opponents of Alabama's bond issue have arisen in eastern cities which prefer to see federal aid money go to make those cities the hubs of a natural highway system. The people of this country can't be fooled. Which will most benefit the farmer, to have all the state capitals connected with boulevards, or to have the county capitals connected with dependable and lasting roads? Vote for the bond issue on Feb. 16th.

Contracts under the good roads bond issue are to be let to the lowest and best bidders.

No contract for bond issue roads will be let until all plans and specifications have been thoroughly examined by state and federal highway enginers and approved by them.

Alabama has the option of retaining its present independable road system and losing millions of dollars worth of tourist travel; for Georgia and other neighboring states are building dependable highways to beat the band. Vote for the bond issue Feb. 16th.

Caesar's good roads helped the allies to win the war, and every soldier who has returned from France is an ardent good roads advocate. They know what good roads mean to a country. The American Legionn, at its state convention unanimously endorsed the bond issue.

The Alabama plan, if adopted, promises to become universal. Roads cannot be built without money. Automobiles cannot be run without the roads. Therefore the automobile licenses pay for the roads. Nothing could be more simple or more just.

Every street in every city has been built with a bond issue. And the pull backs said a hundred years ago that the cities would be gobbled up and ruined by it; but they haven't. The cities have been made, not destroyed by their streets.

The state of Alabama has an abutting property law applicable to public highways in the country as well as one for the cities. Maybe the property owner who objects to the bond issue plan would rather have a direct tax placed upon real estate to build the big road in his part of the country.

Those road experiments in Alabama that have proven failures merely show that the system was wrong, and not that good roads cannot be built, or that they should not be built and maintained under another system wherein the mistakes of the past have been taken into account and corrected.

Where the roads are good city people have formed the habit of autoing to the country for their produce. This brings the diversified farmer's market to his front gate.

The above pointers are offered to the voters by the Alabama Highway Improvement Association in substantiation of the argument in favor of the twenty-five million doller road bond issue to be voted on in the state on February 16.

APPRAISERS APPOINTED FOR RIGHT OF WAY OF POWER LINE IN COUNTY.

Condemnation proceedings in the County Court for the right of way of the Alabama Power Company's Selma line through Chilton county were held Monday. Judge Reynolds appointed H. A. Harris, B. F. Higgins and Harrison Smith as appraisers for valuing the land crossed by the right of way, and assessing the damages to property in settlement of the matter between the Company and the landowners concerned.

A CORRECTION.

In the report of the County Treasurer published in The Union-Banner last week the total of the outstanding road wararnts was given as $190,000.00. This was an error. The total of $190,000.00 should have been applied to the amount of the funding road bonds that have been issued by the county. The authorized issue of these bonds was $200,000.00, but there have been only $190,000.00 of them sold.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Sunday, January 18 was a big day at Friendship church. Prof. Draper of the Sunday school department and Rev. Steinback the regular pastor, held things down. This church has recently purchased 100 fine chairs from a Michigan firm at a cost of $350.

The attendance at the Salem Sunday school was the largest in three months. The Assistant Superintendent, Woody in his able review brought out many points of interest in the lesson. The B.Y.P.U. of this church is growing rapidly.

Our public school building is just about half completed. There will be a rally given in its behalf at Salem Church on the Second Sunday in February. We are asking every man to acquit himself like a man, rally to the front and help us raise a big sum It takes lots of money to build in these days of high priced labor and material. We have done well thus far; let us push the battle to the gate and then take the city. We are asking the women of the School Improvement Society to get busy and give us another great push as they did on the Fifth Sunday in November.

Let us reinforce our efforts along the lines of education. Every dollar invested in a school will bring one hundred dollars interest.

If everybody had some education, besides reducing illiteracy, it would bring about a better understanding between the races. There would be less race friction and all would be better citizens.

Education reduces criminality and pauperism. In Switzerland and Holland very few crimes are committed, and there are no begagrs, for the simple reason that the people of the above named countries are highly intelligent.

We in Alabama, at our present rate of progress along the lines of education will eventually come up to the high plane of New York and Massachusetts. We must not relax our efforts, but put our hands deeper into our pockets and supplement the state funds.

We were glad to note that we were not behind the other progressive negroes in the celebration of the Emancipation Day. That day was celebrated in nearly all the larger Southern cities by the colored people.

The rattle of the Bryan skeleton from the Democratic family closet must have been heard plainly within the walls of the White House, only a block or so away.

Lewis Eastesling says he does not particularly care about the eclipse of the sun and moon this year, but he has great hopes of getting in on the total eclipse of the Democratic party.

LET US HONOR THESE MEN.

The birthdays of two of the most eminent Republicans in history will occur shortly and it is enjoined on all patriotic American citizens not to permit these notable anniversaries to pass unobserved.

January 29th is the natal day of William McKinley, the twenty-fifth President of these United States. Soldier and statesman, he typified and stood for Americanism at its very best. His administration signalized an era of national prosperity, unity and constructive progress which people, without regard for party, recall with lofty pride. The memory of that era will ever be bright. His career cruelly terminated at the hands of an alien assassin, the lessons of his patriotic Christian life are of enduring value. The birthday of the beloved McKinley should be made the occasion of an annual observance and celebration.

February 12th is Lincoln day—the anniversary of the birth of the Great Emancipator, whose fame will live throughout the ages. The Republican party, at its birth, gave Abraham Lincoln to the nation and to the world and a union insoluble became his everlasting monument on earth. His preeminent service to mankind is recognized and revered wherever history is known and read. A half century gone has added lustre to his name. No sectional lines are drawn in paying affectionate tribute to his greatness. Many states have fittingly set apart this date as a holiday. In these abnormal times it becomes doubly incumbent upon Americans to give heed to the precepts of the immortal Lincoln. His counsels have gained weight with the passing years. Let them be revived and reread on this his anniversary to strengthen the nation for the working out of its destiny.

Let us remember these two dates—January 29th and February the 12th—and see to it that the events are properly recognized in our schools, in our homes, and most of all in our hearts. Honoring these two great men is a splendid manifestation of patriotic Americanism for anyone.

In his letter in this week's paper favoring the twenty-five million dollar road bond issue in Alabama, "A Voter" sets out by wondering why The Union-Banner does not come out for the bond issue. And likewise, the Union-Banner editor wonders why "A Voter" did not sign his real name to his letter and let his readers know who he is. Looks like "A Voter" is one of those who believe in the theory of "Let George do it." We very often find people who would have the editor come out for this thing or that thing and be the goat. But this editor has been an editor for more than a day or a week.

If "A Voter" wants to know how we stand on the bond issue, we can tell him right here that personally the editor is in favor of it. But we are not caring whether anybody else is for it or against it. If the rest of the people want to vote for it or against it we shall not place as much as a straw in their way. We are not going out through the paper or any other way and take any part in the campaign. In this matter we like to regard ourselves as only a voter just like any other voter, with nothing to do but vote just as we want to and let all the other voters do likewise.

Thos. J. Dorminey, one of our County Commissioners, from Stumps Hills, was in Clanton last Saturday just fooling around and having a good time. He says the roads are bad up toward the hills, and the weather too. He told us a whole mess about how he sits around the fire and bakes his shins, and what he told the old lady about this, that and the other. You know how T. J. is when he gets started (and he is always started.) He finished by saying that the moon still shines in Stumps Hills sometimes, and went his way in joyful anticipation of a Republican landslide this fall.

There will be five eclipses this year. Two of the sun, two of the moon, and a total eclipse of the Democratic party.—Yellow Jacket.

"A VOTER" ENDORSES THE BIG BOND ISSUE FOR ROADS IN ALABAMA.

Editor The Union-Banner:

I am at a loss to understand why some of our correspondents do not touch on the twenty-five milion dollar bond issue. Why is it our Union-Banner does not come out for it?

I am aware of the fact that several of our counties have made the mistake of issuing the limit of bonds for road building, with no provision for up-keep. This is just as foolish as a farmer spending his last dollar for a mule without anyway of obtaining feed for him.

With the 25 million bond issue it is different. All of the mistakes of our several counties have been lessons to us, so in this issue ample provisions have been made for both the building and up-keep of the roads, and for retirement of bonds at the day of their maturity.

Good roads are the entering wedges of progress and prosperity. They promote good schools, make lands more valuable, make it possible to obtain at smaller cost the necessaries for better farming. They bring the markets closer to our farms, because it takes less time to travel the distance, and haul larger loads in, less time, save our teams by making the work lighter.

They promote consolidated schools for one can hardly exist with poor roads.

Montgomery county began road building in a small way just as Chilton did, by running two roads in opposite directions. They proved to be a good investment, so road building has continued until to-day their roads are among the best in the south. The reputation of Montgomery county roads has brought many investors who have established first class farms on lands where negro tenants had for years barely made a living.

It has also been true of Dallas and other counties.

The two highways across Chilton county have pushed it forward many years, and have been and are worth to the county many times the cost.

Now to the point. The 25 million bond issue for roads will benefit every county alike. The auto license will pay every cent of interest and will retire the bonds at maturity so we need have no fears of increase in property taxes. The auto has come to stay and in a few years will be as common on farms as buggies are now. The auto is taxed anyway, so let's vote for the bond issue and thereby get benefit of the auto license.

Let others speak out that we may know how we stand. A VOTER.

The Free Springs correspondent alluded to a Christmas tree where pandemonium reigned. That proves that fathers, mothers and church members have lapsed into indifference, which the noted Claude Chilton has described as Satan's last resort. Indifference is the most baneful of all conditions either politically, religiously, educationally, in business, in the home or anywhere. Yet it is increasing, particularly in church circles, and also in the home. It will produce a bitter harvest. It will sink any community or nation into heathenism if it is allowed to go unchecked.

SOME FACTS CONCERNING THE FIVE-SUNDAY FEBRUARY.

Thorsby, Ala., Jan. 16.

Editor Union-Banner:—I notice a discussion in your current issue, of the five-Sunday February. It happens once every 28 years (once every seven leap years) except when the end of the century comes, as 1900, and we have eight years between leap years. Then it is either twelve or forty years between five-Sunday Februarys. Uncle Dock Wells has forgotten his Sunday birthday in 1880. The next five-Sunday February will be in 1948.

Yours truly,
E. W. BUTLER.

MR. BRYAN FIGHTS A LOSING BATTLE.

The net result of Mr. Bryan's political resurrection will be further disruption of the Democratic party. He can get no following from any but dissatisfied Wilsonites. Any man who has government ownership and treaty compromise planks in his platform must look for support elsewhere than in the ranks of Republicans.

In accepting federal aid the State does not give up any part of its control over the highways, nor of the labor that goes into their construction.

Opponents of Alabama's bond issue have arisen in eastern cities which prefer to see federal aid money go to make those cities the hubs of a natural highway system. The people of this country can't be fooled. Which will most benefit the farmer, to have all the state capitals connected with boulevards, or to have the county capitals connected with dependable and lasting roads? Vote for the bond issue on Feb. 16th.

Contracts under the good roads bond issue are to be let to the lowest and best bidders.

No contract for bond issue roads will be let until all plans and specifications have been thoroughly examined by state and federal highway enginers and approved by them.

Alabama has the option of retainining its present independable road system and losing millions of dollars worth of tourist travel; for Georgia and other neighboring states are building dependable highways to beat the band. Vote for the bond issue Feb. 16th.

Caesar's good roads helped the allies to win the war, and every soldier who has returned from France is an ardent good roads advocate. They know what good roads mean to a country. The American Legionn, at its state convention unanimously endorsed the bond issue.

HALF YOUR LIVING WITHOUT MONEY COST

Continued Southern Farm Prosperity Dependent on Cutting Production Cost Through Food Making and Saving

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"Tens of thousands of farmers in the South will face the problem of making cotton under heavy weevil infestation for the first time in 1920. Their success or failure under these new conditions will be absolutely dependent on the degree that there is food, grain and forage produced on their farms this year," said H. G. Hastings, president of both the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the Southeastern Fair.

"A few weeks ago the newspapers carried the report that an Alabama county was preparing to erect a monument to the boll weevil, because of the good the weevil had done them in forcing them out of the 'all-cotton' poverty producing rut, into the prosperity that always follows a diversity of crops and the production on home acres of every pound possible of food, grain and forage supplies needed by the family and li e stock.

"Our good people here in the South have never, until very recently, taken the home or family vegetable garden seriously as a source of food supply. It has been looked on strictly as a side issue, something of little importance, something to be attended to the last thing on the place. The home garden, rightly handled, can be made to produce half the food needed by the family and practically without money cost.

"The average 'lick and promise' sort of a garden has little value. To be of real value the garden must be planned for, really prepared for, planted right and kept cultivated through the season, and cultivated whenever needed. That kind of a garden will keep its owner's table well supplied with an abundance of healthful food seven or eight months in the year, as well as furnishing an abundance of canned and dried vegetables for winter use.

"Every mess of vegetables direct from garden to table, every can or jar of home canned vegetables from closet shelves, makes a hole in that store bill that is always a terror when 'settling' time comes.

"Good home gardens have been real life savers to thousands of southern farmers who have gone 'flat broke' trying to meet store bills. A good garden will cut the store bill until its size is negligible. Give the garden a fair chance and a square deal in 1920 and the result will be agreeably surprising."

ANNOUNCEMENT OF F. L. TATE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE, 19 CIRCUIT

Having served the people of this Circuit for more than seven years as their solicitor, since which time, serving a year in the office of Attorney General; and since November 18th, 1918 having held courts in various sections of the State as Supernumerary Judge; I feel that this experience has, in a measure, qualified me to serve as Circuit Judge. Therefore I respectfully announce myself a candidate for Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit, subject to the Democratic Primary in May, 1920.

Respectfully,
F. LOYD TATE.

LETTER TO THE ROAD APPORTIONERS OF CHILTON COUNTY.

Clanton, Ala., Jan. 10.

To the Road Apportioners of Chilton County:

By order of the Commissioners Court held on January 1st, 1920, I am directed to request you to ascertain the number of days that each overseer in your pricinct has worked the hands that were apportioned to him during the year 1919, and bring this report to the Commissioners Court February 9, 1920.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Lawrence F. Gerald, Attorney of the Complainant, that the Defendants—Martha Jane Stewart, Minnie Hale, Fannie Busby and Daniel W. Stewart, are non-residents, and that their residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendants are of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring them the said Martha Jane Stewart, Fannie Busby, Minnie Hale and Daniel W. Stewart, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 30th day of January, 1920, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against them.

W. D. SPIGENER,
1-1-4t Register.

The Best Cough Medinice.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jone, a well-known druggist of Cubrun, says "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

CANE CREEK.

Health of this community is not very good. Everybody has colds.

On account of sickness the pastor, Rev. M. J. Parrish, was absent last Saturday. But he was here on Sunday, and preached as fine a sermon as we ever heard in Cane Creek church. He is getting old and his health is not very good. He can not bear to be exposed to the bad weather very much. But he is faithful to attend his appointments and will do his duty if we will only do ours. We miss him very much when he can't fill his appointments. We pray that God may be with him in his sicknes.

Our school at this place is progressing nicely. Our teacher, Prof. H. W. Lowery, son of Rev. W. P. Lowery of Thorsby, is a splendid teacher, and is also a good Sunday school worker.

The people are building an addition to our schoolhouse, and we are going to have to get another teacher. We have more pupils than one teacher can handle successfully.

The farmers are resting now after they have got their crops all harvested. Some of them were late about finishing picking their velvet beans.

Lumber hauling and saw milling are on the boom around here these days. It is about all the work there is that can be done here this time of the year.

Mr. Cleveland Littlefield and family have moved to the place where they lived once before near the gap of the mountain.

TENANT AND COVER CROPS

(By F. D. Stevens, Farm Management Specialist.)

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

Before the advent of the boll weevil the division of expenses between landlords and tenant had been fairly and justly determined, based on final value of product or yield. But with the weevil the yields became so uncertain that it became a question whether or not the tenant could assume a risk further than that represented by his labor alone. It likewise lay with the landlord to so build up his soil as to give maximum yields with a minimum expense for fertilizer. Under the old system where yields were constant it was the custom that the landlord and tenant share the fertilizer expense equally, and divide the yield of both lint and seed equally. Under the adverse weevil conditions some farmers are furnishing all the fertilizer and claiming all of the seed. Some years they may make good money out of such an agreement, but other years they will be fortunate indeed to get their fertilizer money back through the medium of seed produced. This is especially true if they depend solely on commercial fertilizer, and make no effort to bring their land up by the use of cover crops.

But the objection to this proceedure raised by most landlords has been that the tenant, failing to see where he will benefit financially by planting the legumes or cover crops demurs, raises excuses, and if he plants them at all, goes about it so half heartedly that the seeding is so improperly done that the results are almost nil. A single demonstration with such tenants, working with them through the seeding and harvest will often do more than all the argument one can command. Thus one year, on a Lamar County farm, the tenants were told to sow crimson clover, and were directed in the sowing by the landlord. When the seed had ripened the landlord had a homemade stripper ready and assisted the tenants in the gathering of the seed. The result was that after the seed had been sold, one half of their value which went to the tenants was sufficient to pay each of them at the rate of $8 per day for all the labor expended in seeding and harvesting the crop.

Many tenants will demur to planting velvet beans in the corn. They do not like to gather the beans, especially the landlords' half. So it occurs that with this crop it might pay the landlord to give his tenants a little advantage, by allowing them to gather an estimated half of the crop which he can buy from them at the current farm value, allowing his own half to remain in the field to be gathered by his cattle and livestock.

An agreement between landlord and tenants which has lately come to notice, embraces the following essential points:

Cotton—Landlord furnishes all the guano and gets all the seed. Rye, crimson clover, or vetch must be sown in middles when laid by.

Corn—Landlord determines the kind and amount of fertilizer and pays for one half. Corn must be intercropped with soy or velvet beans, or laid by with clover.

Hay—Oats, vetch and crimson clover; of lespedeza, landlord furnishes all seed, and pays the tenants $1. per day for seeding and harvesting. Enough is raised to feed all stock, including the cows furnished the tenants.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF ALABAMA.
Executive Department.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at its regular session in the year 1919, has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session;

AND WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on, to-wit: Monday, February 16th, 1920, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Article XX. Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges in this State serviceable for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five million ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issuance, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of ten dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined, subject to the approval of the Governor by the Highway Commission, who shall also be Highway Bond Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission together with the approval of the Governor thereto, reduced to writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him: that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, attested by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the facsimile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed in lieu of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment thereof the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged that the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. B.—That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, to place sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund, and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges continuously in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicle privilege license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for their maturity and the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that county roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National Government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the county and national government, that said State Highway, roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department, and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended as the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C.—That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department, shall locate, construct and maintain the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held, shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments: said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 98 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 31st day of October, 1919.

AN ALABAMA APPLE ORCHARD

By G. C. Starcher, Horticulturist.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

During the memorable days from '61 to '65, a young Lee county boy, W. H. McClendon, campaigned in the Valley and Piedmont sections of Virginia. Often times apples gathered in the beautiful farm orchards of Virginia made up a large part of his daily rations. When he returned to Alabama, he resolved that he would have an orchard and pass on to others the benefits derived from the culture and use of fine fruit. The McClendon orchard standing on the estate now owned by his sons, three miles east of Opelika, is a living monument to the memory of this man who only recently passed into the great Beyond.

Many trees are now standing in this orchard which were planted nearly forty years ago, and are still in perfect health, and promise to yield bountiful crops for many years to come. The orchard has a bearing record of not less than thirty years without a crop failure, a record equalled by very few orchards in any of the noted fruit growing sections of America, and stands as an absolute evidence that Alabama possesses thousands of acres of unsurpassed apple land. Within the past thirty days, twenty-five bushels of apples have been gathered from one tree in this orchard. The retail price of this fruit would make this crop bring just about $100.00.

The orchard has been under the active management of the Department of Horticulture at Auburn for the past three years. Prior to their taking charge of the management of the orchard, the largest crop brought about $150.00. Their first crop brought in $800.00, due to a bountiful crop at high prices. From the second crop they realized $500.00, as was also the case with the third crop. This record can be duplicated in almost any part of Alabama, if proper attention and care can be given to the orchard.

DELIGHTED WITH WHAT DRECO DID

Suffered For Years With Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Pains in Back and Limbs, Dizziness and Constipation. All Gone Now

"I have just finished taking a bottle of Dreco, and it has made me feel so much better and stronger that I can do all my own housework," said Mrs. M. Blair of Route 1, Huntsville, Ala.

"Before I began taking Dreco," she continued, "I was in a terribly run-down condition; couldn't eat anything, hardly, and didn't sleep much. My trouble started several years ago, and although I tried many different things, nothing prescribed for me seemed to do any good, and I was almost a physical wreck.

'After eating I would feel all bloated with sour gas, and my heart would beat so fast sometimes I would think it was going to jump out of my body. This made me very nervous and I was easy to get excited. I felt so bad that I couldn't take any interest in things. Nearly every day I would read in the newspapers about what Dreco had done for others, and many cases just fitted my symptoms exactly, so I talked the matter over with my husband, and we decided to give Dreco a trial. After a few days it began to brace me up, and I knew I had at last found the right thing my system needed.

"I am now so much better that I can eat most anything I want, and as much as I want, and do not feel any bad effects at all. My husband says I sleep like a log, and he can hardly wake me in the mornings. I never have a headache now and feel strong and well. I am delighted with what Dreco did for me."

When the liver, kidneys or bowels become inactive the system fails to throw off the poisons, and slowly, day by day, we are weakening our bodies till a breakdown comes. Sometimes it takes the form of the above case. Dreco causes the organs to carry off these toxins and waste matter and keep the system free of these poisons.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by UPCHURCH DRUG CO., Clanton.

NITRATE OF SODA AS A SOURCE OF NITROGEN.

On most Alabama soils a little amount of nitrogen is needed in the fertilizer, especially for corn, oats, and other non-leguminous plants. The money spent for nitrogen usually brings a profit if used judiciously, but when we buy nitrogen for our crops we certainly want each dollar to buy as many pounds of nitrogen as possible.

We may buy nitrogen in several different substances, such as nitrate of soda, cottonseed meal, peanut meal, ready mixed fertilizers, etc. The pound of nitrogen does not cost the same in each of these substances. For instance, nitrate of soda contains in the hundred pounds, about 15 pounds of nitrogen, while a good grade of cottonseed meal contains about 7 pounds of nitrogen. Cottonseed meal is now selling for considerably more than nitrate of soda. After making due allowance for the small amount of phosphoric acid and potash in cottonseed meal it will be found that a pound of nitrogen in this form costs more than twice as much as it does in nitrate of soda.

The next question is, "Does a pound of nitrogen in nitrate of soda do as much good to the crop as a pound of nitrogen in some other form?" Tests were made at the Alabama Experiment Station to ascertain the answer to this question, nitrate of soda, cottonseed meal, peanut meal, velvet bean meal and sulphate of ammonia being tested together. The results showed that a pound of nitrogen in nitrate of soda was worth more than in any other form when applied to corn and oats, and equally as much when applied to cotton.

The above comparisons show that nitrate of soda is one of the most profitable sources of commercial nitrogen, if not the most profitable. It is selling at a very reasonable price in the fall of 1919, and it is not likely that a farmer would make a mistake by buying his nitrate of soda early.

NO AUTHORITY FOR U. S. SOLDIERS NOW IN EUROPE.

The United States not having ratified the peace treaty, the American troops will not participate in the plebiscites that are to take place in various European states in the near future. The query arises as to what has become of the soldiers sent from this country to Europe not long ago for that purpose. Because of the instructions he had given his lieutenants in the Senate the President knew when he ordered those troop movements that the Democratic Senators would not give their consent to the ratification. Nevertheless the transports sailed, and the people paid the bill.

MADE MONEY ON COTTON.

We have had called to our attention the record which was made by Mr. W. J. Miner last year in the raising of cotton, and we think it is worthy of special note. Mr. Miner rents land from Mr. M. A. Gore on halves, and he made cotton for his part last year which brought him a little over $900 in cash. Maybe this fact will stimulate somebody to risk a little more this year on the chances of Billy Boll Weevil.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF CLANTON, AS FOLLOWS:

On this, the 26th day of December, 1919, that on the 15th day of December, 1919, the Town Council of Clanton passed an Ordinance to provide for the improvements of certain side walks in the Town of Clanton, Alabame, describing the nature and extent of said improvements, and general character of the material to be used, and the location and terminal points thereof, and the side walks to be so improved, and adopting details, plans, drawings, specifications and surveys of said work, and estimate prepared; that in said Ordinance it was provided that the Town Council of Clanton should meet on the 26th day of December, 1919, at the office of the Town Clerk, Victor J. Heard, to hear and determine all objections and remonstrances that might be made against establishing and constructiong said improvements, or the manner of making the same, or the character of the material to be used; and,

It was provided in said Ordinance that the same be published in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama once a week for two consecutive weeks the first publication to be made not less than two weeks prior to this date; and

That it appeared to the Town Council that full details, plans, drawings, specifications and surveys, and estimates of said work have been prepared and adopted, for the improvements as set forth in said Ordinance, adopted on the 15th day of December, 1919 and for the material to be used in said work, and in the manner of making the same, and that the same has been placed on file in the office of the Town Clerk over W. A. Kemp's store, in the Town of Clanton, Alabame, not later than two weeks prior to this date, where the property owners affected by said improvements could see and examine the same, the same having been placed on file in the office of the Town Clerk, in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, on the 15 day of December, 1919.

It appears to the Town Council that said Ordinance was published in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, once a week for two consecutive weeks next preceding this, the 26th day of December, 1919.

It now appearing that said Town Council has met in pursuance of said Ordinance, and at the time and place named in said Ordinance; and it further appearing that no property owner or other person connected or affected by said improvements as set forth in said Ordinance, has filed or appeared at this meeting, or has appeared and offered, or has filed at said meeting of the Town Council any objections or remonstrances against said improvement, the manner of making the same, or the charactetr of the material to be used.

Therefore, be it resolved that no property owner or other person appeared against the making of said impovements, the manner of making the same, or the character of the material to be used.

FINAL RESOLUTION.

To improve the side walks, curbing and gutters of Sixth and Seventh Streets, between First Avenue and Second Avenue North, in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, as set forth in the said Ordinance, in accordane with drawings, plans, specifications and estitmates already prepared, submitted and adopted.

Therefore, be it resolved, by the Town Council of Clanton, as follows:

First—The said improvements of Sixth and Seventh Streets as provided in said Ordinance adopted December 15th, 1919, and as fully and particularly set forth in the plans, details, drawings, specifications and survey, be improved a nd constructed in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, and that said work be done in acordance with said plans, details, drawings and estimates now on file in the office of the Town Clerk, in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, with the material as provided, and as is provided and stated in said Ordinance adopted December 15, 1919.

Second—That the cost of the establishing and construct of said improvements, as provided in said Ordinane adopted December 15th, 1919, and as provided in said drawings, plans, details, specifications, surveys and estimates, shall be assessed against the property abutting along on the streets where said improvements are made.

Third—That this resolution shall become effective and operative from and after its publication as required by law.

Fourth—That the Town Council shall meet in the office of the Clerk, Victor J. Heard, in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, on Monday, the 26th day of January, 1920, at 7 o'clock, P.M., for the purpose of receiving bids for said work complete in accordance with the said Ordinance adopted Dec. 15th, 1919, and the details, drawings, plans, specifications and estimates as ordered; and that notice is given by the Mayor asking for bids for such work, by publication in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, on the 22 day of January, 1920, and bids to be sealed and presented to the Council at such meeting to be held on Monday, the 26th day of January, 1920, as provided herein.

Approved, this, the 26th day of December, 1919.

FUTILE ATTACKS AGAINST AMERICANISM.

The latest series of compromise reservations to the peace treaty are said to have come from Mr. Bryan. Every Democrat seems to be trying his hand at writing something that will induce the Senate Republicans to retreat from their stand of stalwart Americanism. It is noticeable that each effort approaches a little nearer to the actual language of the Lodge reservations, and there is little doubt that complete capitulation on the part of most of the Democrate Senators is but a matter of a short time.

MORE AMERICAN MURDERS IN MEXICO.

Two more American oil men have been murdered in the Tampico district of Mexico. The State Department has cabled our Ambassador at Mexico City to urge prompt action by the Carranza government for the arrest and punishment of the murderers. And so the death list and the files of protests continue to grow.

PRETTY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Simpson entertained a large number of friends on last Thursday afternoon, celebrating their twelfth wedding anniversary. The guests assembled in their hospitable home at 3 o'clock to extend congratulations.

The house was most artistically decorated in southern smilax, and red and white carnations. Red and white candles lent a soft glow to the whole decorative scheme.

The cutting of the bride's cake was of keen interest to the younger set. Miss Callie Watts scored the fortune while Miss Izora Callen carried off the needle.

Those assisting Mrs. Simpson at this memorable event were Mesdames Luckey, McSwain, Jones, Moore, Callen, Wade, Armstrong and Miss Callen.

The beautifully arranged gift table proved to be a veritable horn of plenty, by the close of the afternoon.

AN APPEAL FOR A LOYAL CITIZENSHIP

SPEECH OF HON. WILL H. HAYS CHAIRMAN OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

I plead for a patriotism in peace as well as in war. Let us not merely have that patriotism which burns in the souls of men only when the country is in danger, but the patriotism of good citizenship in low places and in high places, in season and out of season. Let us have the patriotism which moves men to make their country's welfare their own business and in prosaic times of peace to devote themselves continually in the politics of their community that government is certain to be a good way.

What we need in this country is not less politics, but more attention to politics. There must be two strong political parties and both should be strong and virile. If a political party can't stand for those things which will bear the severest scrutiny it is not entitled to succeed and it will not endure. Let the political parties determine their acts only by how they can contribute most to the common good. Let the individual citizenship give their attention to the party's affairs which is the instrument through which all loyal citizens can apply their patriotism.

There is no zone of twilight in politics. Right is right, and wrong is wrong, and the same strict standard of righteous conduct must obtain in any private business or political matter. With our politics on this basis, and living our citizenship daily, we will do a citizen's duty—and not until then.

I have no use for the man who is too busy to take part in politics. He has no just complaint to make, whatever happens; he is a coward on another person's ticket.

It is strange that men have to be urged to exercise the first privilege of sovereign citizenship; the right to help govern themselves. For this reason this nation was founded; for this right our patriotic forefathers bled for the foundation of this Republic and that this right might be forever men everywhere we fought in France and drenched the plains of Europe with our blood. Unless there is an awakened sense of our civic duty the glorified result or our experience of fire and blood, we have lost the most important lesson of this war. Hundreds of thousands of men and women arose in a spirit of consecrated service and unselfishly have carried the burden of war work at home and abroad. I urge that this army of patriots now realize that they have a duty in peace as well as in war, that the nation needs their continued devotion and that they owe this continued service to their country's welfare. We are the freest government in the world to-day, but our strength rests only in that patriotism which moves us every day to discharge the debt we owe this nation by making and keeping conditions right in this country.

The Republican party is the party of the future. It was born of national necessity, and from that hour it has been a party of patriotism with a loyalty measured only by the possibilities. And now, with our eyes solely on the country's welfare, we

With a determination for an execution consistent with our record squaring our performances with our promises, we will proceed to the fulfillment of the party's legacy. Lord helping, it shall be accomplished!

DEPUTY STATE FIRE MARSHAL VISITED CLANTON.

The Deputy State Fire Marshal, Mr. W. E. Jordan, spent Monday in Clanton on a tour of inspection as is provided by the recent Act of the Legislature creating the office of the State Fire Marshal. It is the intent of this law to prevent as many as possible of the mysterious and uncalled for accidental fires that every year destroy much property and a number of lives.

Mr. Jordan visited all the public buildings and business houses in the City, and took notes of the manner in which he found things relative to the requirements of the law in such cases. He told us that he found some very open instances of carelessness with fire here where the provisions of the law are being neglected and violated.

Those whom he observed neglecting things that are liable to cause fires may expect soon to hear from the State Fire Marshal in regard to correcting those things which were reported by Mr. Jordan.

HIGH SCHOOL WILL TRY TO GET FUNDS FOR A LIBRARY.

To the People of Clanton:

We desire to build up our library at the High School. For this we must depend entirely upon funds raised locally. I have arranged to have a lyceum attraction on Friday night, March 5, from which the High School will get one-half the cash taken in.

I would be very much gratified if all the Clubs and Societies in Clanton would leave off their meetings on that night and come out to our entertainment, which will be announced later.

I assure you I would appreciate this co-operation in building up your own High School Library.

Yours truly,

DEMOCRATS HOPELESS IN 1920 FIGHT

BRYAN'S OPPOSITION TO WILSON AND PARTY'S ANTAGONISM TO GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

Washington, Jan. 27—Hopelessly dissentient in their counsels and yet facing the most scathing opposition, denunciation for incompetency and waste, the Democrats in Congress are desparingly preparing for defeat in November.

Prior to the Jackson Day Banquet which was to be the great harmonizer of all factions after receipt of a letter from President Wilson declining another term, the leaders on both sides of the Capitol were saying that the situation did not really look so bad and that if no further mistakes were made victory might be possible, etc. But the President let it be known by his silence that he is still a candidate for a third term. In his letter he defined the issue as his irreconciliable attitude on the acceptance of the peace treaty and league covenant without the dotting of an i or the crossing of a t.

In view of Senator Hoke Smith's recent statement that he considered patriotism above party, and that he would vote to accept the Lodge reservations because they Americanized the treaty, the President's new declaration was considered by the Democratic leaders as dangerous to the party. William Jennings Bryan's comment that his party could not afford to face defeat by going before the country on the issue of Article X, which would permit foreign nations to say where American boys would fight for all future time has likewise made such an impression upon Democratic Senators and Representatives that they are now much more divided among themselves than before the banquet.

To add to the political snarl, Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio, one of the conspicuous Democratic candidates for the Democratic nomination, who is making it as hot for Governor Cox in his state as possible, has exactly coincided with the opinion of Bryan while Cox has swallowed the attitude of the President, hook, line and sinker. Pomerene is of the opinion that the Lodge reservations are better than no treaty at all. Cox meanwhile berates the Republican leaders for not accepting the position of the President and the Democratic senators, who are in a minority.

So the Democrats have two determined minds, both determined to rule or ruin the party, one of them Wilson, and the other Bryan. On the one issue that they had hoped to unite on and arouse the patriotism of the country on, they are now hopelessly split on. They can no longer go before the country on a platform of repudiation of the Republican efforts to Americanize the treaty, for some of their most prominent leaders take the same view as Senotar Lodge.

But this is not the worst of Democratic troubles. On the railroad issue they are as far as the poles asunder. Bryan has a beautiful panacea for putting the trunk lines into the hands of the federal government and the intra-state lines in the hands of the States. Pomerene and other Democratic Senators bitterly oppose government ownership as destructive of the transportation interests of the people. He is opposed to the Plumb plan which Bryan is inclined to favor. Former Secretary of the Treasurer McAdoo coddles labor by intimating that he will give it anything it asks for. Attorney General Palmer, who brought out the injunction as a means of stopping the coal strike, carefully sidesteps all pitfalls as the railroad question.

It appears from the Washington angle that the great issue of the campaign will be Democratic incompetency, waste, extravagance, injustice, favoritism, promise-breaking, and un Americanism in attempting to foist upon the United States without any change a clever plan for upholding the British Empire in perpetuity.

CANDIDATES OUT FOR COUNTY TAX OFFICES

Politics in Chilton County is Opening With Candidates Out.

Chilton county politics is beginning to come to the surface. There have already been quite a number of candidates to throw their hats into the ring, and from what we can learn there are many more who have heard the buzzing of the political bee in the neighborhood of their bonnets, and are liable to flop at any time now. The primary is only a short distance ahead, and the time is drawing nigh for those who are willing to take the dip in the political current. It is well to remember boys, as you stand shivering on the bank, trying to make up your mind as to whether or not you will brave the curernt, that only a few of you will make the successful landing in the May primary. The others will be carried by on the swift current and wafted onward and out on the vast political sea to take up a small allotment of space for the future with the thousands of others who are merely people and not officers.

Among those whose announcements appear in this weeks paper is Mr. W. G. Culp, who declares himself a candidate for Tax Collector. Mr. Culp needs no introduction to the people of the county. He has been a public man for quite a number of years, having taken an active interest in the cause of music and music teaching, and in that way he became well known among the people of the county. He has been for a long time a prominent and valuable figure in the work of the Chilton County Singing Convention. For the last two years Mr. Culp has been holding the office of Deputy Sheriff under Sheriff J. L. Gore. In this capacity he has added largely to his circle of friends county. He has made a splendid record as Deputy Sheriff. He has the reputation everywhere he is known, as being a good man, and a loyal advocate of the principles of the Republican party.

The Tax Collector's office is also the target of Tom Rockett's guns. He has his aim carefully laid and is going to make a desperate effort to hit the bull's eye. Mr. Rockett is another well-known and much-liked man. He lives at Cooper in Beat 10, but he has many friends all over the county who will be glad to vote for him. This is not the first time Mr. Rockett has aspired to political office. He was a candidate for County Commissioner four years ago, but was defeated in the primary by Mr. Vinson. Tom believes that if you don't at first succeed, try, try again. Besides his former career as a candidate, Mr. Rockett has always exercised great interest in the politics of the county. He has been a staunch friend of the Republican party, and we have no doubt that he might be properly reckoned as one of the men to whom must be attributed the success of the party in the county. Mr. Rockett is a business man of splendid ability. He has always managed his personal affairs successfully.

Another good man who would like to be Tax Collector is Mr. J. Z. Mims. He, like Mr. Rockett, believes in the old saying: 'If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.' Mr. Mims was a candidate for Tax Collector in the Republican primary in 1912, but was defeated by Mr. J. D. Collins. Since that time he has been going along in his quiet way, faithful and active for the party, waiting for the time to come when he might put in his bid again for the place. Now the time has come and Mr. Mims is trying again. He is well known in the county, by virtue of his former dip into the political pot, and his career as a school teacher. He has been one of the best school men in our county, having been engaged in teaching for a nubmer of years. He has always been a loyal supporter of the cause of the Republican party. His claim upon the votes of the people will be strengthened by his loyal adherence in the past, and his faithfulness in asking for a place among our county officeholders in spite of his former defeat.

MAPLESVILLE ITEMS.

The Teachers Reading Circle of this district met here Friday. An interesting program was rendered.

Mr. John W. Foshee made a business trip to Birmingham Wednesday.

Miss Laura Patrick of Montgomery was the guest of Mrs. C. N. Parnell the last week.

Jack Northrup, Jr., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Northrup, is improving after an illness of three weeks with pneumonia.

Mesdames C. N. Parnell and W. A. Willis attended the quarterly meeting of the W. M. U. at Plantersville last Tuesday.

Mrs. Farmer Apperson, one of our popular tachers, spent the week-end at her home in Billingsley.

Miss Etha Nix of Macedonia visited Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Nix the past week.

Messrs. Tom Crumpton and Leighon Parnell, who are attending the University of Alabama, spent Sunday with home folks.

The W. M. U. will meet at the Baptist church Wednesday, P. M. All the ladies of Maplesville and vicinity are cordially invited.

FREE SPRINGS.

Rev. W. E. Skelton filled his regular appointment here last Second Sunday. His subject was, "The Lord has no Respect of Persons."

Miss Edna Foshee spent Sunday night with Miss Rosa White.

Miss Johnnie Hayes paid a short visit to Miss Laura Foshee Monday afternoon.

Some of us feel more concern about the rebuilding of the bridge at the Hatcher place than we do about the prpoosed $25,000,000 bond issue. We can't get our mail when it rains because our carrier, Mr. Shivers, cannot ford the creek.

Our wheat is certainly fine—so fine that you can hardly see it.

Never heard of so many dances. It seems as if most people have quit work and gone into dancing.

We say that we have had one President who never told a lie. Can't we also say that we have had one President who told a lie that was heard round the world?

Miss Jonnie Hays says if we are not going to have any more schools, she thinks they ought to pull down the schoolhouse and sell the lumber and pay Rev. Skelton.

BOX SUPPER.

We have made two unsuccessful attempts to give a box supper on account of rain. We are going to try once more. The supper will be given at Cane Creek six miles from Clanton, on the Lock 17 highway, Saturday night, January 31. Everybody is invited to come.

Republicans to Give Delegates no Orders

STATE CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN BIRMINGHAM IN MAY AS COMMITTEE DECIDES

Uninstructed delegates from Alabama will attend the Republican National Convention if recommendations contained in resolutions introduced by J. M. Pennington, of Walker County, before the meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of Alabama, at the Hillman Hotel Tuesday at eleven o'clock and adopted, are carried out. Only two members of the committee were absent and more than a hundred other Republicans were present.

It was also decided that the State Republican Convention will be held in Birmingham May 31, 1920. All of the committeemen voted in favor of this selection.

Resolutions condemning the League of Nations as it now stands were unanimously adopted, also resolutions endorsing the Lodge reservations and urging the Republican members of the Senate to stand behind Senator Lodge to the last ditch in this fight.

The meeting of the Committee was presided over by Pope Long, who in an opening speech stated the purpose and plans for the coming campaign.

"I can say this to you, gentlemen," he said initially, "the next President of the United States will be a Republican. The people of this nation are tired of the Democratic party with its autocratic ideas and broken promises."

Among those speaking were J. M. Pennington of Walker County, N. B. Spears of Pell City, W. L. Chenault of Russellville, and O. D. Street, a member of the National Republican Committee.

All of the speakers claimed that a majority of the voters now registering in the state are planning to vote a straight Republican ticket.

The subject of a Republican nominee was discussed by the committeemen, but no particular man was indorsed. However, when N. B. Spears stated in his speech that there was no need to go outside of the Senate to choose a man for the Presidency, again when he mentioned Senator Lodg of Massachusetts, he was loudly cheered.—Birmingham Ledger.

MONTHLY MEETING OF THE MINISTERS AND DEACONS.

The monthly meeting of the Ministers and Deacons Conference of the Chilton County and Unity Baptist Associations will be held at the Clanton Baptist church on Feb. 2, 1920. at 9:30 A. M. It is desired that there be a full attendance at this meeting.

PREDICAMENT OF DEMOCRATS.

There is not a Democrat in these United States who can be elected as President in November. The party does not offer a single man who can face the people and undertake to explain its autocratic record and broken promises of the past eight years, and induce the country to trust him with the affairs of the country as President.

There is nobody who has a clearer realization of this vexing predicament of the Democrats than the Democratic leaders themselves. They know they have no chance of winning on their past record. They know they have acted in such a way that the country has lost all confidence in their policy. Consequently they are casting about trying to find some man who has no political record at all whom they might induce to accept the Democratic nomination in the hope that he might not have to bear the burden of Democratic administration sins in going before the people. In this dilemma the talk is going strong for Herbert Hoover. The Hoover advocates urge that he is the only chance the Democrats have of electing a President this year. They point out that the Democrats must present a candidate who will appeal to the independent voters, and thus admit that the Democratic party has gone to pieces literally.

It is further argued that Hoover has always been a staunch supporter of President Wilson, and it is said that he wrote a letter in 1918 joining the President in his famous demand of that year that the country elect none but Democrats to Congress, the strange result being that they elected everything but Democrats. They had better not have said anything about Hoover's support of and endorsement of Wilson. That will only insure his defeat by the voters. This country has an eye full of Wilson Democracy, and this year is going to see them voting for the man and the measures that stands the farthest from Wilson and his Democratic doctrine of socialistic internationalism. There is going to be above all else in this country this year, a full and complete repudiation of the things the Democrats have done and not done in the past eight years.

Aint it a nice come off for a gang who have had control of this country for eight years to make such a record of failure that they are ashamed of it and are afraid to acknowledge it to the people?

CHAIRMAN HAYS' SPEECH

We call the attention of our readers this week to the speech of Hon. Will H. Hays, Chairman of the Republican National Executive Committee, which we are publishing on the first page. Mr. Hays deals with the important subject of Citizenship in his characteristic and masterful way. His admonition to the people of the country to exercise their privilege of the ballot is particularly appropriate at this time when everybody should be taking advantage of their last opportunities of this year to pay their poll taxes and get ready to vote in the elections that are to be held this year. Let us not ride on the other person's ticket. We should all be men, and do a man's part in the affairs of our country by holding to and exercising our privilege of voting.

It might be interesting to our readers to know how we are able to publish this speech of Mr. Hays. The story of the transaction is this:

Judge Reynolds has the speech on a phonograph record, just as it was originally spoken by Mr. Hays. He requested Miss Cuba Keith to take the speech in shorthand from the phonograph which she did, and put it in typewritten form. It was from this copy of the speech that we put it into type and printed it in this week's paper.

NOTICE TO MIDWIVES.

There will be an examination at the office of Dr. V. J. Gragg on Tuesday, Feb. 10, 1920, for those who wish to make application for the practice of midwifery in Chilton county. It is unlawful for anyone to engage in the practice without a license.

WE ARE FOR SHERMAN.

For the best man in the Senate of the United States, we name the Hon. Lawrence Y. Sherman of Illinois. There are several reasons for this which we have noticed in following his career in the Senate and in public life for the past few years.

First of all he is the one United States Senator who has had the nerve to stand on the floor of the Senate and declare the open outrage of the Roman Catholic intrigue in world affairs as planned t hrough the adoption of the League of Nations. This country will never be safe for the perpetuation of the principles of Americanism until the menace of Roman Catholicism is throttled and choked to death within our country. It is as fatal to our ideals and institutions as the reddest of the red Bolshevism. And it will never be throttled until the valve at Washington is closed—the valve through which Roman Catholicism has been pouring for years past and adulterating the fruits of our American government. Sherman sees the handwriting on the walll, and he is brave enough to point it out to the country, crying from the housetops. There are many of our government watchmen at Washington who are standing on their posts, and are afraid to cry out the approach of the enemies that are passing into our gates in vast hordes.

Another thing that makes us like Mr. Sherman is the fact that he stands strictly for an Americanized peace treaty. He has let it be known that he will quit the Republican party before he will submit to compromises on the treaty that will leave the interests and ideals of America unprotected. That's us all over, Mabel! We do not believe the American people want to go into the league of nations at the sacrifice of those ideals which have been the foundation stones of our national independence and international integrity. We agree with Sherman, that if the Republican party is going to desert this nation as the Democrats have done, we are ready to quit it. We are for America first, last and all the time, in spite of any political party or Catholic heirarchy.

But we will not have to quit the Republican party. It has always been the party of Americanism, and it will remain so, if it does take open repudiation of the peace treaty and the league of nations, and a slap in the face of Woodrow Wilson and the Roman Catholics. There will be more men like Sherman in the Republican party who will openly declare themselves before the next campaign is over. Political parties in this country are going to have to wash their hands of the Roman Catholic schemer and we predict that the Republican party will be the first to perform that necessary operation.

SOMETHING NEW IN CLANTON

This week is the first time people have ever seen paper money in circulation bearing the name of a Clanton Bank. The First National Bank has placed its government notes in circulation here, and they bear the name of The First National Bank of Clanton, and the signatures of Jno. C. Page, Cashier, and E. E. Upchurch President.

Only National Banks can issue the government notes, and then only by buying an amount of government bonds and placing them on deposit in the Treasury Department at Washington to back up their currency. The First National Bank of Clanton has done this, and has won the distinction of being the first bank to do the stunt in Clanton.

Mr. Page, Cashier of the First National, says he will be glad to issue this new currency to anyone for old currency if they desire such.

Only the Genius of An Edison Could Produce

THE NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

The World's Greatest Phonograph Value

You need a phonograph in your home. Every home in the U. S. A. needs the cheering, soothing, refining influence of good music. But you want the best phonograph made—no other is good enough for your home, your family, your friends.

How can you tell which is the best? Easy—if you use common sense. Difficult—if you trust to the claims of numerous manufacturers.

Look for the man behind the phonograph—the brain that evolved it and perfected it. If you cannot discover any personality behind an instrument you may well doubt its perfection.

The brain of Thomas A. Edison, the greatest inventive genius in the world, is the birthplace of the Amberola! Edison has perfected every detail of this wonder phonograph until in every way it is superior to ordinary phonographs and "talking machines!"

The tone has been pronounced superior to that of other well-known phonographs by scores of phonograph experts after striking tests. The genuine Diamond Point Reproducer is permanent—no changing of needles. The wonderful Amberol Records, in [illegible] Every month [illegible] Amberol Records are [illegible] the latest hits and best recordings of famous artists.

Go, listen to other phonographs and "talking machines" if you will—then come here and listen to the wonderful Amberola. After [illegible] remember that the name [illegible] of the greatest invention of the age guarantees its supremacy.

Last but not least, Edison has succeeded in making this remarkable phonograph to sell at prices considerably lower than inferior "talking machines."

3 Days' FREE Trial

We will place an Amberola in your home for a 3 Days' Trial which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

SCENE FROM STROHEIM'S WONDER-PLAY
"BLIND HUSBAND'S"
UNIVERSAL-JEWEL DE LUXE

Here is a photodrama which is at once an absorbing love ctory—a gripping portrayal of human passions—a thrilling adventure picture—and a marvelous, glorious scenic—staged amidst enthralling Alpine scenery, this drama of two men and a neglected wife rises to heights of emotion as towering as the mighty peaks which are the silent witnesses of the great disaster—and happy surprise at the end.

Seven reels of the most absorbing drama you ever took part in. To tell you one word of the plot would destroy the most tremendous hour of dramatic entertainment you've ever known. We'll simply say that as the action unfolds you will grow powerless to leave your seat. It will be as if you yourself were one of the actors. You will pass through their trials and temptations, make your great decision in the moment of crisis, reap what you have sown. And when all is over you will be uplifted as never before by any moving picture. On no account fail to see the wonderplay, "BLIND HUSBANDS," the picture you'll never forget.

PREPARING SEED FOR THE PEANUT CROP.

By H. B. Tisdale, Associate Plant Breeder.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

The prices which have been paid for peanuts would naturally cause most of the crop to go, regardless of the need of seed for planting the next crop. Planting seed of peanuts will be scarce and at a very high price. Economy in the use of seed will be very important.

Hand shelling is the first and most important act of economy in the use of peanut seed. During the process of hand shelling all damaged peanuts and nuts of other varieties may be removed. Then too, the amount of shelled nuts required per acre is about one-third of the amount required in the hull.

Many bruised, broken and diseased nuts are concealed in the hulls. It has been found by experiments at the Alabama Experiment Station and by experience of others that bruised and broken nuts will not germinate. It is well known that when peanuts are run through thrashers and pickers many nuts are broken and bruised. By hand shelling all damaged and diseased nuts are easily removed. The highest market price is paid for uniform, unmixed White Spanish peanuts. White Spanish peanuts generally have varying quantities of Red Spanish and other varieties mixed with them, which can not readily be distinguished in the hull. These foreign varieties can easily be removed during the process of hand shelling.

When peanuts are planted in the hull from two to three bushels are required per acre. When shelled nuts are planted only from one-half to three-quarters bushel is required per acre, thus saving considerable peanuts and the time and labor in planting them. It also insures a good stand of plants, because the damaged and diseased nuts have been removed together with the hulls which retard the entrance of moisture and delay germination.

During the months of January, February and first half of March more labor is idle than at any other time in the year. This labor can be utilized very effectively in shelling seed peanuts. It is a job that can be done most conveniently indoors around the fireside.

Commercial shelling machines should not be used for shelling seed peanuts. These machines bruise and break from 35 to 50 per cent of the nuts and the germination of machine shelled nuts is very low.

BUYING TOGETHER SAVES $4,500.

A farmers' supply association, organized by the farm bureau of Crawford County, Ohio, saved $4,500 to farmers on a business last year of $49,500. The association has a capital stock of $10,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $10 each.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF ALABAMA.
Executive Department.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at its regular session in the year 1919, has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session;

AND WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on, to-wit: Monday, February 16th, 1920, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Article XX. Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges in this State serviceable for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama, interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five million ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issuance, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of ten dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined, subject to the approval of the Governor by the Highway Commission, who shall also be Highway Bond Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission together with the approval of the Governor thereto, reduced to writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him; that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, attested by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the facsimile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed in lieu of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment thereof the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged that the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. B.—That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, to place sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund, and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges continuously in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicle privilege license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for their maturity and the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that county roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National Government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the county and national government, that said State Highway, roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department, and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended as the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C.—That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department, shall locate, construct and maintain the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held, shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments; said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 93 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 31st day of October, 1919.

The perfect photoplay! A love-story as appealing as the most beautiful romance in your memory—an adventure picture as gripping as any serial thriller—a scenic novel as wondrous as the most inspiring travel picture. But first and foremost—a human drama of artistic quality not before felt or seen in moving pictures. Whose people are real flesh and blood struggling for happiness, each in his own way rising, falling, stumbling upwards—whose settings are wonders of photo-realism—whose faithful detail is an eye and mind delight—whose story holds your heart a helpless prisoner till the last tremendous moment comes and the glorious surprise sends you away in a glow of happiness. With its absorbing action staged amidst enthralling Alpine scenery, "BLIND HUSBANDS"—the story of two men and a neglected wife—is a soul-revelation whose emotions rise as high as the peaks towering out of the abyss towards which Fate implacably drives one of these two men. See "BLIND HUSBANDS" without fail. It is the picture you'll never forget.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

We publish below the names of the colored people who have contributed to our school fund:

Isaac Benjamin	$1.00
R. W. Williams	1.00
Deacon Brown	1.50
J. P. Pearson	1.50
L. H. Zeigler	2.50
Houston Kennedy	5.00
Ben Brown	2.00
Henry Kennedy	1.00
Peter Williams	1.00
Dr. Bill	1.00
Rev. Mims	1.00
Thomas Stoudenmire	1.00
Mr. Rucker	1.00

We are indeed indebted to the above named persons who are not patrons of the school, but lovers of the cause of education, for their contributions. We also hope that this will inspire other colored men to invest in a good cause.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the services at the colored churches in Clanton on last Sunday were not well attended. A few regular church-goers, however, braved the wind and rain and listened to a fine sermon delivered by Rev. Mixon at Salem. He spoke on the creation of man, showing how wonderfully God made provisions for him before his creation. Rev. Mixon preaches very thoughtful sermons, and the people like to hear him. He does not confine his activities to the church. He takes and active interest in our school project and also in the social and economic welfare of the community.

We Dare taking this opportunity to remind our friends and patrons that our rally comes off on the Second Sunday in February next, at which time we are hoping to raise $400 to help complete our new school building. We have many bills to pay. The business men in Clanton who sell building material have been very generous to us. The work on the building has been temporarily stopped on account of the weather.

A glee club was organized on Monday, January 26th, in conection with the school. This club is under the supervision of Mrs. Mattie Wilson, Anna McCall, Carrie Bedsoe, Lela Woods, and Miss Mattie Lee Dickinson.

This is the last time we shall have an opportunity through the paper to call your attention to the payment of your poll tax for this year. February 1 will be the last day you can pay under the law, and as that day comes on Sunday, you will have to pay up on Saturday, Jan. 31 if you expect to vote in the elections this year.

THE WHISKEY QUESTION.

Editor Union-Banner—I am requested by a citizen of your town to write a few words on the whiskey question, if you can call it a question. I hardly know how to begin, I feel so incompetent to tackle a subject of such great importance.

The first question that arises in my mind is who and what is a man who sets up in the business called the bar or whiskey business? Is he a friend to your town Is he a friend to your family? Or is he a friend to the sacred trust which God has given him, to-wit: his own family?

My God What will become of such persons? But I don't suppose it is worth while to worry after them when they are gone. The world will be bettter off without them. If they erect a business in hell probably their goods will not freeze as they sometimes do here.

But there is another class whom we have here that I detest if possible more than I do the public liquor dealer and that is the man who assiduously damns the rum demon, makes fearful temperence talks, ostentatiously votes the prohibition ticket, groans like a sick calf when he sees a young man come out of a bar room, then sneaks up a dirty alley, crawls through the side door of a second class saloon, calls for the cheapest whiskey in the shop, runs the glass over trying to get the worth of his money, pours it down at a gulp, and scoots in a hurry for fear someone should ask him to treat; who keeps a jug of a dollar a gallon bug juice under his bed and sneaks to it like a thieving hyena digging up a dead nigger, rents his property for saloon purposes, then piously prays the Lord to protect the young from temptation. He that fills the above description steals a humanheart and tramples it beneath his brutal heel; he that feigns a friendship he does not feel. He that fawns upon his fellows and hugs them hard to his breast and then steals their souls as one of hell's commission merchants and is the foulest fraud in all this land of fakes, the most hideous humbug in all of hell's unclean heirarchy.

I said in the outset that those just described are no friends to the human race. True friendship! Oh, can anyone fathom the true meaning thereof? I am sometimes tempted to believe that the only friendship that will stand fire is that of a yellow dog to a pauper negro. Strike a friend for a small loan and his affectiong grows suddenly cold. Lose your fortune and your sweetheart sends you word that she will be a sister to you. Your brother will betray you for boodle, your father will fight you for a foolish flag, and your heirs at law will dance when they hear of your death. But the devotion of a yellow dog for a worthless nigger hath all seasons for its own.

If this does not reach the waste basket, I may come again.

R. E. ROPER.
Jan. 26, 1920. Maplesville, Ala.

(Note—It seems to us that the object of the above bitter denunciation is a thing of the past. The kind of people whom this article is attacking have long since been outlawed from this country. If Mr. Roper wishes to come again on the subject of the whiskey evil, we suggest that he treat the evils that are existent in our county to-day, to-wit: the man who makes his bug juice in the pale light of the moon, and vends it on the streets of our towns and at our churches and Sunday schools and all-day singings. The saloon and its patrons have already been whipped to a frazzle in America. Now for the method of getting rid of the moonshiner and the boot-legger. What do you say to that question, Mr. Roper? —The Editor.)

BEST FOR ALL CROPS

SOUTH ATLANTIC GUANO COMPANY
(SUBSIDIARY MORRIS FERTILIZER CO.)
ATLANTA — MONTGOMERY

Every farmer has it in his power very largely to prevent crop failure. By proper selection of seed, timely cultivation and, most important of all, a careful selection of dependable fertilizers, he gives his crop a good, healthy start and keeps it vigorous throughout critical seasons.

The South Atlantic Brands are made of high class materials, selected with a view to giving service when service is needed. They start the crops off quickly and maintain the growth and fruit till harvest. The high grade animal ammoniates we use insure late fruiting and development, and also liberate potash from the soil.

By their liberal use, the cotton crop is brought to a quick and healthy maturity, thus escaping shedding losses and the ravages of the boll weevil.

Don't risk your crop on inferior fertilizers, but demand and insist on getting the South Atlantic Brands.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Gonzales, Tex.— Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days ...I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go...I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle...I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

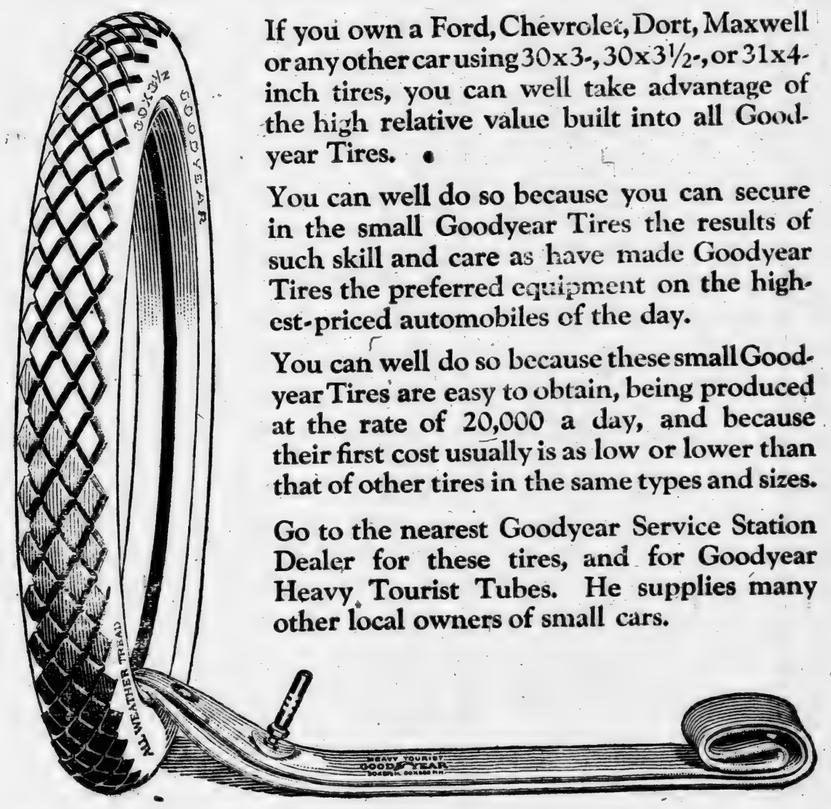
Equip Your Small Car With Goodyear Tires



If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3-, 30x3½-, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the small Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest-priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these small Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of small cars.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag..... $3.90

HOOVER DUE FOR A SURPRISE

Herbert Hoover, the self-styled food wonder, is trying hard to win the Presidency. If he succeeds to any degree, he will undoubtedly have a lot of propaganda about how he won the war by saving food, how two loaves of bread rise where only one came up before, and all that sort of sob-stuff. Hoover supporters are going on the theory that the women of the country will fall in line and vote for education before his shrine. They are going to find themselves sadly mistaken—that is if Hoover gets as far as a start. The women of this country are the ones who saved by skimped on wheat flour, cut down on sugar, and made dishes out of left-overs foods that mere man never knew of before. They are the ones who won the war, if saving food won it. And they are going to resent any attempt of Hoover or anybody else to take that credit, if credit it should be. And in addition to this side of the question, the women of the United States became thoroughly disgusted with the dictates of the Food Administration. Men and women receiving high salaries floated back and forth through the country, riding in Pullman cars, telling the housewife how to can peaches, pears, beans, tomatoes, etc. Who could blame the hard-working country house wife, one who has been raised on the art of canning fruits and vegetables, if she resented some high-heeled "city gal" from the Food Administration with a patent recipe signed with Hoover's autograph and guaranteed to save more sugar, who came into her kitchen to tell her how to can? Hoover will never walk away with any portion of the women vote of the country, not if he were running for County Sheriff.

THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

(By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

On the eve of the anniversary celebration of the local branch of the Boy Scouts of America, it seems fitting that something should be said to enlighten the people and emphasize the importance of this organization. The lack of cooperation on the part of many of the parents and of the citizens in this excellent movement is due to lack of information as to the real purpose and benefits of the movement.

The Boy Scouts are an organization of boys and youths from twelve to eighteen years of age, designed to develop character by appealing to the natural activities and interests of that period. The merit of first recognizing and giving practical form to this idea is claimed for Dan Beard, with his "sons of Daniel Boone" and more strongly for Ernest Thompson Seton with his "Woodcraft Indians." Mr. Seton after several years of planning organized in 1902 a central camp at his country home, Wyndgoul Park, Cos Cobb, Conn. The chief aim of both societies was the love and practice of out door life.

At the siege of Mafeking in the Boer War, when every man was needed at his post Sir Robert Baden Powell had seen the boys under Lord Cecil's command, drilled and organized into an efficient messenger corp. With this incident and with the success of the American society in mind General Baden Powell suggested in lectures in 1907 that Scouting be taken up by boys welfare societies. The idea met with such wide favor that a general plan of organization was adopted.

The laws of the Boy Scouts demand honor, loyalty to superiors, patriotism, helpfulness, courtesy, kindness to animals, obedience to the elders, cheerfulness and thrift. Before a boy can qualify to be a scout he must know the twelve points of the Scout Law in which the above principles are inculcated; he must promise on his honor "to do his duty to God and country and to obey the Scout law, to help other people at all times and to keep himself physically strong, mentally awake and moraly straight." He must also know the history of the flag and the general principles that help to make good citizens. This partially constitutes the first degree work. Two other degrees are eligible to the boys as they progress in the elementary knowledge of First Aid to the injured, signalling, camping and woodcraft, and a knowledge of the things of nature. Indeed if a boy thoroughly masters the three degrees of Scoutcraft he knows much that is not only worth while but will be useful to him throughout the rest of his life. He is expected to do a good turn or kindly deed every day and to be prepared to act in all times of emergency. Special medals are given for first hand acquaintance with animals or plants, for special proficiency in signalling, seamanship or on marksmanship, and for saving life or other meritorious service. Hiking and camping and supervision constitute the outdoor exercises during the summer months. While the military descipline and training is used, it is not a military organization and is non-sectaran in character.

There are now several hundred Boy Scouts in America and the movement has attained international fame.

Boy Scouts are not allowed to smoke or swear, thus, if for no other reason, it is worthy of the support and cooperation of the parents. In addition to this Clanton has reason to be proud of the Boy Scouts Band of eighteen pieces, an achievement by no means easy to attain, but for which Mr. Rich deserves the best thanks of the people.

There are some fifty or more boys who at the present could belong to this local branch of the movement, but stricter discipline is necessary on the part of the parents over the boys who join, and their encouragement of the boys to apply themselves to all the benefits that the movement offers in the matter of First Aid Work and the other subjects that the boy can learn.

One Scout Master cannot do it all, nor one executive committee. Like all matters of public welfare it needs the hearty and sympathetic cooperation of all concerned. Your assistance and endorsement of the effort put forth here at considerable sacrifice will be appreciated.

Anniversary services from February 8th to 14th inclusive, in Clanton.

JUST A CHANGE OF MIND.

The "Reds" should not be so disappointed over the fact that the Wilson administration finally turned against them. The Wilson administration has a habit of changing its mind when it finds that it is on the unpopular side.

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE.

A Dirtict Sunday School Evangelism Conference will be held at Liberty Hill Church, on Sunday, Feb. 8, 1920. All christians of all denominations are invited. Our aim is to have every pastor, suptrintendent, teacher and Sunday School worker in the district present at the conference.

This Conference will be one of four hundred Conferences held in the State under the auspices of the Evangelism Committee of the Alabama Sunday School Association. Come and help make our district conference the best of the four hundred.

It will be especially interesting to the people of this district to know that Prof. H. C. McDonald will be present at this Conference to take a part in the program and make a Sunday school lecture. Prof. J. L. Johnson and other local Sunday School workers will also be present and take an active part in the program. An elaborate program of exercises have been prepared for the entire day, and we hope to have a ready response from the Sunday school and church people of the district in making the day a succes.

H. A. HARRIS,
District President.

WHY HE DIDN'T PAY OFF.

A certain buyer, upon receiving a request to send a check covering his bill, sent the following letter:

"For the following reasons I am unable to send you the check asked for:

"I have been held up, held down, sandbagged, walked on, sat on, flattened out and squeezed. First by the United States Government for federal war tax, excess profits tax, Liberty loan Bonds, thrift stamps, capital stock tax, and by every society and organization that the inventive mind of man may or may not possess.

"I have been solicited by the Society of John the Baptist, the G. A. R., the Womans Relief, the Navy League the Red Cross, the Black Cross, the Double Cross, the Childrens Home, the Dorcas Society, the Y. M. C. A., the Boy Scouts, the Jewish Relief, the Y. W. C. A., and every hospital in town. Then, too, on top of it all came the Associated Charities and the Salvation Army.

"The government has so governed my business that I don't know who owns it. I am suspected, inspected, examined, required and commanded until I don't know who I am. All I know is I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race. And all because I will not sell all I have and go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away. I have been cussed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, held up, hung up, robbed and nearly ruined, and the only reason I am clinging to life is to see what the h—— is coming next."—Exchange.

CARD OF THANKS.

Gratefully do I return thanks to many friends who gave their sympathy and assistance during the illness of my daughter Sallie. Gladly do I take this opportunity of announcing to these friends that the patient has returned home from the infirmary; that she is able to be up and to get around indoors. I hope that the spring time holds in store for my daughter permanent recovery.

Gratefully,
MRS. BIRDIE PARRISH.

GERMANY TO PUBLISH 1916 PEACE DATA.

It is said that Germany is to publish the diplomatic correspondence between Berlin and Washington preceding the German peace offer of 1916. When those data are available we may know something of the basis upon which Mr. Wilson was willing to see peace consummated between the European belligerents.

CANE CREEK

Our box supper which we had Saturday night was fine. Everybody enjoyed it. This is our second one we have had this winter, but this time we made a great success. There were more boxes than before; but the boys must have eaten supper before they left home from the way they did.

The Busy Bee Committee has made up a great amount to help equip our school building.

Below are the names of those who have contributed to our school:

W. A. Kemp, $1.50; W. W. Jones, $.50; Howard Foshee, $1.00; J. D. Collins, $1.00; Jessie Baker, $.25; Tom Jones, $.25; Bean Brothers, $2; Ada Giles, $.50; William Heath, $1; Pearl Robinson, $1.00; Jesse Pierce, $1.00; Sarah Lambert, $1.00; Wallace Cox, $.25; Bertha Giles, $1.00; Lillie Mae Weldon, $1.00; W.J. SAM PATE COMES OUT A CANDIDATE FOR ASSESSOR

We carry to the people this week the announcement of Mr. Sam Pate of Thorsby as a candidate for Tax Assessor of Chilton County. Mr. Pate is the first man to make a formal declaration for this office. He made the race for Tax Assessor four years ago and was defeated in the primary by Mr. J. N. Dennis.

NEW INDUCEMENTS.

One of Clanton's clever and prominent business men recently acquired a new colored cook woman at his home. A few days after her advent as an adjunct to the culinary arrangements of his household, he chanced to overhear her talking to his wife in regard to the "Scripter."

In explaining why the Savior came into the world to suffer and die she said: "He come to save 'publicans' and sinners, and sho as you is born, ef I wuz a man I would be a 'publican,' so I'd have some kind of chance of bein, saved. Yes mam!"

OUR NEXT PRESIDENT.

You all know Uncle Dock Wells. The other day a gentleman met him on the street and said to him: "Uncle Dock, you are something of a prophet and I want you to tell me who will be our next President."

The gentleman was naturally astonished at the promptness and assurance of the reply, so he asked for Uncle Dock's reasons.

Uncle Dock promptly referred him to Matthew the 24th chapter, where the Savior told his audience that he who held out faithful to the end would be saved, and he said Bryan had undoubtedly held out faithful as a seeker after that job until he has almost reached the end of his mortal career, so he felt like, in accordance with that promise, he was due to win the Presidency this time.

Don't You Forget it.

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They contain no pepsin or other digestive ferment but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform naurally.

BAD ROADS HURT BUSINESS

In the last few weeks there is a very noticeable falling off of business in Clanton. Tracing the cause of this slump back to its origin we find that the extremely bad condition of our county roads is responsible for it.

Clanton holds some importance as a lumber market, and when the roads will permit there is a vast amount of lumber put on the cars here. The lumber and mill business turns loose quite a bit of money here every week when operations are not disturbed. The shut down that has been caused lately can be felt keenly.

Then too, this town is a big farm market. Much of the produce of the county finds its outlet through Clanton. But for the last few weeks the bad roads have prevented much of this trade. And the farmers spend lots of money in Clanton, and when they are kept away from here by the bad roads the town suffers for the trade we are deprived of and the farmers suffer for the articles which they need to buy.

Right now is the best time in the world for our people to see the need of good roads, just when every road in the county is so very bad. Maybe these bad roads will be some inducement for votes in favor of the good roads bond issue on February 16th.

The Best Cough Medicine.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself in his own famly. This is why o many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well-known druggist of Cubrun, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

SOME BASIC FACTS ABOUT THE STATE BOND ISSUE

Reference to the tabulated plan of the operation of the proposed good roads bond issue, as printed in the literature of the campaign committee, carefully worked out, shows:

Bonds to be retired each year during the period 1924-1941; outstanding bonds for each year fron 1920 to 1941, the maximum amount outstanding at any time to be $16,000,000, average for 20-year period $9,300,000; interest to be paid on bonds each year of the above period at rate of 5 per cent.

Estimated income from automobile tax, based on present number of motor vehicles with a conservatively estimated increase in the number for the above period; balance each year after paying interest; total mileage of roads that can be built at an average cost of $20,000 a mile; cost of maintenance at the average yearly cost of $200 a mile.

Balance each year after paying interest and retiring bonds, showing an estimated balance of $1,037,000 in 1941 after all bonds are retired.

This table carefully prepared, is an honest effort to show clearly the results that may be confidently expected from the operation of the proposed plan.

The mileage given in the table—2,500—will suffice to connect indirectly all county seats; but as a very considerable mileage has already been satisfactorily located, graded, bridged and drained, and in many cases hard surfaced roads built, as we may reasonably expect within a few years a reduction in the cost of labor and materials, the mileage that should be built will be greatly increased.

Now, about the question of who will handle the funds, and what safeguard is provided, and who is competent to build the roads. These questions have been asked by letter writers in the press who are opposed to the bond issue.

The proceeds from the sale of bonds as they are sold, will be paid into the state treasurer and will be held by him until paid out on properly executed warrants, and he is under bond as required by law.

The work of construction will be divided into sections or projects of convenient size for economical supervision and construction and for securing an equitable distribution of the work to the several counties; a reconnaissance survey will be made of each project by the State Highway Engineer or his assistants and a project statement prepared showing the location and nature of the project, the purpose it will serve and its relation to the general road system of Alabama, the type of construction proposed and an approximate estimate of its cost. The project statement if approved by the State Highway Engineer, is passed on by the State Highway Commision and after review by the District Engineer of the United States Bureau of Public Roads, and if found satisfactory, is approved by the United States Secretary of Agriculture. What better hands can touch these projects?

After approval of the project statement careful surveys are made and detailed plans, specifications and estimate of costs by competent direction of the State Highway Engineer; and after careful checking of plans and field inspection with plans in hand by the State Highway Engineer and an Engineer representing the Federal Government, the plans are approved and construction authorized. The State Highway Commission, acting through its engineer, advertises for bids and awards a contract to the lowest responsible bidder who makes bond for faithful performance of the contract.

As the work progresses materials are inspected and tested by competent inspectors, testing engineers or chemists, as required, and the work carried on under the constant supervision of competent engineers or inspectors. At suitable intervals the work is visited and inspected by the State Highway Engineer, or an assistant, accompanied by a Federal Engineer. An estimate of the work is made. This estimate is reviewed by the United States Bureau of Public Roads and vouchers drawn in favor of the contractor are approved by the State Highway Commission, the Governor and the State Auditor before they can be paid by the State Treasurer.

The State Highway Engineer is under bond for $25,000 for the faithful performance of his duties.

The present Highway Engineer is Mr. W. S. Keller, a native Alabamian of long experience in the field of highway engineering. He is one of the best known and most respected engineers of the South. His general engineering staff as present consists of Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. McCalla, Mr. A. L. Smith, Mr. G. N. Mitcham, Mr. J. H. Mayer, Mr. L. M. Dinsmore, and Mr. F. O. McManus, all men of the highest standing in their profession. The record of the Highway Department in the past is assurance that in the future the public's interests will be properly cared for.

Alabama is fortunate in having the headquarters of the Eighth Federal Road District located in Montgomery, in the same building with the State Highway Department, as it insures close and quick cooperation between the State Highway Department and the United States Bureau of Public Roads.—Montgomery Advertiser.

FOR THE BOND ISSUE

Verbena, Ala., Feb. 2, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner:

I send you herewith an editorial taken from the Montgomery Advertiser of the 26th, and suggest that you publish this in this week's paper for the enlightenment of those who do not understand the good roads bond amendment to be voted on pro or con on Feb. 16th.

I an truly surprised at some who oppose it. I have not owned an automobile in two years until ten days ago I bought a flivver on the brobability of the bond issue coming. If it passes I will buy another car. I am more than willing to pay fifty, yea a hundred per cent on my license if I can get the good roads.

Certain letters appearing in the large daily papers against this bond issue emnates from ignorance and the selfish motives of those who hesitate to pay their part of the government expenses. The latter want to hide out and evade their duty. But the auto is to them such a luxury that they will buy and use them.

I argue all rolling stock from the bicycle to the army truck or tractor should be taxed. The legislature will eventually fix all that I hope. It is non-political; it taxes one class only, viz: auto owners. The bonds issued 1871-72 was legislated in by a lot of carpet baggers, grafters and thieves, who joined by a few southern spoils hunters bankrupted Alabama, and no doubt the repudiation of the debt or part of it by the Alabama people later on, was an act of justice to themselves and their posterity. It will never occur again in Alabama, for we will never have a recurrence of conditions from 1865 to 1874—God forbid.

Yours for the bond issue,
F. A. GULLEDGE.

P.S.—I would favor a larger bond issue for still better roads.

To the Dyspeptic.

Would you not like to feel that all your stomach troubles are over and that you can eat any kind of food tha you want? Consider then the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? There are many who have been restored totheir health by taking these tablets and can now eat any kind of food they crave.

THANK YOU, COME AGAIN.

We are much obliged to somebody who left a perfectly good umbarella in The Union-Banner office Wednesday. Weather prospects indicate that it will be useful for several days yet.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Mamye Smith charmingly entertained her friends at the home of Mrs. G. O. Foshee on Wednesday, January 28th, in honor of her sixteenth birthday. The beautiful home of Mrs. Foshee was elaborately decorated for the occasion with red and white carnations profusely displayed throughout the living room, dining room and halls. About fifty guests were present, and were entertained with interesting games, and in the prize contest the winners were Miss Birdie Teel and Dr. Wilson. The guests were served refreshments of sandwiches, hot chocolate and cake. Besides the several Clanton young people present, there was Miss Ruth Sellars of Tampa Florida, who was visiting friends and relatives in the city last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong spent the week-end in Montgomery.

The many friends of Miss Sallie Parrish will be glad to learn that she has returned home much improved in health after several days treatment in an infirmary in Birmingham.

Rev. Maye made a business trip to Montgomery Thursday.

Mrs. W. I. Mullins was a visitor to Birmingham during the past week.

Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Ed Plier delightfully entertained the members of the Sewing Club at the home of Mrs. Arthur Johnson. Several short talks were made concerning important business brought up before the last meeting. At the close of the afternoon a delicious salad plate was passed to Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, Mrs. L. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Splawn, Mrs. Eric Hart, Mrs. E. E. Upchurch, Mrs. G. D. Broadhead, Mrs. Gerald and Mrs. Johnson.

Miss Mabel Thomas was a visitor to Montgomery Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. White entertained at a most enjoyable dinner on Friday night complimentary to Mr. B. D. Bearden of Birmingham. A tempting five-course dinner was served to Mr. W. H. Sartor, Mr. Bearden, Mr. R. E. Luckie, Mr. Clyde Foshee, and Mr. J. B. Atkinson.

Mrs. M. L. White spent Monday in Montgomery.

ANNUAL MEETING IN MONTGOMERY

AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION WILL HOLD ITS FIRST ANNUAL CONVENTION IN ALABAMA.

Montgomery, Special.—After a hard fight Alabama won out in having the executive officers of the American Cotton Association to select Montgomery as the Convention City this week. President J. S. Wannamaker has just announced that Montgomery was chosen and the date set for February 17th to 20th inclusive.

All Civic bodies, the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs of Montgomery are alive to the importance of this great Convention and are actively at work laying plans for the comfort and convenience of the thousands who will attend as delegates and visitors. It is expected to make this the most important gathering of Farmers, Business and Professional men ever held in the South. For four days the eyes of the world will be focused on Alabama as subjects of vital interest to every human being will be discussed and plans formulated to put these ideas into operation.

Following the announcement by John Skottowe Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton association, of the place and date for the convention, the result of a canvass of official votes, plans were immediately put in operation for making the gathering one of the largest and most important probably ever held in the south.

It is the plan of the American Cotton association to urge the attendance of the representatives not only from every country, but, if possible, from every township of every county in the entire cotton growing section of America. In addition to this, there will be a large attendance from every section of the nation.

Uniform warehouse systems for the entire south with a warehouse for each county, owned and controlled by the people of the county, sufficient to hold the cotton produced therein.

Uniform warehouse receipts.

A spot market exchange in the south, with a chain of warehouses of certification which will absolutely revolutionize the cotton industry in in the mythology of the past.

The labor question will receive very careful consideration, there being a great scarcity and shortage of labor, and this will have a marked effect upon the crops to be planted in 1920.

A permanent organization, including every county of every state where cotton is grown will be completed at this convention

As a result of a large number of letters from every section of the south, it has been decided to admit ladies to the sessions of the convention, and the national convention will take steps to form women's auxiliaries for the entire south.

A movement will be started at the convention to urge the installation in the various colleges of the south of a department for teaching cotton grading stapling, fibering, exporting; in fact, to teach the marketing and business side of cotton, the same as it is now done in England. This, in itself, it is pointed out, offers a great field for the improvement of the cotton industry in the south.

Officers of the American Cotton association for the ensuing year will be elected at the Montgomery meeting. The national board of directors, and the national executive committee of the association and the national organization committee are called to meet at the same time.

Special committees, the national board of directors, executive committee and national organization committee and national organization committee, have been requested to reach Montgomery on the sixteenth, the day before the convention opens, as they will have a tremendous volume of preliminary work to transact.

Special requests have been made to each state president, to the governor of each state, the commissioners of agriculture, warehouse commissioner, presidents of farmers unions, presidents of bankers associations and other officials to name delegates for this convention. Special addresses will be made by speakers of national reputation.

MANY RESPOND TO REQUEST OF GREENE.

Inquiries are pouring in from all sections of the country to the local office of the American Cotton Association regarding the 300,000 bales of low grade cotton, which has been asked for by the association. Secretary W. R. Greene, Secretary of the Alabama Division, Montgomery, is highly pleased at the response and does not believe that he will find any difficulty in securing the cotton, which the association has been requested to secure.

HIS FINGER NAILS YELLOW AS AN EGG

MOBILE MAN WAS SO BILIOUS, AND HAD JAUNDICE SO BAD THAT HIS ENTIRE BODY WAS SATURATED WITH BILE.

——HAD BAD DIZZY SPELLS——

Strongest Kind of Medicine Failed to Move Him, but Dreco, the Natural Herb Tonic, Cleared up His System and Gave Relief.

"I have not been able to work for two years on account of my health," said William J. Fricke of 311 South, Scott Street, Mobile, Ala. "I had an attack of jaundice and my whole body became yellow as a pumpkin, even my finger nails were yellow as the yolk of an egg. I was badly constipated—even two glasses of pluto watetr would not move me. My stomach was very weak and did not seem to extract the strength from the food I ate. Gas would bloat me up and I'd be very uncomfortable. Often had pains in my back and limbs so bad I could hardly stand it."

"When the dizzy spells hit me I'd just have to stop right where I was and sit down toll they passed off. I have taken two bottles of Dreco, ond it is the greatest medicine I ever saw, seemed like it was made especialy for my case. It began to act on my bowels and the action was so easy and pleasant; no straining about it at all. My liver also seemed to take on new life, and the dizzy spells stopped and the yellow color faded away. My food now digests well, and I am getting my old time strength back again so that I expect to go to work soon."

Dreco is a natural herb medicine, which acts on the stomach, liver, kidneys bowels and the blood in a way to assist nature. It tones up all the vital organs, increases the strength, and gives new energy to run-down systems.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

Mrs. Amzi Gowan and children of Brewton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mullins.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Parrish have returned home after spending several days in Birmingham.

Miss Gladys Speer spent the week-end in Birmingham with her sister, Miss Sula Speer.

Mrs. H. M. Simpson, accompanied by her son, Hugh Moses, made a business trip to Montgomery Monday.

Mrs. John Armstrong was the delightful hostess on Tuesday when she entertained at a picture show party complimentary to Mrs. S. A. Goodwyn of Montgomery. After the show they were invited to the drug store where ices were served to Mrs. Goodwyn, Mrs. Macey Jones, Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mrs. O. O. Roper, Mrs. M. L. White, Mrs. McSwain and Mrs. R. E. Luckie.

Mrs. J. D. Sims and children left Monday for Seattle Washington to make that city their future home.

Rev. W. P. Lowery of Thorsby was in Clanton last Monday attending the Pastors and Workers Conference.

LIMITED NUMBER OF

Vacant Lots in Clanton

And Houses to put on Them

I have a limited number of vacant lots in Clanton that are very desirable for choice residences. And I have 32 good houses in two different locations that can be easily wrecked and placed on these lots. By this combination of houses and lots I can show you where you can provide a splendid residence in Clanton at a saving of 50 per cent of the cost of buying other lots and building houses.

I can sell you a lot and a house to put on it cheaper than you can get the lot from anyone else in Clanton.

If you are interested in buying property in Clanton I suggest that you see me and let me show you the figures on my proposition before buying from anybody else. You will find that it will be a great saving of money to you.

To those of limited means, I can arrange to sell this property and houses on terms of 50 per cent cash and 50 per cent on time.

MANAGERS OF STOCK LAW ELECTION IN BEAT TWELVE

Following are the managers of the Stock Law Election to be held in Beat No. 12 on February 16th, 1920:

Box 1—Mineral Springs—J. P. Bean, Sid Dupriest, D. P. Martin, Managers; W. J. Vinzant, Jack Davis, Clerks; A. D. Davis, Ret. Officer.

Box 2—Richard Robinon's—Richard Robinson, Alf Cofer, G. W. Campbell, Managers; S. Y. Dorminey, E. W. Hunnicutt, Clerks; James Smith, Returning Officer.

Col House did not desert the President—he was thrown out. He cannot be subjected to the condemnation that is usually meted out to those who desert a sinking ship.

THANKS TO G. O. P. SENATE

There is a rumor in London that 200,000 allied troops are to be sent to the Caucusus to fight the Bolsheviki. This action is in conformity with the obligations entered nto by the signatories to the League of Nations. Is there an American who does not breathe a sigh of relief that our boys are not to be conscripted for such an expedition?

THE UNGRATEFUL DEMOCRATS

Chairman Cummings denies that he is raising a campaign fund of $20,000,000 and says it couldn't be done. Well, if the Democrats can't raise $20,000,000, all we have to say is there are a lot of people ungrateful for large favors received.

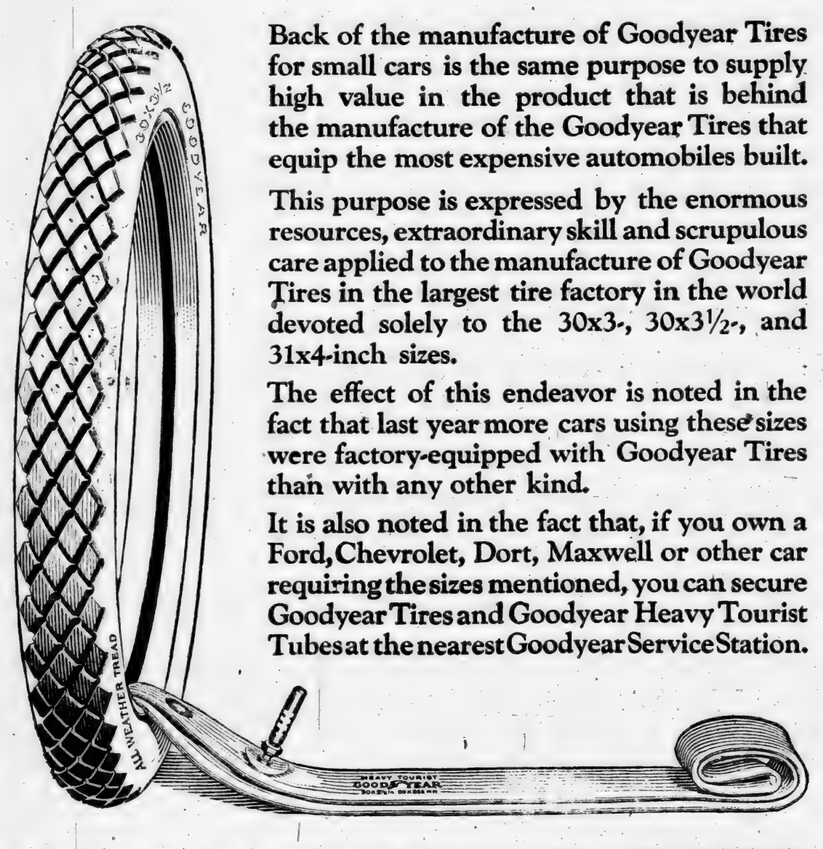
Big Value in Tires for Small Cars



Back of the manufacture of Goodyear Tires for small cars is the same purpose to supply high value in the product that is behind the manufacture of the Goodyear Tires that equip the most expensive automobiles built.

This purpose is expressed by the enormous resources, extraordinary skill and scrupulous care applied to the manufacture of Goodyear Tires in the largest tire factory in the world devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The effect of this endeavor is noted in the fact that last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

It is also noted in the fact that, if you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car requiring the sizes mentioned, you can secure Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Goodyear Service Station.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag..... $3.90

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF ALABAMA.
Executive Department.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at its regular session in the year 1919, has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session;

AND WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on, to-wit: Monday, February 16th, 1920, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Article XX. Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges in this State serviceable for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five million ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issuance, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of ten dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined, subject to the approval of the Governor by the Highway Commission, who shall also be Highway Bond Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission together with the approval of the Governor thereto, reduced to writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him; that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, attested by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the facsimile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed in lieu of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment thereof the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged that the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. B.—That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, to raise sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund, and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicle privilege license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for the payment of the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that county roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the county and national government, that said State Highway roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended as the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C.—That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department, shall locate, construct and maintain the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held, shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments; said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 93 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 31st day of October, 1919.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Sunday, Feb. 1 was a high day at Hopewell Baptist Church Clanton, under the pastorate of Rev. J. S. Prentice. The S. S. was opened promptly at 9:30 with singing and prayer, after which the lesson was read alternately by Miss E. C. Young and the members of the Sunday School. In the absence of the S. S. Superintendent the writer was asked to teach and review the lesson. The subject "Peter and John in Samaria," or the spread of the Gospel in Samaria, was compared with modern practices by some of our preachers and members. The Samaritans were looked upon by the Jews as outcasts and as a people with whom they had no dealing. When Peter and John reached Samaria they entered their villages, towns and out of the way places, and preached the Gospel. It was brought out that there is a tendency among some of our preachers and Christians to neglect the people of today who live in alleys and are not very comfortablly situated. There are so many unfortunate persons who would change their wicked way of living if the Christian people would go among them and give them a hand shake or a look of smile and let them feel that Christ died for them also, and that they are precious in His sight. Another point of interest brought out was the habit of commercialiing religion. One who preaches simply for what he gets, and has an utter disregard for the saving of souls is commercializing religion.

Rev. Prentice preached a great sermon from Ephesians, 6th Chapter 11 verse. His subject was "Stand Still." He showed that God cannot do much for an individual except he stands still. When a man is still he is in a reflective mood. After the service the following persons contributed the following sums to our school fund: Dr. J.S. Prentice $1; W. S. Smitherman 50c; A. D. Gordon 50c; Henry Kennedy $1; Mrs. Roxie Dickerson $1; Miss E. C. Young $1; Mrs. N.J. Gordon $1; J. C. Morgan $1.

One of the little school girls, Francis Wood, received $1.06 for her club. We are asking our patrons and friends to do their very best in helping us to raise the $400 in our arlly already announced for the 8th of Feb.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

REPORT OF THORSBY BRANCH OF THE RED CROSS.

The Thorsby Branch of the American Red Cross is now fully organized for work on a program along lines of cleanliness and health. Miss May Stoddard as Chairman of the School Health Committee has introduced the Modern Health Crusade in the public school where most of the pupils have taken it up with enthusiasm. The health "chores" if carried out thoroughly and conscientiously by the children will be a wonderful help to better health in their future life. And the Executive Committee of the Thors by branch A. R. C. earnestly requests the parents of children to become interested in the program and help their children to perform their chores daily, and also to keep conscientious and corect record of same. This program will also be carried to some extent among the students of Thorsby Institute.

Rev. James Davenport, as Chairman of the Civilian Relief Committee, has also been busy in caring for and reporting the sick in the community.

Mr. Charles A. Peterson as Chairman of the Community Health Committee is quite enthusiastic for the improvement of health conditions in the town. The burning of all paper refuse by the merchants of the town is earnestly requested, also there will soon appear two large receptacles in convenient places in which to deposit banana peelings, orange and apple skins, peanut shucks, etc., and we all want to have a pride in our town to keep it neat and clean and attractive and we, the Executive Committee, invite all the townspeople, Boy Scouts, School Children, and all organizations to help carry out our plans.

Chairman, Chas. S. Howard.
Vice-Chairman, C. R. Foss.
Secretary, Mrs. S. E. Norton.
Treasurer, J. L. P. Sorensen.

ORDERS HELD FOR LOW GRADE COTTON

AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION HAS ORDERS FOR 300,000 BALES AT 35c TO 41c.

J. S. Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton Association, has announced, in a statement issued to the public, that following conferences with representatives of a foreign syndicate, he felt convinced that he could effect the sale of 300,000 bales of low grade cotton to foreign countries.

The cotton will be sold at a price which, after the expenses of the transaction including the freight to the port of shipment have been paid, will net the sellers of the cotton forty-one cents a pound low middling, 39 cents strict good ordinary, 37 cents strict ordinary, 35 cents ordinary for shipping points.

The conditions of sale as given out by Mr. Wannamaker are eighty per cent cash as shipped, 20 per cent deferred payments secured by syndicate of foreign banks and guaranteed by their governments, rendering the 20 per cent absolutely safe and bankable bearing six per cent interest.

Officers of the American Cotton Association in each state are urged by Mr. Wannamker to ascertain how many bales they can raise in their respective states. To secure option on same and telegraph him at once. The statement issued by Mr. Wannamaker follows:

"As a result of conferences with representatives of foreign syndicates I feel convinced that I can effect the sale of three hundred thousand bales of low grade cotton, which after paying all transactions including freight to the port, will net forty-one cents low middling, thirty-nine cents strict ordinary and thirty-five cents ordinary and thirty-five cents ordinary f. o. b. shipping points. Conditions of sale, eighty per cent cash as shipped, twenty per cent deferred payment secured by syndicate of foreign banks and guaranteed by their governments, rendering the twenty per cent absolutely safe and bankable, bearing six per cent interest.

"In order to complete negotiations it will be necessary for owners of cotton to give to me or any official of the American Cotton Association of their state a twenty day option on the cotton. Officers of the American Cotton Association are urged to canvass their state and telegraph the president of the American Cotton Association the amount of options secured promptly.

"This transaction has been investigated by our experts, also laid bare before the best bankers of America, and our friends in Washington, and fully approved as being sound and we are urged to accept same.

"We have additional applications for same grade of cotton amounting to over one million bales, which will be handled immediately upon completion of this transaction, so that every bale of off grade cotton will be removed at prices far above prevailing prices. We have declined to handle offers for good grade cottop as supply is entirely inadequate to demand and it would be impossible to secure sufficient good grade cotton to fill orders of any size. All state officials of the American Cotton Association are urged to immediately call meeting in their states and complete transactions."

No Great Heroism Required.

If some great act of heroism was necessary to protect a child from the croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within reach of all and is prompt and effectual.—Adv.

REPLY TO MR. R. E. ROPER.

Editor Union-Banner—I wish to say a few words in regard to the article in your last week's issue dealing with the open saloon question, by Mr. R. E. Roper of Maplesville. It seems from what he says in that article that Mr. Roper has been off in a trance, and has not found out since his return that there is not an open saloon in Alabama or even in America.

I would like for Mr. Roper to come out now and see what he can say of the men who are violating the prohibition laws by making moonshine liquor and selling it to young boys all over the country. These fellows sell a most infamous brand of the vilest kind of stuff, get $10 a gallon for it, and then the grand juries of the county can't get a single bit of truth out of anybody about the transaction. The boys and men who drink it pay out their hard earned money, gets on a spree, causing the mothers to shed bitter tears.

If Mr. Roper and other good men of Chilton county, and most especially Beat 15, would exercise their powers, we would get rid of some of the moonshiners and have better schools and Sunday schools and churches, and happier homes, and the name of God would be glorified in our midst.

I hope soon to see something on the question of the moonshiner and the bootlegger from Mr. Roper.

INTER-CHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT.

There are probably very few Christian people in Chilton county who have not heard something of the great work that is being done among evangelical churches all over the world, first by a survey, which is to determine the status of Christian work among protestant churches and missions, together with all unevangelized territory (meaning where there are no organized Christian influences) in every community throughout the whole world. When the conditions and needs have become known not by guess work, but by facts and figures, arrangements are being made for a forward movement all along the line. This movement does not contemplate organic union of all or various denominations, but a common-sense co-operation of the most effective forces in the great body of evangelical Christianity.

People who take stock in our big industrial corporations are not expected to give up their homes or join some mammoith organizataion that is to control their daily movements, but what they contribute to the general fund of such corporation helps to create a mighty force that no small organization can accomplish.

Rev. R. M. Archibald, State Supervisor of Survey for the Inter-Church World Movement has recently returned to his headquarters in Birmingham, from a conference of delegates, numbering upwards of 1,700, from forty-two different denominataions, where John R. Mott, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Inter-Church Movement, in opening the conference after a review of the history of the movement, declared that, "This is the moment of moments for us to find our unity, our spiritual solidarity, without sacrificing our diversity and that which is most distinctive to each of our communions, and which, by the way, is the choicest possession we have.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a prominent delegate at the conference made a stirring address in which he said, "There could be no such word as fail in the movement, but its possibilities of enlargement and extension were almost infinite. Under God's leadership, I believe it will become the greatest force of righteousness in this whole world."

When Prof. E. D. Burton of Chicago, Chairman of the Committee on the World's Survey Program, proposed at the end of the conference, which had been in session for two day at Atlantic City, New Jersey, "That all Christian bodies be invited to cooperate in the movement," it was followed by a spontaneous rising of all the delegates. Throughout the conference the dominating impression was that there was a large body of men and women who differed widely one from another on various important matters, yet had come together with the single determination that the will to agree should prove stronger than the will to differ, and that, come what might, and cost what it might, the Lord's business should be well and faithfully done.

Mr. Archibald, fresh from this conference, is coming to Thorsby on Tuesday, Feb. 10, to make arrangements for the survey of Chilton county in this movement. He cordially invites and earnestly requests ministers or members of every church organization in the county to be present at the meeting to be held at the Congregataional Church in Thorsby, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Tuesday, Feb. 10th, where the scope and character of this great work will be fully explained. There will also be an afternoon meeting for the purpose of organizing for the survey work in every community in the county. Here is truly an opportunity for Christian people in this section to manifest how much they really are interested in doing the Master's work.

SUPREME COURT HOLDS THAT CHILTON COUNTY ACT IS NOT VALID.

Montgomery, Jan. 29—Scores of local laws passed by the legislature last year under the guise of general laws with population restrictions were rendered invalid and inoperative by the Supreme Court Thursday when it held that the practice of passing general laws with local effect had gone to the extreme and that the classification must be in good faith and a substantial difference in population between the counties affected and the general list of counties must exist.

By this decision the court held that the Judge of the County Court of Chilton County cannot collect a salary of nine hundred dollars a year instead of three hundred dollars, because the bill was not properly advertised as a local act, a requirement of the state Constitution. This bill provides that the salary shall be nine hundred in all counties having a population of not less than 23,150 and not more than 23,250, a difference of only one hundred in population. Reference to the census of 1910 convinced the Court that the bill applied only to Chilton County. It held that the proposed act should have been advertised as required.

HAD TERRIBLE SKIN DISEASE

Little Girl Improves Rapidly When Given ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Many mothers try one remedy after another, for the sufferings of their little ones, without apparently being able to find the right one. If anything seems wrong with the blood, or stomach, or if the child's system is run-down and needs strengthening, you may benefit by the experience of this Westmoreland, Tenn., mother, Mrs. John F. Anglea, who writes:

"My little girl had a terrible skin disease and her stomach was in such a bad condition. Nothing helped her, so we finally started to give her Ziron.

She improved so rapidly from the first bottle, so we have given her two more. She is much better."

Don't try other remedies first! Choose Ziron from the start. It has benefited many people suffering from poor blood, general weakness, loss of appetite and other symptoms which indicate lack of iron in the blood.

VOTERS REMINDED OF ROAD ELECTION

ALABAMA HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION GIVES GOOD REASONS FOR SUPPORTING ISSUE.

SPECIAL ELECTION FEB. 16

Roads Connecting Every County Seat To Be Built and Maintained By State.

On the eve of the election, the Alabama Highway Improvement Association conveys this message to the voters of this State:

Vote good roads.

Don't forget to vote.

Monday, February 16, is election day.

The defensive wins no battles, so take the field for dependable highways

Tell your neighbors that the proposed bond issue will not cost them one cent unless they own an auto or motor truck and that their present motor license taxes will not be increased thereby. The money to be derived from motor vehicle licenses at present rates will pay interest on bonds, create a sinking fund for the retirement and pay for the up-keep of the roads.

Alabama's Only Opportunity.

Explain to them that the bond issue affords the only opportunity Alabama will have to obtain the millions already appropriated by congress for federal aid and the further millions provided in bills pending for that purpose, which money will go to other states for their roads unless this state matches its share of the government's money, dollar for dollar.

Make your fellow citizens understand that Alabama is in close competition with the other states of this Union to hold its own people and to obtain a desirable white immigration from other parts of the country; that ambitious men and women will not remain forever in a commonwealth that fails or refuses to furnish roads for everyday transportation, while other states are building and maintaining dependable roads.

It Means Fifty Millions.

With $25,000,000 from the bond issue and $25,000,000 from the federal aid fund, Alabama can become one of the leading good roads states of the Union within the next decade.

Equitable distribution of money and labor in the sixty-seven counties is guaranteed under the law regulating the expenditure, and the roads built will be maintained by the state.

Twenty per cent of the motor vehicle license money collected by the state goes to the counties and municipalities. Under the bond issue plan all of the county's road money, from whatever source derived, will be spent on the byways or lateral roads instead of being concentrated on the main trunk highways as at present. This opens the door of hope to every citizen of the county, whether or not he lives on or near one of the roads to be built and maintained by the state.

Square Deal For All.

Bond issue and federal aid money will be expended under the direction of a commission composed of one member from each of the ten congressional districts and two ex-officio members, on warrants drawn by the state auditor and approved by the governor. Contracts are to be let to the lowest and best bidders and the state and federal highway engineers check all of the work, from the drafting of specifications to the final acceptance of the completed contract. No public work ever attempted within the state was so well guarded against all possibility of error, fraud and graft.

Bonds will not be sold except in amounts as needed to match federal funds and to carry on contracts. They will be issued in denominations from $10 to $1,000, at 5 per cent interest and will not be sold below par. All idle money will be deposited at interest and the interest money will go to swell the maintenance fund.

Vote!

Tom Rockett of Coopers, one of the candidates for County Tax Collector, was circulating among friends in Clanton Wednesday.

THE CIGARETTE EVIL

(By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

One of the most pernicious and insidious habits that is increasing with alarming growth is the cigarette evil, and Clanton seems to be leadng the way for a town of its size. It is a common daily occurrence to see boys from eight years of age up smoking cigarettes. It has been said with a degree of truth that seems to justify the statement that here is scarcely a boy of average size in the schools of this city but that smokes, which is not at all an enviable reputation and can soon be remedied if the parents, teachers and merchants of the community will cooperate in putting a stop to the evil.

The Cigarette Injurious.

If you go to the druggist and buy an ounce of nicotine he will label the bottle poison. Dr. F. Beilstein of the Imperial Academy, Petrograd, Russia, states in his book that "Tobacco contains .68 to 4.78 per cent nicotine, which is an extremely poisonous compound." When a cigarette burns the nicotine gas inhaled through the lung tissue acts on the nerves and heart. The membrane of the mouth and tongue absorb both gas and liquid, due to the saliva formed while smoking the cigarette.

Some time ago a large railroad concern examined a number of boys to fill a responsible position. A very large per centage of them were rejected because of weak lungs, and on further investigation were found to be cigarette smokers.

The excuse may be urged by the lenient parent that anything taken in excess is injurious. The reply however lies in the fact that cigarette smoking soon becomes such a habit especially when begun in early youth that the smoker inevitably smokes to excess. Hence, the boy not only has a weak heart, but in course of time shattered nerves, becomes dull in his studies, and loses all ambition for real success in life. In addition to this in the course of years cancers also form on the lips and tongues of the inveterate smoker.

Then Consider the Expense.

It needs no great mathematician to figure out that in the course of a year a considerable sum of money can be spent by the inveterate cigarette smoker whether it be a boy or a man, and money that ends in smoke is a shameful and absolute waste. Many a poor man today, possibly some who read these lines would be glad of the little fortune they have spent in tobacco, that would be very helpful in meeting the bills for the daily necessities of life in these days of the high cost of living.

There is little if any justification for the use of this weed by adults and much less by children. The writer has never yet met an habitual smoker who can recommend another person to begin the habit. The father is the hero of the boy, but too frequently has become the stumbling block of the boy in this respect, for what the boy sees the father do he thinks he has perfect right to do himself, and on this theory is he not right?

It has been said "It is hard to teach an old dog new tricks." The sentiment of this is especially true in regard to adult and veteran smokers, but certainly it is not too late to begin with the boys and the children of the rising generation. Are we willing as parents and teachers to allow our boys to grow up absolute slaves to "The little white devil" as the cigarette has fittingly been called? Surely not.

The Remedy.

Some of the following methods can be used to stop it:—

First, by the strict discipline of the parents. Second, by the strict discipline of the teachers while the children are under their supervision. Third, by constant agitation and education as to its harmful results. And fourth, by a campaign among the merchants of the city not to sell tobacco of any kind to children, especially cigarettes. It is against the law to do so, and like the prohibition law it should be inforced.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT.

The State of Alabama, Chilton County—Circuit Court in Equity—Mary Johnson, Complainant, vs. Robert Johnson, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Grady Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is over the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said Robert Johnson, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 6th day of March, 1920, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, Ala., this 4th day of February, 1920.

DEVELOP WATER POWER OF STATE

PEOPLE BEGINNING TO REALIZE GREAT BENEFIT TO BE DERIVED THEREFROM.

CREATE NEW INDUSTRIES

Development Would Result in the Building Up of Many New Communities.

Pending in the United States Senate is a Bill, already passed by the House of Representatives, creating the Federal Water Power Commission, consisting of the Secretaries of War, Interior and Agriculture, to which would be given authority over all matters, over which the Federal Government has jurisdiction pertaining to the development of water power on navigable streams and the improvement of navigation incident thereto.

This Bill would transfer jurisdiction of water power development from the War Department to the Water Power Commission.

Senator Jones Talks of Bill.

Speaking of this Bill, Senator Jones, of Washington, said: "If ten years ago, instead of enacting restrictive laws which have prohibited development of our water powers, Congress had invited their development through fair and reasonable terms, the beginning of the World War would have found the United States with 20,000,000 developed hydro-electric power instead of 5,000,000. Indeed, it is not too much to say that Germany would have hesitated before entering the conflict with probability of having to face a nation possessing such an enormous amount of harnessed physical force wherewith to back up its armies. As it was, the beginning of the war found us short of coal, short of oil, short of power, and half a billion dollars was expended inside of two years in the location and erection of steam power plants."

410,000 Horsepower Wasted.

Senator Jones points out that, through the failure of Congress to pass laws that would make it profitable to invest money in water power development, 410,000 horsepower of hydro energy is now wasted in Alabama alone, and 120 miles of river that would have thereby been open to navigation, is useless for commercial purposes. That is on the Tennessee river alone, to say nothing of the Coosa river. The Washington Senator might have added that, under favorable legislation, additional hydro power would have been developed on the Coosa river and a nitrate plant built that would have solved one of the greatest problems confronting the Government when the war began, that of obtaining a sufficient and constant supply of nitrates for munitions, and, in peace times, for fertilizers for the farmers.

Means Much to Alabama.

The passage of the pending Bill would have a far-reaching effect in Alabama; it would mean the early development of several hundred thousand horsepower of hydro energy in this State, cheaper power for factories, and cheaper electricity for commercial purposes; it would mean the development of industries along all lines in the State, the making of home markets for the farmer's products, and the rapid growth in population and industry of the entire State.

Develop New Industries.

The Senate Committee on Commerce, during the Fall session, declared that the intelligent development of our wasting water power resources can not help but bring about development of new industries, the building up of new industries, the building up of new communities, the creation of new property values, subject to taxation for the support and maintenance of Local and State Governments, and added employment for labor and increased markets for agricultural products.

NOW IS THE FARMER'S GOLDEN F OPPORTUNITY

Never before in the history of the State of Alabama have the farmer had such an opportunity as is presented in the proposed road building plan of the state.

First, the South has been paying federal taxes to pay federal pensions ever since the Civil War (Ohio alone getting each year, six million dollars federal funds for pensions) and this is our first opportunity in the South to be recognized in a general way by the federal department. The twenty five million from the federal government has already been paid in so it does not have to be paid back or any interest whatever paid on it. We only have to spend twenty million state funds to get the federal funds.

Second, The automobile [illegible] for the roads and their maintenance the tax payers will not pay one on lands or personal property for this bond issue. The law annually applies the auto taxes on interest and principal of road moneys, and this is fair to auto owners, as they cannot use their autos without roads, and is exceedingly fair to us who do not own automobiles (I have never owned one) as we will have the finest roads absolutely free. To those who own land, just think how enthusiastic and excited you would be if a railroad was to be built from county court home to all the adjoining county court houses. You know it would add millions of dollars to the property value in the state. The State Highways will do the same thing and more, because auto trucks [illegible] will spring up by the hundreds and ready market will be given for all kinds of country produce as the roads will bring the country and the city nearer together. Thus the city [illegible] and public work people in time profit by the cost of living reduced for the middle men [illegible] will be cut out. The farmer can will drive right up to your door [illegible] chickens, eggs, butter, milk, fruits, potatoes, canned goods, meats, vegetables, meal, etc. Hundreds of [illegible] home-seekers come to see us and the invariable inquiry of them all is in regard to good roads, schools and churches. They all go hand in hand. When Alabama votes this bond issue and begins building good roads she are going to see the greatest influx of people and wealth ever known in our times. Monday, February the 16th is the day on which you can render yourself, your neighbor and to coming generations a service of [illegible] worth

NOT "PRACTICAL FARMER."

C. T. Meredith, the new Secretary of Agriculture, is declared by the Democratic press to be a "practical farmer." The record in "Who's Who" seems to show that he is a successful publisher of a farm paper, rather than a farmer. To be a successful publisher these days is no small achievement, so this comment is not to be made to his discredit, but merely to call attention to the fact that the president did not comply with the wishes of the National Grange that the Secretary of Agriculture be a practical farmer.

FIGURES SHOW AMERICA IS FEEDING THE WORLD

Europe Suffers from Wilsonian Solace.

If it be the duty of America, as some seem to think, to feed the world, and we have apparently not neglected the job. Our exports of breadstuffs for 1919 amounted to $920,000,000 compared with $801,000,000 in 1918 and $203,000,000 in 1913, before the war. Our exports of meat and dairy products for 1919 were valued at $1,160,000,000 as compared with $941,000,000 in 1918 and $160,616,000 in 1913. American farmers are working hard, early and late, to produce food for the world, and part of it goes to countries that are discreditably slow in getting back to work. American sonsumers are paying high prices for food in order that large exports may be made.

As a matter of fact, there is no good reason why Europe should not be back on a normal peace basis in the production of food this season. Europe should have been pretty near back on a normal basis during the season of 1919. Not a foot of German soil was invaded. Not one-fifth of the area of France was invaded. Belgium, which was almost completely despoiled, has been the rediest in getting back to normal production, which Great Britain second. In Poland, if anywhere, there may be some excuse for delay in resuming peace-time industrial pursuits, but as for all the rest of Europe, there is no possible justification for a dependence upon America for food.

The war came to an end in November, 1918. There was a period of four months, at least, between the signing of the armistice and the beginning of the planting season of last year. Except in relatively small devasted region in France and Belgium, there was no part of the whole continent of Europe that should have been below normal in the production of food in the season of 1919.

But while there is no good reason for failure of Europe to get back on a normal production basis, there is a readily apparent explanation. President Wilson went to Europe with his message of internationalism, his humanitarianism, his proposal that America make the supreme sacrifice, his assurance that America would save Europe, his constantly manifested solicitude lest America break the very heart of the world. Military expenditures in France had been on such a scale of extravagance and methods had been so wasteful that it was unavoidable that all Europe should get the impression that America has a bottomless barrel of money and a limitless willingness to spend. So, why should Europe work, therefore, when a profligate and willing benefactor had appeared from across the sea?

Many sections of Eurone have followed the ideals to which President Wilson's course invited them—to threaten chaos and appeal to America to save them from self-destruction by contributing to their support. "We are going to have a brain storm, and may kill ourselves unless you feed us," is practically the message a large part of Europe has sent to America. And that sort of message was inspired by the tone of President Wilson's speeches while he was in Europe. The theory that America owes Europe a living is a natural deduction from the internationalism preached by the head of the American government.

Less socialism and more work, is the message America should convey to the chaos-producers of Europe and their kindred in America. It is safe assertion that not one of the "reds" rounded up for deportation was at any time since his arrival in America, a producer of food. Few were producers of anything except discontent. Without danger of contradiction it might be asserted that no farmer ever was a "red." If some of our inernationalist leaders were out on farms producing food to supply idle communists, they would have a different view of methods to adopt in dealing with promoters of unrest.

HOW ABOUT THIS?

Under the league covenant "any circumstance whatever" which threatens to disturb the peace may be taken cognizance of by the council or the assembly. Does the refusal of Holland to deliver up the Kaiser constitute such a threat, and is the league to take military measures to enforce the demands of the former supreme council? At any rate the United States is free from the controversy, for which every American should feel devoutly thankful.

VERA'S VACATION.

A comedy of three acts entitled, "Vera's Vacation," will be given at Shoults School, Lawley, on Feb. 14. The public is invited.

THERE MUST BE END TO ONE-MAN GOVERNMENT.

Washington, Feb. 10—The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., to-day gave out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"The Democratic party put Mr. Wilson in the White House. Having made use of the party to attain his ambition the President promptly put it aside, and proceeded to administer affairis of government according to his own concepts. In his mind Congress was useful merely as a tool for the purpose of approving bills he submitted to it, thus fulfilling what to him was but a technical requirement of the Constitution. The best minds in his own party and elsewhere, in Congress or out, were neither asked nor permitted to give the administration the benefit of their ability or experience in the formulation and execution of policies. Four years after his first election he saw that it would be necessary once more to make use of his party if he was to continue at the head of the nation. He brushed up his acquaintances potent in political affairs, invented a phrase calculated to catch the ear of the people if not their reason, and he managed once more to secure enough votes to give him another four-year lease on power. That accomplished, he again shunted aside the men who had ralied to his support, and gathered the reins of government more firmly than ever in his own hands. The war aided in concentrating in him a lone the direction of all federal activities. From that date Wilson has been the government and the government has been Wilson.

"The people have rebelled at last against continued autocracy, and have determined that the next President shall be a man not obsessed by the idea that in him alone lies the correct solution of every problem. He must not be above taking and following advice from others, nor in seeking it when questions intimately affecting the public welfare must be determined. A return to popular government is what the people most of all crave, and the candidate who presents the strongest appeal in that direction will receive the majority of the votes.

"And that is what warrants our abiding faith in American institutions The people will not wait until autocracy has secured such a hold upon the nation that only a bloody revolution will shake it off. They express their views before that time comes, and in a revolution of votes throw off a yoke that has spelled the downfall of many a nation not so imbued with the spirit of self government. History is replete with examples of governments whose peoples have been humbled in the dust because of their hesitancy in asserting themselves under the spell of a single individual's ambition for control. Lust for personal power has spelled the ruin not only of him who sought it, but of the people who snbmitted to his domination.

"The German people to-day would be a happy and prosperous nation but for their acquiescence in the passion of their Kaiser for world domination. There is no doubt that Russia is paying the ultimate penalty for centuries of automatic misrule. Austria, even had she been free from German influence, would have suffered the fate that overtook her because her pople had no voice in their own government. Our examples in modern and ancient history might be cited by the score to prove the point. In each case the catastrophe has come from the insatiable appetite of an individual for power, and his consequent denial of rights to his people.

One-man government in the United States has not goaded the people to the point of violence, but that is the logical end of such rule if it is not stopped in time. Fortunately the people will assert themselves next November and choose a man for their chief executive who will not consider himself "the whole team." In the machinery which provides the means for that popular expression, and in the party rivalry that stimulates the selection of the best candidate, lies the security of the Republic from disaster due to individual egotism.

Needless to mention the inclement weather. But the road, oh my! they baffle description. Tons of gravel would help them so much. That seems to be the only remedy. (Note—This letter was written for last week's paper, but arrived too late for publication.—Editor.)

Health of this community is fairly good at present. Quite a number have been on the sick list but are now improving.

The singing at this place Sunday afternoon was a great success. We will have singing here every first and third Sundays. We trust that our director, Mr. Grady Headley can meet with us on our singing evenings. We are glad that Mr. Headley brought with him a part of his class from Rockymount.

Sunday school here has gone dead. The school was organized the first Sunday in January 1920, but we have not been able to have Sunday school again since.

We ask all lovers of music to be with us on our singing afternoons, and help us to make the services a success. We are practicing in the new books, "The Highway of Song."

Misses Elsie and Grace Robinson were visitors to this place on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. James Vinzant and Arthur Chandler made a trip over on Pea Ridge Sunday afternoon.

Arvin Marlar and Burrie Chandler made a trip to Stumps Hill's Sunday.

WRECKS WILSONIAN VIEW.

Secretary Alexander, the newly appointed Secretary of Commerce is going merrily on, wrecking the views of his party chief, Mr. Wilson, as well as the other members of the cabinet. On the same day that word came out from the White House that President Wilson was taking a "deep interest" in the proposed loan of $150,000,000 to Austria and other foreign countries, Secretary Alexander, in an address in New York City warned us against the continuance of such loans. In fact he did not stop at mild language. Exhaustion of America's resources is not improbable, he said "if we would furnish other countries the money with which to exploit trade." Alexander, Glass and Wilson had better hold a conference so their stories will gibe. The only difference between Mr. Alexander's views and the views of the majority of the present administration officials is that he is showing some signs of believing in a policy of nationalism, while the others have only shown signs of interest when some international question is in the center of the spotlight.

FEDERAL TAXES $500 A FAMILY FOR EACH YEAR.

When the people of this country fully realize that taxation for federal purposes alone amounts to about $500 per family for each year they will begin to realize something of the value of the heroic efforts of the Republican Congress to trim the extravagant demands of the Wilson cabinet.

IF YOUR DOG HAS LOST HIS TAG STATE SAYS BUY ANOTHER

Recently there have been many people in the County who have reported to Mr. M. D. Foshee, the Circuit Clerk, that their dogs have lost their tags, asking for advice as to what to do in such cases. Mr. Foshee promptly took the matter up with the State Tax Commission, writing them the following letter:

State Tax Commission—In this County a great number of dogs have lost their tags. The people would fasten them on the collar and the hole in the tag would wear through. Will you please advise me what to do in these cases The tags seem to be made of a very poor grade of material and are very unsatisfactory, as they will not last any length of time.

Yours very truly,
M. D. FOSHEE.

Mr. Foshee has received the following reply from the State Tax Commission relating to the above matter:

Mr. M. D. Foshee—Replying to your letter of the 4th inst, with reference to dog tags becoming lost. We beg to advise that the dog registration law makes no provision for duplicate or replacement tags. As the law requires a tag at all times on dogs over three months old, it will be necessary for the owner of a dog to register and purchase a new tag, paying the same fees as were paid in the original registration.

We would suggest that the purchaser of tags use care in fastening the tags on the collar as carelessness in putting tags on to the collar is the cause of most of the losses.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT'S DISGRACE AT NITRO, W. VA.

"While our boys were fighting and the people were giving their money to support them in it, twice as much money as was needed was being wasted at Nitro," said Representative W. J. Graham, Chairman of the House Committee which has been investigating the question of waste at the government powder plant built at Nitro, West Virginia near Charleston. Stating that conditions were bad enough at other places of a similar nature which the committee has investigated, he said that none were as bad as they were at Nitro. "There is no doubt about i," he said, "there was a purpose on foot to waste the government's money at Nitro, and it was wasted." An answer is awaited from the War Department on this and many other cases of a similar nature upon which Newton D. Baker has chosen to remain silent.

NOTICE TO PASTORS

Mt. Creek, Ala., Feb. 9, 1920.

To the Baptist Pastors, Deacons and Church Workers in Chilton County.

The name of the Pastors and Deacons Conference of the Unity and Chilton County Associations has been changed to the Pastors and Workers Conference of Chilton County. This change was made so as to include all persons interested in any line of the church work whatever, and it is desired that members attend from every department of the church, both men and women. It is the purpose of the Conference to discuss church problems that may arise, and that the Baptists in the county may become better acquainted and a closer fellowship exist.

The meetings are held at the Clanton Baptist Church on Monday after the 1st Sunday in each month, at 9:30 o'clock, a.m.

Come and let's make the meetings profitable and interesting.

STOCK PEAS SCARCE.

To-day stock peas are selling at four dollars per bushel in Clanton. If this price holds up long there will not be any peas left for the farmers. If you have no peas for planting, we would suggest that you get out and get them now. Get the iron pea if you can. They are recommended as the best for hay because they are not affected by black root, and will grow where other peas will not; they will stand a week or ten days longer than any other pea and make good hay; they are a small pea and will seed with at least one gallon less to the acre when drilled and one fourth of a bushel less when sown. Many of the farmers seem not to know what the iron pea is, and get the New Era Pea instead. The iron pea is a small yellow pea just the color of the Unknown pea. Be careful that you do not get deceived as to the variety.

LET'S HAVE IT IN CLANTON

On Monday the Commissioners Court took up the proposition of holding a demonstration road working at some place in the county in the near future. We want to add our approval and endorsement to the idea and urge that it be carried out. It should be made a county-wide event participated in by all the road apportioners and overseers. But we want to urge that the occasion be held in Clanton and that our mayor and council be present and ptrticipate in the work. The roads of Clanton will compare favorably with the worst in the county, and we need somebody here to learn how to build good roads and good streets. eLt's have it in Clanton and right soon at that.

A CHANCE TO REGISTER

We call the attention of the people this week to another chance which the voters of the county will have to register before the primary in May. By order of the Commissioners Court of last Monday the County Regirtrar will sit at the court house on March 8th, 9th and 10th, for the purpose of registering all perons who are entitled to registed and become voters under the laws of Alabama. There are yet men in the county who ought to register and vote. We hope they may have the matter brought to their attention in some way so that they may take advantage of this last opportunity to qualify and vote in the May primary. Anyone who knows of a man who ought to register would be fulfilling patriotic duty to call his attention to this matter and urge him to come and qualify with the Registrar on Marem 8, 9, or 10.

PAY US FOR IT.

We are being besieged daily by vast pages of typewritten matter explaining the systems of our state and national income tax laws. We are urged to appropriate our space toward this purpose and are told, or else just left to infer that there are no appropriations to pay forspreading this information through the press.

We suppose likewise that there is no appropriation to pay for the army of clerks, collectors and statisticians that are deluging the country pulling down the subjects of the income tax to replenish the vanishing coffers of Uncle Sam and the State of Here We Rest. They are, we reckon, just giving their time to the cause like we are asked to give our time and space.

We believe the papers of this country have donated their part to the various campaigns and drives and other money-getting schemes of the government for the past four years. We prefer that they pay us for our board and washing if they want us to help them collect income taxes.

CLANTON BOY SCOUTS.

For the past three years the local Boy Scouts have been organized in Clanton, and have been trudging on with the scantily measured sympathy and interest of our citizenship. The most of our people have taken the movement in any way other than seriously. But the boys who have been enlisted in the work and the few who have stood behind them have held out faithfully, until at last the crust is broken and we have all waked up to the value and importance, yea the very necessity of the Scout work in the training of the boys of the town and community. We have seen the downward road that our boys are traveling and realized that something must be done to save them. The Scout movement, with its attendant principles and purposes, offers the most practical salvation for the boys.

The awakening that has come to Clanton in regard to the Scout work has been promoted largely by the activities of our preachers and leading men of the past few weeks in planning and carrying out the exercises of the Scout Anniversary Week. We should consider ourselves fortunate in having such men as Dr. Maye of the Methodist Church, Rev. Carter of the Baptist Church, Prof. Johnson of the Grammar School, Prof. Thompson of the Chilton County High School, Judge Reynolds, Ex-Sheriff Harris, Dr. Gragg, Mr. P. C. Smith, Scoutmaster, Rich, and the other valuable citizens who have been willing to take the work in hand and show the public what the Scout work offers to make the right kind of men out of the boys of Clanton. These men have not only showed their good intentions by taking an active part in the Anniversary program of last Sunday and Monday nights, but they have been right behind the Scouts ever since the work was launched here, and their efforts are now bringing forth fruit an hundred fold.

Our two town preachers, Dr. Maye and Rev. Carter have especially done great good for the boys by the very helpful and practical advice rendered in their talks and addresses during the recent exercises. They made these addresses at the court house on Sunday and Monday nights to the largest audiences that have been assembled in Clanton for many years. Their admonitions to the boys were of the most timely, valuable, and practical kind. We are glad that our preachers have some practical everyday street religion as well as plenty of the Sunday-go-to-meeting kind.

The address which Judge Reynolds made to the boys Monday night was one of the most impressive we have listened to in many a day. The Judge hit the vices of cigarettes, whiskey and gambling one of his well-known knock-out punches. It was fine for the boys to hear what he said, and besides the boys it was also fine for the girls and the papas and mamas.

We must not overlook our two local school principals in the great work that is now being done for our boys. Prof. Johnson of the Grammar school was Chairman of the meeting Sunday night, and he handled the program in his well-known characteristic style. He dropped a few remarks here and there that were good for the minds of the young. At the close of the program he put on a popular subscription campaign in the audience for donations to the scout work in the way of financial aid from which was realized nearly one hundred dollars.

When Rev. Carter announced Sunday night that the scuots would purchase a piece of land eight or ten miles from town and establish a permanent scout camp, Mr. C. B. Cox promptly arose and donated to the Scouts the necessary land and a suitable building. This big-hearted action of Mr. Cox brought forth prolonged cheering from the audience, and three cheers from the Scouts at the close of the program.

Prof. Thompson of the hogh school has his heart also in the work of our boys. He was chairman of the meeting Monday night, and used his opportunity to say some valuable things to the boys and the audience as a whole.

During the entire celebration the Boy Scouts Band attracted much attention by their splendid playing of numerous selections. The band is one of the biggest drawing cords the boys have here. The boys in the band deserve a very great share of the thanks of the town for their accomplishment. It is worth much to a town to have a band like the one our boys have made here. We all should tell them how we appreciate them, and then back up our words with our hearts and our pocket books.

We are glad of the interest that his been shown in the work by the people of Clanton. It has been a manifestation of well-justified endorsement of a most worthy cause. The boys of Clanton must be saved from the inevitable destruction that lurks neath the shadows of the way they have been traveling. The grown people must get busy and save them. The fathers and mothers must join their own efforts with the help of our preachers, teachers, judges, officials and doctors in the great task of salvation.

We firmly believe the Scout movement offers the most equitble ground upon which to combine all these influences and bring about the most speedy and effective results.

WILEY LITTLEJOHN ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER.

We are pleased to announce this week that Mr. J. Wiley Littlejohn has yielded to the solicitation of his many friends and authorized us to announce his name as a candidate for county Commissiones. This is the first announcement we have had for that plae. Mr. Littlejohn would be the Commisioner of the Fourth Ditrirt of the county, the place now held by Mr. A. P. Vinson.

It is useless to indulge in any introduction of Mr. Littlejohn to the people of the county. In years past he has been in public life as our County Treasurer, and he has a vast number of friends all over the county who know him well and esteem him very highly. He has always made a very fine record in his public dealings, and his private career has measured up to the highest standard of integrity and uefulness as a citizen. He is a man of wide and thorough obervation and rigid business ability. He possesses every quality that will enable him to fill the office of County Commissioner successfully. He is one of the most loyal supporters of the Republican party, and therefore has been a valuable asset to our party success in the county.

LEADERSHIP VS. DICTATORSHIP

One of the consistent defenders of the Wilsonian regime in national administration expresses great concern because, as he says, the fight over the peace treaty in the Senate may result in overturn of leadership in the Republican party. His wish is evidently father to his thought. He would like to engender rivalries that would cause dissension.

In the Republican party, leadership depends upon ideas, ability and courage. To be leader of the Republican party, a man must demonstrate that he has the best policies, the ability to get them definitely before the country, and the courage to fight for them. No one man can lead the Republican party on all questions, for there is no one man so great as to be an expert on all subjects. Each can lead on the subject of which he is master.

In the Democratic party the situation is different. The Democrats in Congress follow a leader who has repudiated himself on every subject he ever discussed. They recognize one man absolute authority on every subject under the sun. They accept the dictum that it is not theirs to reason why, theirs not to make reply, theirs merely to do and die, politically.

Republican leadership is that of statesmanship, Democratic leadership is that of autocratic egotism. With a few notable exceptions, there are no Democrats in Congress who dare call their minds their own. On the Republican side, every man has a mind of his own and uses it to direct his voice and his vote upon public measures. The people of the country evidently like that kind of men in legislative bodies, for they are electing more of them to the Senate and the House. Rubber stamps are decidedly in disfavor in America in these stirring days of 1920. This is not a one-man country, and the Republican party is not a one-man party.

SPRING OATS.

By E. F. Cauthen, Agriculturist.
Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

The scarcity of corn and its high price make spring planting of oats an important consideration. While spring planted oats do not usually yield a large amount of grain or tonnage of hay per acre, yet a farmer who is going to run short of feed corn can ill afford to neglect this important crop.

TO AVOID THE "FLU"

FIRST OF ALL MAKE SURE YOUR BLOOD IS RED AND RICH—IN GOOD FIGHTING TRIM.

Safety in Vigorous Blood

If You're Listless and Depressed Dont Delay a Minute—Get a Good Tonic.

If you get the influenza, see a doctor at once—but why get it? Isn't it worth while, instead, to take every precaution against geting it?

Probably the best and first thing to do is to make sure you are in good physical trim. During an epidemic almost wherever you go you are exposed to influenza. As long as you are really well the red corpuscle of your blood fight off and defeat the disease germs. But when you are tired and run down, when you feel right except that you haven't much energy or enthusiasm, your blood is tired out too and you are an easy victim.

Pepto-Mangan has become famous as a builder of rich red blood. It will help you up when you are run down. It helps you avoid illness. Or, it will help you recover if you realized your poor physical condition too late.

Physicians have been recommending Pepto-Mangan for years in cases of anemia (bloodlessness). It is reliable, effective, and has a record of over twenty-five years success. Take no chances with a run-down condition. Get Pepto-Mangan to-day. It is good health insurance.

Pepto-Mangan i sold in liquid and tablet form. There is no difference in the medical value. Take either of the kinds you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name should be on the package.—Adv.

Mr. J. M. Smith has been engaged this week in taking up the census reports of manufacturing establishments in Beat 4. This work is the final details of the general census that has just been completed in the county under direction of the Federal Census Bureau.

BEST FOR ALL CROPS

SOUTH ATLANTIC GUANO COMPANY

(SUBSIDIARY MORRIS FERTILIZER CO.)

ATLANTA — MONTGOMERY

A poor crop never pays. A farmer is not living up to his opportunities when he fails to make a good profit on his year's work. Outside of actual Providential casualties, there is no excuse for crop failure in these days of scientific methods of feeding the crop so that each plant is nursed and nourished from the time of sprouting till final maturity.

The methods of mixing and blending the South Atlantic Brands and the excellent class of materials used in them as actual food for the plant make them a scientifically perfect fertilizer. Their mechanical condition is so fine and free from lumps that each plant gets its full share of each element of plant food, thus insuring better stands and vigorous growth.

Their liberal use means larger yields, better profits and eminent satisfaction.

Liquor Interests Threat.

The threat of the liquor organizations to elect a congress that is hostile to the prohibition code and that will seek to resubmit the eighteenth amendment, is a warning to those opposed to a reopening of this question and to the legalized sale of the products of brewers and distilleries.

Furthermore it is seriously contended that Congress has the right to prescribe by law the percentage of alcohol necessary to constitute intoxicating liquors. An unfriendly Congress may destroy the present laws either by fixing a high percentage of alcohol or by enacting taxenforcement laws.

Demonstrated Ability.

As chairman of the national committee on the ratification of the eighteenth amendment, Mr. Musgrove demonstrated his interest and ability to lead the prohibition fight in a national way, as he already had demonstrated his able leadership for that cause in his town, county and state.

The man who opposed Mr. Musgrove in his fight for State and National prohibition and for ratification of the amendment in Alabama, is the man who is opposing him in the contest to reach the United States Senate, the great battle ground and point of vantage for which the forces of temperance and the forces of liquor are now contending.

There can be no doubt that a great measure of the unrest, discontent, and the high cost of living that stirs the people of this country is traceable to the fact that many of their chosen representatives at Washington have wandered far from the people in sympathy and interest, have actually forgotten those whom they were elected to represent.

Those who have accepted leadership in Congress during the past twenty-five years and who are proclaimed as leaders, must accept the share of the responsibility for present conditions, insofar as they are due to lack of remedial legislation.

"Breck" Musgrove is of, and with the people of Alabama. Since his boyhood he has labored with, and for the people, in the cause of education, prohibition, better agricultural methods, better highways and better and more humane laws. He is one of those now directing the educational affairs of Alabama and was one of the first men in the nation to grasp the importance of vocational education and to advocate its adoption as a state and national policy.

In Accord With Common People

For these and for other reasons Mr. Musgrove is in hearty accord with those who work for a living. He himself had to work from the time when a boy he rode the pony many over the hills and through the sights of the forests of Tuscaloosa, and Walker counties, until by energy, thrift, hard work and business sagacity, he has been able to save enough of the world's goods to take care of him when old age overtakes him.

JUDGE FOSTER WARNS PEOPLE TO BE ON GUARD

MUSGROVE'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER SAYS INSIDIOUS INTERESTS, BREWERS AND LIQUOR FORCES, STILL ENTRENCHED IN WASHINGTON AND PROHIBITIONISTS MUST NOT ALLOW THEIR HARD EARNED VICTORY TO ESCAPE.

MUSGROVE'S TRAINING QUALIFIES HIM FOR SENATOR AND SERVANT OF PEOPLE IN FIGHT AGAINST "SPECIAL PRIVILEGE"

Birmingham, Feb. 7.—(Special.)—Calling on every Democrat in Alabama who believes in clean government to stand on guard against the nullification of prohibition by wet senators, Judge Henry B. Foster of Tuscaloosa, campaign manager for L. B. Musgrove, has issued a statement saying Col. Musgrove is the logical man by training and environment for the Senate to represent all of the people of Alabama.

"To the People of Alabama:

"I desire to submit some of the reasons which actuated me in accepting so active a part in Mr. L. B. Musgrove's campaign for election to the United States Senate.

"While the brewers and liquor interests remain entrenched at Washington no man who is a sincere advocate of prohibition is justified in folding his hands and assuming that the fight is won and the fruits of victory assured. For this reason, if for no other, I should feel it my duty to answer the call that has been made upon me and assist in electing to the United States Senate my friend, L. B. Musgrove, whom I know to be an uncompromising enemy to the liquor traffic.

Liquor Interests Threat.

The threat of the liquor organizations to elect a congress that is hostile to the prohibition code and that will seek to resubmit the eighteenth amendment, is a warning to those opposed to a reopening of this question and to the legalized sale of the products of brewers and distilleries.

Furthermore it is seriously contended that Congress has the right to prescribe by law the percentage of alcohol necessary to constitute intoxicating liquors. An unfriendly Congress may destroy the temperance laws either by fixing a high percentage of alcohol or by enacting tax enforcement laws.

Demonstrated Ability.

As chairman of the national committee on the ratification of the eighteenth amendment, Mr. Musgrove demonstrated his interest and his ability to lead the prohibition fight in a national way, as he already has demonstrated his able leadership for that cause in his town, county and state.

The man who opposed Mr. Musgrove in his fight for State and National prohibition and for ratification of the amendment in Alabama, is the man who is opposing him in the contest to reach the United States Senate, the great battle ground and point of vantage for which the forces of temperance and the forces of liquor are now contending.

There can be no doubt that a great measure of the unrest, discontent, and thorough cost of living that stirs the people of this country is traceable to the fact that many of their chosen representatives at Washington have wandered far from the people in sympathy and interest, have actually forgotten those whom they were elected to represent.

Those who have accepted leadership in Congress during the past two or five years and who are proclaimed as leaders, must accept their share of the responsibility for present conditions, insofar as they are due to lack of remedial legislation.

Mr. Musgrove is of, and with the people of Alabama. Since his boyhood he has labored with, and for the people, in the cause of education, prohibition, better agricultural methods, better highways and better and more humane laws. He is one of the men now directing the educational affairs of Alabama and was one of the first men in the nation to grasp the importance of vocational education and to advocate its adoption as a state and national policy.

In Accord With Common People.

For these and for other reasons, Mr. Musgrove is in hearty accord with those who work for a living, as he himself had to work from the time when a boy he rode the pony mails over the hills and through the sighing pine forests of Tuscaloosa, and Walker counties, until by energy, thrift, hard work and business sagacity, he has been able to save enough of this world's goods to take care of him when old age overtakes him.

L. B. Musgrove

But not only does Mr. Musgrove strike hands with the man who toils in the mines, the factories and on the farms of Alabama, but his varied and extensive business career gives him a point of contact with the industrial and commercial builders of the state. He understands inequality in the distribution of our national wealth, and he is capacitated to draw capital to the south, for the development of the wonderful natural resources of his native state. This can be done, in a measure by far-sighted and constructive legislation, conceived and engineered in the interest of the people whom he will be chosen to represent.

Business Man is Needed.

There never was a time when the problems confronting the nation were more full of complexities or the needs of practical business accumen more urgent. By reason of his extraordinary business gifts, Mr. Musgrove can and will be a tower of strength in assisting our government through this trying period of readjustment.

One of the greatest problems of business before the nation today is that of taxation. We need at Washington a man from Alabama who, by reason of experience in business affairs, can lend practical assistance in the simplification of the revenue laws.

Certainly we want to meet every honorable commitment made during the war, but we need business men to simplify our laws of finance and taxation which have placed such heavy burdens on all of our people.

Mr. Musgrove possesses in a wonderful degree the good common sense and is pre-eminently qualified by business experience to bring about a solution of these all-important problems. In addition to these qualifications he is intensely interested in the welfare and uplift of his fellowmen, and has a desire to do a real service to all the people of his state.

I have known him for many years, and I am convinced that he exemplifies in a fine way the best ideals of the people of Alabama. He is an able, progressive patriotic citizen, and has habitually and courageously stood for those things which I conceive to typify a sound public policy.

For those reasons, and for many others, I intend to assist with all the strength I may possess in obtaining for Mr. Musgrove, the nomination and election he is seeking. I appeal to those whom I am privileged to call my friends, and to all who proclaim themselves as advocates of temperance, to the business men, to those who work on the farms and in the industries, and those who hope for better days, that you assist in the campaign that is now actively begun in the interest of L. B. Musgrove, candidate for the United States Senate. Very respectfully,

HENRY B. FOSTER, Chairman,
Musgrove Campaign Committee.

"ALL O. K. FOR THE BLOOD"

Is What a Citizen of Georgia Says of ZIRON, the New Iron Tonic.

Iron is needed by the blood to keep men and women strong and healthy. Iron is needed by the nerves to keep them toned up. Ziron, the new iron tonic, will put iron into your blood and should help renew your fagged nerve forces in the way it has done it for many others.

Read what Mr. J. R. Bell, Rt. 2, Oconee, Ga., says about the effects of Ziron:

"I think Ziron is all O. K. for the blood. That was what I have been taking it for—my blood. I liked Ziron so well that I went back to the store and got two more bottles of it."

Ziron is a combination of a pure medicinal inorganic iron salt, mentioned in the U. S. Pharmacopeia, with the hypophosphites of lime and soda, and other valuable tonic ingredients, endorsed and recommended by the best medical authorities and mentioned in the medical text books.

Head and shoulders above the crowd stands Thomas A. Edison!

THE NEW DIAMOND
AMBEROLA

No product can be bigger than the brain that evolves it. No other brain in the world today has the inventive ability of Edison's. That fact alone is sufficient proof of the absolute superiority of the Amberola.

But the Amberola can quickly and easily prove its own superiority. Its tone—oh, what a revelation, compared to metallic "talking machines" and shrill-sounding phonographs! None but Edison could work that miracle of tone.

Then the Amberol Records, made for the Amberola alone! They are practically unbreakable and everlasting—what a contrast to the costly fragileness of other phonograph records.

And for range of music—the widest in the world—all the best, all the greatest, all the latest. An endless feast of fascinating melody.

Yet the biggest surprise of all is the price! This wonder phonograph costs less than inferior competitors! There is not a single draw-back to your owning an Amberola right now!

Don't listen to the claims of other manufacturers—listen to their machines. Then come in and compare the matchless tone of the Amberola. Edison's wizardry will win you every time.

We'll expect you in today—now don't forget.

Perfect Health Is Yours If the Blood Is Kept Pure

You should pay particular heed to any indication that your blood supply is becoming sluggish, or that there is a lessening in its strong and vital force.

By keeping your blood cleansed your system more easily wards off disease that is ever present, waiting to attack wherever there is an opening. A few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood medicine, will revitalize your blood and give you new strength and a healthy, vigorous vitality. Everyone needs it just now to keep the system in perfect condition. Go to your drug store and get a bottle to-day, and if you need any medical advice, you can obtain it without cost by writing to Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 46 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

This Planter Solves Your Planting Problems

Farmers who are making the biggest profit, one year with another, are farmers who diversify their crops—they don't "put all their eggs in one basket." Diversified farming, including the growing of legumes, peanuts, velvet beans, soy beans, etc., while safe and profitable farming, also builds up the fertility of the soil.

The remarkable popularity won by

during the past two years is due to the fact that it meets, as no other planter does, the requirements of present-day farming.

As a peanut planter it stands without a rival. It plants peanuts accurately, without cracking or crushing them.

Having a double hopper, this planter enables you to plant two kinds of seed—corn and velvet beans, for example—in the same row, or in alternate rows, without removing the planting plates or emptying the hopper.

This planter is easy for your mule to pull and easy for you to handle in turning at the ends of the rows because, while amply strong, it is not heavy or clumsy.

You can't appreciate how different and how superior the Avery Shawnee Duplex is without seeing it. Drop in and let us show you.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF ALABAMA.
Executive Department.

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at its regular session in the year 1919, has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session;

AND WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on, to-wit: Monday, February 16th, 1920, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Article XX, Section 1-A.—That for the establishment, construction and maintenance of a permanent, excellent and complete system of State Highways, public roads and bridges in this State serviceable for three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, and to enable the State to secure the national appropriations for public highways there shall be issued and sold by the State of Alabama interest bearing negotiable State bonds, not to exceed the sum of twenty-five million ($25,000,000) dollars, that said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, or semi-annually, shall mature serially or otherwise not less than three nor more than forty years from the date of their issuance, shall be made payable out of the State Road and Bridge fund which fund is created for that purpose, shall be executed, sold and delivered on behalf of the State from time to time, shall be of denominations of ten dollars and up to one thousand dollars, and mature as may be determined, subject to the approval of the Governor by the Highway Commission, who shall also be Highway Bond Commission, acting by majority vote with all proceedings of such commission, together with the approval of the Governor thereto, reduced to writing and made of record, and the record and registration of said bonds shall be duly deposited in the office of the State Treasurer and kept by him; that said bonds shall be signed by the Governor, State Auditor and State Treasurer, and shall have the great Seal of the State attached thereto, attested by the Secretary of State, the coupons shall be numbered and signed by the State Treasurer. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxes. Provided, however, that the facsimile signatures upon the interest coupons of said bonds may be lithographed in lieu of signing; that said bonds shall be the direct obligation of the State and for the payment thereof the full faith and credit of the State is hereby irrevocably pledged that the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and kept in a separate fund and shall be exclusively used to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said Highways, public roads and bridges of the state. The said bonds shall be sold at not less than par. B.—That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of the principal and interest of said bonds to provide a sinking fund therefor, to place sufficient revenue in said state road and bridges fund, and to defray the cost of constructing and maintaining said State Highways, public roads and bridges continuously in a highly serviceable condition that a State license tax on all automobiles or motor driven vehicles is hereby authorized to be levied and collected on all such vehicle privilege license tax now levied or which may hereafter be levied by law of every kind and description shall be exclusively used for the payment of said bonds, principal and interest, for creating a sinking fund for their maturity and the remainder for the maintenance of said public highways, roads and bridges and extension of the State Highway System, that county roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National Government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained by the aid of the State and National government, that State roads and bridges may be built and maintained with the aid of the county and national government, that said State Highways, roads and bridges shall be constructed and maintained by the State Highway Department and all moneys derived from the sale of said bonds shall be expended by the highway department may direct subject to the approval of the Governor. C.—That the State Highway Commission, or Highway Department shall locate, construct and maintain the Highways or State Trunk Roads so as to connect each county seat with the county seats of the adjoining counties by the most direct and most feasible route by a permanent road having due regard to the public welfare and to connect the county seats of the several border counties at or near the State line with a public road in the border states. Provided that in counties divided into two judicial divisions in each of which regular terms of the circuit court are held, the places where said terms of court are held, shall be connected with each other. It shall be the duty of said State Highway Commission or Highway Department, to equitably apportion among the several counties the expenditures of both money and labor and the time or times of making such investments; said roads to be constructed and maintained without expense to the several counties. G.—That this amendment and the foregoing provisions thereof, when ratified by the people are self-executing without the aid of further legislation, but the legislature shall pass such laws as it may deem necessary to secure the full benefit and effect of this amendment to the constitution. Either at this session of the legislature or at the earliest possible time after the ratification by the people that this amendment shall become immediately in full effect, nothing in the constitution and sections 213 and 93 thereof to the contrary notwithstanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 31st day of October, 1919.

THOS. E. KILBY,
Governor.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time...

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. ——about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles...After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74

JOHN M. PARRISH APPOINTED CLANTON POSTMASTER.

On Monday the President of the United States nominated Mr. John M. Parrish for appointment to the office of Postmaster at Clanton. His nomination goes up to the Senate, and when confirmed by that body, Mr. Parrish will be duly invested with the powers of his office and take charge of Clanton's postoffice business. Mr. Parrish is one of the three applicants who were holding out for the appointment. The other two were Mr. J. J. Pickens and Mr. J. L. Wilson. Mr. Wilson was the only Republican in the three, and held the highest rating in the examination, but by some mysterious circumstance he was denied the office and the appointment given to Mr. Parrish.

The man who has been appointed is a splendid good fellow, and will make us a good postmaster.

NOTICE

By authority of the stockholders of phone line No. 11, we invite the directors of each line that is to be affected by some of the electors to meet at Clanton, to meet at the Court House Saturday, Feb. 14, at 10 A. M. to take legal teps to have the wires removed from our lines. We also ask that the officers of the Peoples Telephone Company at Clanton assist us in getting this matter settled without having to resort to the law for our protection. B.H. JONES

BOY SCOUT CELEBRATIONS

By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

The Boy Scout celebrations held on Sunday and Monday of this week at the court house were very gratifying for several reasons.

As never before, this excellent movement has been laid before the people, and the things for which it stands heve been forcibly presented.

The response of the citizenship by their attendance, their liberal offerings of nearly $100, and the splendid donation of a piece of land and a house for permanent camping quarters demonstrated what the people of Clanton are willing to do for a worthy enterprise when they really understand it.

In addition to this the success of the celebration proves what can be accomplished in this community when the churches, preachers, and the best element of the citizenship are united on one common ground for the general good and development of the city and the community.

There are many other things morally and civically that need to be accomplished for the general welfare and progres of Clanton, and the succes of the Boy Scout Celberation is an indication that by unification, enlightenment and co-operation, Clanton can soon become next to the large cities, one of the most important centers of the State, both morally, civically and religiously.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Insist on Genuine Ford Parts

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail-order houses, down town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not Genuine Ford parts made by the Ford Motor Company. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatever with the Ford Motor Company. These imitation parts are not even made from the same grade of steel, or under the same formulas used by the Ford Company. They are counterfeit parts. Tests have shown them to break when Genuine Ford parts didn't even bend, and they generally are from thirty-five to one hundred per cent lower in quality.

The authorized Ford dealer is your protection. As such, we handle nothing but the Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel and each part—according to its use—is heat-treated in the way that will give it the longest wearing qualities. Every part is the same as its duplicate in your Ford Car or Ford Truck. z

Our Stock of parts is complete. And our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car, also money.

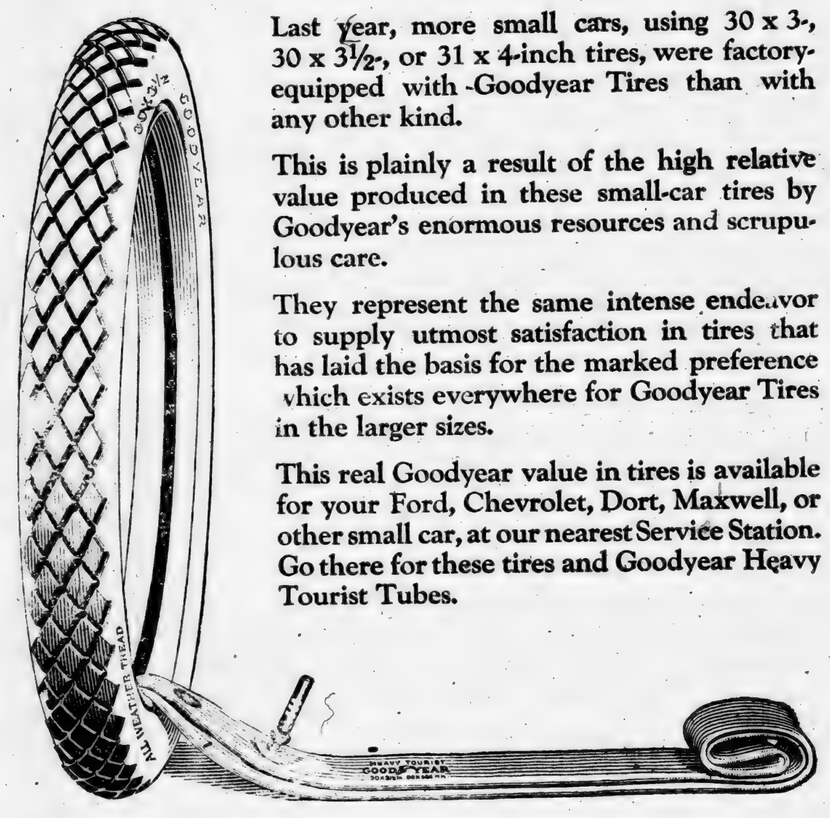
Why More Small Cars Come Equipped With Goodyear Tires



Last year, more small cars, using 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½-, or 31 x 4-inch tires, were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

This is plainly a result of the high relative value produced in these small-car tires by Goodyear's enormous resources and scrupulous care.

They represent the same intense endeavor to supply utmost satisfaction in tires that has laid the basis for the marked preference which exists everywhere for Goodyear Tires in the larger sizes.

This real Goodyear value in tires is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other small car, at our nearest Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag..... $3.90

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

MRS. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

The younger set enjoyed one of the most delightful affairs of the season on Friday last when Mrs. W. H. Sartor entertained very informally for the Senior Class of the High School. The occasion being the eighteenth birthday of her son, Lee. A number of games were played thruout the evening. The most enjoyable feature of the entertainment being the cutting of the birthday cake. Late in the evening a delicious ice course was served by Miss Willie Belle Sartor, assisted by Miss Annie Reynolds. About twenty guests enjoyed this gracious hospitality.

Mrs. Percy M. Pitts of Columbiana is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds in Clanton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore went to Montgomery shopping on Wednesday.

Mrs. W.N.Childress has returned to her home in Birmingham after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Littlejohn.

Mr. Carey Speer spent Sunday with his sister in Birmingham.

Judge L. H. Reynolds and Mrs. Grady Reynolds were visitors to Montgomery Tuesday.

Mr. Tom Jones of Montgomery is spending the week-end in Clanton.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of this week was a spend-the-day-party given by Mrs. T. C. McSwain, when she entertained the members of the Idlers' Club at a sewing. The guests all assembled early and began work. At noon a most elaborate luncheon was served. Quite a number of garments were completed during the day by Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mrs. J. Watts Moore, Mrs. Macey Jones, and Mrs. Clyde Jones.

Mr. E. S. Parrish, a well-known traveling man, was in Clanton Tuesday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Luckie.

Mrs. J. C. Jones and Miss Mabel Thomas left Monday for Pensacola, where they will attend conference.

Mr. J. B. Atkinson made a business trip to Ozark this week.

One of the loveliest functions of the season was a "42" party at which Mrs. Grady Broadnead entertained on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The occasion was President's Day. The Valentine idea was carried out in both decorations and score cards, also vases of red carnations being seen throughout the living room and dining room where five tables were arranged. Mrs. Eric Hart and Mrs. Amzi Gowan cut for the prize, Mrs. Gowan being the lucky one received a lovely cut glass violet basket.. A tempting salad course was served after the game, during which Miss Gillis rendered several musical selections. Mrs. Broadhead being President of the Embroidery Club, was presented with a beautiful cut glass vase.

Mrs. S. A. Johnson of Montgomery has been the guest of Mrs. Reynolds for several days past.

Mrs. L. J. Duncan was the ing hostess on Friday afterno she entertained the member Study Club. The house was tractive with crystal vases and white carnations artistic ranged. 1,936 DOGS REGISTERED IN CHILTON COUNTY.

The records in the office of Mr. M. D. Foshee, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chilton County show that there has been up to now a total of 1,936 dogs which have been registered in Chilton County and the taxes paid on same. There are still a few being registered every day. People should bear in mind that March the first is the close of the time allowed for registration and all dogs not registered and tagged by that time are subject to being killed when they are reported to the Sheriff.

Elsewhere in this issue of the paper appears a letter to Sheriff Gor from the State Tax Commission in regard to the enforcement of the provisions of the law in Chilton county. The Governor of Alabama insists on the strict enforcement of the law and those who do not register and tag their dogs may expect the Sheriff to kill them when they are reported to him after the first of March.

DANIELS RECEIVES INSTRUCTIONS ON NAVY.

"We had no business to think about who was the enemy," was the antagonistic statement of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, during the part of the cross examination before the Hale-sub committee investigating the question of naval awards. "I raise no question," he continued, at this time as to the accuracy of his (Admiral Sims') memory.

But the wind was completely taken from Mr. Daniels' sails when Senator Miles Poindexter, of Washington, answered the Secretary's statement that "I am in favor of building the biggest navy in the world." The Senator from Washington replied, "But don't you know that if we have a league of nations you won't be able to build any ships without the permission of other powers, including Great Britain."

Mr. Daniels: "No, I don't know that."

Senator Poindexter: "Well its a good thing for you to know."

PLENTY OF DEMOCRATIC HATS IN RING AFTER GREY LETTER.

The Democratic sons took a quick leap into the Presidential ring following the Lord Grey letter. We don't know that the letter had anything to do with their sudden activity, but we do know that previous to that time when this Englishman told the world what he thought about American reservations to the peace treaty, their actions had been greatly akin to those of the snail. Perhaps they took this occasion to jump because they saw the handwritng on the poltical wall, at least so far as the White House is concerned.

CREEL BUREAU PLAYED DOUBLE GAME SAYS MARTENS

Washington, Feb. 17—Mr. Martens testifying before the Foreign Relations sub-committee of the Senate, says that the war time committee on public informaion and other "officials of the United States" worked with agents of Russian sovietism to bring about a revolution in Germany, and at the same time published documents in this country intended to prove that soviet officials were the paid agents of Germany. Senator Moses, the chairman, suggested that apparently Mr. Creel, head of the public information bureau, "was at work with the soviets on the one hand and against them on the other." To that Mr. Martens agreed. The evidence confirms the conviction held by many while the Creel bureau was at the height of its activity that it was little better than an instrument of propoganda direced by the Administration, rather than a purveyor of unprejudiced news to the public.

10:30 "What Attitude Should we Maintain toward the Inter-Church Movement?" by Rev. J. H. Longerier and Rev. S. M. Adams.

11:30 Sermon by Rev. W. F. Yarbrough.

Everybody come and help make the meeting a succes.

DEMOCRATIC TROUBLES START EARLY.

The Democrats are starting their family scraps early in the game. Governors Edwards and Smith are having a 'spirited' discussion with William Jennings Bryan on the respective merits of "red licker" and grape juice. Bryan accuses the two governors of trying to bury the Democratic party in the same grave with the saloon, and proceeds to all who the Edwards and Sam Smiths will be among the Republican candidates. "Is our party the only one to be disgraced " he aks. A question which cannot be answered because it is based on the future when the past has already ben provided with many flaming examples. The Democratic party does not need to worry about the fact that it is to be disgraced. If autocratic dictation, waste, extravagance, maladministration, with a thousand and one indictments has not been sufficient to bring disgrace, then it certainly cannot be brought about by anything which Bryan might add. While the Republican party goes merrily along with a ll sails full of the breeze, it is distressing to see the troubles the Democrats are facing through disturbing elements such as William Jennings Bryan.

R. R. CONFEREES REACH AN AGREEMENT.

The conferees on the Senate and House Railroad bills have reached a virtual agreement, according to the reports from the Capitol. It is understood that the anti-strike clause of the Senate bill has given way to a provision of a compulsory submission of wage dispute to a Federal Board appointed by the President. The labor clauses of the two measures have been the bone of contention from the beginning of the conference, and their adjustment has paved the way for a complete agreement. It is anticipated that the compromised bill will be reported to the two Houses by the 1st of March, and it is predicted that it will become a law before the President has an opportunity to return the roads to their owners on that date.

DEMOCRATS TROUBLED OVER FLOOR LEADER

Now that Mr. Glass, formerly Secretary of the Treasury, has taken his seat in the Senate, it is planned by the Democrats to hold another party caucus in an attempt to break the tie over the choice of a floor leader. The Republicans look with complacency on the rivalry between Hitchcock and Underwood. To them it is simply a case of dog eat dog.

HE WILL BE NO EXCEPTION.

Secretary of Agriculture Meredith is President of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. He will doubtless see to it that his new work gets plenty of favorable publicity.

MASS MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE.

A mass meeting will be held at the Court House on Sunday night, Feb. 22, commencing at 7:30 P. M. in the interests of the millions of starving women and children in Armenia and the near East. Thousands of them are now literally dying of starvation through the cruel persecution of the Turks.

Special music will be rendered by the Boy Scout Band. Dr. Maye and Rev. P. G. Carter will address the meeting. If you are interested in this very worthy and deserving cause, this is the time to contribute. Our Saviour said "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of one of these, my brethren, ye did it unto me."

THORSBY ITEMS

Rev. John Benson of Silver Hill, Ala., preached at the Lutheran church last Sunday, conducting services in Swedish in the morning, and in the evening in English.

At the Baptist Church Rev. Mr. Lowery preached, as usual on the Third Sunday of the month.

Rev. Dr. W. P. Stoddard of Grinnell, Iowa, preached at the Congregational Church. Notwithstanding the services in the other churches, a good audience listened with interest to a clear and forceful sermon which it seemed especially appealed to the young people present. Dr. Stoddard is visiting his daughter, Miss May Stoddard, of Thorsby Institute, and has addressed the school at Chapel on Friday and Monday mornings. He will remain for a few days previous to taking up further work in the interest of the Inter-Church movement.

A leap-year and measuring party was given on Saturday night for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Mrs. Piper kindly opened her house and presided as hostess to a merry crowd of young people. Tall young men were especially popular, and the evening netted about $13, besides a conviction expressed by the young ladies that they preferred, as a regular thing to have the young men do escort duty, and by the young men that they could do a better job at proposing.

A basket ball game between the Clanton High School and Thorsby Institute will be played here at 3:30 on Thursday.

Feb. 21, Saturday night, at 7:45, the Queen Ssther S.S. Class of the Congregational Church will present a program in Bates Hall consisting of music and recitations, a flag drill and a short play entitled, "Aunt Matilda's Birthday Party." Admission is 20 cents for adults, and 10 cents for children under twelve. Everybody is invited.

Look out for the operetta, "Little Almond Eye," which is to be given in Bates HaH before long.

A WARNING AGAINST SOME IMPENDING DANGERS.

Editor Union-Banner:—Paul in his writing to Timothy, made use of these words: "In the last days perilous times will come." If I have any conception of his meaning, and any knowledge of the things that have transpired in the past few years, and any vision of the present and the immediate future, I would say now that the Apostle surely was inspired to speak those words, and that the prophecy has come true and is coming true now every day.

A few years ago there was a great struggle between the nations of Europe about which we were not at the first much concerned. But in a short time America was involved and the trouble arising out of the conflict came to our own shores and verily into our homes. Those were perilous times, were they not.

More than that, Roman Catholicism has for years been seeking dominion of our country, and has gotten such a strong hold in some places that Protestant people have been unable to cope with them and to arrest their onward march. Many of their hideous plots and schemes have been revealed, and we have seen that their influences have in all places where in control, virtually clogged the wheel of progressive government and safe and sane religion.

Now, the latest thing out is that some great wolf in sheep's clothing has bobbed up and introduced to us the inter-church world movement, which is an hundred fold more detrimental to the progress of Christianity than any idol that could be set up. More perilous times.

I want to urge the people, the brethren of the church to thoroughly consider every particular point in the inter-church world movement. There are many points to consider.

First, the Constitution of the United States provides that a man may worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience.

Second, if you belong to a denomination that has not the inspiration to carry out it plans and doctrines, just say that it is not of God, then leave it and go to one that can.

Third, the Bible does not teach us to sacrifice principle for popularity.

There are many other points to be considered which space will not permit to be mentioned now. But if there is anything in the heart of the man who founded or established the move other than a selfish design, it is ignorance. If such a movement had been mentioned fifteen years ago, what would the people have said? My, my, what an idea? Well, where and how did it start?

Some years ago there was organized what was called an interdenominational Sunday School Convention. So the nation, states and counties were organized with the watchword, "No doctrine to be taught in the Convention." So it rocked along some years and had an interdenominational gala success. What then? In the State Convention they said we think it unwise to carry along all this mess of denominational distinction and pre judices, so we will organize us a great big church and leave off all this mess and unionize our churches and get the folks. So the move is on foot, and they will get all who do not stand for principle, but stand for design instead instead of principle. Therefore they will commercialize their religion, and I will not judge the final result.

Dear Protetants, let me advise you that you hold fast to your doctrine and not float with the current that may sweep this country.

Fraternay yours,
G. CLEVE POWELL,
Clanton, Ala., Route 1.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AT THE COURT HOUSE FIFTH SUNDAY

There will be a public lecture at the Cout House in Clanton on Fifth Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock P. M. The subjects which will be discussed are Roman Catholicism and other kindred subjects, which are of great importance to the general public at this particular time. Hon. Willard Drake of Birmingham, and Mr. Henry McInary of Bessemer will be the speakers of the occasion.

Everybody is invited to come and hear these lectures. Men come and bring your wives and children. The question is a live red-hot one that is of vital concern to the home of every citizen of the United States, and we in Chilton County want to get ourselves thoroughly awake in due time to successfully meet the impending danger that hangs like a pall over our entire country. Come and tell your neighbors and friends to come.

Dr. G. R. Stone of the Soldiers Home, came to Clanton Tuesday to bring the returns from the Mountain Creek box on the Bond Issue election.

SHERIFF INSTRUCTED TO KILL ALL DOGS NOT TAGGED AND MUZZLED.

According to the demands of a letter sent out to the various Sheriffs of Alabama, a copy of which has been received by Sheriff J. L. Gore of Chilton County, beginning March 1st, all dogs in Chilton County and Alabama not tagged nor muzzled according to law, must be killd. Instructions to this effect come from the office of the State Tax Commission at Montgomery, upon the insistence of the Governor that the law be enforced rigidly.

"Dear Sir—Owing to the inability of the Board of Control and Economy to get the necessary tags, to be furnished to the Clerks of the Circuit Courts, in order to carry out the dog registration law, until now, we have heretofore recommended that Sheriffs should not take active steps in the duties imposed upon them by this law until March 1st, in order that the tags might be furnished, and the people who own dogs be given time for registration.

"We now beg leave to report that an ample quantity of tags have been obtained for registrataion purposes and all demands of Circuit Clerks so far for tags have been filled. We shall therefore insist (and we hope to have your co-operation in the discarge of the duties imposed upon you by the statute) on having this law enforced.

"We would suggest that you give as much publicity as possible to the fact that beginning March 1st of this year dogs not tagged nor muzzled as provided by law will be killed.

"The Governor insists that this law shall be enforced, and has made inquiry of this Commission as to the steps that have been taken for the enforcement of the law."

"STATE TAX COMMISSION."

Regarding the enforcement of the requirements of the law, Sheriff Gore has given us the following letter for publication:

"To the Peaple of Chilton County:

"This is to advise you that if you have not already done so, you should see that your dogs are properly registered and muzzled according to the requirements of the law before March the 1st. You can readily see that I shall be bound by the requirements of the State Laws, and the duties that are upon me as Sheriff of your county for the enforcement of the same, to kill all dogs after March 1st that are reported to me as not properly tagged and muzzled according to the requirements of the law. If you want to get the matter done with in the easiest way I would suggest that if you have a dog not registered on March the first, just take him out and kill him yourself if you do not intend to register him. If somebody should report to me that your dog has not been registered after the first of March I will have to come and kill him in order to fulfill my duty under the law. Regardles of how we may feel about the law, I hope that all the people of the county will comply with it without any trouble.

"J. L. GORE, Sheriff."

A TOUCHY SOUTHERN REPRESENTATIVE SQUELCHED.

During the consideration of an item in the deficiency bill appropriating a sum to continue the collection and publication of the "naval records of the rebellion," an effort was made by a Southern Congressman to strike out the word "rebellion" and substitute the words "war between the States." For twenty-five years appropriations have been made and data has been compiled and printed under the former designation. Republican leaders saw no reasoin for changing volumes of prepared records to merely save the tender susceptibilities of certain representatives of the South, and defeated the amendment.

LARGEST PEACE DEFICIENCY BILL IN HISTORY.

The House has passed what is said to be the largest peace time deficiency bill in the history of the country carrying a total of $89,400,000. The greater portion of that sum is made up of appropriations made necessary by the war. Fifty-five million dollars is for compensation to former service men, $12,000,000 for the education of war cripples, and $4,500,000 for the treatment of sick and the wounded. Anotler large item is the sum of $1,000,000 for the deportation of Reds.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

In view of the letter from Lord Grey it is said that administration Senators are seeing some difficulty in being "more English than the English."

REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CALLED TO MEET HERE MARCH 6TH.

The Republican Executive Committee of Chilton County, Alabama, is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Clanton, Alabama, at 10:00 o'clock, A. M., on Saturday, the 6th day of March, 1920, for the purpose of ordering a primary election to nominate candidates for the several offices to be elected in the General Election in November, 1920, and to transact any other business that may properly come before said Committee. Each member of the Committee is urged to be present as the importance of matters to be considered demands a full attendance.

BOND ISSUE CARRIED ALL OVER THE STATE IS REPORT.

It has been authentically reported that the twenty-five million dollar road bond isue for Alabama was voted on favorably by the people of the State on Monday, the result being a landslide in favor of the measure. The vote of the entire state will be about ten to one in favor of the big bond issue. Only one County, Geneva, voted a majority against the proposition. All the other counties turned up heavy majorities for it.

It has already been given out at the headquarters of the State Highway Department that the first of the bonds will be sold inside of three months and work will begin on the road of the state in a short time.

NEW SITE BOUGHT UPON WHICH TO BUILD NEW CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH.

One of the greatest problems confronting the Baptists of Clanton in their building enterprise was successfully overcome when the church in conference last Sunday purchased the old Patty Smith property 150 x 140 feet at the back of the court house for a consideration of $3,750.

The project of erecting a suitable house of worship has been under consideration for more than fifteen years but now promises to become an accomplished fact.

The Rev. P. G. Carter, the new, live and energetic pastor has been on the fied only four weeks, but has lost no time in solving the main difficulties that have heretofore been obstructing the pathway of progress of the church. A very liberal response has been received in the efforts of the committee to raise the money for the purchase price of the property.

The location in our opinion is the most ideal one in Clanton, with the large piece of ground available, will give ample rooom not only for a splendid church building that will be a credit to Clanton and in keeping with the magnificent court house, but will enable them to beautify the grounds with lawns, flower beds, and a concrete automobile driveway that will make it the most attractive piece of property in the entire county or anywhere else between Birmingham and Montgomery. It is the desire of the Pastor to begin the building within the next ninety days.

I have two lots in the Gowan Addition for sale at a bargain, located in N.W. corner of block jut west of high school. Call at Union-Banner office for further particulars. 2-12-4t

MAN LOSES HUNDRED DOLLARS

"I am sorry I did not hear of Mayr Wonderful Remedy a few years ago, as it would have saved me several hundred dollars. Five years I suffered from indigestion and severe bloating. I grew worse all the time. My doctor said an operation would be all that could save me. I took a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy instead and for the past year have been entirely well." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practicly all stomach and liver troubles including ppendicitis. THE BAPTIST ATTITUDE TO THE INTER-CHURCH WORLD MOVEMENT.

The committee which prepared the program for the Fifth Sunday meeting at Chestnut Creek Church, Coopers, made a wide selection of the men to deal with the inter-church world movement, and its relation to the Baptist denomination. Rev. Longcrier and Rev. S. M. Adams will be able to present that matter in its true light. They are both men who do not guess at things off hand. We are not so well acquainted with Longcrier, but as for Adams, we say without hesitation he is the soundest thinker and interpreter of Baptist doctrine and Bible teachings that it has ever been our pleasure to come into contact with. We urge that Baptist ministers and workers from all over the county attend that meeting on the Fifth Sunday at the Chestnut Creek Church. If nothing else were treated, it would be more than worth while to have our people see the truth of the inter-church world movement. We hope Mr. Adams and Mr. Longcrier will make special effort to fill the place they have been given on the program.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Sixteen Years Experience

For Sixteen years a corps of metallurgists have been studying and constantly perfecting the steel that goes into every part of the Ford Car and the Ford One Ton Truck. Each separate part has been studied to learn the type of steel best fitted for it. Part receiving constant surface wear are made of hard, flint-like metal; parts subjected to great vibration or resilence are made of a ofter, springy steel. Every part is made according to its use—that is, every genuine Ford part is.

But there are also counterfeit "Ford" Parts. These imitations are made by concerns in no way connected with the Ford Motor Company and retailed as side-lines by mail order houses, down-town store and many garages. The unsuspecting customer accept them because they are called "Ford" parts. To make sure of getting genuine Ford-made parts, buy them only from authorized Ford dealers. Likewise bring or take your Ford car to our garage for repairs, replacements and general "tuning up."

We ae authorized Ford dealers. We can supply you with all Ford parts for either passenger car or truck.

SOME FACTS AND FANCIES ABOUT THE PHILIPPINES

There Has Been Much Misrepresentation in America About People and Conditions.

By MAXIMO M. KALAW,
Secretary of the Philippine Mission.

Maximo M. Kalaw.

A certain lady at the St. Louis Exposition saw at a ballroom a brown complexioned man in faultless evening dress and accosted him with the inquiry, "I suppose you are Japanese, sir?"

The man addressed replied, "No, madam."

"Then you must be Chinese," she said.

"No, I am not. I am a Filipino," he replied.

"How's that?" asked the lady. "I thought they were all savages living in the woods."

"Well, I'll tell you how I came here," he said. "A month before I left the Philippines I was living in the woods, but the American Governor decided to catch as many wild men as possible, train them and send them over here. So here I am, just as you see." And the St. Louis lady actually believed him.

That is what you would call fancies about the Philippines. The fact is, however, that the 11,000,000 Filipinos and their ancestors have been civilized and Christians for 300 years; that the non-Christian population, according to the census of 1918, is only 500,000, and even these are not all uncivilized.

Another fancy is that not until the coming of the Americans were school buildings seen in the Islands, roads built, or substantial houses erected. Do you know that for hundreds of years the Filipinos have had colleges and schools and that the University of Santo Tomas is only twenty-five years older than Harvard? That as early as 1866, out of a population of 4,000,000 people, there were 841 schools for boys and 833 for girls? That in 1892, eight years before the coming of the Americans, there were 2,137 schools?

"To grant self-government to Luzon under Aguinaldo would be like granting self-government to an Apache reservation under some local chief." Thus spoke a former President of the United States during the Filipino-American war. Exaggeration could be an excuse at a time when the dignity of the American people demanded the extinction of Filipino opposition, but do you know that the Philippine Republic, before the American occupation of the Islands, had the approval of prominent Americans who were on the spot—like John Barrett, Director of the Pan-American Union, who compared it favorably with the Japanese government? That Admiral Dewey considered the Filipinos better fitted for self-government than the Cubans? That they had drafted a constitution at Malolos which elicited the approval of distinguished Republicans like the late Senator George F Hoar? That before the coming of the Americans they had produced national heroes like the martyred Jose Rizal, pronounced by a Republican congressman, Representative Cooper, as the noblest victim that has ever fallen into the clutches of tyranny?

And do you know that the Filipinos have not had for hundreds of years any caste system, blood distinction or royal families, and that, unlike their oriental sisters, they are the only Christian people in the orient?

People have pictured an ignorant mass of Filipinos, illiterate, poor, living a life of servitude for a few wealthy land owners and foreigners, with no houses or farms or property of their own. Do you know that 70 per cent. of the people above ten years of age can read and write and that this percentage of literacy is almost as high as some of the states of the Union? That it is higher than in any country of South America, higher than the literacy of the Spanish people, and unquestionably above that of any of the new countries recognized in Europe? Do you know that there are a million and a half farms in the Philippines and that 96 per cent. of these farms are owned by Filipinos. In other words, that out of the 11,000,000 Christian Filipinos, 8,000,000 of them at least live on their own farms, with houses of their own, independent of any absentee landlord or foreign master? That 91 per cent. of the urban property consisting of houses and lands is owned by the natives of the Philippines, and only 9 per cent. is in the hands of foreigners? Yet these are facts cabled by Acting Governor Charles Emmett Yeater to the War Department from the recent census estimates.

Having solemnly promised the Filipinos their independence and having gone before the world as the champion of self-determination, the Filipino people cannot understand how America can consistently refuse to make good these promises.

CLIMATE OF THE PHILIPPINES.

The Philippine Islands have a mildly tropical climate. The nights are cool and sunstrokes are unknown. The temperature record for the past thirty years shows an average of 80 degrees.

The Best Cough Medicine.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself in his own famly. This is why o many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well-known druggist of Cubrun, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

THE FERTILIZER SITUATION

OUTLOOK FOR COMMERCIAL PLANT FOOD IN SOUTH.

Atlanta, Ga.—A survey of the fertilizer situation by those familiar with it indicates that there may be a shortage of commercial plant food in 1920 The reasons assigned for this are principaly that strikes have interfered with the production of materials. In addition, there has been some difficulty in obtaining shipments over the railroads.

To be more specific, the long drawn out strike of miners in the rock phosphate fields of Florida prevented a supply of rock phosphate being shipped to the factories. This and the difficulty of getting prompt shipments when the mines resumed work, it is claimed, has put the manufacture of acid phosphate more than three months behind, besides reducing the possible supply.

As to ammoniates or nitrogenous materials, it is pointed out that the coal and steel plant strikes greatly reduced the possible output of sulphate of ammonia. Tankage and cottonseed meal are so much in demand as feed as to be unavailable or too expensive to use as fertilizers. Nitrate of soda is being shipped in larger amounts, but not as cheaply as was expected. It seems that the demand for nitrate of soda in the orient, especially, has kept up the price higher than was anticipated.

As for potash, there is going to be a fair supply, the first time since the European war began. A considerable amount of potash has been shipped from Germany to France, while there is quite an accumulatation of stocks of desirable American-made potash on hand.

This Planter Solves Your Planting Problems

Farmers who are making the biggest profit, one year with another, are farmers who diversify their crops—they don't "put all their eggs in one basket." Diversified farming, including the growing of legumes, peanuts, velvet beans, soy beans, etc., while safe and profitable farming, also builds up the fertility of the soil.

The remarkable popularity won by

during the past two years is due to the fact that it meets as no other planter does, the requirements of present-day farming.

As a peanut planter it stands without a rival. It plants peanuts accurately, without cracking or crushing them.

Having a double hopper, this planter enables you to plant two kinds of seed—corn and velvet beans, for example—in the same row, or in alternate rows, without removing the planting plates or emptying the hopper.

This planter is easy for your mule to pull and easy for you to handle in turning at the ends of the rows because, while amply strong, it is not heavy or clumsy.

You can't appreciate how different and how superior the Avery Shawnee Duplex is without seeing it. Drop in and let us show you.

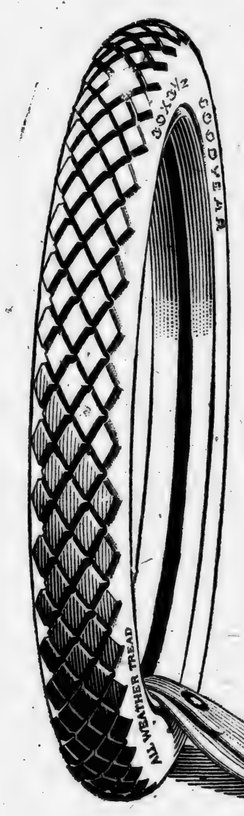
The World's Largest Tire Factory
Building 30x3, 30x3½ and 31x4-inch Tires



Owners of small cars can enjoy the same high relative value in Goodyear Tires that gives utmost satisfaction to owners of big, costly motor carriages.

They can take advantage of that tremendous amount of equipment, skill and care employed by Goodyear to build tires of extraordinary worth in the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

They can secure these tires without waiting, despite the enormous demand, because, in addition to its larger sizes, Goodyear builds an average of 20,000 a day in the world's largest tire factory devoted to the three sizes mentioned.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or any other car using one of these sizes, go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $17.65

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag..... $3.90

LAWYERS VOLUNTEER INFORMATION REGARDING ROAD LAW OF COUNTY.

Editor The Union-Banner:

Inasmuch as many parties have come to us recently seeking advice and information as to whether men over the age of forty-five years are subject to prosecution and conviction for failure to serve as apportioners or overseers by appointment under the Chilton County Road law, we deem it not inappropriate to state that we, as attorneys, have investigated the matter carefully, and it is our opinion that upon reaching the age of forty-five a man is no longer subject to road duty. He, therefore, cannot be compelled to serve as apportioner or overseer after reaching forty-five years of age, because, to require such service, would be requiring road duty after a man becomes forty-five years old.

The State law exempts from road duty the following persons: All women, all men under the age of eighteen and over the age of forty-five years; all persons who have lost an arm or leg, and all persons who, by nature or disease, are rendered incapable of hard labor, who shall pocure a certificate of such incapacity from the County Board of Health, but where there is no County Board of Health, the certificate of such incapacity from two reputable practicing physicians shall be sufficient.

The Commissioners Courts of the State have authority in their respective counties to enact laws relating to the roads of their respective counties, not in conflict with the State law but they have no authority to fix the road burden greater than is authorized by the State law. And a law requiring men between forty-five and fifty years of age to serve as apportioners or overseers, in our opinion, is in conflict with the State law, and, therefore, void.

The Probate Judge of the county has absolutely no authority to pass upon the validity of certificates issued by the Board of Health or by two reputable practicing physicians, certifying the incapacity of the holder for road duty. The State law makes no such requirement, and those holding such certificates do not have to submit to such requirement.

We make this statement to the public because we feel it wrong and oppressive for public officials to attempt to enforce such a void and invalid law. Parties over forty-five years old, and those who by nature or disease are incapacitated for road duty, who hold certificate of such incapacity, signed by the Board of Health or by two reputable practicing physicians, do not have to serve on the road, either in the capacity of apportioner or overseer, or otherwise.

Yours very truly,
F. B. COLLIER.

INFLUENLA WEAKENS THE BLOOD

BREAKS YOUR VITALITY LEAVE YOU HELPLESS WHEN EXPOSED TO GERMS.

These Dangerous Days

If In Doubt About Your Blood Take Pepto-Mangan, Famous Red Blood Builder.

If you are just recovering from a fight with the flu, it will be weeks before you are really out of danger.

Your blood has exhausted its strength—it is in no condition to fight off other diseae germs it may be exposed to. That is why doctooors advise staying away from crowds as long as possible.

Cou can help your blood get back its strength—its ability to fight off disease—by taking that splendid tonic Pepto-Mangan.

The famous blood builder will supply the iron and other properties that your blood lacks and help you regain your old time vigor and enthusiasm.

Get Pepto-Mangan to-day. It may be had at any drug store in either liquid or tablet form. Make your own choice as to liquid or tablet. They are exactly the same in medicinal value. Take which ever you prefer.

But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name is on the package.—Adv.

THE VALUE OF THE CHURCH TO THE COMMUNITY.

(By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

The greatest asset from any point of view to any city or community is the christian church. It is a safe assertion to say that no one would live long in Clanton were it not for the direct and indirect influence of its churches. So great would be the lawlessness existing, and the crime and anarchy committed, notwithstanding the officers of the law and order, that even the agnostic or any other man who makes no pretense of christianity would live here, much less any true christian man or woman, regardless of creed or sect.

Its Commercial Value.

While the church is essentially and primarily a religious institution, many have failed to recognize its great commercial value. Take for example the matter of credit. Were it not for the principles of honesty and the confidence engendered toward each other by the teachings of the church, the credit trade of the merchants would be scarcely worth fifty cents on the dollar.

What is true of its commercial credit is also true of its real estate value. Certainly no one wants to buy land or live in a community where there are no churches. One of the first questions asked by a prospective buyer who is considering a certain location for a permanent home is "What kind of Schools and Churches Have You?" It is a question asked not only by Christian people, but by people of all creeds or no creed. It is a question often prompted as a cold blooded business proposition. Whether we are religious in our thinking or not, certainly no one would care to live very long in a city or a community where there are no churches. Notwithstanding this fact far too many people look upon the church as a charitable institution and in the matter of its financial support place it on the same basis as a cheap ten-cent picture show or similar institution overlooking the very important fact that the church is the most valuable asset we can have to any community.

Its Social Value.

Then consider its social value and influence in the community. The church, notwithstanding all its imperfections, is made up of the best people of the community. While many in our churches do not live up to their profession, it is a fact that cannot be denied that the best people of the community are those who belong to our churches, the people who stand not only for the moral and religious welfare of the city, but also for its civic improvement and development. The people of refinement and culture are for the most part members of the church. There are some outside of the church who possess these two excellent qualifications, but by far the greater majority of this class of people are members of the church.

Its National Value.

Then think of its national value. The Bible says "Righteousness exalteth a nation," but would there be any righteousness in the nation if there were no churches? The greatest national reforation now taking place through Constitutional Prohibition was ultimately achieved through the influence and co-operation of the church. The gambling evil, the ban placed on dancing, one of the generators of social vice, and the terrible white slave traffic, though not yet abolished, is kept within certain limitations through the influence of the church. Most of our great national leaders including our Presidents have been members of our protestant christian churches. In times of great national crisis, such as the one we have recently passed through, it is to the church the government appeals for support in raising money, the conservation of food, the patriotic appeal and the support of the Red Cross and such other essential organizations. Where the clouds at times were heavy and defeat seemed to be eminent, it was to the church appeals were made for special prayer and intercession that the God of battles might give the allied armies a glorious victory.

Its Imperfections.

Through the church is of divine institution, being founded by Christ and in its inception was a perfect institution, being left largely in human hands for its further development, many imperfections have crept in. Yet all the hypocrites are not found in the churches, and the very fact that some of this class of people do belong to the church, is but a sure argument that the church principally consists of genuine christian people. Therefore its imperfections is no excuse for our non-support in every way.

The Conclusion of the Matter.

One might continue further, but space forbids it. The conclusion of the whole matter is that more people in Clanton should belong to, support and attend the churches in Clanton. Out of a population of nearly 2,000 people only three or four hundred regularly attend or belong to the churches of the city. If it is because of the inferior buildings then why not help them build? Civic and religious pride demands it. We ought to have and must have in the near future good buildings that will coincide with other splendid public buildings, and that will be a credit to the community. But why wait for this? Without your attendance and financial support on Sunday the church, which is the greatest asset to any community viewed from any standpoint whatever, cannot exist.

Therefore if the reader of these lines is open to be convinced by the foregoing logic why not become a christian, regularly support and attend the church and stand for something that is really worth while besides dollars and cents.

Dr. V. J. Gragg went up to the city of Birmingham Monday to attend to some business matters and to be present at a Shriner's meeting on Monday night.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts burns, bruises and wounds the first treatment is most important. What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

On Friday night, Feb. 6, the women of the School Improvement gave an age entertainment in behalf of the school and raised $12.

Sunday, Feb. 8th was a great day at Salem Church for two reasons. In the first place it was the regular day of Pastor Mixon, and secondly our rally to help complete the school came off. The Sunday school was well attended, and the lesson well taught by the teacher and ably revived by the pastor.

The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its full limit at the 11 o'clock service. The pastor took as his subject, "The Getting of Knowledge." His discourse was masterly and convincing. He emphasized the necessity of parents educating their children, building good school, and paying their teachers better salaries. To accomplish this he advised them to leave off many useless things for which they spend their money. At the close of the sermon the rally collection was taken. Messrs Sewell and Benjamin took the collection from the men. Mrs. Anna McCall and Mattie B. Wilson of the W. S. I. S. took up the collection from the women, and Miss Mamie Sewell, Susie Dupree and Maggie Benjamin took the collection of the school children. It was remarkable to see how well the school children acquitted themselves. The children who reported $5 and above were Susie Dupree $5, Francis Wood $5.10, Mamie Sewell $8.75. The total collection from the children was $35.05. The total collection from the women wa $51.20 and the total from the men was $116.15 making a grand total of $202.40.

We feel that this was a great effort on the part of our people in Clanton and the friends who came to help us. The women of the School Improvement Society have been doing in the way of helping just what we asked of them. Too much cannot be said in the praise of these women.

Rev. Mixon has been a great asset in our educational effort. He has demonstrated his ability as a race leader. He is always willing to be identified with all movements that tend to be upbuilding to the race.

A beautiful silver set with glasses for sacrament purposes was bought and presented to the church by the ladies of the Missionary Society.

Our school house is near completion and we will be able to announce to the public the date of opening in a few days.

Dr. Butler of New York delivered an excellent address at Salem church on Wednesday night, Feb. 11th.

On Sunday, Feb. 15 the writer attended services at Lomax M. E. Church, of which Rev. Zeigler is the pastor. The congregation raised and donated $8.00 to our school in Clanton.

That is what happens when an Amberola comes into your home. The wizardry of Edison—the Master Product of his Master Mind—furnishes you with years and years of entertainment—all the best music of all the world—reproduced in a superior way that none but Edison could accomplish

Among the large number of phonographs and "talking machines" on the market, the genius of Edison makes the Amberola stand out as the one perfect instrument for your home.

Thousands of families in the U. S. A. have purchased phonographs hastily, without careful comparison—and as a result they are repenting their choice at leisure.

You* can safely trust the phonograph that has been perfected by the greatest inventor of the age. Choose the Amberola, and you will never regret your selection. The longer you possess an Amberola, the more you will appreciate its marked superiority over ordinary phonographs and "talking machines."

Its marvelous, pure tone will afford perpetual delight to yourself, your family, your friends. No metallic sound or shrillness—common phonograph faults—nothing but pure melody in every note from your Amberola.

And the wonderful Amberol Records are practically unbreakable and everlasting. You can handle them quickly, carelessly—yes, drop them—without fear. (You know how easily other phonograph records are broken.) And on these Amberol Records you have all the world's best music—the greatest singers, the latest songs and dances—to select from.

We will gladly demonstrate the superiority of the Amberola to you at any time. Come in today, tomorrow—bring the family along.

FREE TRIAL In Your Home

We will place an Amberola in your home for a 3 Days' Trial which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days, if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

HERROD AND VINSON OUT FOR COMMISSIONER AGAIN.

Inasmuch as it is customary, and we presume always expected, that a candidate should have a little send-off on the side when he announces for office, therefore we here and now tender the said send-off to Messrs. W. T. Herrod and A. P. Vinson, two of our present County Commissioners who have placed their names before the voters of the county, seeking to be re-nominated for their present offices again in the May Primary. The announcements of these two gentlemen appeared in last week's paper, but they came in so late that we did not have time to fix up a boomer for them; hence the delay til this week. We ask their pardon.

Now, there is not much we can say in regard to these two candidates. Their record of the past four years stands out as their argument for any consideration for the places again, and that record is an open book. There are no secrets about it. Everybody knows what they have done as County Commissioners. All in all we venture the conjecture that the people will accord them the credit for having done as well if not better than anyone else could have done under like circumstances. They have demonstrated that they are good men on the best interests of our county at heart, and their actions while in office have been directed in that manner.

MR. DENNIS AGAINST THE DIPPING OF CATTLE.

Editor Union-Banner—I want to see the people of the county to be at a meeting at the Court House next Saturday, the 28th, and ask the Commissioners and Probate Judge of this county to vote down the dipping proposition for this year. We have already complied with the laws and dipped our cattle as they told us to do last year. Now some big fellow's soup has got thin again and they have decided to make us dip some more in order to get some more money out of us. I say boys let us not dip our cattle again just to please the big fellows. Come on the 28th and let's ask not to have it any more and let's vote it down and keep it down, for we have been run over long enough. As long as we continue to dip still we will continue to be run over. Come on boys and let's do it right this time.

Yours truly,
JOHN S. DENNIS.

UNCLE DOCK WELLS TO PREACH AT MT. PLEASANT NEXT SUNDAY.

Uncle Dock Wells will preach at Mt. Pleasant School House next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Uncle Dock is especially interested in this service as it will be on his brthday, Feb. 29th. He says he don't expect he will ever have the privilege of preaching again on his Sunday birthday, for as Mr. Butler points out, he will have another birthday on Sunday forty years hence. Without a doubt in forty years from now Uncle Dock will have wound up his earthly labors and taken his seat with the angels at the right hand of the great King of Kings.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

REYNOLDS LETTER

Editor Union-Banner,
Clanton, Ala.

Dear Sir:

We have just read the decision of the "Supreme Court of Clanton," explaining the Chilton County Road Law.

The "Chief Justice" explained this law some time ago through Collier's Weekly, and said he would defend, without charges, any one who was prosecuted for failing to work the roads, but no one seemed to pay any attention to this wonderful statement. But since he has appealed to the "Supreme Court" we feel called upon to answer the article which appeared in your paper, headed "Lawyers Volunteer Information Regarding road Law of Chilton County," and which was signed by F. B. Collier, Victor J. Heard, A. C. Smith, Wm. M. Adams, and Lawrence F. Gerald. (We are sure this crowd always advises the people gratis. If you do not believe it, try them.)

Now, we are sure the people can vouch for the interest of these people who have proven themselves so patriotic, in the public roads, for you know they are always at every good roads meeting, and first on hand when free work is called for.

This Supreme Court rendered a decision that men over the age of forty-five years are not subject to road duty.

If the men that signed this article had posted themselves they would have found out that the Road Law had been amended, and is so plain that even a fool could understand. The law now provides that anyone over the age of forty-five and under sixty years may, with his consent, be appointed apportioner or overseer, but they were so anxious to slur the Commissioners Court and were so eager to try to keep the people from working the roads that they did not investigate the law to see what it was. We wish to say for their benefit that Road Law has been changed several times since it was published in pamphlet form.

The Commissioners Court has never forced a single man to work on the public roads of this county after he was forty-five years of age; we did make it a part of the Road Law that they could be appointed overseer or apportioner up to fifty years of age, and we did this so as to save a road hand for work on the roads if we could get someone over road age, who was patriotic enough to serve as apportioner or overseer.

We do not know a single man who has been prosecuted for failing to work the public roads after he was forty-five years of age, and yet, from this wonderful decision and article it seems that they would be guardian of the liberties of the people in Chilton County; they say that the people are being oppressed. God knows, we would like to see the man who has been oppressed by working on the public roads in this county.

They complain of the exemption from road duty, and seem to be very much distressed about them. As they and everybody else knows, there are many people holding exemptions who are able to do a days work, but when a person was entitled to exemption, was disabled to work in such a way that it could be seen by any sensible man, the Commissioners Court would exempt him from road duty and did it to try to save him the fee of $5.00. But when you try to save the people fees you always incur the displeasure of certain class who live on fees alone.

We are sure the people understand what inspired this article. It was not to help the "oppressed" people of this county, but to cause confusion and to try to keep the people from working the public roads; they want them to go to destruction. We do not know of anyone in this county who had rather see the roads a failure than the ones who signed the "Decision."

"Chief Justice Collier," in Colliers Weekly, said some time ago, that Republicans were comng to him at the rate of fifty per day endorsing his articles. We wonder if that number has dwindled down to four Democrats.

In conclusion, we want to say to the people of the county that we have done the best we could for you, regardless of your politics. We realized we could not keep up the public roads and that the people would have to work their own roads if they have any, and we want to thank every person who is over the age that requires road duty and who has helped on the roads, for when you do this it saves a road hand and helps your roads. We beg those who are over forty-five years and under sixty years to help work the roads and not pay attention to any set of men who desire to tear down instead of build up, for the roads are for you to travel.

We want to urge every man in the county to give at least two days on the pubic roads this year, also use his teams if he can, and let's try to improve our roads, and maybe in the future we will get some financial aid.

How about setting anart the Good Roads Day for this county this year, and try to get everybody to help on the roads? Let us hear from you on this subject and if you approve of it state the days you will like.

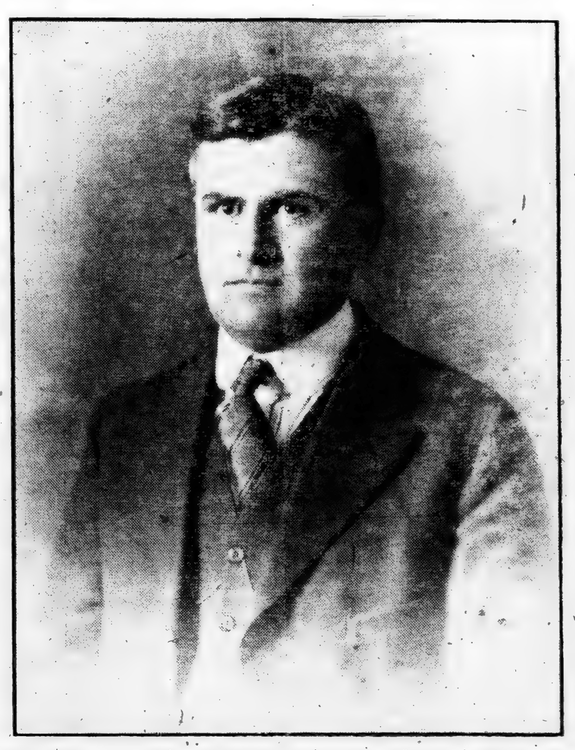
J. Z. MIMS, Candidate for Tax Collector.



TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF CHILTON COUNTY.

My Fellow Citizens:

I come before you again asking for the office of tax collector. As you probably remember eight years ago I asked for the office of Tax Collector of Chilton County. I made a fair and clean canvass and polled a good vote where I was known and where I had worked, but I was defeated in the primary. After that I set about to help elect my successful opponent Mr. Collins. He having made us a good officer for eight years, I am now asking for the honor of succeeding him in the Tax Collector's office at the solicitation of many of my friends.

I have always voted the Republican ticket and have done what I thought was just and right to uphold its principles. In asking for your support for Tax Collector I am well aware of the fact that the Tax Collector's office is one of much importance and great responsibility, and the duties of which require a man of ability and competency to fill it.

My years of preparation in school and my fourteen years of experience as a public school teacher and in other business affairs with which I have been connected make me think that I am competent to perform the duties of the office.

It would please me if you would inquire about my past life, political or otherwise, before you vote. It has been public since before I was grown. If I should be nominated I feel sure that I could win in the General Election. If nominated and elected, I shall strive to make my tenure of office an honor to the county as well as to myself. I will accomodate the people as much as the law will allow, and will not use my official influence contrary to the wishes of a majority of the people, but will ever stand ready to yield it honorably for the wishes and interest of the people.

I am not canvassing much now on the account of my school duties, but I intend to try to see every voter in the county before the primary.

Now, my fellow citizens, I sincerely ask that you reserve your decision until all the candidates are out, and then, after considering everything pertaining to the office and candidates in honest hearts (for your vote is as sacred as your family fireside and altar, don't vote carelessly or unthoughtedly) if you can decide to give me your vote and influence, I assure you that I will appreciate it as much as any man and that you will never have just cause to regret anything you have done for me.

Yours very truly,
J. Z. MIMS.

A FALSE ALARM.

Since reading the "Warning" published in the Feb. 19th issue of The Union-Banner and signed by G. Cleve Powell, and noting particularly the misconception of facts regarding the Inter-Church World Movement that it is liable (if not intended) to convey to your readers, I have taken the trouble to collect from reliable sources such information as will no doubt tend to mitigate in the minds of many good Christians in this county, the woes predicted by false prophets.

The world war taught men, as nothing has ever done before the necessity of co-operation of all available forces that could be gathered from any source to "put over" the great work to be done. The law and public opinion were alike antagonistic to the "Slacker," while for "The Conscientious Objector" there was a spirit of tolerance which led many to see the error of their ways. Along with the war spirit there came to be manifested all over the world among the Christian people a spirit of interest in the welfare of humanity of whatever tribe, nation or tongue. Another lesson of the war was the necessity of organization to carry out great undertakings, and this is exactly the meaning of the Inter-Church World Movement. The program mapped out not by one man, but by representatives of many denominations assembled in conference, was so practical and common sense that it at once appealed to and received the endorsement of every denomination of note in America and foreign countries, to whom it has ever been presented (except Roman Catholics and Southern Baptists) and as I shall show it has the full endorsement of thoughtful leaders among Southern Baptists. The main business on the program of the Inter-Church World Movement at the present time is to make an accurate survey by states counties and communities of religious, educational and economic conditions, for the use of the churches and Christian people among whom the survey is made, and as a basis for computing the needs of each community along these lines.

Seven members of the State Survey Council for Alabama are prominent Baptists, among them Dr. John A. Davidson, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Selma, Dr. W. M. Blackwelder, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Huntsville. Both of these men are supervisors of rural survey in their respective counties. Dr. Blackwelder recently said that "in my judgment any church or individual that refuses to participate in the Inter-Church World Movement misses the largest possible opportunity to co-operate with others in the building of Christ's Kingdom."

Other prominent Baptists of Alabama, while not prepared to endorse all plans of the Inter-Church World Movement, are heartily in favor of the rural survey which is being conducted throughout Alabama.

Dr. W. F. Yarbrough says in a card published in The Alabama Baptist July 3rd, 1919: "I would advise our brethren to give any workers any information which would be helpful This simply means that when these workers come to see us in making out their survey that we will kindly receive them and give such information if we possess it. There can be no doubt much good will come from the information contained in the survey, and we can consistently give any information that will help the survey."

The editor of the Alabama Baptist in the issue of July 17th, 1919, says: "We personally hope that our Baptist pastors and people will give all possible information in making this survey."

In the Alabama Baptist of February 18th, Dr. W. B. Crumpton, for many years state Mission Secretary for Alabama, says:

"At first I was a little indifferent, but after reflection would advise, give the information desired, and assist in the survey. My reasons are: All during the long years of my service as corresponding secretary of the Alabama Mission Board I constantly endeavored through my reports to the convention, by circular letter and in sermons and addresses, to place before the people the religious conditions in the state especially among the Baptists. I grieved much over my failure to impress any considerable number. Now a body of good people, with ample facilities propose to systematically gather this information about Alabama and to systematically put it before the people. Help them Of courst we must! It is just what we all need. I predict, if honestly made, it will be an eye opener such as we have never had. Baptists most of all will be greatly surprised. We think we have been making progress, and so we have, but we have only scratcheed the surface. When we all know the facts, which only a few have hitherto realized, there will be an intelligent awakening which will call for the best that is in us to meet and grapple with the situation."

It is not surprising that people whose opportunities for information are somewhat limited should become confused by the multiplcity of "MOVEMENTS" that are going forward, some of them looking towards interdenominational unity, but I can say most emphatically that the Inter-Church World Movement is not one of them. No doubt, many are misled by the very name of the organization. Don't be alarmed. The Inter-Church World Movement was not organized to break up churches or denominations but to foster a spirit of brotherhood and fellowship in the work for the Master's Kingdom. To gather and place before the churches such information as will enable them to know and meet conditions in their own community. A work worthy of the best efforts of any Christian of any denomination.

MR. LETT WOULD GET INTO THE TAX COLLECTOR'S RACE.

Mr. M. F. Lett has got his ears up listening for the solicitation of his friends in the matter of entering the race for Tax Collector of Chilton County. Your attention is called to his letter appearing in this issue of The Union-Banner. Now if you think Mr. Lett ought to run for that office he will appreciate it if you will tell him so. And if you know of any good reason why he ought not to run, he likewise will appreciate your counsel and advice in the matter.

LETTER FROM MR. LETT

Clanton, Ala., Feb. 21, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner—I want to write a few words through your paper to the Republicans of our county. I am being solicited to run for Tax Collector this year, and I would like to have the place as I need the salary, if a majority of the Republicans want me to have it. I would be glad for my friends to look over the situation and let me know by the time the Republican Executive Committee of the County meets on the 6th of March, and advise me what to do. I want them to tell me the exact situation, and asure you that I will not be the least sore, whatever your decision is. Remember this may be my last chance

Respectfully,
M. F. LETT.

Don't fail to see "The Birth of A Race," at the Ideal Friday and Saturday. Endorsed by ministers who have seen it. It is great, wonderful, interesting, moral, clean, wholesome, and uplifting, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding.—Adv.

CHILTON COUNTY ROADS.

Inasmuch as the question of Chilton county roads and the working of the same is becoming somewhat agitated as an outcome of the discussion that has arisen between some of the Clanton lawyers and the Commissioners Court, we would like to add a word for the thoughtful consideration of the people of the county who want to see our roads improved.

Anybody must admit upon looking at our roads that they have not been worked too much. And furthermore we don't believe there has been anybody in the county who is subject to road duty who has been overworked on our roads. In fact we rather think it might develop if thoroughly gone into that many of us have not done our full share. Now as for those who are over the age of road duty, or exempt from physical defects, we don't think they can be or have been forced to perform any road duty. However we do think it is an evidence of a highly commendable spirit of community pride in a man who is over the road working age to put in some time in helping to improve the roads of his own free will and accord. And when a man is willing to do this we do not think he ought to be hindred or discouraged from doing so.

We notice that there is a plan now being carried out in Elmore County that we think would be splendid for Chilton County or any other county that needs good roads as bad as we do. The citizens of that county have joined their sentiment and support with the efforts of the Commissioners Court, and three days have been set apart for the working of the roads of the county. A systematic campaign is being put on over the entire county in an effort to enlist every able-bodied man in the working of the roads for those three days. It is said that they are going to be able to shut down all business in the county for those days and put all teams and men on the roads. That is going to be the best step forward that has been exhibited by any county within our observation. It means that Elmore county will have a vast improvement in her roads as a result of the efforts put forth, and her people will be highly lauded all over the state for their splendid spirit of progress and county pride.

Elmore is our sister county, and we ought to determine to keep up with her in such matters of progress. We can do it, and we ought to do it. If we ever have any roads we are going to have to make them, and a large part of the work is going to have to be done by men over the age of road duty, together with their teams which they can easily supply for the purpose.

We ought to set a suitable time, three days, for county-wide road work in Chilton County. Organize a campaign to systematize and put the work on; then enlist every farmer, saw mill man, merchant, lawyer, doctor, big, little, old and young, with all their teams, wagons, scrapes, trucks and other tools to be employed for those three days on our roads. This is the only way we are going to have any immediately effective road improvement on our little cross-county roads in the sticks.

We cannot say any more on this question this week, but will have more next week. We beg all the people to take the matter under consideration and we would like to have a letter from everyone in the county who is willing to take the matter up along the lines suggested and push the improvement of our roads. Let us get busy and do some work that will be worth while. It is not going to do anybody any good to fuss about the technicalities of a road law when the county is so full of mud holes in the roads that the farmers cannot get to town to haul their fertilizer out to their farms.

President Wilson will no doubt find much consolation in the fact that the Democratic Executive Committee of Alabama "sympathizes with our great President, whose arduous labors and burden of responsibility have conspired to weaken his physical powers, and hopes for his speedy recovery." This bit of tender feeling and regret was expressed by the Committee in a resolution at the meeting in Birmingham on January 30th. Yes, we sympathize with him too. But why worry about the President's inability to perform his duties? Pat Tumulty is taking good care of everything while he is out of commission.

The final count of the vote in Chilton County on the 25 Million bond issue for good roads in Alabama showed the following figures.

For the bond issue 886; against the bond issue 218.

AN AWFUL DOSE TO SWALLOW.

The first paragraph of the resolution passed by the Democratic Executive Committee of Alabama at its meeting in Birmingham January 30th has these interesting words for a kind of preamble: "We endorse in the strongest possible terms the progressive constructive administration of President Woodrow Wilson and his cabinet, of our Democratic Congress which enacted into law in the six years of its control more progressive constructive legislation than the opposing political party had enacted in twenty-five years, and we commend to the voters of the nation the splendid record of the Democratic administration as a good and sufficient reason why the party should be entrusted with continued control of our national affairs." Those fellows at that committee meeting, whoever they were, are the first set we have found in the past four years who use such words as "progressive and constructive" to describe the administration of President Wilson and his cabinet. They should have said the harmonious and pleasant administration of Mr. Wilson, inasmuch as he has had no less than half a dozen fusses in his political family, and those whom he has not fired out of his cabinet have only kept from getting fired by resigning before Wilson caught up with them and fired them. And besides using such sweet words to describe the administration, the Democratic committee say they endorse it in the strongest terms. Now we wonder if that is really true. We don't believe it. There are many Democrats all over Alabama who are like those in Chilton county, who do not really at heart endorse President Wilson's administration. And we believe there are some of those very kind of Democrats on the Democratic Executive Committee. They have sense enough to know that Wilson's management of things is not what is described by the fancy terms used in the resolution; but they sat still and let the big guns of the committee go off in any direction they wanted to without any protest whatever. They dare not say anything against their Lord Autocrat of the White House, for fear some Republican will start the alarm that the solid south is breaking. Yes, they endorse everything he has done from the time he and Mr. Newt Baker told the Catholics they could have exclusive right to the army camps and run all the Baptist and Methodist preachers and Masons off the government camps; they endorse everything he has done from the time he conceived the league of nations in the holy land of the Vatican with Pope Benedict, on thru the birth of that instrument of chaos at the peace conference and the delivery of the same into the anxious and trembling hands of the people of the United States.

All you Democrats over the state who have been kindly cross with Father Woodrow ought to get back in line with him, for your State Committee tells you that his splendid record is a good and sufficient reason why his gang should be entrusted with continued control of the affairs of our government. They want you to vote for him again so he can appoint the deserving Catholics to some rich fat job, and so that if we get into another war he and Newt Baker could be on hand to keep all the welfare organizations out of the camps and turn our boys over to the hellish teachings of the Catholic Knights of Columbus. Come on across now, all you fellows. Walk up to the lick log and deliver the goods. The perpetuation of the Solid South demands it. Remember you must vote 'er straight if it hairlips creation.

We now look for the Senate of the United States to promptly ratify the Peace Treaty and adopt the League of Nations. The Alabama Democratic Executive Committee has met and demanded that they do so. When Lodge and Borah and Johnson hear what Alabama's faithful sons of Democracy have done, we fancy that they will at once resign the whole thing to Woodrow and Hitchcock, so they can set the official seal upon it and send it over to Mr. Benedict all fixed up just like he ordered it made.

That fellow by the name of A. G. Patterson, who writes resolutions for the Alabama Democratic Executive Committee must be some bird. He said some things in the resolution at Birmingham January 30th that will make some good brethren turn red behind the ears when they see what has gone out of the big meetin' to express the sentiment of the people of Alabama.

The best place in Clanton to eat a meal is at the Chilton Cafe. If you don't believe it come and let us show you that it is true.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

MRS. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

MRS. GOWAN HONORED.

Mrs. Ross Mullins was hostess at a most delightful bridge party on Friday evening when she entertained in honor of Mrs. Amzi Gowan.

The rooms used for the party were suggestive of spring in their decorations of hyacinths and jonquils. Mrs. Gowan's prize was a lovely bottle of toilet water, while Mrs. Hart won the consolation, a box of candy.

Three tables were occupied by the players, who were Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Gowan, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mrs. Carrie Mullins, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Eric Hart, Mrs. Harvey Chandler Mrs. Hosea Downs, Mrs. John VanDerveer, Mrs. Irene Rasberry, Miss Bettie Mullins, and Miss Gillis.

SEWING CLUB.

On Friday evening at the attractive home of Mrs. E. E. Upchurch the Embroidery Club was most delightfully entertained. Discussions and plans were made to celebrate Club Day in the near future.

Those present were Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, Mrs. Phillip Horn, Mrs. L. F. Gerald, Mrs. Broadhead, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. Heard, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Ed Plier, Miss Preston, Miss Gillis, Miss Williamson and Miss Della Latham.

Mrs. Upchurch served a most delicious salad plate and was assisted by Miss Latham.

WASHINGTON PARTY.

Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Luckie were joint hostesses to a pretty bridge party on Thursday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Amzi Gowan. Hatchets, cherries and other suggestions were used elaborately in decorations and score cards.

Mrs. Gowan received a pretty linen bread cloth as guest prize, while Mrs. Heard was awarded a box of lovely linen handkerchiefs as the consolation prize.

Following the game the hostesses served a pretty salad plate. Those present were Mrs. Gowan, Mrs. Ross Mullins, Mrs. John VanDerveer, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Macey Jones, Mrs. Mallie White, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. McSwain, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Carrie Mullins, Mrs. Clyde Jones, Mrs. A. On Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 the Civic Improvement Club will hold its monthly meeting with Mrs. Grady Broadhead. Members are urged to be prompt as social matters of importance are to be brought up before the Club and the social feature will necessarily take a portion of the time. Following is the program:

"To strive unceasingly to quicken the course of civic duty; to transmit the city, not less, but more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."—Athenian Oath.

Leader, Mrs. Collier.

Roll call, city beautiful slogans.

Address: "Civic Pride in Our City" by Rev. Maye.

Paper: "The United States School Garden Army," Mrs. Pickens.

Federation news, Mrs. Hayes.

Three-minute talk: "How cities are Chartered." Mrs. Callen.

Round table discussion conducted by Mrs. Callen.

Mr. John D. Riley of Andalusia was a visitor to friends in Clanton on last Sunday.

When you want to eat you are invited to go to the Chilton Cafe, in the Chandler Building near the railroad.

Miss Kathleen Mullins, who is a student of Shorter College at Rome, Ga., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mullins here this week.

Miss Gertrude Popwell has returned home after spending several days in Birmingham.

Mrs. Hugh Simpson was a charming hostess on Wednesday when she entertained the "Thrifty Needles," at a spend-the day-party. Two machines were kept busy, and a number of articles were made. At noon a lovely luncheon was served to Mrs. Clyde Jones, Mrs. McSwain, Mrs. Macey Jones, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Luckie, and Mrs. Moore.

RUBY WEDDING.

It was on the twenty-fifth of February, forty years ago when the marital vows of William Isaac Mullins of Clanton and Sarah Alice Wells of Verbena were pledged, Judge Jefferson Faulkner of Montgomery, officiating.

It seemed but fitting that this couple so happily favored by fortune should upon this propitious occasion share the gladsome sunshine of their happiness with their many life-long friends.

On last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mullins opened wide the doors of their hospitable home and in response to their invitation more than a hundred guests assembled. The home had been converted into a single commodious apartment and had been elaborately decorated with garlands of smilax, festoons of ribbon and a profusion of cut flowers placed advantageously, thus making a suitable setting for the evening's panorama of beautiful living pictures. Soft shades shed a crimson glow over the scene and rendered it most entrancing. The color motif also prevailed in the delightful refreshments served during the evening.

The bride of forty years was handsome, attired in grey crepe meteor. She held an immense bouquet of crimson carnations tied with scarlet tulle. The groom, always affable, was upon this occasion at his best.

Receiving with them were three sons, three daughters and nine grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mulliins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Watts Moore, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Gowan of Brewton, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mullins of Decatur, Miss Kathleen Mullins, a student at Shorter College, and Mr. Frank Mullins.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Ross Mullins and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, Miss Betty Mullins and Mrs. Mary Mullins, sister of the bride.

A beautiful musical program rendered by Miss Daisy Gillis of Grove Hill; a mirth provoking contest successfully conducted by Mrs. H. M. Simpson and Mrs. R. E. Luckie; and informal social converse of the evening combined to make the ruby wedding an event long to be remembered in Clanton's social history.

A splendid array of useful and handsome gifts and a number of telegrams expressing good wishes attested the popularity of the honorees of the evening.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McDonald of Wetumpka, Mr. Clarence Mullins and Mrs. Leila Mullins of Birmingham, Mrs. DeRamus, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Will Strock, Mr. and Mrs. John Strock and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gulledge of Verbena, and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe of Fayette.

Mr. R. E. Luckie was a visitor to Birmingham Tuesday.

Mr. W. I. Mullins and Mr. W. L. Popwell, went up to Birmingham on business last week.

Mr. Wiley Gray made a business trip to Birmingham Friday.

Rev. E. C. Maye was in Montgomery last week.

Rev. P. G. Carter made a trip down to Montgomery on Tuesday.

Jack Wade of the Starke School in Montgomery spent the week-end with his parents in Clanton.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid held their regular business and social meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. N. S. Johnson. Quite a large number of members were present and after the business session delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Claud Reynolds is moving his family to Jemison this week.

Judge and Mrs. L. H. Reynolds, accompanied by Mr. W. A. Reynolds, motored to Birmingham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mullins and daughter, "Peggy" are the guests of relatives here this week.

Mrs. Clara Mullins has returned home after spending several days in Atlanta buying for her spring opening.

Mr. M. A. Gore has returned home after spending a few days in Florida.

Mrs. Tom Lowe of Birmingham is visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Foshee this week.

Mr. D. S. Prince has gone to Decatur to visit his father who is ill with the flu.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

We are glad to announce that our school building is now completed and will be opened to the public on Thursday, Feb. 26th. We are anticipating a grand time of that day.

Several noted white and colored speakers have promised to come and make addresses. The white people of Clanton are especially invited.

If it were not for the help of these white people it is doubtful if we could have accomplished what we have in the building of the school.

On Tuesday, Feb. 17, Clanton lost one of its pioneer citizens in the person of Aunt Ella McCall. She was of the type that was respected by the white people and loved and respected by her own people.

She lived a devout Christian until the time of her death. She is survived by a husband, eight children and 27 grand children.

The Sunday school at Salem church was well attended on Sunday, Feb. 22. The teachers and the new superintendent, J. A. Wood are making the school very interesting. The pastor in his review brought out many points of interest.

The time for the eleven o'clock service was used in preaching the funeral of Rev. Joe Roller, one of the members who died on Friday night, Feb. 20.

We wish to say to all Sunday School workers in Chilton county that at our meeting in Thorsby last Sunday Mrs. Maggie Boone of Verbena was elected Superfintendent of the Elementary Department of Chilton County. She will gladly help you any time you may call on her.

Mr. Sylvester Robinson of Thorsby was elected Teen-Age Superintendent of District 2. Miss Bertha Littleton, District Secretary.

On Feb. 15 Mr. Pink Cooper of Jemison was elected District Superintendent of District One. We have had five splendid conventions in this month which we owe to our faithful County President, Teen-Age Superintendent, Miss Ruth Mahan, and the District Presidents. We hope to be able to reach the gold-star standard this year, and ask the co-operation of every school in the county.

You Can't Cure Rheumatism With Liniments and Lotions

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?

Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain.

You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has no equal as a blood purifier, scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

(By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

Ought we to attend an immoral picture show? To many this is an important question, to some it is of little concern. To those who believe in purity of thought and of life, and are endeavoring to raise their children to be moral men and women, to be followers of Christ and worthy leaders in the nation this is a question of great importance. It is a question that many will be asked to decide on Friday night, February 27th, when "The Birth of a Race" is to be exhibited in Clanton.

By testimony of several of the leading citizens who have seen the handbills in circulation and by the resolution endorsed by the Baptist Church of Clanton which appears in another part of the paper this production is obscene and immoral.

There is much in it that may be good, there are other things in it that should make the moral minded and certainly the christian people blush with shame. Under the guise and lame excuse of it being a Bible picture, Eve is represented in such a way as to be an insult to the chastity, culture, refinement, purity and dignity of womanhood in the twentieth century. If you love and respect your wife and daughter or your son, you cannot encourage by your attendance or support such a show as this. It is in no sense a Bible picture, for all pictures so-called are but the production of man, and not of God. While many so-called Bible pictures of clean nature do much good, in this particular case the art of man has been requisitioned to appeal to the passions of the people for the purpose of drawing a crowd and of making money. The hand-bill announcing the show which has been freely distributed without any qualm of conscience by the management of the Clanton Theatre, who is in the business purely for the money there is in it, should be sufficient to convince the reader who is pure minded of the indecency and obscenity of the picture. Can you therefore let your son or daughter in childhood or in youth, attend such a picture as this? Certainly not. Is it not time that the best citizenship of Clanton and Chilton county stand for clean morals and protest emphatically against that which is unclean, indecent and immoral? There is no excuse for nudity in a picture show, especially to the extreme of the one presented here. The mere fact that it has been presented in Birmingham or in any other large city is no criterion for its exhibition here. In some of these same cities they have the segregated red light districts and other things of a like nature, but no sober-minded morally inclined person would authorize the same thing in Clanton. Neither is the fact that it has been passed by the national board of censorship, which is a mere fast or sham any criterion for its exhibition here. The very fact that in many localities it has been deemed necessary to have a local board of censorship proves that the national board is utterly inadequate to protect the morals of the nation. To say that it is educational is no criterion, for it can be educational both ways, and its immoral educational influence is what we are protesting against at this time. Many may be allured to witness this scene by the advertised fact that it took 10,000 people to produce the picture, and a large sum of money, but this should not be deemed a sufficient reason to cover up the part of it that is obscene. Nor is this the only one. According to the testimony of several of the patrons of the Clanton Theater, frequently picture shows of this nature are thrown upon the screen. Is it right to menace and undermine the morals of the people in this way? The pool halls have been put out of Clanton as a public nuisance through the sentiment of the people who stand for moral and civic righteousness. If the morals of the people are still to be endangered by obscene shows why not do likewise with them?

The Other Side.

I want to be fair and give credit where it is due. I am not against a good picture show. Such an institution can be made an educational factor, and occasionally the management of said picture show does put on good clean pictures such as "Rebecca of Sunnybrook." The crowded house on this occasion proved the possibility of the manager making his picture show a paying investment by exhibiting good shows and if he will confine himself to that class of pictures I have nothing to say against it. The statement however has been made that the public desire a certain amount of the indecent sort, and the desire must be supplied. While it is a lamentable fach that a certain class of people in every community who gloat over and revel in such shows, this is in itself one of the very reasons why the management of the picture theatre should put upon the screen only such shows, and circulate only such advertising that is wholesome and clean, and thus seek to elevate such people to a higher plan of living and thinking. The fact that pictures of a suggestive nature are found in the magazines and permitted to go thru the mails is no criterion to go by. Two wrongs never made a right. We must not encourage or allow our nation to go back to the days of Sodom and Gomarrah but such practices as these. Every person is a unit in the nation and should do their utmost to keep America clean, pure and ennobling in her womanhood and manhood by refusing or declining to purchase pictures or support such shows.

Final Appeal.

I appeal to you to do your duty as a husband who respects the modesty and purity of your wife, as a father whose duty it is to protect the purity and virtue of your daughter, and to cultivate and nurture the manhood of your son. Do not attend this and similar picture shows and as far as lies within your power and authority discourage others to attend "The Birth of a Race," or any other immoral picture show that comes to Clanton, for those who attend such shows become a party in encouraging the management to undermine the morals of our itizenship for the sake of dollars and cents.

RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH.

Whereas, there is in the City of Clanton a moving picture establishment for the entertainment of the citizenship of Clanton, and,

Whereas, said picture show frequently exhibits, according to the testimany of several of its patrons, some scenes that are indecent, therefore, be it,

Resolved, first, that the members of the Clanton Baptist Church and congregation here assembled on Sunday morning, February 22, in the year of our Lord, 1920 do respectfully petition the City Council to pass an Ordinance for the purpose of creating a Board of Censorship to consist of not less than three respected citizens, highly esteemed as moral leaders in the community who shall have the authority to censor all moving pictures, and any other form of amusement or entertainment that shall be introduced to the community.

Second, that any member of the Board of Censorship shall be given the authority to stop any such show or entertainment while in process of production that shall be deemed of indecent or improper nature in its presentation to the patrons.

Third, that it is the said purpose and determination of the Clanton Moving Picture Theatre to exhibit on Friday, Feb. 27, a production known as "The Birth of a Race," which contains a picture of extremely obscene and immoral nature, we the members of the Clanton Baptist Church and congregation here assembled earnestly petition the authorities of the City Council to prohibit the exhibition of said picture in order to protect the moral interests of the people.

Fourth, that we, the members of the Clanton Baptist Church and congregation here assembled by a rising vote do hereby pledge ourselves in the presence of God and those present not to attend said picture show to be exhibited on Friday February 27th and will use our influence to urge others to do the same.

Action of the City Council

In keeping with the resolution passed, the pastor of the church, Rev. P. G. Carter, appeared before the City Council on Monday night, last, and presented the matter. Considerable discussion ensued, and both sides of the question was argued, and while nothing definite was done in the matter, it was the concensus of opinion that a Board of Censorship should be appointed and the picture was not quite as it should be. One much esteemed member of the Council stated that he had interviewed a number of business men of the City who stated that they did not consider the picture in question as advertised on the hand bill as a suitable or desirable picture to show. In personally expressing the matter he admitted that children under twenty-one years of age would feel considerably embarrassed in the witnessing of such a picture. Two others were evidently of the same mind. It is regrettable indeed that no action of any kind was taken, notwithstanding that the law of the State as given below pronounce the picture in question or of a similar nature unlawful and obscene. The position taken by the Council seems to be that while the picture is suggestive and immoral, nothing can be legally done in the short space of time to suppress the picture or to pass an Ordinance for a local Board of Censorship to affect the matter under consideration at this time. The meeting therefore adjourned, which leaves it oper for further action at a subsequent meeting. We rather question that decision, but further investigation will decide it.

The State Law.

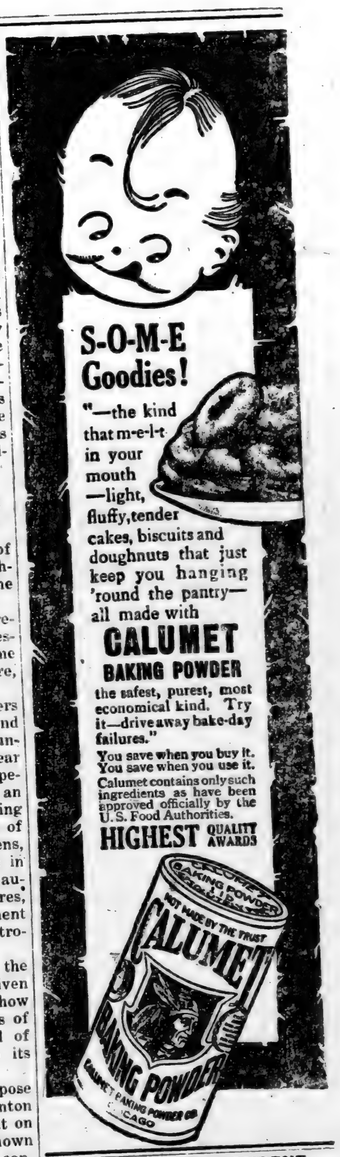
Following is the State Law on the matter as taken from the Code of Alabama, 1907, Vol. 3, Page 796.

No. 7427 Posting or Leaving Obscene Picture, Writing or Printing—Any person who wilfully posts up or leaves any obscene of vulgar picture placard, writing or printed matter about or near to any church, dwelling, school, academy or a public highway, or in any storehouse, bar-room or public place, must, on conviction, be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

No. 7428, Introducing, Advertising, or Selling Obscene Literature—Any person who brings or causes to be brought into this State for sale or advertises or prints, or sells or offers to sell, or receives subscription for any indecent or obscene book, pamphlet, print, picture, or paper, must, on conviction, be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

No. 7429, Nude Pictures, Display of Prohibited—Any person, firm or corporation who shall display nude pictures of a man, woman or girl in any public place, except art galleries shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Anybody who saw the hand bill distributed and scores of people did, must admit that the picture of Eve comes under the above category. Further comment is unnecessary except to say that with such a law as this it seems strange that no definite action can be taken in the matter. Whether that be so or not, the best of comment that can be made upon the picture is the absence of every citizen who makes any kind of profession to standing for morality both of themselves and the community.



NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT.

The State of Alabama, Chilton County—Circuit Court in Equity—Mary Johnson, Complainant, vs. Robert Johnson, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Grady Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and post-office address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is over the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said Robert Johnson, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 6th day of March, 1920, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, Ala., this 4th day of February, 1920.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

Is training for adult recreation more needed at the present time than in the past Mr. Felston Mullins.

VI.—Mention some ways of bringing a boy or girl to take pride in the character of his language and to desire to us a good type of English. Why is this desire more important than a purely intellectual knowledge of the technical aspects of the language without such a desire? Mr. J. L. Johnson.

VII.—Miscellaneous.

VIII.—Why should the problem of training a girl or boy who wants to learn to read a foreign language, be a relatively easy one, while the problem of training pupils in required languages in our high schools at present is a relatively difficult one? Should pupils merely learn to read the studied languages or should they learn to speak and write them at the same time? To what extent does Chapter 20 favor the retention of foreign languages in the public school curriculum? E. C. Popwell.

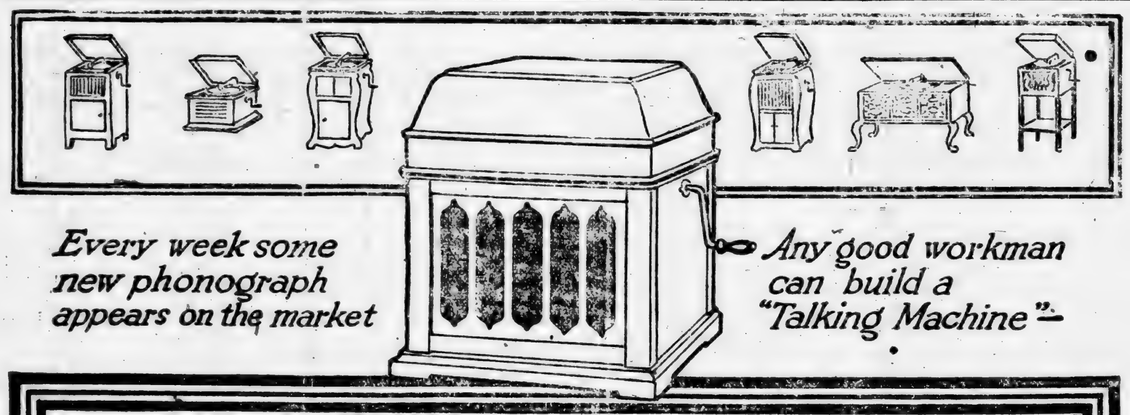
Noon.

I.—Mention some of the principles of curriculum-making that the educational leader must keep in mind in drawing up courses of study. What is the usual method of making a course of study where those engaged are not guided by principles of curriculum-making? Mr. J. W. Moore.

II.—Mention reason in addition to those presented in the text why practical progress must be gradual and relatively slow. Just how rapidly ought a school system to move forward? J. M. Parrish, Jr.

III.—Take up for discussion the various school subjects for which you are reponsible and discuss the ways in which improvement can be made immediately in the curriculum of each of them. C. D. Hughes.

IV.—Drill.



Every week some new phonograph appears on the market

Only the Genius of An Edison Could Produce

THE NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

The World's Greatest Phonograph Value

You need a phonograph in your home. Every home in the U. S. A. needs the cheering, soothing, refining influence of good music. But you want the best phonograph made—no other is good enough for your home, your family, your friends.

How can you tell which is the best? Easy—if you use common sense. Difficult—if you trust to the claims of numerous manufacturers.

Look for the man behind the phonograph—the brain that evolved it and perfected it. If you cannot discover any personality behind an instrument you may well doubt its perfection.

The brain of Thomas A. Edison, the greatest inventive genius in the world, is the birthplace of the Amberola! Edison has perfected every detail of this wonder phonograph until in every way it is superior to ordinary phonographs and "talking machines!"

The tone has been pronounced superior to that of other well-known phonographs by scores of phonograph experts after striking tests. The genuine Diamond Point Reproducer is permanent—no changing of needles. The wonderful Amberol Records, in shape and composition, are practically unbreakable and last for years and years!

All the world's best music is recorded on these Amberol Records, from popular songs and dance music to grand opera sung by the world's greatest artists. Every month new Amberol Records are issued with the latest hits and new recordings of famous artists.

Go, listen to other phonographs and "talking machines" if you will—then come here and listen to the wonderful Amberola. Above all remember that the name and fame of the greatest inventor of the age guarantee its superiority.

Last but not least, Edison has succeeded in making this remarkable phonograph to sell at prices considerably lower than inferior "talking machines."

3 Days' FREE Trial

We will place an Amberola in your home for a 3 Days' Trial which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

At the Sunday morning preaching service of the Congregational church Rev. J. M. Graham, Secretary of the Alabama Anti-Tuberculosis League preached. In spite of the stormy weather there was a good attendance at the service. Mr. Graham's headquarters are in Birmingham. He has the task of raising this year $50,000 for the carrying on of the fight on tuberculosis in Alabama. Surely everyone should help this worthy cause sending a contribution to Mr. Graham.

At the Sunday evening service, Mr. Aleck, a teacher and director of boys at Thorsby Institute gave an address.

The Queen Esther Sunday School of the Congregational church cleared $20 from the entertainment given at the Bates Hall on Saturday night. Part of this money goes for decorating the church and part will be given Mr. Graham for the Anti-Tuberculosis League. It has not been decided definitely about the rest of the money.

On Sunday afternoon at the Baptist Church a District Sunday School Conference was held.

On Thursday afternoon a Basket Ball game was played on the Institute campus between the Clanton High School and the Institute team. It was an interesting game and very close at times. The Institute team won.

Saturday night the Helen Keller Literary Society will have a program at Bates Hall. A part of the program consists of four minute talks about famous men whose birthdays are celebrated in February.

Two new homes are being erected in Thorsby, and it is reported that several more are to be built soon.

Why doesn't Thorsby get electric lights? Other small towns have them.

March 5th special meetings are to be started at the Congregational church to last at least through the fourteenth of March. It is expected that President Shipman of Atlanta Theological Seminary will speak on the fourteenth and possibly before that also.

March 10th Dr. Gray of the Louisville Lyceum Course is to speak at Bates Hall. Although the price for the lecture tickets has not been definitely decided it is quite possible it will be fifty cents. It is now the plan to have a course of four numbers, two of talent provided by the Bureau at Louisville, the lecture by Dr. Gray and a Men's Quartette. The price for the entire course of four numbers will probably be $1.50. The price for single numbers fifty cents each. Everyone should plan to hear Dr. Gray on the 10th. He is well remembered as a speaker of interest. His subject will be announced later.

WHOLE SYSTEM RUN-DOWN

Quick Improvement Is Noted After A Few Doses of ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Increase in appetite, the coming back of strength, disappearance of headaches and other ills, are a few of the many good results obtained from the use of a new remedy (Ziron Iron Tonic).

Mr. Sim Grimsley, of Cordele, Ga., tried Ziron and has this to say:

"When I began to take Ziron, it seemed that my whole system was run-down, but soon after I began to take Ziron, I could eat more each day and would feel a great deal better. Ever since it seems that my health has been improving, as I seldom have the headache or feel bad the least bit."

Ziron is a new scientific combination of pure medicinal inorganic iron, combined with phosphorus, the active principle of nux vomica and the hypophosphites of lime and soda. It will help to add more red corpuscles to your blood, resulting in more color in your cheeks—more vitality in your system.

Famous Manufacturer Makes Connection Here

Winchester Company Appoints Local Store Its Representative to Sell New Products.

The appointment of Downs Hardware Company to sell in this community the new hardware and sporting goods manufactured by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company is announced. And in the opinion of leading merchnats it is one of the most interesting and important developments in the local retail trade has known.

First his family, next his dog, then comes his Winchester in the love of the best type of American. Almost every family seems to have possessed a Winchester at one time or another, and the love and respect for the good old gun is just about universal. And now that recently there have ben many new additions to the Winchester family there is a wide popular interest in the new cousins and the other relatives of the famous repeating rifle of the past.

Fifty-three years ago the Winchester Repeating Rifle was placed on the market by the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, of New Haven, Conn. It was a good rifle, in fact the first truly successful repeater, and it almost imemdiately achieved great popularity. The first success was made secure by the strength and vision of the makers, one of the first American concerns to build with a purpose of gaining and holding a dominant place in the world's industrial arena.

So large was the part played by the Winchester rifle in the settling of the Great West and the establishing of law and order, that the name Winchester came into common use in the place of the word rifle. And so high was the standard of manufacture maintained for it that it was soon the favorite hunting rifle all over the world.

Improved models followed in the course of time including the first completely successful repeating shotgun. And with the coming of smokeless powder the Winchester Company commenced the manufacture of ammunition to insure Winchester users the best possible cartridges and shot shells for their rifles and shotguns. This proved to be an especially good move; for the continued superior qualities of Winchester Arms have for many years attributed partly to the ammunition being made for them in the same plant by the same organization.

Now this great manufacturing establishment, tremendously expanded by the gigantic part it played in the winning of the world war is apparently branching out to make all possible use of the additional knowledge, experience and equipment thus acquired. Now articles being made already include tools, cutlery, fishing tackle, flash lights, skates, etc. With half a century of experience an unexcelled equipment entering into their production, it is to be expected now that these new products made in the same skilled and workmanlike manner as the famous Winchester guns have been made for so long will have merit above the ordinary.

To the good fortune of many old friends of Winchester in the community who will be the first to wish to examine these new articles we have here in town a retail hardware concern of such high standing as to be one of the first exclusively selected to present these new Winchester products to the buying public. The agreement thus carries with it the privilege and responsibility of representing the manufacturer more directly than any retail merchant has heretofore done in the case of the Winchester Company.

A special invitation is beoing extended by the Winchester Company to all its friends in this county to visit the Winchester Store and see these latest additions to the Winchester family. And as the Downs Hardware Company are likewise inviting everybody to do so, the store is enjoying a regular old home week of Winchester visitors. New friends will of course be equally welcome with the old Winchester acquaintance.-Adv.

CASE WAS COMMON TALK IN ABERNANT

Everyone knew how he had Suffered from Stomach Trouble, Constipated Bowels and weak Kidneys.

DRECO RELIEVED HIM

"My case was common talk in my home town and among the L. & N. R.A. folks, who knew me quite well," said Mr. G. W. Franklin of Abernant, Ala.

"But I've won a great bottle with stomach trouble of ten years standing, even if it did take six bottles of Dreco to do it. I was improving all along with each bottle, so was encouraged to keep at is from the very first.

"No matter how careful I was about my food, it would turn to gas and fill me up so that my breathing was difficult, and I had a sense of suffocation. I would belch up water as hot at fire that would bury my throat; a heavy lump seemed to lay in my stomach my bowels were badly consti;pated and I had to take liver regulators all the time to keep them active. My kidneys often called me out of bed five and six times at night.

"But it is all over now, for Dreco has put an end to all these tils and I'm a well man today; eat anything I want; never have any gas in my stomach and bowels, act freely without assinstance of other medicines; kidneys don't trouble me at night now, and I'm just feeling grand. Dreco sure is a fine medicine, and I have sent a lot of my friends to get an account of the good it did me."

Dreco is not an experiment, it is safe, harmless combination of nature' extracts, and contains no dangerous minerals, acids or salts. It is nature's medicine and con be taken with safety into the most delicate system. Dreco is inexpensive and is now dispenced by all modern drug storec almost everywhere.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

HOG SALE DAY

There is to be another hog sale day in Clanton on Tuesday, March 2nd. All farmers in the county who have hogs to sell should bring them here on that day. Hogs will be assembled and sold to buyers in car load lots. In this way the farmers will get better prices for their hogs than in selling singly.

Mr. Pearson, an expert from Auburn, will be here to assist the farmers in the sale.

If you want any information about the plans and arrangements, see Dudley Collins or Judge Reynolds.

AN ORDINANCE

To prohibit persons from throwing into the public streets of Clanton, Alabama, bottles, fragments of glass, tacks, nails, or other things likely to injure persons or vehicles passing along the streets of said Town.

Be it ordained by the Town Council of Clanton as follows:

1. Any person who throws, deposits, or leaves in any public street, bottles, fragments of glass, tacks, nails, or other things likely to injure persons or vehicles passing along said street, must on conviction be fined not less than $25.00, nor more than $50.00, and may also be sentenced to hard labor with the Town for not less than 30 days, nor more than 60 days.

Adopted, this the 23rd day of February, 1920. J. B. DOWNS,

SOUTH ATLANTIC GUANO COMPANY

(SUBSIDIARY MORRIS FERTILIZER CO.)

ATLANTA — MONTGOMERY

It is not sufficient that your crop gets an early start to enable it to win the race against drouth, excessive rainfall, rust, shedding and boll weevil. It must have a steady, healthy growth which constant nourishment alone can give, if it is expected to come in ahead on the homestretch.

The South Atlantic Brands not only give all crops a quick start, but by reason of the scientific linking together of the best and most dependable fertilizing materials, they afford constant and steady feeding of the plant and enable it to resist such diseases and conditions as are usually fatal to a weakly, stunted plant. A healthy plant should be kept healthy and that is the office of the South Atlantic Brands.

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars.

The freight on it has increased only 5½ cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5⅔ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AT THE COURT HOUSE FIFTH SUNDAY

There will be a public lecture at the Cout House in Clanton on Fifth Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock P. M. The subjects which will be discussed are Roman Catholicism and other kindred subjects, which are of great importance to the general public at this particular time. Hon. Willard Drake of Birmingham, and Mr. Henry McInary of Bessemer will be the speakers of the occasion.

Everybody is invited to come and hear these lectures. Men come and bring your wives and children. The question is a live red-hot one that is of vital concern to the home of every citizen of the United States, and we in Chilton County want to get ourselves thoroughly awake in due time to successfully meet the impending danger that hangs like a pall over our entire country. Come and tell your neighbors and friends to come.

No Great Heroism Required.

If some great act of heroism was necessary to protect a child from the croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within reach of all and is prompt and effectual.—Adv.

COOK'S COTTON SEED

I have Cook's Cotton Seed fo price $2.00 per bushel. J. D. C Clanton, Ala. 2-1

This Planter Solves Your Planting Problems

Farmers who are making the biggest profit, one year with another, are farmers who diversify their crops—they don't "put all their eggs in one basket." Diversified farming, including the growing of legumes, peanuts, velvet beans, soy beans, etc., while safe and profitable farming, also builds up the fertility of the soil.

The remarkable popularity won by

during the past two years is due to the fact that it meets, as no other planter does, the requirements of present-day farming.

As a peanut planter it stands without a rival. It plants peanuts accurately, without cracking or crushing them.

Having a double hopper, this planter enables you to plant two kinds of seed—corn and velvet beans, for example—in the same row, or in alternate rows, without removing the planting plates or empty ing the hopper.

This planter is easy for you mule to pull and easy for you to handle in turning at the ends of the rows because, while amply strong, it is not heavy or clumsy.

You can't appreciate how different and how superior the Avery Shawnee Duplex is without seeing it. Drop in and let us show you.

THE UNION-BANNER

VOLUME VIII. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA, MARCH 4, 1920. NUMBER 49.

CLEAN AND MORAL PICTURES AT THE IDEAL THEATRE, CLANTON, ALA.

"The Birth of a Race," the so-called indecent and immoral picture, of which so much was said in last week's Union-Banner, under the signature of the Baptist Pastor, was shown to several hundred good citizens of Clanton and vicinity last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in spite of the vigorous fight in the Baptist church the Council meeting and in Montgomery to stop the showing; and the management did not feel that he was trying to put anything over the authorities. He simply knew he was right and any opposition wrong. A careful vote was taken at the close of each showing and we were unable to get a vote against the picture in any way. Several hundred people voted it clean and moral. Many voted it the cleanest, sweetest and grandest picture ever seen in Clanton. There was nothing else in the picture but good. Few saw it but are better, and all are proud of having seen it.

The attempt at censorship was taken as a joke and many laughs enjoyed among the business men and young people of the town, but when The Union-Banner appeared Thursday with the long article interspersed with untrue and malicious statements regarding the picture and management it assumed a serious aspect and demanded serious attention, as the article goes to many friends and patrons of the show who are not familiar with the ridiculous movement; and as it seems to be sponsored by the Baptist Church and congregation, should carry some weight. Consequently this is being published for those who are not acquainted with the true facts in the case.

The Ideal Theatre has lost none of its friends or patrons on account of the attempt to stop the picture, but has gained many and strengthened

When one person who knows nothing about it says a picture is indecent and immoral, and several hundred who saw it pronounce it clean, moral and good, there is evidently something wrong with the judgment of the one.

It is regretted that a congregation should be innocently misled by a blind leader into this controversy, as the management has no thought but of friendship toward them, and means no disrespect to any church, congregation or individual, other than the promoter of the move.

Some few of the Baptist congregation were deprived of the pleasure for the time of seeing this wonderful picture; others saw it anyway, regardless of the obligation, and are proud of it.

The assertion that the management was "in the business purely for the money," is basely untrue and resented by said management, and the author of the statement has been so informed.

"The Birth of a Race," was brought to Clanton for the good it would do, with a probability of a loss of money, as a regular scheduled program had to be paid for and shelved in order to use this picture.

There are hundreds of pictures shown in Birmingham and Montgomery and other places, large and small, that the management of the Ideal, of Clanton considers unfit for showing in Clanton, and while it is impossible to please all, the pictures shown in Clanton are far above the average, and we will continue our standard of censorship.

No less than four Clanton pastors and their families, including Baptists, have been liberal attendants to our shows, and the management has been congratulated on the character of the pictures shown.

The Union-Banner last week contained about two inches "paid advertisement," every word the truth, regarding the subject, and all the reading space of one page, as a contribution, with so much in it untrue that the whole amounted to nothing.

We are sorry that space and time are not available to put more into this article. We will again state that no disrespect is meant any church, congregation or member.

THE COUNTY HOME.

Dear Editor—I want space in your paper to say a few words. Everything here is moving along nicely. A few of the old people are sick.

We have preaching here every 2nd Sunday by Uncle Dock Wells. We request that everybody come and be with us on the second Sunday in this month. In addition to the preaching we will have singing too. Come and help us make a pleasant day for the old folks who live here.

COUNTY COURT.

The county court of Chilton county for the March term was held on Monday, but there were not many cases to be disposed of. Most of them had been continued over to later in the month.

Silas Watts, charged with failure to work the public roads was convicted and fined $1 and costs.

Ed Graham, charged with violating the prohibition laws, was nolle prossed.

M. Browder was fined $100 and costs.

A LETTER REGARDING WORKING OF ROADS IN CHILTON.

Editor Union-Banner:—After looking over the last issue of your paper I want to say a few things if you will allow me space.

A few days ago I was present at a meeting of the Commissioners and road apportioners and others in Clanton. The question of working roads was the topic of the day. I think it was plainly seen that one of the hindrances of the roads in Chilton county in a great measure is in the hands of the apportioners and overseers. As to this thought, I mentioned it in the meeting in a brief way, stating that the apportioners ought to have the overseers do their duty, and also the overseers have the road subjects to do their duty. I said that men ought to be made to do their duty on the roads, and I still say it. When I say duty I mean that which the law requires of them. It was stated by a man whom I took to be an apportioner that it was a better plan to lead rather than to try to drive. This is right and mighty nice when a man will be led to his duty, but we know there are some men as overseers and apportioners and as hands who can't and will not be led to their duty as required by law.

There was a vote in said meeting that the road law of Chilton county be enforced this year. I hope that everybody will get it into their minds that this must and ought to be done. When this is done I am satisfied that we will see a great improvement in our roads. The road law provides that every man subject to road duty shall work one hundred hours during the year 1920. Now Mr. Overseer, when you warn your hands to meet you for the purpose of working the road, say you have five men and one of them brings a team, which makes it according to the rule equal to seven hands, which would be seventy hours of work in a day. Now do you think it would be fair for you as overseer, to allow four of those hands to make an average of six hours actual work and three to average ten hours Or maybe sometime the average of the whole seven hands is not over seven hours, then you as the overseer and time-keeper mark them all up ten hours each. I say it is not fair to yourself, neither to the roads nor to your community nor your county. The question is will you forsake your duty as a man and a good citizen because some men have to be made believe they have got to work the roads before they will do it. We know there are some men who do not work over five hours on the roads in a day and the overseer will allow them to domineer over them. So I hope that the overseer will call Mr. G. up by the side of Mr. B. and give him to understand that he must pull by his side even if he can't pull quite as much. When we do what we can then we have done our share. The idea is this, that it is not for the road hands to be anywhere from two to three hours in getting to the place appointed by the overseer to work. Say that Mr. A and B met at seven o'clock, and at 7:30 Mr. J and R come in, at 8 Mr. Y and at 8:30 Mr. E. We know this is about the rule, so if we will begin to think and figure then we will see where the road interest is robbed.

I want to say hurrah for the Elmore county movement and for the good roads days.

I want to say amen to the resolution of the Baptist Church of Clanton as to the decency and virtuality of our people. May they be strengthened and encouraged by a higher power.

Respectfully,
R. N. WILKINS.

JACKSON WRITES INDORSING MR. M. F. LETT.

Dear Editor—Will you allow me a space in your paper to say few words in regard to the candidates for the various offices?

I want to say a few words in regard to Mr. M. F. Lett. First, I will ask the voters of the county if we owe Mr. Lett anything, or do we not? Has he done anything for the people of the county? I should say that he has, if I can see straight. He has been a faithful servant of the people in the Farmers Union. Although I never belonged to it, I have seen and heard the effects of his work. Then is that all? No. He has been just as true to the principles of the Republican party. Now shall we forget him because he does not carry as good an outward appearance as some of our candidates? I say no. The time has come when we must judge a man by his fruits, and I think Mr. Lett has borne good fruit. Let us not forget to honor the aged and the humble like him. Now he is getting old and unable to perform manual labor, yet fully able and competent to fill the office which I think he is entitled to.

Yours truly,
J. H. JACKSON.

MR. COLLINS TALKS TO VOTERS ABOUT BEING A CANDIDATE FOR TAX COLLECTOR.

To the voters and Tax Payers of the County of Chilton:

In making my announcement for the office of Tax Collector, I desire to say that I have never asked for or been a candidate for any public office before, but have always done my duty as I saw it in helping to put other good men in the various offices of the county since I have been old enough to vote, say for the last thirty years or more. I have always voted for the men and the ticket that I believed represented the rights and interests of the working man.

I have farmed for a living all of my life, and expect to remain a farmer; though I am not physically able to do the hard work that I have done in the past, and this is one reason I am asking the people to elect me to the office of Tax Collector, for many of my friends have encouraged me to become a candidate.

I feel that I am qualified to collect the taxes of the county to the entire satisfaction of all the people, and to meet all requirements of the law governing the same. And if I am elected, I promise to devote my very best ability in serving the people and the tax payers in a courteous and satisfactory manner.

Yours very truly,
A. L. COLLINS.

B. IGO AND O. C. PATTERSON ARRESTED WITH WHISKEY STILL LAST WEEK.

The state law enforcement squad, which is directed by Conrad W. Austin of Montgomery, invaded the north part of Chilton County last week and after lying in wait for a day or so succeeded in locating a whiskey-making establishment of one hundred gallon capacity in the neighborhood of Sawyer's Cove. Two men, B. Igo, and O. C. Patterson were arrested in connection with the operation of the outfit. The two men with the stiill were brought to Clanton where warrants were issued against them and bonds made for their appearance in the county court. The trials are set for Friday, March 5th, before Judge L. H. Reynolds.

It now seems that Clanton will be getting electric current from Lock 12 on Coosa River in a short time. Mr. L. F. Gerald advises us that he attended the monthly meeting of the Alabama Public Service Commission in Montgomery on the 1st of March, at which time approval of the sale of the properties of the Wade Electric Light and Power Company was approved. In stating the case before the Commission Mr. Thos. W. Martin, President and General Counsel of the Alabama Power Company stated the approval of the Town Council of the Town of Clanton had been obtained in the matter. Mr. Sam P. Kennedy, President of the Commission asked if Clanton would be given the same rate as was given the other municipalities in Alabama by the Alabama Power Company, being a net rate of 9 cents, and Mr. Martin stated that this same rate would be in force in Clanton. After the question raised as to the rate raised by Mr. Kennedy was settled, the Commission approved the transfer, on the condition that the same rates be applied to Clanton as to other towns in the state.

Mr. Gerald further tells us that Mr. Martin stated after the meeting that prospects for the service being put on in Clanton by the first of April was very encouraging.

SENATOR JOHN H. BANKHEAD DIED ON MONDAY.

Washington, March 1—Senator J. H. Bankhead, senior Senator from Alabama, died here today. His death came following a lengthy illness, and was not entirely unexpected. Friends of the Senator here were shocked over reports of his death.

He had been ill for some weeks, although reports from his home here had been to the effect that he would recover.

Senator Bankhead contracted a heavy cold and while still weak from it he escorted a delegation representing a good roads organization in which he was deeply interested to the White House and Capitol. Following that he grew worse, but a few days ago it was stated in his office that he would be out again in a few days.

Senator Bankhead was in his 78th year. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having served four years in the Confederate army, and being wounded three times.

He entered the senate in 1907 when he was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John T. Morgan. He was re-elected in 1911 and in 1918. He served in the House from the fiftieth to the fifty-ninth congress, inclusive.

Burial services for the remains of held at his home in Jasper on to-day, Thursday, under auspices of the Masonic Lodge.

Next Friday night, March 5, is the date set for the Lyceum attraction by Miss M. Albright, at the High School in the interest of the library fund. It is a real good attraction, and a full house is expected. Everybody come.

Miss Lula Speer of Birmingham is spending the week-end with relatives in Clanton.

CARD OF APPRECIATION FROM UNCLE DOCK WELLS.

Mr. Editor—With your usual kindness to me, please allow me a little space in your interesting columns to to express my profound sentiments of appreciation and gratitude to the many noble hearted friends who so delicately and substantially remembered me on my recent 72nd birthday, Feb. 29th.

The awfully inclement weather of last Sunday rendered the services we had arranged for at Mt. Pleasant an impossibility, and my heart was sad over the disappointment as I returned to my home on Monday. You can only faintly picture to yourself the wave of joyous gladness that permeated my very soul when Messrs. Bud Jones and Gilvey McKee met me and tendered to me a substantial purse that my friends at home had made up for me in my absence. From a financial viewpoint the gift was indeed a timely one and appreciated; but away above and beyond all that was the tender recollection that these dollars meant not only a kindness to me, but came from among those who have known my life-long career and in these twilight days of life, as my footsteps totter towards that home beyond the sky, they say to me: "Those who know you best love you most."

Language is inadequate to thank you, dear friends, and last night I hardly slept at all, so full was my heart of the glorious truth that those among whom I have spent my life are following me even unto the end with their love and confidence.

May the richest blessings from the throne of Grace follow you everyone throughout all the days of your life, and in the sweet bye and bye may we all strike hands together in an eternal friendship beyond the skies.

UNCLE DOCK WELLS.

Clanton, Ala., March 1, 1920.

WEST CHILTON.

March, the first month of Spring, is here, and instead of the gentle zephyrs we are locked in fetters of ice.

Doctor Pickering of Maplesville recently made a professinonal visit to Mr. James Atchison's. The doctor is very popular here, having formerly resided at Randolph. Mr. Atchison's family has been quite sick with the flu for several days.

Saturday was Fertilizer day at Randolph. Mr. C. G. Glass, one of our popular merchants, was making a delivery to his many customers.

It is interesting to note the attendance now at the schools, and think how it once was at this season of the year when not over one-half of the children would be in school. But now they all go under the new provisions. In order to meet the incoming new era men with a vision see that the children must be educated.

Last fall our people smiled when the quarantine on cattle was lifted. Now they want the quarantine on the price lifted. Cattle are cheaper than they were before people began dipping, but time, in the results to be secured from the dipping vats, is an important element, as it is in everything else. People should have been told that not just merely dipping cattle woulud bring fancy prices, but time would also be necessary to bring the desired results.

In the future we believe Chilton county will have as fine cattle as are in the northern states, but time will be necessary, and tick eradication may be a step in that direction.

Mr. P. C. Smith years ago in advocating stock law, said it would produce some hardship and that was correct. That is the proper way to approach new and untried things. Give both sides.

Mr. L. N. Brown is about ready for sawing at his new mill on Six Mile Creek. He is preparing to manufacture a vast quantity of lumber.

Garden work is very backward over here.

SECOND WHISKEY STILL OF THE WEEK FOUND IN NORTH CHILTON.

It seems that the law enforcement squad of the state government at Montgomery has set to work with a determination to run down some of the wild-cat stills in this county who have heretofore succeeded in eluding the local officers. The second outfit captured in the northern part of the county by these state officers this week was brought down Tuesday. It was found near the Shelby county line not a great way from Calera, but in Chilton County. A man named Stony Martin was arrested charged with the operation of the outfit and brought to Clanton to answer the charges in the case. His trial will be held before Judge Reynolds on Monday, March 8th. The officers have also entered another charge of assault with intent to murded against this man, alleging that he shot another man named Martin with a shot gun during the proceedings that brought about the capture of the still and he will be arraigned on this charge also next Monday.

CLANTON LAWYERS REPLY TO JUDGE REYNOLDS AND THE COMMISSIONERS.

To the Editor Union-Banner:

We notice the letter in your last issue apparently written by L. H. Reynolds and also signed by the members of the Commissioners Court. We assume that this letter must have been signed by the Commissioners without their being aware of the facts in the matter. The question raised in our first letter was purely a legal question, and we have no desire to develop a political discussion, though of course as usual, the Judge trys to play "peanut politics" with the question.

The Judge tries to create the impression that we were in error as to ages of persons whom they tried to force to do road duty, and further that we had failed to take into account the recent amendments to the road law. We state as we did in our first letter that the Commissioners Court is bound by the State statute, as therein set forth. Any amendment they may write into the road law to the contrary are void. If the Judge wishes to insinuate that the State road statute was amended, we ask him to cite the amendment. In other words, Judge, put up or shut up.

He states that they have never tried to force any man to work, who was over 45 years of age. For the information of the public, we wish to quote the part of the letter, relevent to this point, written by L. H. Reynolds to Mr. J. A. Logan, under date of November 1st, 1919:

"I cannot exempt you unless you make a lawful excuse, after the apportioner has appointed you, you are responsible for the condition of the road until your successor has been appointed.

"If you will send me your excuse and it is lawful I will take pleasure in releasing you.

"Overseers are subject from 21 years old to 50."

We will leave it to the people whether or not the road law as applied by the Judge was, "with the consent of the party."

As to the other question—that of exemptions—the Judge states that "we did it to save him the fee of $5."

We want to construe the Judge's letter fairly, but it seems to us that this statement is clearly incorrect.

The road law provides that "all persons who by nature or disease are rendered incapable of hard work" may be exempted by proper certificate. The road law as passed by the county, provides that this certificate must be obtained and filed with the Probate Judge, and he may pass on its validity.

It is clear that it is not as he states that anything they did was to save anyone a fee of $5, but that in all cases where a certificate was otherwise required, they still require it and in addition attempt to set up the Probate Judge with authority to pass on its sufficiency, which they are utterly without authority to do. Instead of saving anyone a $5 fee he still requires it and then requires that they pass in review before him, that if their certificate does not meet with his approval they have spent the $5 fee in vain.

TO OUR CONTRIBUTORS:

The Editor of this paper wishes to say to the public that we do not desire any personal controversies carried on through our columns. In the first place we have not got time to set up columns of type devoted to abusing some individual, and in the second place a newspaper is no place in which to settle personal differences. If you owe anybody an opinion about his personal conduct, social, political, religious or otherwise, we advise you to take your troubles to him directly. Don't bother other people with your grievances by displaying them in a public place like the pages of a newspaper.

Our columns will always be open in the future, as in the past, for honest constructive discussion regarding measures that involve the common weal. But if you send us any of the purely personal kind in which nobody is interested except you and the fellow you are attacking, please enclose stamp for the return of your manuscript or it will be consigned to the waste basket.

Those who are interested in politics might take special notice of the above. Politics when broadly considered, is a subject that generally concerns many people, and for that reason it is often taken by some individuals that anything that concerns politics concerns everybody. But it is at the same time mighty easy for individuals to make politics a personal matter pure and simple. We shall use the closest observance of political correspondence in the future, and if it is something that involves only personal political matters, we will not publish it. W. M. WYATT.

THE QUESTION OF RATES.

We notice from the interview with Mr. L. F. Gerald concerning the recent meeting of the Alabama Public Service Commission at which the matter of the Alabama Power Company extending its service to Clanton was under consideration, that Mr. Sam P. Kennedy, President of the Commission was somewhat inquisitive of the Power Company officials in regard to the matter of rates they were going to charge their patrons in Clanton. Mr. Kennedy was apparently enough interested in the people of the town to extract an asurance from the Power Company that they would give to Clanton the same rates they are giving other towns in the state, 9 cents net. After that question of rates was settled, Mr. Kennedy very readily agreed to the transfer of the Wade properties in Clanton to the Alabama Power Company, and the authorization of the latter to begin their operations here by the first of April. Mr. Kennedy's forethought in looking after the matter of rates is indeed commendable.

Mr. J. M. Grant received a telegram Saturday morning from Birmingham announcing the death of his sister, and he at once went to that city. The deceased was the youngest sister of Mr. Grant, and was unmarried. She had been in declining health for several months, but her death was unexpected. Burial was made in Elmwood cemetery late Sunday afternoon.

Rev. P. G. Carter, pastor of the Clanton Baptist Church, attended the Fifth Sunday meeting at Chestnut Creek Church, Coopers, on last Saturday and Sunday. The Sunday morning services at his church here were cancelled on account of his attendance at Coopers.

Circuit Clerk M. D. Foshee has about recovered from a severe illness of two weeks with flu. He is not yet able to be out of his room, but will in a few days return to the duties of his office.

In the controversy concerning "The Birth of a Race" which has been carried on in the columns of this paper by the two parties concerned, two public institutions have been involved—the picture show and the church. To our way of thinking it should not be a difficult matter to determine which of these institutions is the greater moral factor in the community or town.

The editor of this paper places the church, and by this we mean the Protestant Christian Church, in the forefront as the deciding factor in all moral issues. And in this decision there is no room for a divergence of opinion between the Baptist or the Methodist or Presbyterian Churches. What is a moral test for the Baptists is likewise a moral test for the Methodists. The question arising is only as to whether the church will stand for the preservation of the morals of a community, and exact the respect for its attitude that it has the right to demand of the people.

Whether or not the Baptist church of Clanton and its capable and energetic leader were precisely correct in their view regarding this particular picture, rather than censure them, we commend them for their honesty of motive and integrity of purpose in standing up in a very definite manner for a high standard of morals in the town and community.

The motive in the resolution passed by the church should do much, even aside from its relation to the picture in question, to advance the cause of morality and of Christianity in the Christian-minded person; and also among those who have in the past disrespected the church because of its failure to stand outspokenly for such things. Certainly the time has come for the church to stand outspokenly for the things which it believes to be right, not merely by silent consent, but in a very definite and uncompromising manner. This must be done if the church is ever to win the support of the non-church men and women, who, although not church members, believe in and practice good morals and right living.

It is far better for a church to be a little extreme on the right side of righteousness and morality, than to ignore sin, or worse still, by silent consent endorse it. Therefore, since our churches are the greatest factors in the preservation of the good morals of our town, and the best assets we have, we commend the church and its pastor for the action taken. For as we see it, the motive and purposes of the church and pastor in taking action was not a personal matter maliciously directed against Mr. Smith and the picture show at all. Even by admitting that their view of the particular picture in question was a little extreme, we think they could not be blamed for regarding it as they did from the advertising matter that was distributed. The circulars had printed on them the picture of "Eve" without a shred of clothing on her body.

Now, since both sides of this controversy have been extensively aired, we deem it wise to suggest that our columns are closed to a further continuance of the question. If Mr. Smith thinks he has won his contentions and justified himself and his picture, all good and well. He assures the public that he shall in the future make every effort to put on exhibition the best, cleanest and most moral pictures he can get, and we hope he will—yes more than that, we believe he will; for we do not regard Mr. Smith as a man who is out for the purpose of tearing down the morals of our town.

On the other hand, if Rev. Carter and the chufch think they have fulfilled their duty as watchmen set up to warn the people of the community of threatening dangers, we glory with them. For we all know that our churches have made miserably poor watchmen in the past. We would leave this as a parting word with the church on this subject. Don't confine your efforts at purifying the morals of this town to the picture show alone. There are even bigger game within the range of your guns. We hope you will load up and fire away with a true aim.

Cabinet officers may come and Cabinet officers may go, but Newt Baker and Pat Tumulty hang on forever. Why? Because they are the ones who are there to look after the interests of the Catholics. Look up Baker's orders of a few years ago and find out what he said regarding Catholics and war camp activities, and you will see the reason why he is holding a place in the cabinet. And as for Tumulty, we all know why he is there.

SOME LARGER VISIONS.

Editor Union-Banner—Since reading the issue of The Union-Banner of Feb. 26th, and noting that Mr. S. E. Norton takes issue with me on the article I wrote the week before on the Inter-Church World Movement, I will ask for space for one more article, which I think will be sufficient to convince the inquiring mind of the demerit of the movement. Mr. Norton would have you believe that Dr. W. F. Yarbrough, Dr. Crumpton, the editor of the Alabama Baptist, and many other prominent Baptists of the State endorse the Inter-Church World Movement. Some few have done so, but the same have committed denominational suicide. It is not worth the while for me to take space to give a scriptural argument against this movement, but I will only refer you to the Alabama Baptist of Feb. 26th, which tells us of the greatest assemblage of inspired Christian workers ever convened in the South, and of their attitude toward the Inter-Church Movement. The article I refer to is as follows:

A Statement Concerning the Attitude of Southern Baptists Toward the Inter-Church World Movement.

There is every reason for profound gratificataion and thanksgiving for the growing fraternity among the Baptist people throughout the Southern Baptist Convention and their increasing solidarity and unity of purpose and action. The convention every where prevails that this fraternity should not be marred or this unity disturbed by any kind of effort or interference, and inasmuch as the Inter-Church World Movement has put on and is keeping up a continuous propaganda among our people, it is deemed wise and timely that we set forth the attitude of Southern Baptists toward the Inter-Church World Movement.

The Southern Baptist Convention in its session at Atlanta, in May, 1919 gave this subject careful and comprehensive consideration. After according a respectful hearing to one of the leading representatives of this movement at one of the best hours of the convention, it decided by a practically unanimous vote not to enter into any such scheme of co-operation as the Inter-Church World Movement. This Convention was the largest in the history of Southern Baptists, being attended by over 4,200 messengers, and representing more than 3,000,000 white Baptists, and the resolution not to enter the Inter-Church World Movement was adopted with only two dissenting votes. Since the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention practically all the several State Baptist Bodies of the South have met and taken similar action.

In order that the general public may be correctly informed as to the attitude of Southern Baptists toward this movement, we submit the following observations:

1. That since the leaders of the Inter-Church World Movement elected to present their appeal for the cooperation of Southern Baptists to the Southern Baptist Convention that they are bound in Christian comity to rest their cause with the Southern Baptist Convention, and to abide by its action, and that to repudiate the decision of the body to which they had chosen to present their cause, and to institute and carry on an insistent propaganda among Southern Baptists is a violation of denominational comity and is calculated to disturb the Christian fraternity which the Inter-Church World Movement claims to foster and promote as its cardinal virtue.

2. We have a cordial Christian fellowship for our brethren of other faiths and delight to co-operate with them in matters not violative of conscience, but we believe that the organization and management of the Inter-Church World Movement is now or is rapidly tending toward an over lordship or super control of the denominations acting in the capacity of a closed corporation whose officers are not subject to recall and whose acts are not subject to review by the people composing the membership of the churches. This we regard as fundamentally contrary to the genius of New Testament church organization. We believe that we can maintain a better standard of efficiency by preserving a complete autonomy, unembarrassed by overlapping organizations under interdenominational or superdenominational centralized direction.

We believe that a Protestant oligarchy is as anti-scriptural and as undemocratic and as undesirable as a Romish hierarchy. Any sort of entangling alliance with other bodies holding to diferent standards of doctrines and different views of church life and church order, is contrary to Baptist genuity and polity, is antiscriptural in letter and in spirit, is unsound in principle and unsafe in practice. However, if other denominations shall choose to enter into a Protestant union or federation we accord to them the right to do so unmolested, only claiming an equal right for ourselves to pursue unmolested the course which we have chosen.

3. We believe that as Baptists we are in conscience bound to obey the commission of our Lord, the one head of the church, to "disciple all nations, baptizing them . . . and teaching them to observe all things whatsoever" He has commanded without being limited in our programs or delimited in what we shall teach or in territory.

4. We believe that our Baptist people are in conscience bound to administer the affairs of our denomination and to prosecute its programs with all the economy consitent with the best efficiency. Our funds are trust funds, contributed by our brethren for the spread of the gospel among the lost peoples of the earth, and to absorb vast sums of this money in expensive, not to say extravagant, administration would be a wrongful diversion of these funds and an abuse of a sacred trust.

The Southern Baptist 75 million campaign fund will, no doubt, reach $100,000,000. This campaign has been financed on three-fourths of one per cent. of the funds raised to date. And in putting over our campaign by our own denominational agencies and our own workers, we have maintained our denominational integrity and strengthened its coherence, and at the same time we have accomplished the greatest piece of enlistment ever undertaken by our people. The small sum expended in financing the campaign should not, in justice, be reckoned as a mere expense account, but as an investment, for the result achieved in the enlistment of our churches and our brethren in the work of the churches and in the general denominational program more than justify the expenditure, even if there had been no money-raising objective in view.

There are many other ways in which we can prudently economize by continuing unrelated to the Inter-Church World Movement. Our secretaries and other workers are content to carry on their work in modest quarters with inexpensive equipment; in order that the funds contributed to world evangelization may be so applied.

5. The Inter-Church World Movement has already violated its profession of Christian fraternity by its attempt to ignore the cherished convictions of our people and by its policy of invasion and intermeddling in the affairs of Southern Baptists after we had courteously heard its case and had in candor, but in firmness, answered its appeal once for all

6. The triumphant success of the Baptist 75 million campaign has greatly heartened and inspired our people, and has confirmed them in the conviction that our policy is not only correct in principle, but workable in practice. We are now in the midst of the prosecution of plans in all part of the South for missionary, educational, benevolent and evangelistic enterprises. The forces and resources of the entire denomination have been challenged and enlisted by this program for world service.

We believe that we can better serve the cause of our Lord and Master and better promote the gospel of His grace in the long run by pursuing the couse which we have adopted and thus remain true to New Testament principles and to our convictions. We are profoundly convinced that the sure progress of the kingdom depends upon the efficiency and the faithfulness of the churches and their ministers. We hail with inexpressible gratitude every manifestation of the spirit of Christian fraternity and every approache toward union upon the New Testament basis.

In view of the above statement of facts, we, the undersigned chosen representatives of our people, and pursuant to instructions from them do hereby announce that it will be the continued policy of Southern Baptists to have no part or lot in any of the conferences, programs or surveys of the Inter-Church World Movement.

DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE

Duplex Basic Phosphate supplies full 18 per cent phosphoric acid in a sweet form which experiment has shown is all available to plant life, and in such form that it does not leach or wash from the soil but becomes part of it, thereby enriching it and improxing its texture.

Duplex Basic Phosphate carries a total of more than 45 per cent of lime, a percentage of which is immediately available, attacks and ultimately overcomes soil acidity.

A test will demonstrate to your satisfaction that it is a superior product for the reason that it will increase your yield of farm products, any crop. Give it a trial and see fo yourself that we are conservative in this statement.

PINEDALE NEWS

Quite a number in this section are sick with the flu.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and carried away their 3-months old baby on Sunday morning, February 29. The remains were laid to rest at Mt. Springs Cemetery Monday p.m.

Miss Annie Lowe of Clanton spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Emma Lee Mims.

Mr. Velpoyle Mims called on Miss Lee Johnson of South Clanton Sunday afternoon.

Miss Olive McEwen, Mr. Jesse Teel and Mr. Sam Thompson were visitors at Emma Lee Mim's Sunday afternoon.

Several boys from Clanton were in this community a few days ago. All reported a nice time.

Mrs. Martha Connell, an aged lady of this community, fell out of door Saturday night and broke her shoulder.

Brother Dan DuBose will preach here the Third Saturday night and Sunday of this month. Everybody invited.

Sheriff Gore has been sick for the past week and is yet unable to attend to the duties of his office.

What is Duplex Basic Phosphate?

After years of study and investigation the Tennessee Coal, Iron and R.R. Co. have perfected a method whereby in the operation of the open hearth furnace they produce a slag very rich in phosphorus. Much care and attention is given to see that the slag produced be suitable for fertilizer.

The slag obtained in this way, containing a large quantity of phosphorus and lime, is crushed and passed over magnetic separators to remove the small particles of steel. It is then ground in a series of milla to a fine impalpable powder. The Opportunity for Better Crops is Yours.

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Alderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter . . . suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed . . . the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at . . . time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"In a few days, she began to improve," Mrs. Cox continues, "and had no trouble at . . . Cardui cured her, and we sing its praises everywhere." We receive many thousands of similar letters every year, telling of the good Cardui has done for women who suffer from complaints so common to their sex. It should do you good, too. Try Cardui. E-77

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

BAPTIST!

A colored preacher of the Baptist faith came into the office the other day and when questioned about his ideas of the inter-church world movement, he avowed, affirmed and declared that it was a thing of no use and absolutely unsupported by the Bible teachings.

We then asked him why it was that so many people were taking up with it if it were so no-good.

"Wait a minute, Boss. I'se gwine tell you why dat is," he said, "all of dese tuther 'nominations jes realize de's not got no 'thority in the Bible for their belief, and dey is huntin, up some kind of scuse to git in wid de Baptists," dats why dey wants us to come in wid dem, so's dey can git our Baptist doctrine. But dey can't fool me dat way. I say if anybody wants de Baptist doctrine, let him jine de Baptist church and come under de ordinances in de usual way of de Baptists. Yes sir, sho nuff."

MR. BICE ASKS SOME QUESTIONS OF COMMISSIONERS COURT.

Editor Union-Banner:—I wish to ask the County Commissioners a question through your paper.

I want to ask them what right they have to kill a public road? What law gives them the authority to kill a public road on one man's soy-so and that against a petition bearing the names of several respectable citizens and tax payers of the county

Who are the Commissioners? They should be the servants of the people; but after they get into office they assume the idea that "I am Pap," and I will say what you need. The children may ask and beg but "Pap" says no you don't need it. I know what you need better than you do. You put me here and now I will do as I please.

I say away with this one-man rule. And when some of them ask the good people of this county for office again they may look out, for they will hear the dry bones of the hills and valleys rattle and cry out, "Who art thou?" The answer will come from the people and say: "Depart from me; I know ye not."

What do the people get for the tax money they pay to the county? They pay thirteen thousand a year and get a pig trail to travel. Then the officers say it is toogood for you and they knock it out.

Forgive me, Mr. Editor, for this long letter, and next time I will be longer. Yours very truly,

Jemison, March 1. J. BICE.

They couldn't be built now for twice $71,000

When the talk turns from politics to railroads, and the traveler with the cocksure air breaks in with, "There's an awful lot of 'water' in the railroads," here are some hard-pan facts to give him:

American railroads have cost $80,900 a mile—roadbed, structures, stations, yards, terminals, freight and passenger trains—everything from the great city terminals to the last spike.

A good concrete-and-asphalt highway costs $36,000 a mile—just a bare road, not counting the cost of culverts, bridges, etc.

English railways are capitalized at $274,000 a mile; the French at $155,000; German $132,000; even in Canada (still in pioneer development) they are capitalized at $67,000 a mile. The average for all foreign countries is $100,000.

Low capitalization and high operating efficiency have enabled American Railroads to pay the highest wages while charging the lowest rates.

BEST FOR ALL CROPS

SOUTH ATLANTIC GUANO COMPANY
(SUBSIDIARY MORRIS FERTILIZER CO.)
ATLANTA — MONTGOMERY

A poor crop never pays. A farmer is not living up to his opportunities when he fails to make a good profit on his year's work. Outside of actual Providential casualties, there is no excuse for crop failure in these days of scientific methods of feeding the crop so that each plant is nursed and nourished from the time of sprouting till final maturity.

The methods of mixing and blending the South Atlantic Brands and the excellent class of materials used in them as actual food for the plant make them a scientifically perfect fertilizer. Their mechanical condition is so fine and free from lumps that each plant gets its full share of each element of plant food, thus insuring better stands and vigorous growth.

Their liberal use means larger yields, better profits and eminent satisfaction.

CURRY-JONES.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Curry of Clanton announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Louis Clinton Jones, of Dayton, Ohio., the wedding to occur early in June.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

Mrs. Grady Broadhead was hostess to the Civic Improvement Club on Tuesday afternoon. The apartments were beautifully decorated with pot plants and spring flowers.

Plans were discussed for the convention of the Federation of Womens Clubs of the Fifth District, which is to be the guest of the Study Club and Civic this spring.

After other important matters had been disposed of an interesting program followed. Rev. Maye made a splendid address and Mrs. Callen led the round table discussion, "How cities are chartered and towns incorporated."

A delicious plate luncheon was served to Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Callen, Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. Heard, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Wyatt, and Rev. Maye.

ARANT-HITT.

A marriage of interest was that of Miss Bessie Hitt and Mr. A. S. Arant which occurred last Saturday at the Methodist parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Maye. There were no attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Arant left immediately for Akron, where he holds a responsible position.

METHODIST L. A. S. MEETS.

The members of the Methodist Ladies Aid were most delightfully entertained on Monday when Miss Mabel Thomas was hostess.

The home was most attractively decorated with cut flowers and ferns. After a very interesting program the guests were served delicious refreshments. Miss Thomas was assited by Mrs. W. D. Spigener.

MR. AND MRS. UPCHURCH ENTERTAIN.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Upchurch was thrown open to the young friends of their sixteen-year old daughter, Mary, when she celebrated her fourth birthday on last Friday evening.

Miss Daisy Gillis and Mr. G. C. Walker presided at the punch bowl in the conservatory.

Pink and white carnations were used as decorations throughout the home. Much amusement was afforded by a potato race and flower contest. The color scheme of pink and white was also carried out in an ice course. About fifty guests enjoyed this very happy occasion.

EMBROIDERY CLUB.

Mrs. John VanDerveer was a most charming hostess on last Thursday afternoon when she entertained the Embroidery Club. MRS. WHITE HOSTESS.

In her own delightful way Mrs. M. L. White entertained the E. C. Maye Sunday School Class on Friday, Feb. 27th, with a colonial tea. The decorations were both unique and beautiful. The hall was most patriotic in its colors of red, white and blue, and here two little colonial belles, Misses Mary Heard and Evelyn Nix, served delicious punch. In their quaint little gowns they looked as if they had stepped out of some old painting. In the spacious living room where the guests were received the color scheme was carried out most beautifully with cherries and red white and blue hatchets, while exquisite red carnations in tall cut glass vases lent their color a nd fragrance to the beautiful scene. After an extremely interesting program on Washington, a delightful salad course was served by the hosetss, assisted by Mrs. P. T. Hinkle a nd Mrs. Bamma Cox.

The favors were little silk flags.

The following officers were elected for the year: Mrs. B. M. Roberts, President; Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Secretary; Mrs. M. L. White, Treasurer; Mrs. N. S. Johnson, Mrs. Macey Jones Program Committee Mrs. H.M.Simpson, Miss Mabel Thomas, Mrs. Splawn, and Mrs. Nix, Lookout Committee; Mrs. E. C. Maye, Teacher.

This is a splendidly organized class, and these monthly meetings are very pleasant and helpful.

RUTH ROBERTS BURNED; DIED ON WEDNESDAY

Ruth Roberts, age about 12 years, the daughter of the late J. H. Roberts, was very fatally burned on Monday night. Her clothing caught fire from the grate in her room and inflicted fatal injuries to her body before it could be extinguished. Her burns were so bad that the faithful services of skillful physicians were not able to save her life. She lingered in her awful condition with little hope of recovery till nearly noon Wednesday, when she expired.

The many friends of the Roberts children in Clanton will learn of the unfortunate circumstance with deep regret. Our symoathies go out to the other members of the family.

Mrs. Joe Littlejohn is in Birmingham, where she went to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Burgin.

Miss Pearl Robinson spent Sunday with Miss Ada Giles.

Mr. Monroe Giles, who has been at work in Attalla spent Saturday night and Sunday with home folks. He returned Sunday afternoon to take up his work.

"THE BIRTH OF A RACE."

In this week's issue there appears the reply of the Manager of the Ideal Theatre to my article that appeared last week on this subject. There is little that needs to be said in reply. Very naturally patrons of the picture show are going to endorse the things they support. There was a time when public sentiment was in favor of the liquor traffic, and many business men laughed and joked at the idea of its abolition. Today it is an accomplished fact.

I am glad to learn however that the said picture under discussion was not as bad as represented by the obscene handbills (so pronounced by several of the business men) that were promiscuously distributed. Yet there was much in it that was instructive and good, in the first act the nudities were there, though they appeared but for a few moments, and some who have seen the picture exhibited elsewhere do not endorse all of it. The action taken by the church was based principally on the handbills distributed, and the laws of the state and the Bible have clearly defined what kind of advertising is wholesome or otherwise.

In our previous articles we have already given credit to the management of the Ideal Theatre for putting on some clean picture shows, and if he rigidly pursues this path we are ready to help him in every way, and we are glad that he has at least announced his purpose to do so. We hope he succeeds.

In regard to the financial aspect referred to in the article, the picture show is a business proposition, and like any other business, the proprietor runs it for the money that there is in it.

To the closing paragraph of his reply we are ready to give mutual consent. As in his reply, so in the action taken in protest against said picture, there is no disrespect intended either by the Baptist church or its pastor, against any individual who attended the show nor even the Manager himself, nor against any other church of different faith and order, though it has been so misconstrued. It was inspired by a pure motive for the protection of the virtue of womanhood, good morals and lofty thinking.

REV. P. G. CARTER.

DR. W. B. CRUMPTON MAY SUCCEED MR. BANKHEAD

Montgomery, March 2.—Appointment of Dr. W. B. Crumpton, president of the Alabama Anti-Saloon League and a hard worker for prohibition in the State as the successor temporarily of Senator John H. Bankhead, was rumired in the city Wednesday, and some significance was attached to a conference Governor Kilby had with the doctor during the late morning. There was no official information on the subjects discussed but Dr. Crumpton was in the office of the executive for some time. It was rumored that Mr. Kilby called him for the conference.

The rumors said that Governor Kilby would like to honor a Confederate veteran of Alabama by naming him to succeed Senator Bankhead, the only Confederate fighter in the upper congressional ranks. Dr. Crumpton would be the only Confederate veteran in the senate, and it is known he is a strong man, this being in evidence during the stormy prohibition fights in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Thompson of Wilton, Ala., are visiting the latters parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gore.

DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE

This finished product as offered by us under the name "DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE" contains a minimum of phosphate of lime equivalent to 18 per cent of phosphoric acid and 45 per cent of lime.

Besides phosphorous and lime DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE contains 6 to 9 per cent magnesia, 4 to 10 per cent silica, 10 to 18 per cent iron oxide, 1.5 to 3 per cent manganese oxide, and small qualities of other elements. All of these are also plant foods.

The extreme fineness enables it to come in intimate contact with the soil particles where it is rapdly acted upon by sol soluion and absorbed by the roots of the growing plants.

THE HORSE'S PRAYER.

Dear Master, the Lord has seen fit to make us horses dumb. We cannot talk; we cannot ask for what we need, or tell you when or where we are hurt; we cannot tell you when we are sick, or when we are hungry. I pray thee dear Master to be kind to me; don't drive me too hard and then tie me in a cold place without a blanket or get me too hot, or tie me in the hot sun for a long time. I will be very humble and do all I can to please you if you won't let the collar hurt me or the saddle skin my back. Don't check my head too high—I can't pull as well the hot sun bakes my eyes and I can't fight off the biting flies. I don't have any hands to get them off with.

Dear Master please look at my teeth and if they have sharp corners and are making my mouth and tongue sore, file them off so I can eat.

Keep my feet trimmed and shod when I need it, so I can travel and pull your loads. Please dear Master, don't whip me when I am doing all I can. I work for you without pay and never grumble, sometimes way in the night; so dear master, give me plenty of good clean water often and feed me good. I hate to be poor and look bad. Dear Master, I can't talk to you, but we horses have a language of our own. We can talk to each other. We tell each other our troubles. We need something besides corn or hay or fodder to keep us healthy. Our kidneys get wrong, we get too hot, we get wormy. We crave something not in corn or hay and we often eat dirt or manure trying to find what we need. We are shut up and can get only what you give us. Our hair gets long and ugly and you are ashamed of us, and you trade us off to some poor devil to die.

Dear Master, I have been talking with my brother horses and they tell me a kind horsemaster who has owned lots of horses and has been selling lots of horses for a long time has been studying our nature and has foun out what we need. He has prepared a lot of things which is mixed up with a lot of salt and makes a hard block of it called: EDGERTON'S MEDICATED SALT BRICK. It contains everything we need. You know when you drove me over to see Bill Jones you put me in the horse stable and there was one of those salt bricks in it. I could hardly eat my dinner for licking this Edgerton's Salt Brick and I do feel so much better ever since. My cough has stopped. I am beginning to shed off the ugly coat of hair and I don't want to eat dirt or manure. I drink more water—my kidneys act better. I have stopped scouring so bad, and the nasty worms have been coming from me ever since..

Dear Master, I do believe if you would keep one in my trough I would get young again. You forget to give me the powders and they are no good anyway. We lick the brick and when we get enough we stop. We know how to doctor ourselves if we could get the stuff.

Everybody nearly sells Edgerton's Salt Brick. They don't cost much—a dollar's worth will last me six month Don't trade me off to die. I can do lots of good hard work for you yet, if you will keep Edgerton's Salt Brick in my trough and you will receive a just reward for taking care of your old slave who has done so much for you. AMEN!

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Thursday, Feb. 26th, was a great day for the colored population of the city of Clanton. On that date the new colored school building was opened to the public. During the day peple from far and near came to view the structure and the concensus of opinion was that it was commensurate with the growth of the thriving little Town of Clanton. During the day the ladies of the School Improvement Society numbers 1 and 2 sold lunches and seemed to have realized a neat little sum.

About 4:30 P. M. a telegram was received from Rev. R. C. Mixon the pastor of Salem church, and one of the ardent supporters of our school, stating his inability to attend on account of an attack of influenza. We greatly deplored the incident because he was slated as master of ceremonies Several of the white people who had expressed their willingness to attend were prevented either by illness of themselves or some member of the family.

The night session commenced at 7:30 sharp. The singing was led by the school glee club, after which Dr. E. C. Maye of the white Methodist church offered prayer. After another song by the glee club the writer presented the Board of Trustees and also the ladies of the School Improvement Society as the prime factor in the building of the school.

At this point Dr. Maye was introduced as the chief speaker of the evening. In our opinion he delivered one of his masterpieces. His lecture was very comprehensive. He touched on every phase of life. He congratulated the negroes on their great achievements and progress in fifty years. He gave some wholesome advice along social, economic and moral lines. The lecture was well taken and was productive of much good. After the lecture Dr. Maye took up the collection whic amounted to $54.00. We consider this quite a success judging from the condition of the weather which prevented several from attending.

We take this opportunity to congratulate Mrs. Carrie Bedsoe and Lela Wood for the admirable manner they presided at the piano, and also the other ladies of the organizataion who took so much pains in helping to train the girls of the glee club.

Millions Need Pepto-Mangan

IN MANY HOMES BETTER HEALTH IS SIMPLY A MATTER OF BETTER BLOOD.

Pepto-Mangan Improves Blood.

Composed of Approved Blood-Making Elements—Put up in Liquid and Tablet Form.

Are you tired and weak and blue? Do you say to yourself, "What's the use of living? What do I get out of life? Dragging through this drab existence in this lifeless way

You don't feel well and you don't know why you have so little energy to do anything, and you get all tired out before it is done. There are millions in busy America that have such feelings now and then, and they are to be pitied. But there is help. Unless some serious malady is at the bottom of their trouble a few weeks of Pepto-Mangan will work a wonderful change. Pepto-Mangan puts new vigor into the blood and the blood is the life fluid. With plenty of rich, red blood coursing through ones body one is pretty likely to feel good and vigorous and be strong and hearty.

Go to your druggist and ask for "Gude's Pepto-Mangan." Be sure to say "Gude's." If "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan. It is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Tell the druggist which you prefer. There is no difference in the medicinal value.—Adv.

ST. CLAIR MAN SAYS HIS WIFE IS WELL AGAIN

"I would like to have a statement of my wife's case put in the papers, so that all her friends will know what it was that overcame her troubles." stated Mr. R. L. Berry, a prosperous farmer of Acmar, St. Clair County, Alabama.

"She has been feeling puny a long time, the worst things being costive bowels, indigestion, kidney troubles, and alazy liver, which gave her bad dizzy spells. She has taken lots of medicine, but it seems it only eaced her for a time, and then the troubles would return. The pains in her back got so bad that she could hardly get about, and had plasters all over it, seeking relief. but they only helped for a while. Her stomach was also very weak, and it would fill up with gas, and also gripe her when she was not very careful what she ate. Every night she had to take medicine to force a bowel action the next day. If she would forget to take this she was all bound up, and this made her have dull headaches."

"I always have believed that the best medicine was mode from roots and herbs, if you could qjust get the right ones. That is why I decided to give her Dreco, and that medicine sure seems to have the right herbs in it, for it went right ofter my wife's troubles and knocked them out. She is a well and sound woman and enjoying things as she hasn't in a long time.

Dreco is being sold by all good drug stores and is especially recommended in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.adv

WHISKEY FOUND IN CULVERT UNDER THE HIGHWAY.

Last Saturday morning on the big highway just above Jemison there was found a quantity of whiskey located in a culvert under the road. The office of the sheriff of Chilton County was at once notified, and Deputy J. M. Curlee was sent to the scene to handle the situation. It was found that there were twenty-one gallons of old fashioned white lightning hid in the culvert, and as Mr. Curlee could find no one around there who would claim the stuff he brought it back to Clanton with him, and it was ordered destroyed by the court. On Tuesday evening it was poured out on the ground in front of the court house.

CALLOWAY AND VINES COME OUT FOR EDUCATIONAL BOARD

It will be seen from looking over our column of announcements this week that Messrs L. A. Calloway and J. L. Vines are announcing again for their place on the County Board of Education. It takes more patriotism than politics to serve on this Board, as there is nothing to it but a "thank you" now and then, with probably a "cussing" here and there. But it is a job that demands the best of thought and attention, and the people should feel grateful that these two excellent gentlemen have consented to give of their time to the duties of the office.

They have both been on the Educational Board for some time, and are acquainted with the details of the things that confront our county schools. They have made good officials, and will continue to render invaluable service in the advancement and proper guardianship of our educational welfare.

DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE

DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE comes nearer to performing the functions of a complete fertilizer than any other phosphatic fertilizer. It is truly the soil builder andn when used as suggested, crop yields can be increased from year to year until maximum yields obtained.

Where live stock farming can be combined with this system an ideal condition is obtained. The manure returned to the land will furnish enough potash to supplement that being released by the soil, and the only mineral elements needed will be phosphorous and lime. DUPLEX BASIC PHOSPHATE furnishes both of these.

The lime contained in the DUPLEG BASIC PHOSPHATE is itself of considerable value; it supplies what is often a much needed lime, and on old grass land particularly its effects are bringing the soil potash into solution and in promoting the oxidization of the nitrogenous reserves in the soili a very marked; on tillage land also, the lime is of assistance in improving the texture of the soil.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MAKE ANSWER TO LAWYERS ON ROAD QUESTION.

Clanton, Ala., March 9, 1920

Editor Union-Banner:

We have another batch of decisions handed down by the Supreme Court of Clanton, which we do not think needs any reply from us, as these decisions and the former ones given out by them fully explain themselves; but as we are here we want to call attention to a few facts connected with this matter.

There is but one construction that can be placed on either of their articles by anyone—and that is that the intentions of both are to try to keep the people from working the roads.

We fully agree with the statement that it was small politics to answer the former article signed by Lawrence F. Gerald, A. C. Smith, B. B. Collier, Wm. M. Adams and Vernon Heard; they call it "peanut politics" but we take their article to be low politics. For we all know there are some peanuts that have nothing in them but air and there sure was no anything in their article but air. We admit it was small to answer their article, and we use small shot for it is common to use shot according to the size of the game.

Yes, we signed the article, to our decision given out a short time ago; we read every word of the reply and knew what was in it before we signed it,and we want to say to you if you were to go from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf we don't think you could find anything like the "wet article" signed by these five lawyers. In any civilized country ever before have five men who claimed to be lawyers advising men not to work their own public roads. Is it a custom for the lawyers to give out advice free? We have had many persons in the last this county. Some were not able to hire lawyers to help them. But in the last few days there have been several tried for felonies and were or where did any of these lawyers volunteer to help without charge? Why was this crowd so anxious to help "oppressed" people? Where is the man who has been oppressed? They quote a part of a letter to W. A. Logan. Why did they not quote all of it, and why did they not quote Mr. Logan's letter to the Probate Judge? Below we publish both the letters in full and the public can see the kind of an excuse offered by Mr. Logan. In fact he did not offer any excuse, and what was the excuse made to him by the Probate Judge? He was told to offer a legal excuse and was also asked to help on the road. Is this such a crime that calls for the help of five lawyers and for them to fly to his rescue voluntarily?

Exact Copy of Letter from J. A. Logan to L. H. Reynolds, Received November 1, 1919.

Mr. L. H. Reynolds,

Dear Sir—I received your note yesterday of my appointment as the Overseer on the Logan Public Road. I am not subject to road duty as an overseer nor as a hand. You and the Commissioners haven't spent one dollar on this road in three years. The fellows pay a liberal tax. I think we are entitled to a little of our tax don't you? Yours truly,

Dear Sir—I cannot exempt you unless you make a lawful excuse. As the apportioner has appointed you are responsible for the condition of the road until your sucessor has been appointed.

If you will send me your excuse and it is lawful, I will take pleasure in releasing you.

Overseers are subject from 21 years old to 50.

You say we pay a liberal tax. We think we pay a heavy tax, and it is being increased every year, and it looks like the people get less benefit from it. But this county owes nearly all the road tax we pay, to pay interest on the debt made before I was Judge of Probate. We collect about $13,000 road tax and pay $10,000 interest. So you see we have not much left to work the roads with. We are paying for lumber from $35 per thousand to $50, and everything in proportion.

If the people that own property and live on the public roads will take an nterest in them I do not know who will. Respectfully,

L. H. REYNOLDS

We want to ask if it is a crime to ask people to work their own roads? We imagine that these five lawyers who saw how Mr. J. A. Dear Sir—I cannot exempt you unless you make a lawful excuse. After the apportioner has appointed you, you are responsible for the condition of the road until your sucessor has been appointed.

If you will send me your excuse and it is lawful, I will take pleasure in releasing you.

Overseers are subject from 21 years old to 50.

You say we pay a liberal tax. I think we pay a heavy tax, and it is being increased every year, and it looks like the people get less benefit from it. If the people that own property and live on the public roads will not take an nterest in them I do not know who will. Respectfully,

L. H. REYNOLDS.

We want to ask if it is a crime to ask people to work their own roads? We imagine that these five lawyers who saw how Mr. J. A. Logan had been oppressed by the Probate Judge asking him to present a legal excuse so that he might be exempted as an overseer and asking him to take an interest in his own road—we think this Famous Five must have gone down in agony and sweated drops of blood as they saw the people of this county thusly so oppressed by working the roads under the iron hand of the Commissioners Court and Probate Judge.

We have never amended any state counry to look at our roads and see if they think that anybody has been oppressed by road work.

We do try to get as many as we can who are over road age to serve as apportioners and overseers, as it will leave a hand for road work.

The apportioners appoint overseers and the Judge of Probate commissions them. No one is excused as overseer until the apportioner recommends someone in his place. We follow this practice so as not to have any roads at any time without overseers.

We have never amanded any state law, but have several times amended the county road law by the Commissioners Court, notwithstanding that the opinion of the Supreme Court of Clanton was to the contrary.

We exempt any person from road duty who comes before us and has an affliction that can be seen by any ordinary person, and this saves him the $5.00 fee; but if someone claims not to be able to work the roads, and it takes a physician to pass on his case we send him to the proper board.

We want to call the attention of the people of this county to the fact that about the same time these lawyers in Clanton were conspiring to cause confusion in the public road system of this county, and to keep the people from working the roads, the citizens of Elmore county just below us were working on a plan to build up their roads. Practically every business in the county closed for three days; practically every lawyer, public man, business man, and farmer gave three days work on the roads and now they have repaired nearly all the bad places in their roads in that county. Wouldn't it be better for us to try to encourage road working in this county than to be planning some way to keep people from working them?

We thank the people who have helped on the roads, and hope they will do all they can to build up the roads instead of letting them go down, as these five lawyers hope they will do.

We notice an article in the Birmingham Age-Herald of Monday where the Chilton County Democratic Executive Committee met at Clanton on March 6th, and among other things, passed a resolution endoring good roads and better roads, and more detailed attention to roads; that L. F. Gerald was elected Secretary and W. M. Adams served as Secretary pro tem. This resoluton must have been awfully embarrassing to Adams and Gerald, as they had just been conspiring to devise some way to keep the people in the county from working the public roads, and on Thursday, just two days before, an article appeared in The Union-Banner with their names signed to it, advising the people againt good roads.

Respectfully yours,
L. H. REYNOLDS,

AUTAUGA COUNTY CITIZENS BEFORE CHILTON COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

On Tuesday at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Chilton County a delegation of Autauga county citizens appeared before the Court with a plea for Chilton's endorsement of Autauga's plans for the highway from here to Montgomery, via Prattville.

The route they want selected is the Mt. Pisgah road from Clanton south to Enterprise School House, and from there directly into Prattville through Beat 10 of Autauga county. The advocates of this route claim that it is 8 or 10 miles shorter than the present road from Clanton to Montgomery.

The Chilton County Commissoners Court designated Judge Reynolds and Mr. A. P. Vinson to take the matter under consideration and report on their findings at a later sitting of the Court.

Prattville is putting up a game fight for the trunk line highway from Birmingham to Montgomery to come by that town instead of the Elmore Station and Robinson Springs Route, or the Wetumpka route.

TRIAL OF ERNEST W. MARTIN IN COUNTY COURT MONDAY.

Ernest W. Martin of the northern part of Chilton County, was araigned in the County Court here Monday before Judge Reynolds. There were 3 charges on the docket against Martin. The first was for violating the prohibition laws, and the other two were for assault with intent to murder.

On the charge for violating the prohibition laws, the defendant was bound over to await the investigation of the grand jury under bond to be fixed at $1,000.00

For each of the other charges he was bound over to the grand jury, with the bond in each case fixed at $500.00.

Martin is one of the men who was arrested in connection with the operation of a wild cat still last week by the state law enforcement officers under Conrad W. Austin of Montgomery.

Children who have worms are pale cross, fretful and sickly most of the time. To rid the little body of these paracites WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE is an approved remedy. When the worms have been driven out the child grows strong and robust. Sold by Upchurch Drug Company.

CLANTON, ALABAMA.

MINUTES OF THE REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

Held at Clanton, Alabama, on March 6th, 1920.

Pursuant to a call heretofore issued by the chairman of the above committee, calling the committee into executive session, the following business was transacted on the 6th day of March, 1920, this being the date set for said meeting, viz:

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman H. A. Harris, and the roll call was ordered by the Chairman.

On roll call a quorum was present and the chairman announced the meeting open for the transaction of business.

Resolution marked exhibit "A" here to attached, was offered and read by J. B. Atkinson, and on motion of M. F. Lett, the same was moved to be adopted, and on second by Mr. Ralph Calloway, the same was unanimously adopted.

Judge L. H. Reynolds moved that all county officers be nominated by a primary, and that the Republican party hold a primary to nominate all county officers to be elected in the general election to be held in November, 1920, and that the committee give notice as is provided by law of such primary election to be held in conformity to law on the 11th day of May, 1920, and that all qualified white voters who believe in the traditions, principles, and platforms of the Republican party of the United States, be invited to participate and take part in said primary; said motion was duly seconded by J. B. Atkinson, and the chair having called for a yea and naye vote, the motion was unanimously adopted and the committee duly and legally ordered that the Republican party of Chilton County, Alabama, hold a primary on the 11th day of May 1920 at the several voting places in sid county for the purpose of nominting candidates for the several officers to be elected in said county in the general election in November, 1920, and that the chairman and secretary give notice of such primary election as provided by law.

On motion of Mr. B. L. Cobb, that the Republicans in each voting precinct hold at or near the voting places in same on the 11th day of May, 1920, beat mass meetings for the purpose of electing two delegates to a county delegated convention to be held at Clanton, Alabama, on the 14th day of May, 1920, for the purpose of electing 14 delegates and 14 alternate delegates to the district and state conventions; and that a delegated county convention be held at Clanton, Alabama on said 14th day of May, 1920, for said purpose. Said motion was unanimously adopted and the committee then and there duly and legally called a delegated county convntion to be held on the 14th day of May, 1920, at 11:00 o'clock, a.m. and that Beat mass meetings of the qualified Republican voters of each beat be held at 1:30, p.m., on the 11th day of May, 1920, for the purpose of electing two delegates to said county delegated convention; that such beat meetings be held at or near the voting places in each beat.

The following motion was offered by Mr. Tom Rockett, that the 1st day of April, 1920, is the last day on which a candidate can enter said primary and that on and after said date no candidate can enter under said party's candidat for office in county. Said motion having been seconded by Mr. M. F. Lett, the chair called for a yea and nay vote. The motion having received a majority yea vote, it was duly adopted. The committee then and there designated the 1st day of April, 1920, as the last day on which a candidate can qualify to enter the primary under the Republican party on May 11th, 1920.

Resolution hereto attached marked Exhibit "B" indorsing the editorial of the Union-Banner of March 4th, as is set forth in same, resolution was offered by Mr. Ralph Calloway, and after being discussd at length and having been offered and asked to be adopted, and a motion having been made by Mr. M. F. Lett, for its adoption and having been seconded by Mr. S. Jones, the question was called for and the chair stated the motion and called for a yea and nay vote and the motion was adopted without a dissenting vote.

The committee adjourned until May 14th, 1920, at 11:00, a.m.

J. B. ATKINSON, Secy.

Exhibit "A"

Whereas, on November 11, 1918, the World War was brought to a successful close and the American soldier had demonstrated together with the American citizenship, their gallantry and patriotism and willingness to make the supreme sacrifice to continue and maintain a government that stands for liberty and peace, and had successfully overthrown the Monarchial German Government, and,

Whereas, the United States is still technically at war with Germany, on account of the fact that certain high officials of our government who would ride into office on a platform and under a slogan 'He kept us out of war' have attempted to thrust upon the American people a peace treaty interwoven with the so-called "League of Nations Covenant" which if adopted would relinquish many valuable sovereign rights of this nation, and,

Whereas, the United States participated in the World war for the sole purpose of overthrowng a Monarchal government which was attempting to dominate and rule the world, and our brave gallant young American men paid the supreme sacrifice on Flanders Field that the world might be made safe for Democracy, and,

Whereas, the President of our nation heretofore demanded of the senate of the United States that said League of Naitons Covenant be adopted and ratified in the form as presented to it by him without the crossing of a 't' or the dotting of an 'i', and Whereas, under the form of our government no peace treaty can be effective unless ratified by the United States senate, and,

Whereas, a majority of the Senators in the United States Senate have not yieled to the demand of the President but have stood firm in their patriotism and love for the American flag and the supreme principles which it stands for and are not willing to surrender the sovereign rights of our nation, which our forefathers have established for our peace and prosperity:

Therefore, be it resolved by the Republican Executive Committee of Chilton County, Alabam, this day assembled at Clanton, Alabama, that we, without any reservation, approve the action taken by those United States Senators in defeating the League of Nations Covenant; that we commend them for their unalterable allegiance, patriotism and faith in the Amrican government, which they have demonstated in their fight against the so-called "League of Nations" and in their efforts to reserve to our nation those valuable sovereign rights, which we believe would be relinquished if said covenant is adopted.

Be it further resolved that we believe that when an executive official attempts to dictate to the legislative department of our government, that his act in doing so is usurpation. We again renew our faith in the Government of the United States, and unreservedly pledge ourselves to support and defend its Constitution, and believe that only through the Republican party can America be made safe for democracy.

Exhibit "B"

Resolved, that it is the sense of the Republican Executive Committee of Chilton County, in session this, the 6 day of March, 1920, that we heartily endorse the editorial stand taken by The Union-Banner of March 4th, 1920 suggesting the elimination of correspondence of a personal political nature from said newspaper.

This committee believes that such personal political matters as referred to by The Unioin-Banner in said editorial, have no proper place in the public print, and that the best interests of the Republican party in the county, and the harmony of sentiment among the people will be better fostered and preserved by preventing the publication of matters that are not of general concern to the people.

TWO NEW DOCTORS LOCATED IN CLANTON.

Clanton now has two new faces added to its already fine list of doctors. The new comers are Doctors Chas. P. Copeland and F. J. Rowland. They have come here from Birmingham, and established offices in the Hayes Building over the new post office. They are practioners of that kind of treatment which is known to the medical profession as Chiropractic.

We are glad to have these gentlemen locate in Clanton. They seem to be mighty fine fellows, and we predict for them a successful career.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE EX-SERVICE MEN.

Y. M. C. A. Offers Scholarships to Men Formerly in the Service of the Country.

The Young Men's Christian Association is still helping the boys who were called to the colors during the great war. This time they are going to give free scholarships to boys who wish to attend school and have not the proper means to meet the expenses.

The appropriation for ths county is $464.74, and is to be awarded thru a County Educational Service Committee. All men wishing to get the benefit of this plan will make application to this Board, who will pass upon their claims, discharge papers, etc. So if you are an ex-soldier and contemplate going to school or college and need some more cash to help you meet the bill, call around to see me or write me at Clanton, or to the State Educational Board, Jefferson County Bank Building, Birmingham, and either of these will be glad to help you.

THOS. E. WYATT,
Sec'y. for Chilton County.

CHANGE IN SUBSCRIPTION RATE

The Union Banner announces the following rates of subscription, which are subject to further change at any time:

One Year, ... $1.50
Six Months, ... 1.00

Hereafter no subscriptions will be accepted for less than six months, for one dollar. Unless the present crisis in news print paper is relieved by the time our present supply is exhausted, we will then be forced to raise the prce to $2.00 a year.

The editor of the Union-Banner wishes to suggest now that the discussion between the lawyers and the Commissioners Court regarding the roads comes to a close. We do not see where it is doing any good. In fact it should never have been begun in the first place. If the lawyers are not satisfied with the way Judge Reynolds and the Commissioners are running the road business, we think it should be most appropriate for them to go before that body when they meet again and there make their fight.

We believe the people of the county need to do more work on the roads instead of less, and we hope our suggestion for a road working campaign will be studied seriusly by the people to the end that we may pull it off about laying by time this summef.

MULBERRY HAPPENINGS.

We are glad to say that the people are getting over the flu and up to now we have had no deaths in this commuity.

Mr. Harrison and Miss Bratton commenced our school again on Monday morning after two weeks dismissal on account of the flu.

Farmers can be seen over the fields cutting corn and cotton stalks getting ready for another crop; but most of them you see out have got on their coats yet.

Mrs. Maud Veazey gets very nervous—well in fact she says she has nervous prostration when the postman comes along here lately. Don't be surprised. It is leap year. Girls don't let the widows beat you; but you will have to hop around right lively, for the letters are flying in all directions very swiftly.

Curt Grooms has a big old smile all the time since Birmingham visitors came to the community.

Miss Bertha Manning, accompanied by Misses Gladys Speer, Jewel Hayes and Cleo Broadhead, all from the High School in Clanton, visited home folks the week-end.

Mr. Joe Wells from Birmingham was in our community Sunday. We wonder if he thought his parents still lived here.

Guy Deshazo from Clanton was visiting his parents here Sunnay. He came down in his little cut-down Ford, and my, how he can beat them all when he takes his papa a ride.

Mr. Johnnie Coway from Coosa was visiting relatives in this comunity last week.

Brother Butram filled his regular appointment at the Methodist Church Sunday, but on aciount of the cold day and the flu there were not many attendants.

Mrs. Hama Smith of Dothan is the guest of Mrs. E. E. Upchurch.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN—A good Dodge Touring Car in A-1 condition; would exchange for small farm and pay difference, if the location is suitable. Will be in Clanton Thursday March 18th to Sunday, March 21st, and may be seen at or near Thompson & Honeycutt Shop. If you want a nice car and one that will give you service that you want you should see this one.—O. L. Mims, 1427, Peters Street, Birmingham, Ala.

FOR SALE—Jersey heifers three months to two years old; Jersey milch cows will be fresh this month. Come and look them over—E. N. Dyrhood, Thorsby, Ala. 3-4-3t.

RETROSPECTS AND PROSPETS

To the Editor of The Union-Banner:

I want to express my sicere appreciaton of your editorial concerning "personalities" in your issue of March 4th, and I also want to thank Mr. G. Cleve Powell for his contribution of the same date setting forth the position of the Southern Baptists in relation to the Inter-Church World Movement, which opens the way for a dignified discussion of these matters that should be of a good deal of interest to your readers, who by no means ALL share in the approval of the position taken by the Southern Baptists in this matter.

There is no question but that at times large bodies of people assume an attitude on matters pertaining to the public weal that seems to them eminently right and proper, but which later developments prove conclusively were not conducive to the best interests of themselves or others.

There comes vividly to my mind a cartoon published when I was a boy during the civil war. It represented the American Eagle in flight clutching by the nape of the neck and seat of his pants one of the prominent leaders of the Confederacy, who had given expression to this sentiment in a recent speech, "All we ask is to be let alone!" In recent years this same sentiment has been put forward time and again whenever a forward movement was on, notably the Hog Law, the Stock Law, the Tick Law, etc. The only point I am trying to present in the matter is that a large majority of the people who were clamoring to "be let alone" are mighty glad today that the force of public necessity and therefore public opinion created and constituted an overwhelming majorty and introduced the innovations they were opposing.

In the published article under consideration or at least the deductions from it, there seems to be a wide divergence from what has long been considered one of the main pillars of Baptist policy, which emphasizes "Personal Liberty" on the part of adherents to that faith. Each church an independent body and each member entitled to do their own thinking, with no ecclesiastical authority above them. If this is so is it not perfectly right and proper for any member of that faith and order who believe they see a opportunity for service that will help to advance the interests of the Kingdom of Christ to engage in it, without a feelng that they are committing "denominational sucide."

The Inter-Church World Movement have already demonstrated the fact that after two thousand years of Christianty who have wasted so much time, money, and life itself n building denomnatonal fences and defending sectarian pastures, only one third of the twenty four hundred million human beings now living on the earth have ever heard of Jesus Christ and His Kingdom. And more than half the population of our wonderful United States make any pretensions of Christianity.

Speaking of the economic conduct of the Baptist drive for a five-year budget, at a cost of two thirds of one per cent, how many realize that that amounts to $750,000—quite a tidy sum for administration, which is not saying that it is too much, but if the budget of the Inter-Church World movement is raised at the same rate it will mean $7,500,000 for administration which also is not too much for the work planned. One item of interest to the people of the South is the fact announced by the Associated Press under date of March 5th that a budget has been adopted by the Inter Church World Movement consisting of the sum of $2,100,000 for the erection of Hospitals for negroes in Virginia, Algbama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, North and South Carolina and Texas. A recent survey has revealed that there are only three hospitals for negroes in the Southern States, located at Nashville, Jacksonville and New Orleans.

S. E. NORTON.

CLANTON WILL BE CENTER FOR SEVENTH DAY ADVENTSTS.

An announcement of interest has been made to the effect that Clanton has been selected as the State headquarters for the Alabama Conference Seventh Day Adventists. Mr. J. F. Wright and Mr. B. C. Marshal have ing out some property deals that were made with local real estate owners. They have bought lots from Dr Gowan on First Avenue South, where suitable homes and office accommodations will be erected to take care of the workers who will be attached to the administration of affairs at this the central office for the Adventists in Alabama.

Mr. Wright is the President of the Alabama Conference and Mr. Marshal is the Secretary.

The principles and practices of the Seventh Day Adventists are not very well known here. It is a religious sect which maintain their own doctrines as to the meaning and interpretations of the Scriptures, and in addtion have a very extensive educational and missionary work in progress in all parts of the United States and the other countries of the world.

Mr. Wright, in stating his reasons for coming to Clanton with the State headquarters said that many other towns had been considered, but Clanton offered the best location and facilities, therefore the selection was made here.

The business that will be done at this central state office every year, and the building that will be done in Clanton to accommodate the workers will mean quite an addition to our town in a business way.

Temporary offices have been located in the Hayes Buildng on Seventh Street pending the erection of the buildings on the property that has been bought.

Good Health Life's Greatest Blessing

Happiness and Success Within Easy Reach of Red-Blooded Men and Women.

Anemic Condition is Unnecessary.

Good health is the most important asset of life. Without a vigorous, strong body and a keen clear mind, true happiness and enjoyment are impossible.

And yet so many women, and men too, whos misfortune it is to be pale, thn and anemic, heplessly accept this condition in the belief that robust health and real happiness are not for them.

Thousands of men and women have been restored to vigorous health and lasting happiness by Gude's Pepto-Mangan. This beneficial blood tonic contains the very properties so vitally needed to improve the blood. Pepto-Mangan, if taken for a few weeks, will enrich the blood and will create thousands of the tiny red blood cells that are so necesary to carry nourishment and strength to every part of the body.

Pepto-Mangan is safe, beneficial, and pleasant to taste. For convenience it is prepared in tablet form and in liquid, both possessing exactly the same medicinal properties.

Be sure to ask your druggist for "Gude's" when you order Pepto-Mangan. "Gude's is the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Look for the name "Gude" on the package.—Adv.

WOMEN ADOPT 10,000 ORPHANS

Connecticut to Provide Foster Mothers for Little Victims of Turks.

Ten thousand little victims of Turkish brutality are to be foster-mothered by the big hearted women of Connecticut as the result of appeals by Near East Relief, the former Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief of 1 Madison avenue, New York city. The women at a meeting voted to "adopt" that number as their share of the 250,000 homeless and starving boys and girls orphaned in the massacres and deportations.

Three hundred representatives of women's organizations attended the meeting at Hartford, at which Governor Marcus H. Holcomb presided and pleaded the cause of the stricken peoples. Another speaker was Henry Morgenthau, former U. S. Ambassador to Turkey.

Assurances that the example of these noble hearted Connecticut women will be followed by similar organizations in all the other states have been received at the headquarters of the Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York city.

IN MEMORIAM

Miss Belle Reynolds was born in Tuskegee, Ala., on April 3rd, 1846, and died at Calera, Ala., on March 4th, 1920, at the age of 74 years.

She was a daughter of beloved W. L. Reynolds of Tuskegee. She is survived by one brother, Rev. Job Reynolds of Jemison, and three half sisters, Mrs. Exa Latham of Green Pond, Mrs. Lizzie Parker of Jasper, and Mrs. Id Eddings of Garnsey, Ala. The only four children living of a family of fifteen children.

Aunt Belle joined the First Baptist Church of Tuskegee in 1865 and was baptized by Elder Newman. She lived a Christian life until she was called home.

She never married but raised two families and had started on the third one when the angels finally called her to her final resting place, after only a brief illness of bronchitis.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. M. Honeycutt of Jemison, at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon March 6th, and after a te ching sermon her remains were l to rest in the Providence Cemeter

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Gonzales, Tex.— Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days ...I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go...I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle...I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MORRIS QUALITY

A farmer's purpose in buying fertilizer is to provide food for his crop at every stage of its growth just as the crop needs it. The splendid quality of high grade packing house tankage and blood used in the manufacture of MORRIS FERTILIZERS assures just such a perfect system of crop-feeding--regardless of weather conditions.

MORRIS BRANDS produce bigger yields by keeping crops green and vigorous, and by forcing early maturity; thus preventing losses from shedding and stunting, and largely minimizing the peril of the boll-weevil. They do their best work after ordinary fertilizers have failed.

Order NOW from our agents and avoid regrets later on---but be sure to stipulate the MORRIS BRANDS.

How About Your Catarrh? Do You Want Real Relief?

Then Throw Away Your Sprays and Other Makeshift Treatment.

Why? Simply because you have overlooked the cause of catarrh, and all of your treatment has been misdirected. Remove the cause of the clogged-up accumulations that choke up your air passages, and they will naturally disappear for good. But no matter how many local applications you use to temporarily clear them away, they will promptly re-appear until their cause is removed.

S. S. S. is an antidote to the millions of tiny Catarrh germs with which your blood is infested. A thorough course of this remedy will cleanse and purify your blood, and remove the disease germs which cause Catarrh.

WADE WRITES TO FARMERS

Urges Men Who Till the Soil to Vote For Musgrove For Senate.

J. A. Wade, former state commissioner of agriculture, has addressed a letter to the farmers of Alabama, warning them against efforts now being made throughout the state and nation to allign the agricultural forces of the country with the predatory interests of capital, known as "big business."

Mr. Wade, who is a farmer, and has the interests of the farming people at heart, became widely known while in office, both because of his work in that department and by reason of the weekly farm letters from his office that were published in the state press while he was commissioner of agriculture.

Efforts to arraign organized agriculture against organized labor are denounced by Mr. Wade as the work of the enemies of both, and he says wit' out mincing words that these enemies of the farmers and the working men appear from the record to be represented in the congress of the United States by Senator Oscar W. Underwood, who was first in the lower, then in the upper branch of that body.

"What we, as farmers, want is a man in the United States senate who will represent the farming, laboring and business interests of Alabama, giving a fair deal to all, and who has the ability to vote fairly and intelligently on all National and International questions," says Mr. Wade, whose letter is here given in full:

Wade's Letter to Farmers.

To the Farmers of Alabama:

You, as readers and students of public events doubtless have observed the very evident purpose of those who seek to control the wealth of this country and even the government, itself, for their own selfish purposes, to create a breach between organized agriculture and organized labor in the coming political contests, state and national. There is an effort now being made to pit the one force against the other so as to neutralize both forces, to the injury of both the farmers and their fellow workmen who toil at other trades and crafts, forgetting that they are interdependent, that one cannot be prosperous unless the other prospers and that those who work in other callings furnish the chief market for the products of the farm.

That Senator Oscar W. Underwood through his political organization in this state is a party to this effort to array the farm against the workshop is shown by recent publications eminating from that source which seek to create in the mind of the farmer a prejudice against those who work in other fields; to turn the organizations of agriculture against organized labor.

Mr. Underwood has wandered far from the plain people of his state if, indeed, he was at any time in sympathy with those who work for a living. His sympathies and environments are all with "big business" and, even now, he is calling upon and depending upon the self-constituted "leaders" to elect him, instead of appealing to the masses.

We can make some progress with our individual efforts, but to go forward we must take advantage of issues to secure public sentiment and governmental support. When a public official is either negligent of our interests or is lined up with special interests that tend to obstruct our progress, it is our duty so to use our support as to elect officials who are better qualified to serve all of the people and who are in sympathy with our welfare.

What we, as farmers, want is a man in the United States senate who will represent the farming, laboring and business interests of Alabama, giving a fair deal to all, and who has the ability to vote fairly and intelligently on all National and international questions. After careful consideration, I believe that L. B. Musgrove is the man.

Mr. Musgrove began active life after the Civil war, a fatherless boy, the son of a brave soldier, supporting a widowed mother on the farm. His career led from the farm to an humble job in a country store, then to a place as clerk and head salesman in a larger store, then to the mining of coal. At every step, hard work and horse sense led towards success. He met problems and solved them. He was at one time known as the largest individual coal miner in Alabama and has a remarkable record of harmonious relations between employer and employes. He has been generous with his worldly goods, liberal with those with whom he has worked, and has given without stint to churches, education, farm improvement plans, vocational education and for the improvement of the public highways.

By nature and by environment, Mr. Musgrove is, in my opinion, the most suitable man that the people of Alabama can elect in the present contest, to represent all of our citizenship. He is of us, with us in heart and spirit, and his whole record of achievement is a demonstration of the fact that he has the ability to think, plan and act in a large way. He is a farmer, has never relinquished his farm, his interest in the pursuit which he followed as a boy, nor in the men who, like himself, have tilled the soil.

Farmers, be not deceived. Those who are opposing Musgrove and advocating Underwood are not your friends; their interests are not your interests nor their ideals your ideals.

(Signed) J. A. WADE.

"ZIRON IS A GOOD MEDICINE"

Ziron is a new scientific combination of pure, inorganic, official, U. S. Pharmacopeia iron, with the hypophosphites of lime and soda and other valuable tonic ingredients, recommended by the best medical authorities in the treatment of anemic conditions.

Ziron helps to put iron into your blood and this helps to build strength for you, when you are pale, weak, nervous, depressed.

Read what Mr. Sidney Fry, of Rock City, Ala., says, and then try Ziron. He makes the following statement:

"Something over a week ago I used Ziron for the first time. I was troubled with indigestion and had a spell of weakness. Ziron helped both troubles. I felt stronger and my stomach quit hurting. I really feel that Ziron is a good medicine. It surely helped me."

Your druggist will sell you Ziron on a guarantee that if the first bottle does not benefit you, he will refund the money you paid him.

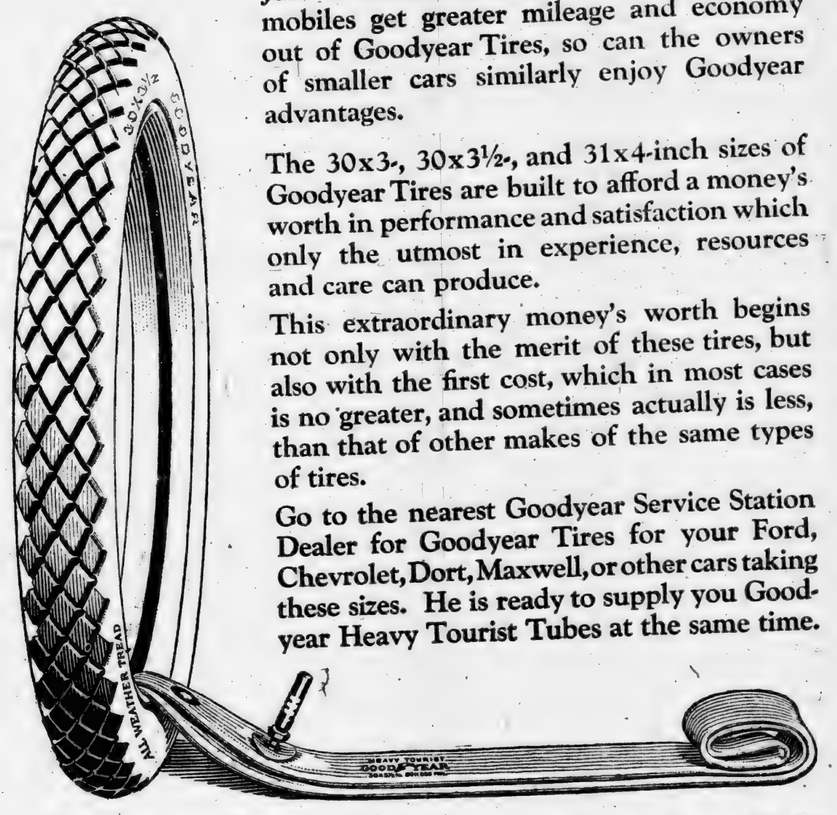
Get Goodyear Tire Economy for That Smaller Car



Just as owners of the highest-priced automobiles get greater mileage and economy out of Goodyear Tires, so can the owners of smaller cars similarly enjoy Goodyear advantages.

The 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes of Goodyear Tires are built to afford a money's worth in performance and satisfaction which only the utmost in experience, resources and care can produce.

This extraordinary money's worth begins not only with the merit of these tires, but also with the first cost, which in most cases is no greater, and sometimes actually is less, than that of other makes of the same types of tires.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for Goodyear Tires for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other cars taking these sizes. He is ready to supply you Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes at the same time.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

BAPTIST MENS BROTHERHOOD

Twenty-two men as members of the Clanton Baptist Church participated in a splendid three-course banquet including oyster cocktail which was bountifully prepared by the ladies of the church on Monday night, March 8th. The purpose of the banquet was to organize a Baptist Mens Brotherhood to foster and promote a better spirit of brotherhood and good fellowship among the brethren of the church.

The following brethren were elected as officers of the organization: President, Mr. W. Z. Hodges; Vice-Presidents, Dr. V. J. Gragg, D. C. Alrd, and Evans Edwards; Secretary, Attorney G. C. Walker and Treasurer, Mr. Tom Kemp.

A very interesting function of the occasion was the personal itroduction of every member present, by each member introducing the other member on the right of him. Several pleasantries were enjoyed during this interesting feature of the evening.

Other addresses were given by the Rev. P. G. Carter as pastor of the Church. Considerable disappointment was felt in the failure of Dr. J. T. Henderson to make connection with his train on Sunday in Kentucky in time to address the meeting, but an invitation has been extended to him to visit Clanton on Monday, March 22nd, when he will address the brotherhood. All the men as members of the church from sixteen years of age up are eligible for membership, if they are willing to cooperate in the work.

The attendance would doubtless have been twice as large but for the epidmic of flu, but those present expressed hearty appreciation of the occasion and returned to their homes feeling that they had a very enjoyable and profitable occasion. Those who did not attend missed a great treat, as the banquet served by the ladies was superb.

The next occasion of the kind will be held in about eighty or ninety days.

MRS. BERTIE L. DENNIS DEAD

Mrs. Bertie L. Dennis, wife of Tax Assessor J. N. Dennis, died at the family home one mile south of Clanton on March 6th. She was born on Feb. 24, 1893, and was the daughter of Mr. J. W. Kicker. She lived in Chilton County all her life.

The deceased leaves two daughters and one son, and an infant son one day old was buried with the mother. She is also survived by a mother and four sisters, one brother, one half-brother and 2 half sisters. Her mother is Mrs. Luna Kicker of Tuscaloosa. Her sisters are Mrs. Ada Culp of Plantersville, Mrs. Ida Popwell of Clanton, Mrs. Lois Henderson of Silver City, Miss., Mrs. Necie Evans of Tuscaloosa, J. M. Kickera....B....,qih Tuscaloosa. Her brothers are C. N. Kicker of Birmingham, W. W. Kicker of Palos, J. M. Kicker of Holt. The surviving half-sister is Mrs. Cora Mims of Clanton Route 6.

Mrs. Dennis was taken sick with flu on February 27th. She gave birth to a son on March 5th, and died on March 6th. The mother and her infant son were buried at Bethel on last Sunday. Many friends of the bereaved husband and family extend their sympathy in this, their sad hour of sorrow and grief.

ON CATTLE DIPPING

Thorsby, Ala., March 8, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to the dipping of our cattle so early in March. I have two reasons for not wanting to dip so early. The first is it is just too cold; it will certainly injure our cattle if it don't kill them. The second place, there is no ticks now. I certainly hope the managers will re-consider this and postpoon the dipping until the latter part of April or the first of May.

Yours truly,
A. F. MIMS.

This Young Lady Gained 10 Pounds by Taking Dreco.

Birmingham Girl Was Weak, Pale, Aenemic, No Appetite, Nervous Losing Flesh Daily.

Mother States It is Marvelous How Her Daughter Improved.

"I think of how a caterpillar turns into a butterfly when I see the rmarkable change that has come over my daughter in the past few weeks since taking two bottles of Dreco," declares Mrs. Fanni Bottes, who resides at Madison Station, on the North Bessemer Car Line.

"My daughter is sixteen and attends school. She has been lookng so bad for some time that I became alarmed over herc ondition. She was so thin and pale you could see the blue veins n her arms and hands very plainly; it seemed she was all nerves and had no appetite and feit tired dull and listless all the time, and her sleep was very broken.

"Knowing what Dreco has done for the aliaee family living near us, I got a bottie for my daughter and her improvement began at once. Her appeitte increased; sleep became as sound and refreshing; her cheeks took on color and that tired, dull feeling was chased awy. Her weight hs gone up ten pounds, and tos ay that our family is happy does not half express it. eW simply adore Dreco."

he good old-fashioned roots, hrbs, barks, leaves like our forefathers brwed their teas from and raised a hardy rce of people, are still recognized as the best remedies for the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood. Dreco is made from twelve herbal plants, and its action is prompt and pleasnt for mn, woman and children.

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is being especially introduced in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

JOE LOGAN SAYS HE WILL NOT DIP HIS CATTLE.

Editor Union-Banner—Please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to dipping cows.

Mr. Editor, I feel good this morning. I have got the good old time religion. It makes me love everybody but those who advocate dipping cows.

I heard the doctor tick doctor say the ticks came out in March. If they do this time we will have to take care of them in a brooder. We want the doctor to help us raise them. That gives the doctor a job, see?

Mr. Editor I hate to see the people wrought up over a thing like they are the dipping business. Our lawmakers should be more considerate in the laws they make, Chilton county officials not excepted. Good laws make good people; bad laws make bad people. The Bible says "Am I my Brother's Keeper" To that I say yes; and I am going to keep everyone from dipping that I can.

Mr. Editor, you have got mighty strict about what goes in your paper all of a sudden. I guess you are right. The best thing in the world for a county to have is a good editor and a good paper, and believe me, we've got them both.

Mr. Editor I want you to publish a part of Section 9 of the tick law, which reads as follows: When a county becomes infested with ticks, that county shall pay the expenses of disinfection of all infected places, premises, ranges, and cattle, under the direction of the state. I understand the doctor tick doctor says our county is partly infected with ticks. If that be true, which we all know it is, what right have you got doctor, to make the people dip all over the whole county?

I am going to inform you here and now, there are no ticks on my cattle and never has been, and I am not going to dip. The tick law in Section 5 says in part, dip the cattle regularly every two weeks until released from quarantine. That has been done a long time ago.

Mr. Editor I will close by saying I hope you will live always and that I my never die. J. A. LOGAN.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

MRS. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

DEES - DURBIN

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends is that of Miss Ola Mae Durbin and Walter Leon Dees of Mobile, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Grover Harris, on S. Main St., Saturday afternoon, March 6th, at 5:30 o'clock.

Bride and groom unattended, entered the living room which was artistically decorated for the occasion in cut flowers and ferns.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Maye, pastor of the Clanton Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate family and a few intimate friends.

This event brings to climax an interesting romance began several months ago in Grand Bay, where the bride was then teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Dees left immediately on the south bound train for Montgomery and Mobile, later going to Gulfport, for a short visit. They will make their future home in Atmore, where Mr. Dees holds a lucrative position.

The invited out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Redding of Mobile and Miss Willie Dees of Grand Bay.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Leora Goodgame delightfully entertined at her home in Thorsby about 35 of her friends on Friday evening March 5th, at a birthday party in honor of Miss Vernice Littleton. Miss Goodgame was assisted in receiving her guests by Miss Bertha Littleton, and her mother. After games were played there was a contest, in which Miss Nolia Robinson won the prize for the young ladies and Mr Ernest Eiland won the prize for the young men. Very delicious refreshments were served carrying out the colors, pink and white. Miss Littleton received many beautiful presents.

MRS. HINKLE HOSTESS.

On last Tuesday evening Mrs. P. T. Hinkle was hostess when she entertained at a lovely luncheon for Mrs. P. I. Hopkins of Dothan.

The table was most attractive and the center piece was an exquisite crocheted luncheon cloth with a blooming potted plant.

Mrs. Hinkle included in hospitality only few former friends of Mrs. Hopkins.

Mrs. Carrie Griffith came down from Birmingham last Thursday to attend the funeral of Ruth Roberts.

PASTORS AND WORKERS CONFERENCE HERE MONDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Pastors and Workers Conference of the Chilton County and Unity Baptist Associations was held at the Clanton Baptist Church last Monday.

In addition to the regular program of discussions, the following resolutions were adopted by the meeting:

Resolutions Passed.

1. Whereas, there are frequently put on exhibition in Clanton picture shows and other forms of amusement of questionable character, and whereas, gambling and other things of immoral nature frequently occur here, therefore be it resolved by the Chilton County Baptist Pastors and Workers Conference that we protest against these things, and respectfully request the city to control these matters.

2. Resolved, that we, the Baptist Pastors and Workers Conference of Chilton County co-operate with our State and Southern aBptist Convention in their stand against the Inter-Church World Movement.

The attendance at the meeting was good.

THE UNION-BANNER

VOLUME VIII. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA, MARCH 18, 1920. NUMBER 51.

J. L. EASTERLING'S VIEWS

Clanton, Ala., March 15.—

Editor Union-Banner:

It seems to me it is about time for the people of this county to stop and think, and deeply reason to all things. There are some people right here in Clanton, Alabama, that are trying to make politics out of dipping cattle, and every man, woman and child that knows anything knows that the people of this county have nothing to do with dipping cattle; our officials cannot affect it either way, for or against. The commissioners court is being blamed for this law, and they have not got any more to do with it than the humblest citizen in the county. They just have to do what the bosses tell them to do. They got their orders from the state and U. S. officials.

I hear some democrats cussing the law: Why don't they prevail with their democratic officers not to put us to the trouble and expense of dipping

Everybody knows that this law was passed by a democratic legislature, and there was only five Republicans in the House and Senate; and all of them I am informed, voted against this tick law. In fact, it is a full democratic measure in all respects, and this is not the first law the democrats have forced on us. We have been living under democratic rule for a long time, and there is now on the statute books laws as oppressive as the tick law.

I want to call the pople's attention to some of the acts of o ur democratic friends last yar while the war was going on. My, how they oppressed the people of Chilton County and how they did show their authority over Republicans. Dipping cows was a small matter to compare with their acts.

Republicans, I want to call your attention to what the Democras are expecting to do and what they are trying to get out of this confusion. When I say Democrats I do not mean all of them for there is only a few that are into this; but I mean a few leaders among the Democrats. They are expecting to repeat what happened in 1910. Don't the people remember what was done then? Just a few here in Clanton made the people think something awful was going to happen, and they succeeded in getting som Republicans to vote their ticket thereby defeating the Republicans and electing democrats. I do not need to mention what happened then. We were put into slavery, not only for our time but our grand children will not get out from under their burden. We are paying tribute to the tune of ten thousand dollars a year interest on the little debt they made for us to pay.

What happened? Just as soon as the confusion started the Clanton crowd that has tried so hard in the past to take our liberties got together and nominated them a ticket. They hope to fool the people like they did in 1910. If the people will stop and think they can see this is a democratic law. It acts like one. Will we let a few shrewd slick fellows here in Clanton lead us astray and repeat what happened in 1910?

Our officials have made some mistakes; they will make some more probably; but they are doing their best. Just think what a time they have had. Had to build a new court house and nothing to build it with; forced to pay the expense of dipping cattle by a democratic legislature; and with all this extra expense and high prices, we can get our warrants cashed right off the reel. Election managers do not have to go to some ticket scalper to have their warrants discounted half like we did when we had democratic officers.

I wonder how our officers manage to pay the bills as they do. I remember that Judge Reynolds told the people that if he was elected he would try to run the county affairs in a business way and try to pay warrants when they were due. Now, we have a business administration, and we ought not to let a few pretended democrats deceive us and make us think that our officers are responsible for what a democratic legislature has done. We all know that our officers have to obey the law or get down and out, and this is what a few would like to se. They are trying to get the officers tangled in some way that they can throw them out.

We have some Republicans that are trying to make politics out of this dipping business. They hope to get some votes by the agitation, but I want to tell you I am opposed to any one that is trying to get up confusion in our party. I am going to vote for men I think qualified to fill the office.

Men, where did this vat blowing-up start from? It was not back in the hills, but right in the heart of our county—at Clanton. Have you only thought of what has been going on in Clanton in opposition to the Republican party for some time. Don't you see where it all has been leading to?

I want to appeal to the Republicans to stand together and vote for the best man in the Republican primary and then lets elect them in November. We are hoping for better times; we are looking for a Rpublican president this fall.

In conclusion I want to say if the democratic party does not do better that it has done and stand for something, we will get W. W. Fox to sell it to the highest bidder for cash only, and if there is no bid, we will dump her over in the refuse pile.

Respectfully,
J. L. EASTERLING.

LAMAR JEFFERS

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS FOURTH ALABAMA DISTRICT

In this issue of the Union-Banner appears the announcement of Lamar Jeffers, of Anniston, for Congress, as representative of the 4th Congressional District, against Fred L. Blackmon, the incumbent.

Mr. Jeffers was elected clerk of the circuit court of Calhoun county in 1916, but upon entering the army resigned that office a very short time after entering upon his duties. He is a native of Calhoun county, and Anniston has always been his home. Before making the race for Circuit Clerk he had been for a number of years in the employ of the Central Foundry Company, and later manager of the Norwood Printing Company at Anniston. He is well known in Woodmen ranks and is prominently connected fraternally otherwise.

Mr. Jeffer's grandfather, Henry L. Jeffers and his father, Wm. H. Jeffers, were pioneer citizens of Calhoun county, and the family is well known throughout the district. He married Miss Ruth Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burton, of Oxford, Ala., and has one son, Lamar Jeffers, Jr. Conductor Henry Jeffers, of the L. & N. R.R., who resides at Calera, is his brother.

An active campaign will be waged by Mr. Jeffers, for this office. In a written statement given out to the press, he says:

"As the race goes on, I am going to try to make my stand clear to all the voters on the important issues of the day in which thy are interested. Our country is facing a period during which a very great many grave problems will have to be met. But in the end she will be stronger for the struggle, and surer of her strength by reason of the geat trial. No one should fear for the fundamental common sense of the American people nor for the rock-ribbed strength of the American form of government. These two, each sustaining the other, will weather the storm.

"My promises would be along the line of keeping my eyes to the front awake and alern; ready to work for constructive, practical and progressive legislation; to grapple fairly and fearlessly with the industrial, social and financial problems which must be met. One most important problem is to make the agricultural industry economical, attractive, so that it will draw into its service its full proportion of American life, and will be able to keep pace with other industry in its rapid development. One of the most effective measures in reduction of the cost of distribution has been and will be co-operative distribution, and should be encouraged by favorable legislation. We must certainly insist upon, and work for a reduction of middlemen.

"I should try, with my best efforts and my vote, to truly represent the will and desire of the people of our District.

"I oppose compulsory military training. I do not wish to see our present form of government changed into a military oligarchy, or any other form of government. The idea, in going into the war, was that German militarism would be destroyed forever. Congress did not promise that when militarism was crushed in Germany the same kind of militarism, only even larger would then be fastened upon the people of this country. The resultl would inevitably be a military oligarchy. I believe I am in accord with the views of the great body of farmers of the country who would furnish in the persons of their sons, the greatest number of recruits for such an army. They need their boys at home now, especially under the existing shortage of labor in the country. Our country needs more and uninterrupted production, both in workshop and on the farm.

"I am an ardent advocate of good roads. I would, at all times, work to help further the movement. Our efforts must go further than having fine main highways. We must encourage also the building up of the feeders, so that the people who live in the country may have access to the trunk roads.

SUPPORT THE LOCAL PAPER

(By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

There are a great many people in communities of this size who never stop to think of the value and usefulness of a local paper such as the Union-Banner to the city and county. Such a paper supplies a need that is not furnished by the great daily papers such as the Age-Herald, News, or Montgomery papers, with which we are all more or less familiar. While these papers furnish us with the current news of national events and local news of the cities in which they are published, obviously they do not and cannot keep us well informed with the local news of a commercial, social, civic or religious nature. Neither can they begin to record the events of life that occur in the smaller but none the less important communities of the county. Such is the purpose of the local paper. Its columns are open to the people of Chilton County, and any event worth recording will be given space whether the contributor is a subscriber or not.

Its Mechanical Appearance

Some county papers are such poor appologies in the contents and general apperance that many people find little encouragement to support. This however cannot be said of the Union-Banner. Few publishers in cities of this size can claim the progressive destinction in the possession of a linotype machine. By this means the progressive and enterprising publishers of the Union-Banner are able to give us a clear, readable, neatly printed paper, and on a quality of paper that far surpasses many other county papers of its size. In addition to this its proofs are carefully read and but very few typographical errors are noticeable when it reaches the subscribers.

Its Politics.

The regular readers and subscribers of the Union-Banner have observed that its politics are strongly in favor of the Republican party. Every county consists of both democrats and requblicans, and Chilton County is no exception, they cannot therefore all agree with the political views of the paper. While many will differ with the editor in their political views certainly all will concede to him the privilege of Amercan citizenship in expressing his views when not un-patriotic and disloyal to the great nation in which we live and to which we belong. Certainly everyone who has sufficient intelligence should take interest enough in the government of their country to have their own political views and convictions as to the laws, men and parties that should control it when they are not antagonistic to proper law and order and the general welfare of its citizenship. Life would be a monotonous thing if everybody thought alike, or believed alike, and but little progress would be made either politically, commercially, civically or religiousy.

Its Contents.

The contents of the Union-Banner are not made up of clippigs from other papers, neither is it filled up almost entirely with advertisements. These are essential for its financial success, but unlike many other papers they do not occupy more than reasonable amount of space. The news of its columns is largely of local interest, or of articles written either by the editor or contributed by others that are of a national or local interest and importance. Some may consider the editorials sometimes rather extreme but to everyone is conceded the right to agree or to disagree if they so desire, while the other news of local interest will be appreciated by the subscriber and are essential to its success.

A Local Enterprise.

Then it is a local enterprise, and the citizens of Clanton and community should always be willing to support and encourage as far as possible its local enterprises as well as the local merchants. This is the only logical way that we can exepct to make Clanton grow to a large industrial and influential city.

How to Support It.

There are three suggested ways by which we can effectively support it. First by advertising in it. The nominal subscription of $1.50 per year scarcely pays for the paper and the ink with which it is printed, much less the immense amount of labor involved in its production. But for the advertsing and job work the paper would be a financial impossibility. Since printers ink always pays, by advertising the merchants will not only maek a profitable investment, but make the local paper a financial success and possibility.

Second, subscribe for it. $1.50 per year is a very nominal sum for its fifty-two issues. The Union-Banner is not like our great daily papers and cannot possibly be, but is well worth the subscription price. The larger the subscription list the greater the value of its advertising.

Third, contribute to it. Articles of news are always welcome by the editor, and contributed articles on special matters of local or general interest will always be gladly received. The editors cannot be in all parts of Clanton at once, nor know all that goes on in any particular part of it. Therefore it is necessry to depend upon its subscribers and friends to supply the news.

These then are some of the reasons why we should support our local paper. Lest the motives of this article may be misconstrued, I wish to state that I was not solicited in any way either by the editors or anybody else, but am writing these lines in the interest of which seems to me a valuable necessary local enterprise. There are now some 1,000 subscribers, 200 of which live in Clanton. Shall we not increase the present list of subscribers to at least five times as many?

WEST CHILTON

Everything quiet; flu seems to be abating in this community.

Mrs. Smith of Piper was buried at Union Springs Cemetery last week. Funeral service conducted by Rev. Skelton.

Mr. A. F. Mims' proposition on cattle dipping in last weeks Banner looks wise and humane, and should receive at least consideration by the authorities.

Mrs. John Crumpton is visiting her son, Rev. M. C. Crumpton at Childersburg, whose family is sick with the flu.

It is reported that Rev. Dunlap, pastor of Macedonia, has recently married a lady at Tuscaloosa.

Mrs. Cates of Randolph visited here last week.

The gale some days ago somewhat wrecked the Freeman School building causing it to perceptibly incline.

We think the attitude of the Banner toward personalities in correspondence is wise. Those who resort to personalities are playing a loosing game.

The flu has been quite severe just north of Randolph—some deaths reported.

The talked of farmers' strike seems to be getting within hearing distance, while it may never come nearer; yet the agriculturist does not see much consistency in others so clamorous for short hours in this time of great need, while his long hours continue with no evidence of immediate decease. Give us more production and less profiteering—with no idlers in sight.

Mr. Norton's letter in last Banner contained food for thought; while time and money have been spent in building creed fences, vast numbers have never heard the way of life, while myraids of others have passed away and never knew of salvation. This would be a doleful picture, but for the light of the great plan of the ages now beaming throughout the earth, which points to the Golden Age—the sweet by and by—the beautiful day. The bow of hope spans the future—ignorance, heathenism, selfishness, disease, death and the grave must vanish before the light now due.

In order to have an ideal home community or state, some kind of an inter-church, inter-individual, inter-home, or inter-state movement will eventually be a fact,—the ideal community is not an impossibility.

Long may the Banner wave.

JOHN PARRISH DEAD

John Parrish, Sr., aged about 60 years, died at the home of his son-in-law, A. N. Miner, in Clanton on Sunday night. He had pneumonia following the flu. Burial was made in Concord Cemetery Monday.

DYNAMITERS GOING AFTER DIPPING VATS

Starting last Thursday night, and with a record of half a dozen or more each night since then, dynamiters have up to this time succeeded in demolishing nearly half of the dipping vats in Chilton County.

Judge Reynolds vat on the north side of town was the first one reported blown up. Later on reports coming in from various parts of the county told of many others that had been completely torn up. So far as we can learn it seems that every vat anywhere near Clanton has been destroyed.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday School at 10:00, a.m.
Preaching service at 11:00, a.m.
Sunbeam Band, at 2:00, p.m.
Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30, p.m.
Preaching Service, at 7:30, p.m.

Two splendid services were held last Sunday with fine congregations, the church almost comfortably filled in the morning. Really the best service during the present pastorate in spirit and worship.

On Monday, March 22nd, Dr. J. T. Henderson, Secretary of the Baptist Laymen Missionary Society will speak at the church in the afternoon to the ladies and at night to the Mens Brotherhood of the church. All the ladies of the church and community are cordially invited to hear him in the afternoon and all the men at night. Admission free and no collections. Dr. Henderson is one of the finest men in the Southern Baptist Convention and you will enjoy his addrsses. Don't fail to hear him. Afternoon at 3:00, p.m.; night at 7:30, p.m.

A special conference of the church will be held next Sunday morning following the preaching hour, when the financial situation of the church will be considered. We hope that there will be a large attendance of the members next Sunday.

Everybody is cordially invited to these services.

A REVIEW OF WILSONIAN MALADMINISTRAION

He who will take the trouble to review the more important incidents in the history of the United States during the past seven years must wonder upon what basis any democrat can still look to Woodrow Wilson as a leader.

The first act of the Wilson administration was the enactment of a tariff law which repudiated the principle of protection, and the country was assured that there would be no injury to legitimate industry. During the period of ten months that law was in effect prior to the war, our imports increased and our exports decreased to such an extent as to make a difference of $260,000,000 in our balance of trade. America was losing $26,000,000 a month in world trade. American mills and factories were closing and there was an army of 4,000,000 unemployed looking for work. Only the outbreak of war shut off imports and restored our trade.

Without any adequate reason president Wilson surrendered to some unnamed power for some unknown reason the right of the United States to grant free tolls to American coast-wise traffic through the Panama Canal. The argument that this would be discriminatory is nutenable for the reason that foreign ships were not admitted to our coast-wise trade.

Although pledged to economy and to reduction of the number of government employees, as well as to the maintenance of the competitive test in appointments, the Wilson administration increased the payrolls, ignored the classified civil service rules wherever possible, and increased expendtures.

With nearly all the rest of the world at war and with Germany beginning aggressions against the United Stats, Mr. Wilson denounced as "nervous and excited" those who urged preparedness. He dismissed from his cabinet a Secretary of War who belived in military preparation and placed a pronounced pacifist in that important position. After the sinking of the Lusitania he proclaimed the United States "too proud to fight" and on the eve of our entrance into the war he demanded "peace without as his policy in Mexican difficultes victory."

By proclaiming "watchful waiting" as his policy in Mexican difficultes Mr. Wilson invited the insulltls and injures suffered by this nation and its people. By his repeated yielding to Mexican diplomats, he acknowledged their superiority in the arts of international diplomacy. He invaded Mexico City only to retreat in ignomy he made threats only to ignore them to the humiliation of his countrymen.

By his utterances and his acts he encouraged that socialistic and paternalistic movement which undertook government operation of railroads, telephone and telegraph lines, and the ocean cables, and had its check only when in its natural development it produced the "Plumb Plan" for a government bond issue to buy the railroads and turn them ovr to the employees to operate. By his interference in behalf of anarchist Mooney and I.W.W. murderer Hillstrom, and by his assurances to the bolshevists of Russia, he pandered to the lawless element of this and other lands.

So far as he had the power and opportunity he strangled individual initiative, discharged private enterprise and approved policies that tended to decreased quantity and higher cost of production. He kept the people ignorant of their public affairs, undertook to usurp legislative functions, vacillated on every public question, and subordinated general welfare to partisan interest.

Was there ever a record so utterly devoid of redeeming features?

LOWDEN'S PLATFORM

Washington, March 11.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, an aspirant for the Republican nomination for President, has given to the public a brief synopsis of his views upon pending public issues. This platform, together with his record in congress and in the gubernatorial office, will constitute the chief basis of his campaign. The statement of principles is as follows:

The immediate return to an efficient, economical and business administration of public affairs.

Rduction of taxes.

The abolition of the numerous agencies for war purposes which have been continued at an enormous expens in time of peace.

A protective tariff measured by the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad.

A rigid insistence upon the principle of government by all people and not by any class.

The ratification of the peace treaty with reservations substantially as proposed by the foreign relations committee of the Senate.

Encouragement of agriculture and recognition on the principle that it is and must remain our most important industry.

The excluson or deportation of aliens who place the red flag or any other flag above our own.

International friendships, not partnerships.

A fearless enforcement of law and order.

A speedy return to normal conditions.

Justice to all.

HOME CANNING OF MEATS WITH THE STEAM PRESSURE CANNER.

By Helen Johnston, Asst. State Home Demonstration Agent.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

Extracts from the weekly reports of the Home Demonstration Agents show that the people are seeking information upon the canning of meats and that they are calling for meat canning demonstrations. For example Miss Mary H. Cooper of Baldwin County says in one report:

The regular meeting of the Foley Home Demonstration Club was held at the Domestic Science room in the High School. The November program was carried out and I gave a demonstration in canning meat in the steam pressure.

Meeting of the Wetzel Home Demonstration Club. The program was followed, and the demonstration was in steam pressure cookery, chicken and potatoes being cooked. They cooked in fifteen minutes and were well done. One of the members of this club has a $ay aluminum cooker. She has so far used it only for canning.

Mrs. Mabel Feagin of Bullock writes:

The Boys' and Girls' Club at Mt. Hilliard Thursday gave a splendid program. The club program was used to which several numbers were added. the whole school taking part. A steam pressure canner demonstration was given. The canning of meat was like demonstration.

Mrs. Louise Riley of Mobile County writes:

I took a long trip to get in touch with the officers of three of my clubs. I found I will need to order at least 2000 tin cans, for family use. Two pressure canners will be ordered as soon as vegetable canning time comes on. This will be the first of a number as some families are saving young beeves to can.

The latest Annual Report upon Home Demonstration Work in the State of Alabama shows that last year Home Demonstration Agents gave 146 steam pressure demonstrations and that 64 steam pressure canners were bought.

Dr. Frants P. Lund of the United States Department of Agriculture, Office Extension Work South, says in his bulletin, Home Canning of Meats and Sea Foods with the Steam Pressure Canner:

Steam-presure canners for home use are generally made of steel boiler plate riveted together and supplied with cast-iron covers, that can be securely fastened to the retort, or they may be made of cast aluminum. Steel canners can be had either with or without a suitable heating device. They can be used over a wood, coal, or gas stove or over a brick furnace, just as they can be used over several types of gasoline (under pressure) burners. The aluminum pressure canners, common in many homes where they are not only used for canning under steam pressure but for every-day cooking, may be heated successfully on common wood, coal, gasoline or kerosene stoves as well as where more intense heat is used.

The directions in Dr. Lund's bulletin are simple and the recipes excellent. He shows how an animal may be canned so that absolutely no part of it is wasted.

If you are interested in the Canning of Meats, write to your County Home Demonstration Agent.

POINTERS IN DAIRYING.

1. The dairy is a factory, and, like all factories, the larger the production of each machine (the individual cow) the lower is the cost of production.

2. Only by keeping records of production can the value of individual cows be known.

3. The feeding of scrub cows and the "scrub" feeding of good cows are two of the commonest mistakes in dairying.

4. Save all heifer calves from the best producing cows in the herd to replace the unprofitable cows.

5. Use a good sire. Without a good sire improvement in the herd is impossible.

6. Get rid of the unprofitable cows in the dairy. The milk scales and Babcock test will point them out.

7. Proof that kindness and regularity in milking and feeding is appreciated by the dairy cow will be shown in the larger flow of milk.

8. Grow plenty of feed for the dairy herd. Feeding from the sack takes the biggest part of the profits.

THORSBY RED CROSS AND BOY SCOUTS

The Thorsby branch A. R. C. held their regular meeting March 9th. Reports showed work along various lines. Community health committee have placed two large covered receptacles at convenient places on the street, in which to place refuse other than paper instead of throwing it on the sidewalk. School health committee reported twenty-eight pupils in public school as performing the chores of "The Modern Health Crusade." Civilian Relief Committee reported arrangements made, to a certain extent, for help and care in cases of sickness.

The boy scouts are loyal helpers of A. R. C., and have recently canvassed and secured endorsement from most of the merchants to following:

Notice:

One of the laws of the boy scouts is "keep clean." A scout must stand for a clean body, clean speech and a clean life, or he does not live up to the requirements of his organization.

One of the laws of the Town of Thorsby is "Keep our streets clean." Paper is a good thing. It is good to write notices upon; books are made of paper, it makes a good wrapper for candy, boots and neckties; but paper is out of its place when it is thrown or swept into the streets. Scattered dirty paper indicates that somebody is not keeping the law; somebody does not care, somebody is indifferent, somebody is failing to live up to the requirements of a good citizen. Wouldn't it be a good thing for us to clean up our streets and around the buildings and keep them clean by not throwing or sweeping paper into the streets?

As citizens of Thorsby, the boy scouts are ready to help clean up the streets. WILL YOU HELP We believe everybody will help. So come along.

ENJOYS HIS 3 MEALS A DAY

Mr. Wooten Thinks Much of ZIRON Because It Made Him His Old Self Again.

Sick people do not get much out of life. In order to enjoy your meals, to do your work well, you must be strong and healthy.

Pale, weak, nervous people frequently need iron to enrich their blood and to restore vitality to their system, and a good way to supply the iron is to follow the example of Mr. Clayton Wooten, of Scotland, Ga., who used Ziron Iron Tonic and has this to say about it:

"I have taken Ziron according to directions and I can truthfully say that it is a fine tonic. It has done me all the good. Since I began taking it, I have gained eight pounds in weight and enjoy eating three meals a day. I shall do all I can to recommend Ziron."

Try Ziron! Your druggist sells Ziron on a guarantee to refund your money if the first bottle fails to benefit. You cannot lose anything, but very likely will gain much, by getting a bottle of Ziron, today!

Your Blood Needs ZIRON

RELATES HOW HE GAINED 10 POUNDS IN TWO WEEKS

Mobile Man had Suffered from Stomach Trouble so that nothing agreed with him—Appetite failed and couldn't sleep.

Declares that after taking Dreco two weeks, his appetite returned, Stomach improved, Liver became Active and Pains Left his body.

"The change in me is remarkable since I have been taking Dreco. I feel like a different person, and my friends remark on how much better I look," said Mr. A. Drooks, of 107 Emanuel St., Mobile, Ala.

"My stomach was in such shape that my food did not digest, but turned to gas and bloated me up. Seemed I got no strength from what I ate and I began to get thin and lost weight.

"My kidneys also got out of order, and I'd have continual pains in my back, which hurt me to bend over or stoop about. I also had a tight feeling in my chest. The first bottle of Dreco helped me, so I got the second one and after I had been taking this medicine for two weeks, I had actually gained ten pounds. My food was digested with no gas forming, but seemed to give me strength. The pains over my kidneys passed away—also the pains in my chest. Dreco certainly deserves all the proise being given it."

When a person is sick, he certainly has to take medicine to get well, and Dreca is proving every day that it aids a disordered stomach, relieves gastritis, strengthens the kidneys, cleans off the liver, overcomes constipation and takes the pains out of rhumatic joints.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is beinb especially introduced in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

PEPTO-MANGAN MAKES RICH AND RED BLOOD

Helps Ratore Thin, Run-Down Men and Women to Vigorous, Full-Blooded Health.

RECOMMENDED BY PHYSICIANS

Sold in Loquid or Tablet Form—The Name "Gudes" the Guide to The Genuine.

It is true saying that your health is only as good as your blood. Good, rich blood manifests itself in a healthy, natural complexion; clear, keen eyes; tireless and enthusiasm; and an abundant supply of reserve force.

And just as positively does poor, thin blood directly influence the entire system. Pale, sallow complexions dull eyes, listless step, languidness, tiredness, worn-out feeling, general dejectedness and unhappiness—all the positive signs that the body is not receiving its proper nourishment thru the blood.

Pepto-Mangan helps restore vigorous health, because itc ontains the very elements so much needed by the blood to enable it to perform its functions and supply the body with nourishment, energy, and strength.

For your convenience, Pepto-Mangan is prepared in tablet as well as liquid form. Both possess exactly the same medicinal value.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan, and that is "Gude's". If the name "Gude" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Adv.

The World's Largest Production of Tires on the Smaller Cars Alone

We call attention not so much to the size of this average daily production as to the extent of the effort we put into the making of these 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

The separate factory we have devoted to their manufacture is not only the largest of its kind in the world, but it makes fully effective that experience and resourcefulness which have produced the tires most popular on the higher-priced cars.

No tires bearing the Goodyear name contain a higher relative value than these tires for Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell and other cars requiring the sizes mentioned.

If you own one of these cars, go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He has them.

WILSON SIMPLY NORMAL AGAIN

TREASURY DEPARTMENT IMPUDENCE

Income tax returns this year contain the advice, "Pay your tax in full when you file your return, thereby reducing the cost of collection and avoiding possible anonyance to you." The treasury department has no authority whatever in putting such language before a taxpayer. In form it is an imperrative order to pay the tax when th return is filed, and carries an implied threat that unless that is done the taxpayer will be subjected to "annoyance." The present income tax law as passed by congress gives individual taxpayers the unrestricted option of paying the tax when the return is filed or in quarterly installments thereafter. It is not the business of the Secretary of the Treasury to attempt to derpive taxpayers of that privilege. It is but another effort on the part of he executive department to amend or extend without warrant of law legislation enacted by congress and the Secretary should be called sharply to account for his impudence.

THE LEVIATHAN NEARLY LOST

It appears that agents of the syndicate that sought to purchase the former German ships already own the Leviathan, formerly the Vaterland, and had hoisted their house flag over her as a sign of ownership when the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia enjoined the sale. From all the facts of the transaction that have so far come to light it looks as though the proposed sale was nothing less than a trecherous surrender to England at a fraction of their worth of some of the best ships in the world—a loss that would seriously cripple our merchant marine and correspondingly enhance the sea strength of our greatest rival.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO MR. PALMER?

In New Jersey a man has been sentenced to from two to ten years in prison and fined $1,000 for advocating the overthrow of the government by violence. It is too bad that the Federal Government, in matters of this kind must look for protection to the states themselves. If the Attorney General and his Department of Justice had the courage to enforce the law as they find it, instead of calling for additional legislation, they could put an effective stop to seditious acts and utterances.

THE CABINET DEMOBILIZED

With the retirement of Secretary Lansing the cabinet is demobilized, and each member confines himself to the duties of his particular departmnt regardless of whether its activities are co-ordinating with that of other bureaus to the wheeled chair, all his thoughts centered on beating certain European diplomats who are trying to straighten out an annoying situation on their own continent. Apparetly the most remote subject Cary T.Grayson, D.S.M., who will determine when and for how long the President may confer with his cabinet, does not permit himself to be perturbed over the situation in the least.

Dr. P. C. Wilson of Montevallo was a visitor to Clanton last Sunday. Calvin is now engaged in the drug business at Montevallo, being manager of the Upchurch-Wilson Drug Co.

MRS. EDWARDS DEAD

Mrs. Edwards, the wife of Uncle Dick Edwards of West End ,died at the family home on Tuesday night. She was probably the oldest woman in the county; she would have been 99 years old in a few days.

The deceased lady was connected in her relationship with several families in the county, leaving at her death a large number of children, grand children, great grand children and great great grand children. She was the mother of Mr. J. J. Armstrong and Mrs. A. C. Poole and Mrs. G. P. Aldridge, all of whom survive her. The remains were buried in the Clanton Cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

SPENT FORTUNE IN SEARCH

"I spent $1,800 in 7 years treating with physicians, some specialists, costing me $10 a visit, only to at least say that nothing could be done for me, that I had cancer or ulcers of the stomach. I suffered awful pains in the stomach, but after taking a few doses og Mayr's Wonderful Remedy these all disappeared and for 3 years am feeling fine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and innestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convnce on money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Co.

Mss Mary Lizzie Rich has been at the point of death for the past week. She is expected to die at any monent.

MRS. L. O. DYER DIED

On last Wednesday night occurred the death of Mrs. L. O. Dyer, wife of ap rominent lumber dealer of Stanton.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Sunday, March 14th was very pleasant and most of the church goers took advantage of it by attending services. The Sunday School at Salem was well attended. Many out-of-town visitors visited the Sunday School, and seemed well pleased with how the lesson was taught and reviewed.

The pastor, Rev. R. C. Mixon, is now convalescent and occupied the pulpit. He preached a very impressive sermon on the subject of selfishness. At the conculsion of the sermon two members were added to the church.

Miss Young, teacher at Hopewell, was introduced after the collection by Prof. Draper. Miss Young, in commenting on the sermon showed how God cannot use a person if he or she is selfish. She made a fine illustration of the potter and the clay, showing how the potter in molding the clay into vessels trim it down to the size se sees fit thus showing how God sometimes sends troubles and affliction on a man to humiliate him, in order to use him.

On Monday evening our school was visited by Prof. Rakestraw, of Tuskegee. Prof. Rakestraw is working in behalf of the negro farmers' conference. The organization had its beginning years ago, during the life time of the illustrious Booker Washington. Its object is to stimulate the production of farm products, especially the food crop.

It puts on exhibition at various points during the year the farm products of the negro. It is a source of education to many negroes by helping them to improve their methods of agriculture. Prof. Rakestrow will lecture for us on Thursday night, March 18th at the school house, in connection with a concert to be given by the school glee club. The white people of the city are cordially invited on Monday night 'tohdnHuMw board and the ladies improvement society met in joint session at the schoolhouse to formulate plans for another rally to come off on April 11th, on which time we hope to liquidate most of our debts. Quite an enjoyable time was spent.

REFUGE

Health of this community is very good at present. Most of the people have had the flu, but they are better now.

Our Sunday School is moving along nicely, with about fifty on roll.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Johnson last Saturday night.

Mrs. A. H. Mims spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Nancy Mims.

Miss Nora Connell spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Lurline Mims.

Mr. Clarence Mims spent Sunday with Mr. Monroe Mims.

We are glad to say that the people have about got their land ready for planting.

HOW TO ARRIVE AT YOUR INCOME TAX

First, take your income;
Add wife's income;
Divide by oldest son's age;
Add your telephone number;
Subtract your auto license number.
Add electric light bill;
Divide by number of kilowatts;
Multiply by your father's age;
Add number gold fillings in teeth;
Add your house number;
Subtract wife's age (approximate);
Divide by number of aunts you have
Add the number of uncles,
Subtract number of daughters.
Multiply by number of times you have gone up in an airplane;
Subtract your best golf score;
Add a pinch of salt;
Then go out,
And borrow the money to pay the tax.—Boston Record.

A PARAMOUNT QUESTION

Dear Editor:

I heartily approve of your editorial some weeks ago on writing up personalities. I feel that the question on which I have been and am now writing is in no wise a personal one, but a question in which I know religious liberties are involved. I am not here teachng doctrine neither am I discussing the denominational question. I am a missionary Baptist, but I don't fall out with others for not seeing as I see or believing as I believe.

I stand as do most all other men who stand for true Christian progress—for an absolute separation of denominations. And I think we ought to organize against any movement that seeks to undermine and teardown these destinctions, such as does the Inter-church world Movement.

Just noticed Mr. Norton's article of last wek's issue of the Banner. Yes, Mr. Norton, each church is an independent body and each member has a right to think for himself, but when a man steps aside and thinks for himself and seeks for himself, tries by himself to entangle his people with only a social mess as did John R. Mott, is worthy of nothing but an alien stamp upon his forehead, showing his inability as a Christian. As John R. Mott is at the head of the Inter-Church movement and was once a prominent Baptist, let us see his conduct for the past few years and see him as he is. When the young men of our land were lodged in the various cantonments of the country, the various churches had a heart-felt desire that these boys should be cared for religiously, so they sent real pastors to teach them and instruct them. Mott didn't like that, neither did the Roman Catholics; so that Mott went hand in hand with two Catholics and one Jew before Secretary Baker and said, we will take this camp work under control if your honor will but permit. So that favor was granted (this included the Y. M. C. A. work). What next?—In but a short time every pastor in the camp who refused to submit to the dictates of the Y. M. C. A. managers (which mant teach no church doctrine but church union or inter-church union) was sent home. So now, the war is over and Mott thinks he has won a great inter-church fame. Now, he being financed by some of the New York millionaires, the inter-denominational Sunday School having paved the way, have launched an innter-chcurch campaign. The evidence is that he hopes to be the Protestant Pope of America some day, but his plans will be defeated by the spirit of God through the Christian stand-patters.

Dear Editor, may we all as finite beings of earth try more and more to discharge our every Christian duty so that the light above may more clearly be seen in us that this world may be a better place in which to live and that the future generations may be better men and women than we are. This is my sentiment and wish.

G. C. POWELL,
Clanton, R. 1.

P.S.—I don't think it is worth while for any further duscussion on this question through your columns just now. If I think it necessary I will give a brief outline of the inter-church work—what they propose to do and how they intend to do it later on. G.C.P.

CATTLE DIPPING LAW

Following is the law passed by the Legislature of Alabama, regarding the dipping of cattle:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Alabama:—

1. That State-wide tick eradication shall be takn up in all counties that shall be at any time partially or completely tick-infested, under the State live stock sanitary board as hereinafter provided in this act, and as provided in all other laws or parts of laws of Alabama not in conflict with this act.

2. That the county commissioners or county board of revenue of each county in Alabama shall provide or install or build, in their respective counties, the necessary number of concrete dipping vats and also provide the necessary chemicals, solutions and all other materials required for making, filling, replinishing and operating the required number of dipping vats. Each county shall furnish all the materials required for keeping the requird vats filled with a standard tick killing arsenical dip having the composition and strength as required by the regulations of the Alabama live stick sanitary board and of the United States bureau of animal industry.

3. That the required number of dipping vats in a county shall be determined by the state veterinarian and the state federal inspectors in charge of tick eradication in the county. The required number of dipping vats shall be based upon the extent of area infested or exposed to tick infestation in a county. As a rule vats shall be four miles apart unless unforseen emergencies require them to be otherwise. Provided that any person who already has a dipping vat be allowed to us the same for dipping his own neighbor's cattle under the supervision of the regular authorities.

4. That the county commissioners or county board of revenue in each county shall pay a reasonable salary to as many inspectors as shall be required in the county. An inspector shall have at least twelve vats and the required number to guard county lines, look after isolated vats, quarlines, look after isolated vats, quarantined ranges, and premises and quarantined cattle. The inspectors paid by the county shall be commissioned as state inspectors and work under the direction of the state veterinarian or the state federal inspector in charge of the county.

5. That every person, firm, company or corporation having in possession or in charge as owner, agent or otherwise one or more cattle in a tick infested quarantined county or on a tick infested or quarantined premise, range, farm or pasture, that has not been released from state and federal quarantine, shall dip the cattle regularly once every two weeks on the day and at the vat specified by the inspector in charge of the vat most convenient or nearest to the cattle. One printed or written dipping notice, given by the inspector to the person or persons in charge of or in possession of the cattle shall be legally sufficient to require the owner, agent, firm or person in charge to dip the cattle regularly every two weeks until released from quarantine.

6. That all horses, mules and asses kept in tick infested lots, pens, pastures or ranges shall be dipped regularly every two weeks in the same way and under the same requirements as for cattle, until released from State or Federal quarantine.

7. That all stray cattle, horses, mules and asses running at large or quarantined or tick infested ranges, commons, pastures or fields shall if such cattle, horses, mules and asses have not been dipped as provided herein, shall be taken up by the sheriff, quarantined and dipped regularly once every two weeks, and fed and cared for at the expense and risk of the owner of the animals. The sheriff shall apply to a justice of the peace or to the county court to have the animals condemned as strays and sold at public auction. The justice of the peace or the county court shall post notices of the sale of the animals in three public places in the precincts where the stock is taken up, and in one county paper, giving the time and place of the sale. The sale shall not be made until ten days after the notices have been posted and printed. The proceeds of the sale shall go to pay the costs of taking up, feeding, confining, selling and dipping, and if there be a balance it shall go into the county treasury to be applied on tick eradication. Every one of the animals mentioned in this section whose owner cannot be found by the inspector shall be regarded as a legal stray and subject to the provisions of this act. The owner may redeem the animals within thirty days after the sale by proving ownership to the court and paying all costs.

8. That no ticky cattle, horses, mules or asses shall be driven, moved or transported in any way into Alabama.

9. That the county commissioners or county board of revenue in a county released from state or federal quarantine shall provide and pay a reasonable salary to one or more inspectors or as many inspectors as shall be required to guard exposed county boundary lines, to look after local quarantined premises, ranges, pens, lots, pastures or fields and when necessary, supervise the filling and replinishing of dipping vat, the dipping of quarantned cattle, mules, or asses. When a county becomes reinfested with ticks that county shall pay the expenses of disinfection of all infested places, premises, ranges and cattle under the direction of the state veterinarian or state inspector according to law and the regulations of the state live stock sanitary boaord.

10. That if any section of this act shall be legally found invalid or unconstitutional the remaining sections shall not be unconstitutional or invalid.

11. That all cars in which animals are transported in Alabama shall be cleaned and disinfected at the expense of the railroad company after each time of use or before the cars are used to transport other animals.

12. That if a county court of commissioners or a county board of revenue shall fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of sections 2, 4 and 9 of this act each member shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction each member shall be fined not less than one hundred dollare ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00.)

13. That if any court of county commissioners, or board of revenue of a county fail or refuse to make adequate appropriations, or provisions to execute in good faith this law, any state inspctor or owner of cattle may apply to a circuit judge for a writ of mandamus to compel a faithful compliance with this and all other laws cognate hereto, and the judge shall hear the application at any time, or place where he may be after one days notice to the members of the court or board, and a failure to obey promptly the command of the writ shall be a misdemeanor, as well as a contempt.

14. That all laws and parts of laws not in conflict with this act shall remain in full force and effect and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

15. That each failure to dip quarantined animals after receiving legal notice shall be a misdemeanor. Each movement of quarantined animals without a permit from an inspector shall be a misdemeanor. That it is not required to establish the ownership of quarantined animals in order to convict a person in charge of the animals for failure to bring the animals to the vat for dipping them.

16. That any person or persons, firm, corporation or company violating the provisions of this act except as provided in sections 12 and 13, shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each and every violation.

17. That this act shall become effective immediately after approval by the governor.

Approved! February 7, 1919.

DEATH OF MISS LIZZIE RICH

On Thursday morning, March 18th the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rich and bore the spirit of their daughter, Lizzie, to the Home Above.

She had been sick about three months when God saw fit to call her from us. She bore all her suffering with patience and was ready to go when He called her.

She leaves a other, father, and brother and a host of friends and relatives to mourn after her.

She joined the Baptist Church at Maple Springs at an early age and lived a Christian life up to her death.

She was laid to rest in the Poplar Springs Cemetry, to await the coming of her loved ones. The funeral services were conducted by Brother J. D. Hughes, which was sweet to the ears of all who were present.

We extend o ur deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones in their sad hour.

REV. F. W. C. BICE IS NO MORE

Bro. F. W. C. Bice, who died on February 26th, 1920, was the elder son of Rev. I. Bice. He was born in 1880 and joined the Baptist Church in his 19th year, and lived a consistent Christian life until his death.

Bro. Bice began preaching in 1906 and was ordained to the full work of the ministry, at Shiloh Church, at the hands of his father, Rev. M. J. Parrish and Rev. T. J. Deason; and has since then been regularly engaged in pastoral work. At the time of his death he was pastor of Shiloh and Pleasant Grove Churches, and Milton Church in Autauga County.

Bro. Bice was highly esteemed by his Christian brethren and bid fair to be one of the leading ministers of the state; but for some cause unknown to us his life was cut short. He was taken sick, and all that loving hands and faithful physicians could do was done for his recovery, but all failed.

He leavs a wife, father, mother, five sisters and one brother.

The bereaved wife and loved ones have the sympathy of the writer, for he knows what it is to give up a loving companion. We commend you to Him who doeth all things well.

Funeral was held at Shiloh Church by the pastor, Rev. Cook, of Maplesville, and then burial with Masonic honors. T. J. DEASON.

GEORGE SORRELL KILLED BY FALLING FROM BUILDING

On last Saturday George Sorrell, a citizen of Clanton, who was working at his trade as carpenter, at the steel plant in Ensley, fell from the roof of a building on which he was working, and was killed instantly. He was engaged in removing the roofing from the building and in some way lost his balance and fell two or three stories to the pavement below. His skull was crushed when he fell to the pavement.

Mr. Sorrell was a native of this county, having lived here practically all his life. He was a son in law of Mr. — Jones. He leaves a wife and three children.

The remains were brought to Clanton on Sunday evening and carried to the family home, and on Monday burial was made in the cemetery at New Salem Church.

The deceased was a good man and had many friends in Clanton and throughout the county who will be sorry to hear of his suddn death.

Elbert Littlejohn wants to buy a lot of dogwood timber. He has an advertisement elsewhere in this paper. Look it up and see him if you have got anything in that line you want to sell.

Mr. C. C. Crumpton, of West Chilton, father of Dr. Crumpton, was a visitor to the family of his son in Clanton last Sunday night. Mr. Crumpton is one of those good old men whom it is a great delight to meet, and it was the pleasure of the editor to talk with him at length while he was here.

Clean-up-week!

That's next week in Clanton!

And you are expected to clean up!

We don't mean clean up and get a hair cut and a shave, particularly, of course you may do that if you want to or whether you want to or not—if your wife says so.

Clean up the streets, clean up the alleys, clean up the back yard, clean up the front yard, — clean up the whole bloomin' town, so we will have a place fit to live in .

Wednesday and Thursday of next weeks are the days on which the cemetery is to be cleaned up. All who are interested in it are expected to be on hand to help in putting that sacred place in proper order.

The kind of clean up we are talking about here is clean up our town. This town has some dirty unsightly spots in it that must be cleaned up. Next week has been designated as the time to clean up these places and everybody is going to come across and do their part in the work.

There is one particular thing we have always noticed about clean-up campaigns that have been put on by this town, viz: The place never looks much cleaner after we have had clean up days than it did before. That is not going to be the case this time. There is going to be some sign made.

We are just wondering who it is in Clanton, if there be such a one, that will let next week go by and not join in the clean-up campaign by cleaning up his premises. We are going to look out for that neglectful one, and if we locate him, there is a special column write up waiting for the bird in our next issue. By the way, the other folks might also look out for him and report it to us if you happen to see him first.

There are some individuals who own property in Clanton that needs cleaning up the very worst, who will not pay any attention to this clean up campaign, unless someone presses the subject upon them. Such people as this should be informed by a committee of citizens that they are expected to clean up their premises next week. Let us everyone urge upon our neighbors that next week be made truly a clean-up week so that when the weeks is past we can look back and see some signs where we came along with the hoe and rake.

As one stands on the steps of our magnificent court house and gazes out across the street there is seen a space of very unsightly appearance that surely ought to be cleaned up and put in order. It would make the town look much better to those who visit our seat of government or who pass along the highway on pleasure or business. Then right back of the court house there is another space that could be improved in appearance with a very little effort.

Walking on down main street we find the biggest eye sore in the whole town when we come to the vacant Kicker lot, all scattered and strewn with wood piles, saw mill slabs, pine bark and most anything else you might mention. That place ought to be looked after next week. It would mean a very great improvement in the appearance of the town street.

The way to make clean-up week successful is for every person to take it upon himself to see that his premises are made clean. Think of what a small matter that is, and yet how big it is in meaning for Clanton if everybody in the town will do that next week. It is only a small matter for every merchant and business man to see to it during next week that his clerks and helpers not only sweep the store floors, but sweep on out into the alleys and from the alleys on to the streets, and from the streets on to the garbage wagon, and then to the trash pile down in the swamp. Every person in Clanton can clean up his premises thoroughly next week and never miss a stroke in the pursuit of business Those who do not do it are just simply lazy and have no pride in the town; the town would never miss them if they would move away, only that it might stand a chance to get along better. But we have no such lazy careless citizens. We are going to clean up this town and we are going to do it next week.

Did you know that if the men of this town were as good citizens in every way as the women, this town would be about 579 per cent better than it is? Well, we believe that is true. The women have tried year after year to get us to help them clean up this burg in the spring and make it fit to live in, and we have never yet succeeded in making as much as a sign. When clean-up day comes the women folks get us up early, cook breakfast and rush us out into the back yard and line us up with hoes and rakes ready for the fray. First one and then another find excuse after excuse to get away to town, and by the time number nine gets here the whole force of loafers are there on their posts to let her by. The rest of the morning is of course consumed in hanging around the post office and the drug tore. We go home to dinner with all kinds of lies on our lips to tell the good woman, who have already quit and given up in despair, and managed to cook a little dinner for her worthless husband This town needs men, not more men but better men, men who will help the women make this town a creditable town and a clean town.

Just a word to the returned soldiers, who are now in business in Clanton. You remember how, about a year or so ago we were doing service on the street detail every morning, don't you And you remember how our company streets and regimental areas were all kept clean, do you not? Now, as you stand in your door and look up and down the alleys all strewn with trash of every description, just think what a feeling you would have if your company commander should happen along and see how poorly you have cared for your premises. Some of us would scarcely escape the guard house I expect.

Now. let us go back to those days of the hoe and rake and make our stores and alleys and streets as clean as we did our tents and our company streets. We really have more pride in our home town than we ever could have had in any training camp. Why do't we show it then? We will show it, by joining in this clean up campaign next week with a whole-heartedness that will enlist every person in Clanton and make the town a clean one.

In compliance with several requests from people over the county, we are publishing the entire cattle dipping law of Alabama again this week. We hope the people will read and study the law and properly construe the same and let their actions be governed accordingly. In this connection we wish to say that we do not publish this law in order to start a discussion of cattle dipping. The columns of our paper are not open for any more discussions on that subject. We think the discussions on dipping should be abated rather than extended.

Jim Grant was shaving last Thursday at dinner, and when he thought about it being Thursday and time for the week's issue of The Union-Banner to be out, he straightway laid his razor aside, reaching for his hat and set out for the post office to get his paper. Mr. Grant appreciates this paper like we think a citizen of Chilton County ought to. But by the way, you missed a sight if you failed to see him as he came down the street with his face just half shaved.

Ben Duke of Route 4 was here last Thursday and got us to write him a letter to a firm out in Colorado ordering some fine cantalope seed. When we refused to take pay for writing the letter Ben volunteered to bring to us one of the cantalopes when they materialize. If anybody alse wants us to write letters for them on those terms, come along right now so you will have time to get in your seed for watermelons and cantalopes for summer. But whether or not you get us to write you any letters, you need not hesitate to bring us the watermelons when they are ripe.

MR. ABBOTT FOR COMMISSIONER

Our readers will notice in this issue of the paper another candidate has come out for the nomination as county commissioner on the Republican ticket in the third district in opposiiton to the present commssioner, Mr. Herrod. Mr. Herrod is also a candidate to succeed himself. The candidate who opposes him is Mr. J. T. Abbott of Pletcher. We are not very well acquainted with Mr. Abbott. He is a young man who is live and energetic, and takes much interest in the progress and welfare of his people down in his section of the county. His friends who know him well assure us that he is a good man and will make a good county commissioner. In this race the people of the county will be called upon to show whether they endorse Mr. Herrod's official career of the past and if they want him again, or whether they had rather turn his authority over to the other man. It makes a situation which will be watched with interest, not only in the third district but throughout the enire county.

HON. J. O. THOMPSON IS GIVEN AUTHORITY AS WOOD MANAGER

Senator Moses Stands by Original Appointment and Thompson Returns Happy.

Washington, March 22.—Joseph O. Thompson of Birmingham will manage the presidential campapaign of Gen. Leonard Wood in Alabama.

Senator Moses of New Hampshire, in charge of the Wood campaign in the south, so stated, and unequivocally stated today.

Thus assured, Mr. Thompson returned to Alabama.

Senator Moses, furthermore addressed letters to Frank H. Lathrup of Birmingham and other prominent Republicans in various sections of the state to continue their plans leading to organiation of Wood clubs.

Senator Moses informed Mr. Thompson that his formal decision of February 4 was that Mr. Thompson was to manage the fight in Alabama and will stand. He added that he was not the kind of a man who makes an agreement and then permits its vitiation. So Mr. Thompson, certain of his ground when he come, left Washington elated, and with determination to secure an instructed Alabama delegation for Wood.

Just what action Frank Hitchcock will now take us unknown. When he, some days ago, secured control of the Wood machinery, he dispatched a wire to Pope M. Long of Jasper saying that if Thompson was representing Wood he was doing so without authority. This telegram led to the appointment of Dallas B. Smith as Wood Manager in Alabama.

Republicans here, aware that Senator Moses is in charge of the south, recognize his authority in matters of priority in the south, and are certain that Mr. Thompson will now proceed with his work untrammeled and unhandicapped.

It is indicated that as a result of Mr. Thompson's effort to secure a delegation instructed for Wood, he will force all other prominent republicans, many of whom desire an uninstructed delegation, to take position under one of the several republican flags now flying. Mr. Thompson was accompanied by William Vaughan of Birmingham and other Alabama republicans.

This Planter Solves Your Planting Problems

Farmers who are making the biggest profit, one year with another, are farmers who diversify their crops—they don't "put all their eggs in one basket." Diversified farming, including the growing of legumes, peanuts, velvet beans, soy beans, etc., while safe and profitable farming, also builds up the fertility of the soil.

The remarkable popularity won by

during the past two years is due to the fact that it meets, as no other planter does, the requirements of present-day farming.

As a peanut planter it stands without a rival. It plants peanuts accurately, without cracking or crushing them.

Having a double hopper, this planter enables you to plant two kinds of seed—corn and velvet beans, for example—in the same row, or in alternate rows, without removing the planting plates or emptying the hopper.

This planter is easy for your mule to pull and easy for you to handle in turning at the ends of the rows because, while amply strong, it is not heavy or clumsy.

You can't appreciate how different and how superior the Avery Shawnee Duplex is without seeing it. Drop in and let us show you.

LEONARD WOOD.

WOOD'S MANAGERS CLAIM 300 VOTES

Senator Moses and W. S. Procter See Powerful Support for Their Candidate — Hitchcock Joins General.

New York.—When Senator George H. Moses and William Cooper Procter, managers of General Leonard Wood's campaign for the Republican nomination for President, made their claim that he would have 300 pledged delegates when the Chicago convention opened, General Wood's rivals smiled.

Every day that has passed since the claim was made convinces General Wood's supporters that it will be more than fulfilled. All of the States claimed by Senator Moses and Mr. Procter are running true to expected form, and in addition General Wood is developing unusual strength in unexpecfed places.

Claims are made by supporters of Senator Johnson, Senator Harding, Governor Lowden and other aspirants for the nomination, but none of them has gotten down to cases and named the locations from which pledged delegates are expected to come. Senator Moses, on the other hand, specifically states where General Wood's first 300 delegates are coming from. Senator Moses said:

"New York, New England, New Jersey and Delaware will give General Wood 100 delegates; the Middle West and Northwest will furnish 100 more; the South Atlantic States 50 and the interior South and Southwestern States 50 more."

Since this claim was made the Wood managers have received reports from all sections of the country, showing that each of the sections mentioned by Senator Moses is getting stronger and stronger for Wood.

General Wood confesses himself gratified, flattered and surprised over the receptions accorded him everywhere he has spoken. A few days ago he told a number of his friends that while the enthusiasm and tumultuous applause of the large crowds impressed him tremendously, he was deeply touched by the great number of personal assurances he had received from individuals—men and women who had stood in line for long periods to shake hands with him and pledge him their wholehearted support.

Although the supporters of General Wood's rivals have attempted to slur him in many ways, General Wood is conducting his campaign on the highest plane of dignity and has never yet made an uncomplimentary allusion to any of the other aspirants for the nomination. One of the most recent efforts to strike at Wood was a slurring reference to General Wood as "the man in uniform." When this was brought to General Wood's attention by some of his supporters, he immediately issued this statement:

"I have no apologies for the American uniform. If I had it would be an insult to every American soldier who died in France or in previous wars we have waged."

With Frank H. Hitchcock, former postmaster general, and manager of William Howard Taft's campaign in 1908, now actively affiliated with the Wood management, National Campaign Manager Procter is confident that an unbeatable combination has been formed. Mr. Hitchcock does not succeed Mr. Procter, but will have co-ordinate authority with him, both working to their utmost ability in the furtherance of General Wood's campaign.

In entering upon his work with the Wood campaign Mr. Hitchcock said there was every reason for being confident of Wood's nomination because he is the outstanding candidate and the man with whom the Republican party undoubtedly can win in November.

LEONARD WOOD'S ACTIVE CAREER

Brief Story of His Life as Doctor, Soldier and Statesman—His Boyhood and Student Days.

By JOHN G. HOLME.

On December 12, 1899, Leonard Wood, a Major-General of Volunteers in the United States Army, received one of the most remarkable orders that any government has ever issued to any army officer.

He was made Governor-General of an island which for four hundred years had been a colonial dependency of one of the most reactionary monarchies on the face of the earth and was commanded to train its million and a half inhabitants, who had never had any voice in their government, for republican self-government. He was ordered to perform this gigantic task as quickly as possible, for the diplomatic telescopes of all the governments of the world were trained on the United States and the island, which happened to be, in natural resources, probably the richest spot of its size on the globe. The governments of Europe, Asia and South America wanted to know whether Uncle Sam really meant what he said when he pledged himself to free Cuba, or whether he was really going to annex Cuba with her inexhaustible sugar bowl.

The work before Wood was to build, rebuild and repair all the civil institutions of Cuba, such as the courts, the customs and postal departments, the school and electoral systems, establish lines of communication, expel the epidemics, train native public officials and supervise the writing of the Constitution. When Cuba was able to stand on her own feet, Wood was to come home.

Two years before the man who was commanded to perform this extraordinary task had been an obscure army doctor with the rank and pay of a captain. He had distinguished himself in the Spanish-American War as Colonel of the Rough Riders, the famous regiment of aristocrats and cowpunchers of which Theodore Roosevelt later became the commander when Wood was advanced to the rank of Brigadier-General. Wood had done a big job as Military-Governor of Santiago de Cuba, and his success there had paved the way for his Governorship of all Cuba. Now that he looms big as Presidential possibility, the American people are more than ever interested in his career, in the forces and influences which have shaped his active life.

Leonard Wood was born in the village of Winchester, N. H., on October 9, 1860, and is therefore fifty-nine years of age. He comes of an old American stock which settled in New England long before the Revolution. One of his ancestors, Peregrine White, was the first white child born in Plymouth colony. Another ancestor, John Nixon, was one of Washington's Brigadiers, fighting through the Revolution. Leonard Wood's father, Dr. Charles Jewett Wood, left his wife and infant son, the future General, to respond to Lincoln's first call for volunteers. He was invalided home just before the Confederacy surrendered.

After the Civil War the family moved to Cape Cod, Massachusetts, settling in the village of Pocasset, where Leonard Wood grew up, attended the district school and later Pierce Academy, Middleboro, Mass. Here he distinguished himself as an all-around athlete. He showed a fondness for the languages and history. In his work he was persevering rather than ready.

HAD TERRIBLE SKIN DISEASE

Little Girl Improves Rapidly When Given ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Many mothers try one remedy after another, for the sufferings of their little ones, without apparently being able to find the right one. If anything seems wrong with the blood, or stomach, or if the child's system is run-down and needs strengthening, you may benefit by the experience of this Westmoreland, Tenn., mother, Mrs. John F. Anglea, who writes:

"My little girl had a terrible skin disease and her stomach was in such a bad condition. Nothing helped her, so we finally started to give her Ziron.

She improved so rapidly from the first bottle, so we have given her two more. She is much better."

Don't try other remedies first! Choose Ziron from the start. It has benefited many people suffering from poor blood, general weakness, loss of appetite and other symptoms which indicate lack of iron in the blood.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Ford ars are important servants everywhere. They help the family enjoy life, bring the pleasures and advantages of the town within reach of the farmer and give practical service every day in country and town. They require a minimum of a ttention; any one can run the Ford, and care for it, but it is better to have repairs and repracements taken care of by those who are familiar with the work and have the tools, the genuine materials, and skilled men to do the work primptly. We pledge Ford owners the reliable Ford service with real Fard parts and Ford prices.

Goodyear Advantages in Tires for the Smaller Cars

Just as Goodyear is successful in building extreme value into the Goodyear Tires that go on the highest-priced motor cars, so is Goodyear successful in supplying unusual worth in Goodyear Tires for smaller cars.

Into the making of Goodyear Tires in the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes have gone the full advantages of Goodyear experience, skill and modern facilities.

The results of this unusual endeavor are easily available to every owner of a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or any other car requiring the sizes mentioned.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer's place of business for these tires, and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He carries them in stock.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag $4.50

The Itching and Sting of Blazing, Fiery Eczema

Seems Like the Skin Is on Fire.

There is a harassing discomfort caused by Eczema that becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source.

The source of Eczema is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle today, and you will see results from the right treatment. Write for advice. PEPTO-MANGAN FOR "SPRING FEVER"

Spring Days are Trecherous—Germs Don't disappear with cold weather.

BLOOD IS SLUGGISH AND WEAK

Don't Take Chances if you feel bad. Enrich your blood with Pepto-Mangan.

There is a great deal of serious sickness in the Spring.

And it is easy to see why. Long weeks pent up indoors, too little exercise and fresh air, winter sickness not entirely over with, a generally lowered vitality. Blood weak and sluggish. Then come fine Spring days—that are not as warm as they seem; or sudden cheanges in the weather, and you haven't taken proper precautions.

Vigorous, red-blooded people don't often get sick. If you're not feeling your best, get Pepto-Mangan of your druggist and take it to build up your blood. This effective and agreeable tonic has been tested for over thirty years, and physicians everywhere recommend it for run-down, pale anemic people.

The whole family should take Pepto-Mangan—it is good health insurance. Besides, what a joy it is to feel fit and fine—ready for any thing! To have an abundance of energy and enthusiasm!

Pepto-Mangan is for sale at your druggist's and in both liquid and tablet form. There is no difference in medicinal value. Take whichever you prefer. But to maek sure you get the genuine, ask for Gude's Pepto-Mangan, and see that the name Gude is on every package. Advertisement.

ATLANTA — MONTGOMERY

A poor crop never pays. A farmer is not living up to his opportunities when he fails to make a good profit on his year's work. Outside of actual Providential casualties, there is no excuse for crop failure in these days of scientific methods of feeding the crop so that each plant is nursed and nourished from the time of sprouting till final maturity.

The methods of mixing and blending the South Atlantic Brands and the excellent class of materials used in them as actual food for the plant make them a scientifically perfect fertilizer. Their mechanical condition is so fine and free from lumps that each plant gets its full share of each element of plant food, thus insuring better stands and vigorous growth.

Their liberal use means larger yields, better profits and eminent satisfaction.

Mr. Ross Mullins was a stockholder in the Clanton Mercantile Company, and the large audience that filled the church and the beautiful flowers that adorned the coffin were a glowing testimony to the high esteem and respect in which he was held by the citizens of Clanton. MAETERLINCK'S PICTURE

"THE BLUE BIRD"

A Picture you'll never forget.

A Mammoth Dramatic Spectacle of Happiness that will put new courage into American Hearts.

Tradition whispers that in the sky as a bird, blue as the sky itself, which brings to its finders happiness. But everyone cannot see it; for mortal eyes are prone to be blinded by the glitter of wealth, fame and position and deceived by the mocking Will-o'-the-Wisp of empty honors. But for the fortunate ones who seek with open eyes and hearts with artlessness, simplicity and faith, which are richest in childhood, there is an undying promise and to them the Blue Bird lives and carols, a rejoicing symbol of happiness and contentment unto the end.

A Thousand Smiles! A Thousand Sobs A Thousand Beautiful Scenes!

Here's a recommendation that means a lot, by Margaret E. Sangster in The Christian Herald:

Some people—many people, know the story of Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird." Everybody should know it. and now that the producers of Artcraft Pictures have put the story into a perfect picture, there is no reason why everyone should not know it.

The Christian Herald does not often feel that it can heartily endorse a film; but "The Blue Bird" is the sort of film that holds a lesson worth learning. It is the kind of a film few people have dreamed of producing—an idealistic picture made real by splendid acting and remarkable photoplay.

Several points stand out from the story—stand out by sheer beauty of word and action. When the children go at twelve o'clock to the graveyard to see the dead arise—when they tiptoe farfully in through the door and walk in frightful silence, past the yawning tombs, one can perfectly understand why folks fear death. But when suddenly the graves burst forth into blossoms and the roses and lilies grow fragrantly all about, one sees the Easter Story retold in the marvelous way. For the little boy, astounded, asks "Where are the dead"? and the girl-child, with a triumphant smile upon her face answers "There are no dead!"

The moving picture has come to stay—come to stay with its unlimited possibilities for good or for evil. And "The Blue Bird" is the sort of picture that cannot fail to do unlimited good. It will be a delight to children, but only the grown-ups can read their lives into the search for Happiness. It will be a dream, a fairy tale come true, to your boy or girl; but to you it will be the meaning of life, told poetically but none the less true.

"The Blue Bird" is a mile-stone in the production of motion pictures. We hope for more pictures of the some sort.

Every age and every class will thrill with delight at it.

Scene after scene drifting loveliness in a story that absorbs attention of the old man of seventy, the young girl of eighteen, the child of five, the college boy of twenty, the tired busines man, and the mother of the household; humor and laughter in every scene with tears just around the corner in many places; beauty of setting, beauty of face, and beauty of acting, everywhere—in the humble cottage, through the window shadows, before the portals of Night's secrets, in snow and sunhine and flowers, in the gravyard and in the Kingdom of the Future,—everywhere, in every scene in every portion of the most beautiful picture ever painted on the screen by the hand of a master artist.

That's Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird." That and a thousand things more. No story-in-words, no attempt at description, can put before the eye what the picture of Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird" really is. No one can tell in words of the thrill that comes to the heart as the true meaning of life story gradually unfolds; no one can explain the eternal charm there is in the sight of the sail-ship from the Kingdom of the Future and the mother's singing on the cliffs by the sea.

Such words as "each time you smile I am younger by a year and your kisses put stars in my eyes, my babies," cannot in themselves bring tears to the eyes, but the picture in which they are silently spoken can bring the thrill that is like the touch of an unseen power. You may not know what it is that grips you but you do know there is something deeper, truer, more lasting than any picture story you ever saw.

And the reason is this:—Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird" is immortal. It is based on things that know no time nor limitations of age, creed or sex. It is as true as sure of life as life itself, and it will live in this masterpiece of photographic art long after tthe screen tales of this year and next year and many years after that, are dead and forgotten.

A few of the Things in The Picture.

The soul of fire; the soul of water; the soul of milk; the soul of sugar; the soul of light; the soul of bread; the palace ofBerylune; the palace of Night; the Crotto of the Chosis; the cave of the Sicknesses; the "it" of the terrible wars; the million Blue Birds; the forests of Night; the graveyard of the happy dead; the joy of thinking; the fog of forgetfulness; the palace of happiness; the cave of miseries; the luxury of being rich; the luxury of satisfied vanity; the cathedral of happiness; the happiness of being well; the happiness of pure air; the happiness of the blue sky; the happiness of the forest; the happiness of sunny hours; the happiness of Spring; the happiness of the rain; the happiness of innocent thoughts; the destruction of the Banquet Hall; the joy of being good; the joy of being just; the peerless joy of maternal love; the Kingdom of the Future; beautiful Memory Land; fat laughter, who is irresistible; the rich Children's Chrimtmas party; the dance of the Stars and of the perfumes of the Garden of Dawn; the transformation of the home of the happy dead; the awe-inspirring Banquet Hall of the luxuries; the luxuries of drinking when you are not thirsty and eating when you are not hungry; the luxury of sleeping more than necessary; the happiness of lugging one's parents; Immense Hall of the Azure Palace, the Home of the Unborn Children; Father Time, who opens the gates for the children to be born; the great galley loaded with children; the myriad of mothers' meeting the ship as it sails out of the sunrise.

The management wishes to advise the public that we went to the trouble and expense to personally view this production. We consider it the finest thing ever done in photo-play work. The story is so sweet and wholesome that it is irresistible. The photo-play so maghificent that it enthralls. The whole thing has such a tendency to point to higher and better things that it should be seen by every man, woman and child in the entire world. Civilization will be the better for the making of this story in such a vivid form. It's an inspiration as well at a good wholesome entertainment.

At the IDEAL THEATRE, Clanton, Ala., April 2nd and 3rd.

PRODUCE BUSINESS ON A BOOM IN CLANTON

On our way home the other evening we chanced to drop in at the store of Wiley Littlejohn and found Jeff Ruffin, Uncle Billy Wright, and Mr. Littlejohn all busy packing up eggs which they had bought for shipment to Birmingham. It looked to us like on extraordinary amount of cackle berries in one lot, and upon inquiry we were iformed that there were then in the house ready for shipment over seven hundred dozen eggs. This quantity represented the result of one days buying of eggs that were brought into them from the country lsat Saturday.

Being somewhat staggered at this great amount of eggs we began to make further inquiry about their produce business, and we were soon furnished with some figures and facts that staggered us still more than the eggs did.

A month ago Mr. Wiley Littlejoohn and Mr. Jeff Ruffin went into the produce business and since that time they inform us that they have done a gross business of thirty thousand dollars. That is a very considerable amount of money to be turned over in produce in one month's time.

CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

M. D. FOSHEE, MANAGER.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

Abstracts of Title Promptly Prepared at Reasonable Charges.

MRS. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

BEAUTIFUL BRIDAL SHOWER

One of the most brilliant social affairs of the season was given Wednesday at the ohme of Mrs. W. H. Sartor, when Miss Willie Belle entertained at a shower in honor of Miss Annie Reynolds, a recent bride-elect.

This home was never more attractive than on this occasion, the entire lower floor being thrown together and presented a most picturesque scene. The reception hall was lovely with decorations of yellow and white. Here punch was served from a prettily appointed table by Mrs. Elna Roberts and Miss Lessie Reynolds.

Upon the arrival of the guests they were invited to join the hostess in a fishing trip, whereupon each expressed her delight and was shown into the dining room where a temporary fish pond was presented with a fishing rod, and trying her luck proved an excellent fisherman, for at each trial she brought forth some beautiful piece of linen until such an array as there was—Linen, Linen everywhere.

Late in the afternoon a delicious ice course, where again was seen the color motif of yellow and white prevailing.

About fifty guests called during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs Alva Wade returned home Tuesday after an absence of several weeks from Clanton. While away Mr. Wade spent some time in Chicago taking a special course in Electrical Engineering.

The many friends of Rev. E. C. Mays will learn with pleasure that he is now able to be out again, after a seige of three weeks illness.

Miss Minnie Gable of Gainsville, Fla., is the guest of Miss Marzelle Mullins.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Copeland motored to Birmingham Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Gilvy McKee.

Mrs. L. C. Reynolds and son Sidney, spent Wednesday with Mrs. L. H. Reynolds.

Mrs. E. S. Parrish of Birmingham is spending a few days in Clanton with her sister, Mrs. Luckie.

Dr. and Mrs. Cameron of Coaling were in Clanton last week.

Mrs. Frank C. Smith has returned from Tampa, Fla., where she went last week to attend the marriage of her sister.

ANNISTON FARMER CAN SEE DECIDED CHANGE

Was Taking Medicine all the Time, But none seemed to hit The right place.

Restless, nervous, bad taste in Mouth, But the great herb remedy, Dreco Knocked it out of him.

"I had to be taking medicine all the time, yet I didn't seem to be getting rid of my troubles till one day I got some Dreco and it went right to the bottom and cleaned me out," said Mr. M. G. Hewitt of Route 2, Anniston, Ala.

"I was billious all the time, had a headaches, dizzy spells, bad taste in my mouth and my breath was foul. I was so restless and nervous that I couldn't get a night's rest. My stomach didn't seem strong enough to digest my food and dyspepsia had a hold on me.

"I bought some Dreco as I heard it spoken of very highly, and that's the first medicine that ever did me any real good. It got my bowels moving and stopped the dizziness. My nerves calmed down so that my rest at night was good. My strength feels a great deal better, being free from gas and no griping pains. Dreco sure did help me, and I see decided change ni my condition."

The old-fashioned roots and herbs are the best medicines for us to take. Dreco contains the juices and extracts of twelve different herbal plants, which act on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and enrich the blood. Get Dreco today.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

OLUME IX. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA, APRIL 1, 1920. NUMBER I

OM REPRESENTATIVE
A. REYNOLDS

Clanton, Ala., March 29, 1920.
itor Union-Banner:

have been requested to state how voted on the law that forced Tick adication on this county. I voted inst it. I told the people before was elected that I would vote ag-st it, and I did what I said I would

My recollection is that this law af-cted twenty-three counties, twenty mocratic and three Republican co-ties.

I thought then and still think now at it was a bad policy to pass any w over the will of a majority of the ople; but the argument was made the representatives from the forty d counties that they were troubled th ticks on the border of their coun-s, coming out of counties that were fested with ticks.

I do not believe that if every man om the twenty-three counties inclu-ng twenty democratic counties, had me to Montgomery during the Leg-ature to work against the passage this bill, that it would have had any fect, because then it seemed to have en cut and dried before the legisla-re met to force all of the remaining unties infested with ticks to erad-ate them.

Permit me to say in conclusion that never asked the people to elect me presentative. I was at home when was nominated and did not even ow that there was a mas meeting ing held until I was sent for. I romised the people that I would do e best I could for them, which I d. But you must remember that ere was one hundred Democrats ere and four republicans; and that is same tick law was run over 20 mocratic counties as well at three publican ones. Everybody that is ell posted knows that the Democrat-Party is responsible for all the laws the Statute Books.

Thanking the people for electing e, and assuring you that I would be ad for you to investigate every vote at I cast during the legislature. nd I would suggest to the Republi-ns of this county that it might be ise to stop and see where all this gitation about cattle dipping is com-g from, before you reach a con-lusion.

Respecfully,
W. A. REYNOLDS.

WALKER FOR COMMISSIONER

This week we have another candi-ate for Commisisoner of the Third istrict on the Republican ticket, Mr. T. Walker af Lawley. Mr. Wal-er is a good man and will no doubt e very favorable consideration am-ng the voters of the county. He is he third candidate for that office, he other two being Mr. W. T. Herrod, he present commissioner up for re-lection, and Mr. J. T. Abbott of Ple-cher, Ala.

NEW MASONIC HALL

We had an opportunity a few days since of inspecting one of the most beautiful and artistic pieces of painting and decorating that has been done in Alabama. This work was done by Mr. Gust Berlin of Thorsby, Ala. Mr. Berlin attained his ability by years of study under masters in Europe, and to his exceptional ability is due the beauty and grandeur of the decorations of several of the homes of European royalty.

This beautiful work is seen in the Hall of the Masonic Fraternity, and just completed by Mr. Berlin. The ceiling and walls are done in cream colors, panel effect, and style in lighter colors. The friez is in deep yellow golden with blue design. The walls, below picture moulding, carried out in deep velvet red with two bond borders done in old blue. All windows and doors are in dark colors. The throne arch and relief moulding thru entire hall is in old metal effect with lacquered glazing, and the effect under the electric lights, are beautifully brought out. More than five thousand different mouldings are used to carry out the archcitectural effects.

This work must be seen to be appreciated, and the owners are exceptionally proud of it.

FAIRVIEW

Mr. Chas. Calvin Parrish, who has just returned from Mississippt to his home near Clanton, spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Mae Williams near Fairview.

Mr. James Dunlap spent Saturday night with the people in Fairview. First time he has been with us people in a long time.

Miss Ada Williams, daughter of W. W. Williams of Fairview, has returned to Clanton, after spending a few days with home-folks.

TEEL-McEWEN WEDDING

An event of considerable interest to the residents of Walnut Creek took place on Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Mr. Jesse Teel and Miss Olive McEwen, a school teacher, were united in marriage with an interesting ceremony by Rev. P. G. Carter, Baptist minister of Clanton.

Quite a large number of friends were present to witness the ceremony. An interesting feature of the marriage is in the fact that the bridegroom was born and raised in the same house as that of his parents, where the wedding took place.

Mr. Teel was for some time in the army in France and engaged in two important battles that took place over there; but was fortunate enough to come out without any severe damage or injury. He is an honest hard-working young man, and the friends of the community wish him and his wife every success and prosperity.

Mr. Jim Rasberry spent Sunday with his parents on Mulberry.

The Auto Your Church?

"This is such a fine day, suppose we take the car and go to Othertown for a visit"—and the church for that Sunday is left to itself.

This is not your idea of supporting the best asset our community has. But many persons do put an auto ride ahead of church attendance

The Church Needs You

The pulpit and the press are the two great upbuilding forces in every community. You wouldn't care to live in any town where either was absent. Suppose everyone gave the church the support you do—in time and money. How long would it keep alive?

You have a definite responsibility to support some church. It is helping you whether you know it or not.

MORE ABOUT PRODUCE BUSINESS IN CLANTON

Mr. Rowland W. Taylor of Anniston has purchased an interest in the Clanton Produce Company, and beginning next Monday week he will be actively associated with the firm. Mr. Taylor is a Clanton man, having been reared here, but for the past five or six years he has been traveling in north Alabama for Armour & Co. He has many friends in Clanton and vicinity, who will be glad to see him return here with his family to live. He has bought a home in the Gowan Addition.

The Clanton Produce Company, with which Mr. Taylor becomes associated, is a well-known and profitable business here, doing both a general merchandise and produce business. It is the oldest produce business here, and in fact is the pioneer house in Clanton doing on exclusive produce business. It was begun a few years ago by the Taylor Brothers, L. M. and T. M. Taylor. At the death of Mr. L. M. Taylor over a year ago, Mr. Jesse Baker became engaged in the business with T. M. Taylor and a general store was added in connection with the produce business.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Special Easter services will be held at this church next Sunday in keeping with the spirit of Easter. Special music by a special organizd choir and violin solos by Miss Curry. Some speeal floral decorations by the ladies may be added attractions.

Sunday School at 10 a.m. Special offering for missions is requested.

Preaching at 11, a.m. An Easter Sermon.

Sunbeams, at 2, p.m.

Senior B. Y. P. U., 6:30, p.m.

Preaching at 7:30, special music and good preaching. At the morning service the ordinance of Lords Supper will be observed and the new Silver Individual Communion purchased by the ladies of the church will be installed. We earnestly request that all members of the church be present to attend this srvice. Let us all enter into the spirit of the day and make this one of the greatest days for worship and gladness in the history of the church. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

Prayer meeting is held every Wednesday night at 7:45, p.m. Special Studies in the book of Revelations are now being conducted. Everybody is welcome to this service.

P. G. CARTER, Pastor.

Mr. George Edwards, formerly a merchant in Clanton, but now living on his farm near Kincheon, was a visitor in Clanton last Saturday. Mr. Edwards says he con make more money on his farm than he can in the store, and besides he has a much better time while he is at it. He made us feel homesick when he enumerated some of the fine things which he enjoys on his farm, such as fresh meat at hog-killing time, fruits and watermelons in the summer. And best of all he saye he has a fine fish pond from which he takes all kinds of fish at his pleasure.

REGARDING MR. ABBOTT

Editor Union-Banner:

I want to say to the people of Chilton County especially North Chilton, that Mr. J. T. Abbott, better known as "Bud", who is running for County Commissioner for the Third District, is a man that has some experience in building good roads and is in favor of the same. He is also a judge of bridge work, as he is also a good carpenter. He is a man that doesn't have a harrow mind; he is a man that will contend earnestly for what he thinks is right. He is too brave to bush-whack. He is a man that will serve the people if elected instead of running things over the people. He is a man that I think is well qualified to fill the office, and I want you good people of Chilton County to consider what I say.

I think it is time for the people to clean up the whole kitchen and get a new dish rag, as far as the opportunity goes. I am for the up-building of our grand old county, though she is in a much wrecked condition. We hope in the near future to see her different.

LADIES AID

Mrs. Grady Broadhead assisted by Mrs. D. Y. Johnson entertained the Baptist Ladies Aid last Monday afternoon. The apartments were artistically decorated with potted plants and cut spring flowers.

Several important business matters were dispensed of and one being the purchase of a handsome silver individual communion service.

A delicious plate luncheon was served to the following ladies: Mesdames W. I. Mulins, Mary Ann Mullins, Minor Heath, Hayes, J. R. Mullins, Hester, Plier, Mahan, H. F. Downs, J.B. Downs; Misses Louise Orr and Bettie Mullins.

CIVIC CLUB

The Civic Improvement Association will meet at the home of Mrs. J. P. Crumpton Tuesday, March 6th. at three-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Grady Broadhead will have charge of the following programme:

Roll Call; Birds of Alabama, Paper; The Life of Andalion, Mrs. J. H. Jones; Reading, "Boy and Sparrow," Miss Warrene Spigener; Paper, "Binging Birds about the Home," Mrs. J.J. Pickens; Three-minutes talk, "Migrating Birds; Round-Table Discussion.

Mr. Alford D. Robinson of Corinth was a caller last Saturday. He is one of qur faithful subscribers, and he was about to get a certain editor's goat for stopping his paper last month when it was out. But we succeeded in making up with him and Mr. Robinson is now on our list again, we are glad to say.

County Commissioner Gentry of New Salem was a visitor at the Union-Banner office last Saturday. Mr. Gentry gives much of his time and attention to the business affairs of the county, and he had some interesting things to say to us in that respect.

SAMARIA

Farmers are moving along slowly with their farm work on account of so much rain. Not anything planted yet except gardens.

Everybody is about well from the influenza. Mr. Arthur Coker is very sick with pneumonia and Mrs. Kelly is still on the sick list.

It is reported that Mr. J. Hance Alred and Miss Izora Callen of Clanton got married last Sunday.

Rev. W. A. Goss filled his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday at Samaria Church.

Mr. Hugh Davenport and family of Mulberry recently visited at Mr. J. P. Smith's.

Mr. R. F. Sims of Wylam recently visited relatives here.

Mr. Relas Jones and family of Ensley visited at Mr. J. P. Smith's last week.

Rev. W. A. Goss spent Saturday night with Mr. Pate Parrish.

Misses Bertha Manning and Rosie Lee Mahan visited Misses Myrtle and Ida Belle Smith.

Mr. Wilbur Smith of Mulberry spent Saturday night with Mr. Claughton Smith.

Mr. D. C. Alred made a business trip to Selma last week.

Rev. W. A. Goss took dinner with Mr. Johnson Sunday

Mr. Lindsey Smith and family of Mineral Springs visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Smith spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Kelly.

Will say to the Mulberry correspondent that Mrs. Maud is not the oply one who gets nervous when the mail carrier comes by, for letters are flying in every direction.

Judge R. B. Kelley of Birmingham spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Atkinson.

MARCH MARRIAGES

Guy H. Roberts and Miss Annie Reynolds.

Oscar Rhodes and Miss Rosie Knox.

J. Hance Alred and Miss Izora Callen.

Jesse E. Teel and Miss Olive McEweh.

J. B. Davis and Miss Laura Thomas.

Grady Maddox and Miss Carrie Willis.

Alonza Scott and Miss Leila Williams.

W. L. Dees and Miss Ola Durbin.

Sunday afternoon was a busy time for the energetic Baptist Minister of Clanton, Rev. P. G. Carter. Within about thirty minutes after his return home from the marriage ceremony of Mr. J. H. Alred and his respected bride and the records were completed, a car drove up to the pastorium to conduct him to the home of Mr. Teel at Walnut Creek, for the purpose of uniting in bonds of love and matrimony Mr. Jesse Teel and Miss McEwen, as husband and wife.

AMOUNT OF CHILTON COUNTY'S FARM PRODUCTS LAST YEAR

Have you any definite idea as to the amount of farm produce of one kind and another that was raised on the farms of Chilton County during last year? It certainly sounds like an interesting thing to know, yet we venture to say that it is something that very few if any people in the county have any definite knowledge of.

We are indebted to Mr. J. N. Dennis, our tax assessor, for some figures on this subject, and we are glad to publish them because of their general interest. Mr. Dennis obtained the figures from working out a scale of production for Chilton County as is shown by production maps prepared under direction of the State Department of Agriculture and published in the Alabama Markets Journal. They may not be absolutely correct, but they are to say the least more reliable than the guess work of the average man. Following are the figures for the various articles produced in the county:

440,000 bushels of corn;
20,000 bushels of peanuts;
9,000 bales of cotton;
3,500 tons of velvet beans;
44,000 bushels of cow peas;
30,000 bushels of Irish potatoes;
180,000 bushels of sweet potatoes;
8,000 tons of hay;
60,00 gallons of sorghum;
70,000 galons of syrup;
70,000 bushels of oats;
45,000 bushels of wheat;
Sold and slaughtered 4,000 head of cattle; 22,000 head of hogs, 40-000 chickens; 2,800,000 gallons of milk.

There are lots of interesting facts and figures regarding Alabama's farm production that appear every month in the Alabama Markets Journal, and every farmer should get it regularly. It can be had for the asking, upon application to M. C. Allgood, Commissioner of Agriculture of Alabama, at Montgomery.

RESPECTING PROF. THOMPSON

Inasmuch as Prof. Thompson has rendered such patient and efficient service to this our Junion Class, we take this means to express our sincere appreciation of his services and great regret of his leaving us.

Be it resolved, that Prof. Thompson be presented with a copy of this resolution and that a copy be printed in The Union-Banner, our county paper.

Sugar is going up again. Has confidence in Palmer?

If a man is not dead till he stops kicking, it is certain that payers of federal taxes will show signs of life for some time.

Most of our captains of industry began as laboring men. And a lot of laboring men seem to be on the rapid rise to captaincies.

We learn that the city waterworks department is installing a new pump this week, and we confidently hope it will be the means of giving the people of the town better water service.

Even the superfluous government clrks are complaing because their superiors keep needless clerks on the government pay roll. They have to take money they are not permitted to earn.

The Chilton County Board of Education met on Tuesday and took up the matter of getting a successor for Prof. Thompson at the High School. Mr. J. J. Pickens was given the job of finishing out the present term of the school.

We are publishing a list of voters for Chilton County this week. We hope everyone will look over the lisf carefully, and see whether your name is there or not. If it is not there, you have the privilege of going to the Probate Judge before the first of May and having your name placed on the list if you can present sufficient proof that it should be entered there. Remember this is going to be an important year. The primary and general elections will be held, in which we shall be called upon to vote on several very important county, state and national officers. Get busy now and put yourself right so you can vote in these elections.

The clean-up campaign in Clanton has caused the trash and dirt to be chased out of several lots and alleys already, and we feel sure that if the weather man will lighten up the atmosphere the last of the week there will be much more accomplished. The manner in which our citizens have joined in the spirit of the clean-up campaign this time is indeed a great improvement over what we have done in former yars. It is very good indeed the way many of our merchants have displayed their windows boosting the clean-up spirit. Next week we shall give a detailed account of the activities of this entire week in the way of cleaning up the town. Remember this week is not all gone yet. There is still time to make a whole lot of sign around here in places that need the broom, rake and hoe. Come out of the trash.

LOTS OF WORK AHEAD

It will take the world a half dozen years at least, and probably longer, to catch up in its building—building of houses, of railroads, of highways, of bridges, of factories, etc. So there is every reason to look forward to an indefinite period of industrial and business prosperity.

LET HOOVER DO IT?

With Mr. Hoover for President, the farmers, the manufacturers, the merchants, the transportation men, and even the farmers' wives would be relieved of the arduous task of planning their affairs. They could leave all that to Hoover and would need do nothing but work and pay taxes.

UNCLE DOCK WILL PREACH

A few days ago Uncle Dock Wells went up to Blocton to visit his daughter and expected to spend a couple of weeks with his friends there. But he got a little sick soon after his arrival and soon took a notion to come back home. So he is back here now, and is feeling better every day. He says if the Lord is willing he will preach at Mt. Pleasant next Sunday. It is to be hoped that the weather will be good and that a great crowd will greet him to hear what he has to say.

James E. Cobb of Jemison was among the visitors to Clanton on Monday.

ACCEPTABLE TO WILSON

The New York Sun sees in Senator Hitchcock a really potential possibility for the Democratic presidential nomination, and says that he seems to fill the bill of requirements according to the idets of President Wilson better than any other man. The Senator's mind certainly has run along with that of the President to a remarkable degree. His views on internationalism accord precisely with those of Mr. Wilson. He was willing to accept the 194 pages of the peace treaty and league of nations without the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t". Such complete consonance of thought in two individuals has seldom been seen before.

Like the president, Senator Hitchcock did his best to postpone the war until the Germans should have subjugated Europe and the kaiser was ready to turn his schemes of conquest to our own shores. Seven months after the sinking of the Lusitania Mr. Hitchcock introduced a resolution providing an embargo on the shipments of arms and munitions of war to Europe, which fitted in very nicely with the President's "kept-us-out-of-war" campaign of the following summer. It is quite probable that Hitchcock would be acceptable to Wilson, and he may be nominated, but the people will have the final decision on acceptability when the votes are cast in November.

Daniel Thompson of Birmingham spent Friday night with Mrs. J. H. Duncan.

Mr. H. P. Hanley and wife visited Mr. Ben Grice of Thorsby.

Uucle Dock Wells will preach at this place next Sunday (Easter) at 11:00 o'clock.

LITTLE VIEWER.

SAVE BY COOPERATIVE BUYING.

Farmers of Dukes and Nanfucket Islands, lying off the Massachusetts coast, saved more than $150 on each of four 20-ton cars of feed purchased co-operatively. The islands, each of which constitutes a separate county and has a farm bureau cooperating with the Massachusetts Agricultural College and the United States Department of Agriculture, use about three cars of feed a month. The county agent, who covers both counties, called attention to the advantage of cooperative buying, and the farm bureau officers arranged with local bank officials for the purchase of feed in car lots. The farmers deposit their orders at the bank on the first of every month. When orders aggregating a carload have been deposited the bank buys the feed, pays for it upon arrival, and notifies the farmers when it is ready for delivery. Each farmer makes terms with the bank, either paying cash or giving his note bearing 6 per cent interest, and is given an approval slip. Upon presentation of this slip the attendant at the car delivers the grain.

SKETCH OF FORMER CHIEF JUSTICE SAMUEL D. WEAKLEY, CANDIDATE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE IN DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, MAY 1920 TO SUCCEED HON. OSCAR W. UNDERWOOD.

Was born July 16, 1860, at Somerville, Morgan County, Alabama, of parents who were both born in Alabama in 1837.

His maternal grandfather, Judge Green P. Rice, of Morgan County, was President of the Alabama State Senate in 1839.

He was reared at Florence, in Lauderdale County, Alabama, and educated at the State Normal School in his home town, where he graduated June 19, 1879. From July 1879 to October 1, 1879, he taught a country school near Center Star, in Lauderdale County, and entered a law office at Florence on the latter date to study his chosen profession, that of law.

He never attended a law school nor a college; was admitted to the bar at Florence, Ala., in the Chancery Court before Hon. Henry C. Speake, May 17 1880.

He moved to Memphis, Tenn., September, 1880, by invitation of a relative, Col. Josiah Patterson, a native of Morgan County, and a Colonel in the Confederate Army, and through his influence, the subject of this sketch was appointed Assistant Attorney General of Shelby County, Tenn., and filled that position from 1880 to 1884.

He married in February, 1884, a daughter of a Birmingham pioneer citizen, and four children were born to this union. He has resided at Birmingham continuously for more thirty-two years, where all of his children were born, and where all eh possesses is situated.

In 1904 he was a member of the congress of lawyers and jorists held at St. Louis, Mo., during the World's Fair.

He became chief justice of the Supreme Court of Alabama in 1906, by appointment of Governor Jelks to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice Thomas N. McClellan, and at the end of the term returned to his law practice at Birmingham in association with his brother, John B. Weakley.

From 1907 to 1914, he was one of the two special counsel for the state in the railroad rate litigation, under the Comer administration, and was retained by Governor O'Neal. He gave all his time to the state cases to the excluson of all other law business while he was acting as such special counsel.

In 1889 and 1890 he was the first regular city attorney of Birmingham under the B. A. Thompson administration; and was the first chairman of the City Democratic Executive Committee when such committee was formed in 1888,and he has served on the Jefferson County and State Democratic Executive Committees.

He is a director of the Birmingham Sunday School Association, and has been a Presbyterian Elder for 16 years. He served three years on the Beneficence Committee of the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly (1912-15), and was Moderator of the North Alabama Presbytery at its Florence meeting in 1917.

He has been a Woodmen of the World for more than 24 years; a member of the American Bar Association for 16 years, and the State Bar Association for more than 25 years. He is now a Vice-President of the State Bar Association, and President of the Birmingham Bar Association.

When he was appointed Chief Justice in 1906, he was endorsed by all the Jefferson County judges before whom he had practiced, and also by Federal Judge, H. T. Toulmin, of Mobile, as well as by about 300 members of the Bar of Jefferson County.

His law practice nas been general in character and nearly always for individuals. He has never been affiliated with corporate interests nor under the influence of corporations or other aggregations of wealth. He will be just to all and partial to none.

He has been a life long total abstainer from intoxicating liquors, and is the author of all Alabama prohibition laws from 1907 to date (1919) and of the Georgia prohibition laws of 1915, and of the Mississippi prohibition laws of 1916, and of the Act of Congress to exclude liquor advertisements and solicitations of liquor orders from the Federal mails (1917). These laws have withstood all attacks.

(Published as paid political advertising by the Samuel D. Weakley Senatorial Committee, address: 1609, American Trust Building, Birmingham, Alabama.)

In the Circuit Court at Selma Judge Miller has held that the state income tax law passed at the recent session of the state legislature imposing a tax of from 2 to 4 percent on incomes to be unconstitutional and void. The test suits were instituted by an association of business men, bankers and planters from all parts of the state.

HAS THE WINTER WORN YOU DOWN

Sickness that Lingers, or Strain of Caring for Others, Make Spring Days Dangerous.

GET BACK YOUR STRENGTH

Red Blood Means Old-Time Vigor and Pepto-Mangan Builds Rich, Red Blood.

Perhaps youve been ill this winter—or others in the family have, and you have worn yourself out with extra burdens. And now your strength is slow to return.

Week after week you have felt too tired for anything, and have looked it, too—color bad, eyes dull, and no enthusiasm.

When you don't feel well you are not well. Probably what you need right now is the good blood tonic, Pepto-Mangan. Physicians everywhere recommend Pepto-Mangan for run-down, anemic people. Ask your doctor about it. Pepto-Mangan supplies the things that blood-starved people lack. It puts iron and vigor in the blood. It paints the cheeks in Nature's way, and restores thte hearty appetite.

The blood is naturally sluggish in the Spring and the whole family would profit by taking Pepto-Mangan, which tones up and builds up. It is pleasant tasting and soon makes you feel better. Your own druggist has is ready for your call, and in both liquid and tablet form, just as you prefer.

But to be certain that you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan, ask for it by the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan." Look for the name, "Gude's on the package.—Advertosement.

FROM MR. WALKER,CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

Lawley, Ala., March 27.

Editor Union-Banner—Will you please give a little space in your paper to say to the voters of the county that I would like to meet them face to face, but my work is such that I cannot meet a ll of them.

I want to say to those with whom I am acquainted that if my past life has not been such that you could willingly vote for me, it is then your duty to vote for the other fellow.

If I am elected to the office of Commissioner I will serve you to the best of my ability.

Yours truly,
CHARLES T. WALKER

Rushton's Platform for the U. S. Senate

RAY RUSHTON is an earnest student of government and has strong convictions. He will complete the good road work begun by Senator Bankhead—Good Roads, Muscle Shoals, Improvement on Warrior, Coosa and Alabama Rivers and Channel in Mobile Harbor.

He opopses tampering with Constitution, but will in good faith support it and all amendments legally adopted.

He welcomes any help to Public Schools from any source, but only on condition that separate schools for the races be maintained.

He advocates the work of Agricultural Department and believes in making it more extensive and more efficient.

He opposes government ownership of railroads, the so-called Nationalization of mines and industries, and socialism in any of its forms.

He opposes compulsory military service or large standing army in times of peace, but advocates suitable establishments sufficient to command respect abroad.

He advocates such relief from taxation as is consistent with meeting the honest obligations of the Government.

He believes in "Few laws—plainly written, easily understood and obviously constitutional."

He believes that the general government should exercise every power granted to it and severely let alone those reserved to the States and the People.

CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

M. D. FOSHEE, MANAGER.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

UNDERWOOD VOTED "DRY" THEN "WET"

SAYS HE VOTED FOR VOLSTEAD PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT BILL ON ITS PASSAGE.

MADE SPEECH AGAINST IT

Recent Developments In Alabama Make His Statement That Prohibition is Not An Issue Appear Ridiculous.

Now that Former Governor Emmet O'Neal has stated the aims, objects and purposes of the wet faction in Alabama, the appearance of Oscar W. Underwood in the role of prohibitionist is much more amusing than convincing. The only claims to prohibition support that have been advanced by Mr. Underwood's campaign manager and the anti-prohibition press are that Mr. Underwood voted for the Volstead enforcement bill and that he obtained the appointment of a prohibitionist as Federal enforcing officer in this state.

Senator Underwood says that he voted for the Volstead bill, but there is no record of his having done so. It was a vive voce vote, of which no record was made. Later President Wilson vetoed the Volstead prohibition enforcement code and it came up in the senate on the question of sustaining the President's veto. Then, if ever, the cause of prohibition needed a friend in the Senate of the United States. The whole plan was in jeopardy. Senator Underwood, when the test came, voted to sustain the President's veto.

When President Wilson, from a sick bed, returned the Volstead enforcement code to Congress with his veto, Senator Underwood made a speech against the act in which he expressed his attitude in opposition to national prohibition. He charged the prohibitionists with "breach of faith." This brought forth a sharp reply from Senator Sheppard of Texas, prohibition leader, in which he said: "The only question before us is the question of effective enforcement. The mock heroics of the Senator from Alabama (Mr. Underwood) are impressive from the dramatic standpoint only. There never was a time when prohibition was more imperatively needed than in this hour of general unrest and economic confusion."

And when the vote was counted it was found that the "peerless statesman," the superman, the "wonderful leader of men," had failed to lead.

So far as the record shows, the wet speech of Senator Underwood on the veto, and the wet vote that followed it, was the last act of the senator on the question of prohibition until he appeared in Alabama and declared through his campaign manager and publicity agencies that prohibition is not an issue in this campaign.

Mr. Underwood has been running true to his ancient form, for the record shows that he voted against the Sheppard National Prohibition Amendment resolution in August, 1917. But one of the most distinguished efforts at service to the wet cause with which Senator Underwood has ornamented his record was the introduction of what is known as the Underwood Wet Referendum to the District of Columbia Prohibition bill which proposed that Senator Sheppard's bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in the District of Columbia be submitted to a vote of the people of that district for ratification or rejection.

When the fact is taken into consideration that a great part of the population at Washington holds citizenship in other states; that the Negroes greatly outnumber the whites among the permanent residents of that city, and the further fact that no elections are held in the District of Columbia and no machinery for elections has been created there, it will be seen that Mr. Underwood was acting solely in the interest of the saloons. The Underwood substitute was defeated, and again it appeared that the "matchless leader" had failed to lead.

When the question of ratification by the states of the eighteenth amendment was being brought before the various legislatures, Mr. Underwood repaired to Alabama, where he made speeches against Judge W. W. Brandon, Thomas E. Kilby and others who were not opposed to the ratification of the amendment, and also urged the election of legislators who held views on this subject similar to his own.

In his campaign for the senatorship six years ago, Mr. Underwood obtained votes and support on the theory that prohibition was not an issue; still his election was heralded to the world as a victory for the open saloon, and this argument was used to turn the tide against state wide prohibition with the result that for four years, during the O'Neal administration, Alabama was again placed in the list of wet states. Mr. Underwood's activities for liquor and brewery interests have given him a wide following among the wets. He recently has been prominently mentioned in Eastern newspapers as the logical candidate of that faction for the presidency.

As chairman of the national committee for the ratification of the prohibition amendment, L. B. Musgrove again crossed swords with the "Peerless Statesman," Mr. Underwood, and once more the "matchless leader" failed to lead.

MAETERLINCK'S

A Picture you'll never forget.
A Mammoth Dramatic Spectacle of Happiness that will put new courage into American Hearts.

Tradition whispers that in the sky is a bird, blue as the sky itself, which brings to its finders happiness. But everyone cannot see it; for mortal eyes are prone to be blinded by the glitter of wealth, fame and position and deceived by the mocking Will-o'-the-Wisp of empty honors. But for the fortunate ones who seek with open eyes and hearts with artlessness, simplicity and faith, which are richest in childhood, there is an undying promise and to them the Blue Bird lives and carols, a rejoicing symbol of happiness and contentment unto the end.

A Thousand Smiles! A Thousand Sobs
A Thousand Beautiful Scenes!

Here's a recommendation that means a lot, by Margaret E. Sangster in The Christian Herald:

Some people—many people, know the story of Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird." Everybody should know it. and now that the producers of Artcraft Pictures have put the story into a perfect picture, there is no reason why everyone should not know it.

The Christian Herald does not often feel that it can heartily endorse a film; but "The Blue Bird" is the sort of film that holds a lesson worth learning. It is the kind of a film few people have dreamed of producing—an idealistic picture made real by splendid acting and remarkable photoplay.

Several points stand out from the story—stand out by sheer beauty of word and action. When the children go at twelve o'clock to the graveyard to see the dead arise—when they tiptoe fearfully thrcugh the door and walk in frightful silence, past the yawning tombs, one can perfectly understand why folks fear death. But when suddenly the graves burst forth into blossoms and the roses and lilies grow fragrantly all about, one sees the Easter Story retold in the marvelous way. For the little boy, astounded, asks "Where are the dead"? and the girl-child, with a triumphant smile upon her face answers "There are no dead!"

The moving picture has come to stay—come to stay with its unlimited possibilities for good or for evil. And "The Blue Bird" is the sort of picture that cannot fail to do unlimited good. It will be a delight to children, but only the grown-ups can read their lives into the search for Happiness. It will be a dream, a fairy tale come true, to your boy or girl; but to you it will be the meaning of life, told poetically but none the less true.

"The Blue Bird" is a mile-stone in the production of motion pictures. We hope for more pictures of the some sort.

Every age and every class will thrill with delight at it.

Scene after scene of drifting loveliness in a story that absorbs attention of the old man of seventy, the young girl of eighteen, the child of five, the college boy of twenty, the tired business man, and the mother of the household; humor and laughter in every scene with tears just around the corner in many places; beauty of setting, beauty of face, and beauty of acting, everywhere—in the humble cottage, through the window shadows, before the portals of Night's secrets, in snow and sunhine and flowers, in the gravyard and in the Kingdom of the Future,—everywhere, in every scene in every portion of the most beautiful picture ever painted on the screen by the hand of a master artist.

That's Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird." That and a thousand things more. No story-in-words, no attempt at description, can put before the eye what the picture of Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird" really is. No one can tell in words of the thrill that comes to the heart as the true meaning of life story gradually unfolds; no one can explain the eternal charm there is in the sight of the sail-ship from the Kingdom of the Future and the mother's singing on the cliffs by the sea.

Such words as "each time you smile I am younger by a year and your kisses put stars in my eyes, my babies," cannot in themselves bring tears to the eyes, but the picture in which they are silently spoken can bring the thrill that is like the touch of an unseen power. You may not know what it is that grips you but you do know there is something deeper, truer, more lasting than any picture story you ever saw.

And the reason is this:—Maeterlinck's "The Blue Bird" is immortal. It is based on things that know no time nor limitations of age, creed or sex. It is as true as sure of life as life itself, and it will live in this masterpiece of photographic art long after tthe screen tales of this year and next year and many years after that, are dead and forgotten.

A few of the Things in The Picture.

The soul of fire; the soul of water; the soul of milk; the soul of sugar; the soul of light; the soul of bread; the palace ofBerylune; the palace of Night; the Crotto of the Chosis; the cave of the Sicknesses; the "it" of the terrible wars; the million Blue Birds; the forests of Night; the graveyard of the happy dead; the joy of thinking; the fog of forgetfulness; the palace of happiness; the cave of miseries; the luxury of being rich; the luxury of satisfied vanity; the cathedral of happiness; the happiness of being well; the happiness of pure air; the happiness of the blue sky; the happiness of the forest; the happiness of sunny hours; the happiness of Spring; the happiness of the rain; the happiness of innocent thoughts; the destruction of the Banquet Hall; the joy of being good; the joy of being just; the peerless joy of maternal love; the Kingdom of the Future; beautiful Memory Land; fat laughter, who is irresistible; the rich Children's Chrimtmas party; the dance of the Stars and of the perfumes of the Garden of Dawn; the transformation of the home of the happy dead; the awe-inspirring Banquet Hall of the luxuries; the luxuries of drinking when you are not thirsty and eating when you are not hungry; the luxury of sleeping more than necessary; the happiness of lugging one's parents; Immense Hall of the Azure Palace, the Home of the Unborn Children; Father Time, who opens the gates for the children to be born; the great galley loaded with children; the myriad of mothers' meeting the ship as it sails out of the sunrise.

The management wishes to advise the public that we went to the trouble and expense to personally view this production. We consider it the finest thing ever done in photo-play work. The story is so sweet and wholesome that it is irresistible. The photo-play so magnificent that it enthralls. The whole thing has such a tendency to point to higher and better things that it should be seen by every man, woman and child in the entire world. Civilization will be the better for the making of this story in such a vivid form. It's an inspiration as well at a good wholesome entertainment.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time...

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. ——about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles...After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74

A farmer's purpose in buying fertilizer is to provide food for his crop at every stage of its growth just as the crop needs it. The splendid quality of high grade packing house tankage and blood used in the manufacture of MORRIS FERTILIZERS assures just such a perfect system of crop-feeding--regardless of weather conditions.

MORRIS BRANDS produce bigger yields by keeping crops green and vigorous, and by forcing early maturity; thus preventing losses from shedding and stunting, and largely minimizing the peril of the boll-weevil. They do their best work after ordinary fertilizers have failed.

Order NOW from our agents and avoid regrets later on---but be sure to stipulate the MORRIS BRANDS.

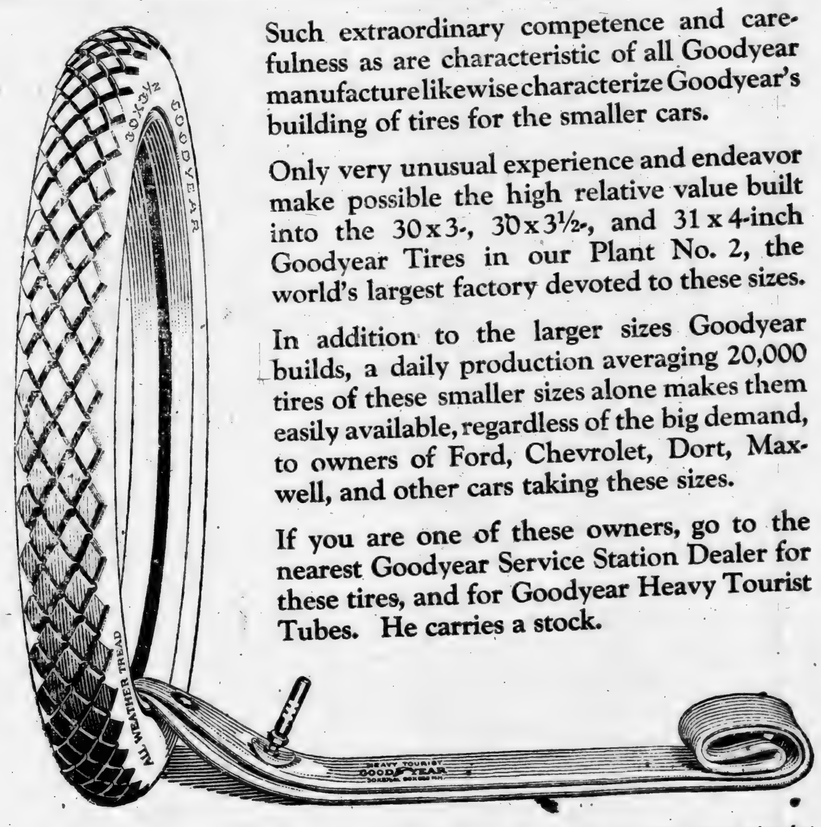
Merit That Makes Mileage —In Tires for the Smaller Cars



Such extraordinary competence and carefulness as are characteristic of all Goodyear manufacture likewise characterize Goodyear's building of tires for the smaller cars.

Only very unusual experience and endeavor make possible the high relative value built into the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch Goodyear Tires in our Plant No. 2, the world's largest factory devoted to these sizes.

In addition to the larger sizes Goodyear builds, a daily production averaging 20,000 tires of these smaller sizes alone makes them easily available, regardless of the big demand, to owners of Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, and other cars taking these sizes.

If you are one of these owners, go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He carries a stock.

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof bag..... $4.50

AN EASTER STORY

There's a wonderful story of long, long ago,
Of a Savior who came from above.
To lay down His life for the children of men,—
What a wonderful story of love!
But no tomb could enfold Him,
Nor death keep its prey:
God's angels the stones rolled away,
And with gladness we'll sing
Of our Savior and King,
Who arose on this bright Easter Day.

Wonderous, sweetest story—tell it o'er and o'er.
Blessed story, precious story—tell it more and more.
Hark! the angels singing; catch the glad refrain;
Christ, the Lord of Earth and Heaven, is risen again.

Once a gain tell the story. The dark night has passed.
The morning dawns golden and bright
He who for us was slain, lives eternal to reign.
Gone forever is sorrows dark night;
For the Christ is risen and glory doth shine;
And fair angels earthward speed
To bear the good news to the waiting ones there.
The Lord is arisen indeed!

(April, 1920) Mrs. E. C. Maye.

REYNOLDS-ROBERTS WEDDING

One of the loveliest of the early spring weddings marked by elegance and simplicity, took place on Wednesday at four o'clock, at the first Methodist Church, when Miss Annie Reynolds became the bride of Mr. Guy Roberts.

Loving hands had transferred the church into a place of beauty. The bridal tones of white and green, being beautifully carried out with ferns, carnations and white tapers. Baskets on tall white pedestals, and with moline and filled with white carnations were very effectively used. Unusually fine nuptial music was rendered before the arrival of the briday party. Miss Gillis presided at the piano, accompanied by Miss Mary Curry, who played "The Lullaby from Jocelyn," exquisitely on her violin.

Miss Willie Belle Sartor sang "Until" and her sweet voice was never heard to greater advantage, while Mr. Percy Pitts sang with much taste and expression "Love like the dawn comes stealing."

Promptly at the appointed hour the young couple entered the church to the strains of the march from Lohengrin, led by the ushers, Messrs Ruben Reynolds and Mr. Hance Alred. They slowly approacheed the altar where Dr. Maye, in his usual impressive manner, performed the ceremony. As the vows were being said tthe sweet notes of "Annie Laurie," with piano and violin softly sounded through the sacred edifice.

The bride, who is a beautiful girl of pronounced blonde coloring, never looked lovelier than on this her wedding day, as she plighted her troth to the man of her choice.

Her gown was a new spring model of blue tricotine with which she wore a "chic" hat of blue straw; and her flowers were bride's roses showered with valley lillies.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom left for an extended trip to New York and other eastern cities, stopping in Richmond, on their return home.

The bride is a second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds, a lovely girl, who numbers her friends by the score; while the groom is a popular young business man of Clanton.

Their many friends will be glad that they will make their future home in Clanton.

Mrs. Jim Parrish of Birmingham is the guest of Mrs. Gilvie McKee.

Mrs. P. D. Wilson will be hostess to the Study Club Friday evening at the Hotel.

MRS. SPLAWN HOSTESS

The ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society held their regular meeting on Monday evening, at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Splawn. The subject for the afternoon was "Labor Reconstruction in America." Several interesting articles were read relating to the duty of Americans towards foreigners, and a bautiful vocal solo by Miss Willie Belle Sartor was rendered.

Plans wre announced for an Easter Egg Hunt and a mite box opening for the Junior Missionary to take place Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. N. A. Kicker. After which a social hour was spent. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Nix, served lovely salad plate with hot tea.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. W. D. Spigener on Monday April 5th.

Miss Inez Higgins, a student of the Womans College, was the week-end guest of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pitts and Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Reynolds arrived Monday to attend the Reynolds-Roberts wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Polk and children visited relatives in Birmingham last week.

Miss Lucile Reynolds of Birmingham is visiting relatives in Clanton

Mrs. Durwood Broadhead spent the week-end with relatives in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pipes spent the week-end with Mr. Clarence Pipes at Minooka.

Mrs. Alex Richards of Meridian, Mississippi arrived in Clanton Tuesday, for a vsit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. VanDerveer.

Miss Della Latham was a visitor to relatives in Montevallo during the week-end.

Dr. J. V. Higgins of Athens spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Frank Higgins.

Miss Mary Upchcurch was the week end guest of the Misses McDonalds at Wetumpka.

E. C. MAYE CLUB MEETS

An interesting meeting of the E. C. Mays S. S. Class was held at the home of Mrs. Napoleon Johnson on Friday evening. The meeting was opened with the reading of thirteenth chapter of I Corinthians, by the president, Mrs. Barney Roberts, followed by prayer by Mrs. Maye. After a short business session a most enjoyable program was enjoyed. Solo, "Will I empty handed be," Mrs. John Armstrong; Evangelism, Mrs. W. P. Splawn; Personal repentance, Mrs. Maye; Solo, "Oh, Dry these Tears," Miss Sartor; Easter message, Miss Alee Stewart; Open discussion of religious instructions for children, led by Mrs. Maye.

A delicious ice course was served to twenty guests. The invited guests were: Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Earl Gowan, Miss Alee Stewart and Miss Willie Belle Sartor.

ALRED-CALLEN WEDDING

Considerable surprise and great interest was evident when it was learned that Mr. J. Hance Alred and Miss Izora Callen were married on Sunday afternoon at the residence of the bride, by the Rev. P. G. Carter, Baptist Minister, by an impressive ceremony in the presence of her relatives and a few invited friends. This brought to a happy climax an intimate acquaintance of some three years duration. The happy couple left for a brief honey moon trip to Birmingham on the 5-o'clock train.

Mr. Alred is one of the well-known druggists of the city, and has been in business here for some fifteen or more years. The bride is a product of Clanton, being born and raised here, and is well known to all.

We wish them much happiness and true prosperity.

VOLUME IX. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA, APRIL 8, 1920. NUMBER 2

STEADY, REPUBLICANS!

By Will H. Hays,
Chairman Republican Nat'l Committee

Steady, Republicans!

This, of all times, is the time to keep the ranks firm. We are in the front trenches, posted on the firing-steps, each and every one of us, and our duty there is to keep our eyes—every second—on the opposition.

DON'T LET ANYTHING IN THE NEAR DRAW OUR GAZE FROM THE ENEMY'S LINE!

THIS IS THE IMPERATIVE CALL TO THE PERFORMANCE OF AN INSTANT DUTY.

Steady!

Let not the certainty of Republican success, which means so much for the country's welfare, be lessened in even the slightest degree by any inability to order our own affairs.

Our day is already certain—the day of Republican victory—but we have got to remember—and we must remember NOW—that sure as the dawn is and bright as the day will be, the moments before its arrival must not be allowed to be fraught with threatenings, for the daylight will be of small use to us in our task of making the most of it, if we blind ourselves before its coming.

Hold the boat steady. The winds may blow. We have reached the place where the cross-currents may run. But remember that the ripples do not show the direction of the main current, which flows surely and flows strongly underneath this eddy and that froth.

Here is no moment for little things. We have to perform a task worthy of our party strength, worthy of our party history; we have a patiotic work to do that is epoch-making, national. Upon our performance will depend the future of the country. The chronicler of centuries to come, the generations of Americans to be—will look backward at these now-approaching years as of the most tremendous import in the development of American policy—and it is the Republican party that is to direct that development.

Let us permit no distraction.

No acrimony among us. No petty bickerings. Nothing — NOTHING must decrease the certainty of our doing well that which we are certainly about to be called upon to accomplish.

LET NO STONES BE PUT INTO THE SNOWBALLS!

Loyalty to the party first.

Loyalty to the party always.

Loyalty to the party that is to save the country.

WILL H. HAYS.

MAPLESVILLE

Dr. H. M. Nix wishes to announce that he will be out of his office from April 12th to 17th, attending the Alabama State Dental Associatios in Mobile, Ala. 4-8-2t

WEST CHILTON

Spring has been so tardy, but the opening flowers and warm days tell us the vernal season is here, and as someone said in the long ago, "In the spring time the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

Joseph E. Jones of Adamsville was a visitor here last week.

Mr. Ira Sorrell of Bessemer was here last week.

Miss Bevie Smith visited Miss Noren Atchison on the 21st.

W. R. Redden made a business trip to Bibb Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Armstrong visited their daughter near Free Springs Sunday.

On Friday night, the 2nd, at 7:30 the Holy Sacrement was administered here, at the same hour that service was observed by Christian people throughout the world, it being the anniversary of the institution of the Holy rite—the time being equivalent to the 14th of the month Nison in Jewish reckoning. Service undenominational.

J. T. Waldrup has purchcasd a new Chevrolet, and like the other candidates he will be a good roads advocate, and we suspect the handsome young widow will advocate good roads also.

The latest thought in journalism is the "Jerusalem News," a daily in the ancient city, which causes us to think of a remark by a gentleman well remembered in Clanton circles that "by and by we would read in the papers of the return of some of the ancient worthies to the Holy Land,—thus onward moves the great Eternal in the order of His plan."

Miss Lola Scott is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gentry.

OAK HILL

Dear Editor:

Please allow me space in your columns this beautiful Spring morning for a bit of news from this place..

The winter is over and spring has come and found us still doing business at the some old stand.

Our Sunday School is progressing nicely under the able management of Prof. A. H. Gilasscock as Superintendent. The interest is good and the attendance is increasing as the weather gets better.

Easter was a glad day with us all.

Brother S. L. Crantch, the pastor, preached a grand old time sermon and held the congregation almost spel bound all through his discourse.

Next Sunday evening, April 11th is our singing convention, and we will have professors Roper, Collins and Glasscock and others to direct and all lovers of music is invited to come and bring your books and we will have a good time singing the praises of God.

We especially invite our neighboring classes from Oak Grove and Union Grove. The latest Showalter book will be used.

E. L. GLASSCOCK.

MRS. GORE VERY ILL

The wife of Sheriff Gore is very ill at the home here. She has been sick about five or six weeks with the flu. Friends of the family hope she may soon be restored to her former good health.

JUDGE ADAMS HURT

We learn that Judge Adams was badly hurt one day last week by falling from a wagon at his place near Thorsby. He was rendered unconscious for some time, according to the report. We hope he is not seriously hurt, and wish for his prompt recovery.

FOR SALE—One horse 12 years old, weight 900 lbs., works well, is sound; will sell at bargain. One colt 12 mos. old. One cow and calf. A few bean seed at $2.75 per bu.

IOWA HAS SUCCESSFUL WOMAN AUTO DEALER

Over in Loon, Iowa, is one of the Ford Motor Company's most interesting dealers—Mrs. M. P. Estes, who sells something like 300 Ford Cars yearly, to say nothing of the Fordson Tractor she sells. Her only regret is that the company couldn't promise her more than 300 cars this year. She is said to be one of the three most successful women automobile dealers in Iowa.

Mrs. Estes is a thorough business woman. She knows her product, she knows her territory, she know how to sell cars and she knows the value of business system, for that is her hobby. "You can't do business right withotu a good system," she declares. "People don't like to wait. If a man comes in and wants to know if he can get a certain part, or what his account is or what something will cost, you've got to be able to tell him quickly.

In a letter to the Ford Motor Co., the Des Moines Branch manager says of Mrs. Estes: "This dealer has the largest number of cars according to the population of her territory of any dealer under this branch. Her estimate for this year is one car for every twenty-seven people including men, women, children and imates of the poor farm. And she has consistently carried a greater percentage of unfilled orders for immediate delivery than any other dealer we have."

FOR MR. WALKER

Lawley, Ala., April 5, 1920.

Mr. Editor:

I notice in your paper that Mr. G. A. Keen says that Mr. Abbott was a good carpenter. Now if that is what it takes to make a good commissioner, Mr. Walker has got Mr. Abbott skinned yet. Mr. Walker is a carpenter, brick-layer, and has had four years experience as a machinist.

I. W. LAWRENCE.

Bad breath, bitter taste, dizziness and a general "no-'count" feeling is a sure sign of a torpid liver. HERBINE is the medicine needed. It makes the liver active, vitalies the blood, regulates the bowels and restores a fine feeling of energy and cheeerfulness. Sold by Uuchurch Drug Co.

Mr. W. T. Herrod, County Commissioner of the Third District, was a visitor to Clanton a short while on Monday.

THE O'KEEFE & DAVIS BIG SHOW COMING APRIL 12

The thousands of enthusiastic patrons who have seen the O'Keefe & Davis Big Show throughout the length and breadth of the land have universally conceded to this well conducted organization, "The Banner of them All." To the practical sense of those familiar with popular forms of amusement it is not a question for deep contemplation why this organization has met wth success.

Quoting from a Laurel, Miss. paper of recent date, the writer after a careful review of the performances of the night before gives, as his opinion, the following reason why the O'Keefe & Davis Big Shows are so popular:—"From the time the orchestra is "rung in" until the final drop of the curtain, there is not a moment when something of interest is not transpiring. An orchestra of seven pieces enlivens the interest between acts.

The good order maintained during the performances is a striking evidence of their compelling interest.

The O'Keefe & Davis Shows, with their solo band and orchestra and repertorie of new royalty dramatic successes will be inClanton for one week commencing Monday, April 12. The performances are given in a large tent constructed for a similar purpose, which is treated with the new discovery of "waterproofing," thus eliminating any chance of unpleasant results from the caprices of the weather.

STATE EXAMINATION

The next regular State Examination for teachers will be held in the Clanton Grammar School building on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 19th, 20th and 21st. All applicants should be present by 10 o'clock for registration. Those applicants with whom I am not personally acquainted must furnish references as to their character.

Prof. J. L. Johnson, Principal of Clanton Grammar School, attended the A. E. A. at Birmingham last week. He says the teachers of the State look better than they ever did before. Don't know whether he was talking about the lady teachers alone or both the ladies and gentlemen.

W. L. Holmes and Miss Georgia Williamson, teachers in the county high school, attended the A. E. A. in Birmingham last week.

MAN POSTPONES HIS FUNERAL

"I am 66 years old and for past two years have been suffering so badly from stomache and liver troubles, bloating and colic attacks that I did not expect to live more than a few months and was arranging my affairs and even my funeral. Three doses of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy have entirely cured me." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver nd intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose wil convince or money refunded. Sold by Alred Drug Company, Clanton, Ala.

PROF. JOHNSON ACCEPTS COUNTY CHAIRMANSHIP

For Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign.

Prof. J. L. Johnson, principal of the Clanton Grammar School, has accepted the chairmanship of the Salvation Army Home Drive Fund Campaign for Chilton County. Franklin K. Lane, just prior to resigning his portfolio as secretary of the Interior, accepted the appointment of National Chairman. Former Governor Earl Brewer, of Mississippi, is chairman for the Gulf Division, and ex-Congressman Sydney J. Rowie of Birmingham, is chairman of the counties of Jefferson, Chilton, Coosa, Shelby and Walker.

In place of the old plan of soliciting pennies, nickels and dimes in the tamborine, the Salvation Army has adopted the plan of making an annual appeal for funds with which to carry on its work of rescue and relief. The appeal this year will be from May 10 to May 20, and the major portion of the funds donated in Alabama will be expended in Alabama in rescue relief and mission work.

"In accepting the chairmanship," said Prof. Johnson, "I have done so because I believe it to be my duty to give my whole-hearted help to this work in grateful recognition of the splendid treatment accorded our brave boys in France by the Salvation Army and of the truly Christ-like work now being done by it among the human derelicts in our own land.

"The members of the Salvation Army have consecrated their lives to this work and are on the job 365 days in each year, rain or shine, only asking for and getting barely a meager existence for themselves. All money received over and above that is used to feed the hungry, clothe the needy, buy medicine and medical attention for the poor, and provide a home and medical attention for the unfortunate women and their babies. I know that I shall not have to ask the generous people of Chilton County in vain for their support during this campaign. I am sure that I can count on them for their ungrudging support for service as well as for funds.

"The Salvation Army was good to our boys during the war—now let us show our appreciation by reciprocating during the May campaign."

Mr. O. E. Latham was in Clanton on business last week.

Mr. J. W. Stanfield of Montgomery was in Clanton on business Saturday and Friday.

Misses Preston and Williams returned home after attending the A. E. A. in Birmingham.

Miss Wannie Griffith returned to her home in Birmingham after a short visit to the Misses Robets.

STUNT PARTY

The Sigma Sigma Chi "pulled off" a stunt party in the auditorium of the high school building on last Friday evening.

As one would naturally have inferred from the announcement of the entertainment it was light in character, with the exception of the last number.

The evening's program consisted of a number of playlets given in panto mime, while the ear was continually delighted with fitting music in muffled tones by Misses Gillis and Curry on pano and violin, respectively.

The "Gossiping Party" with its assembling of "old maids" grotesquely costumed caused much side-splitting laughter. Miss Anice Kemp as hostes of the party was exceptionally good; as was also Miss Eloise Kemp, who faithfully held to her cat (and it was not any make-believe cat either). A duet "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," by two of the guests, "Misses" Willie Murphy and Frank Mullins, was very pathetic.

"The wooing of Jeanne," by a number of lovers, was clever. Her elopement with the artist, provoked uproarious laughter. And the couple got married! and the chances are, they promised to live together ever after.

The last act of the evening: Scenes from "Sleeping Beauty," was artistically produced. The lightly tripping good fairies, as they kept vigil over the sleeping maiden and afterward literally covering her with their festoon of brilliant flowers, were beautiful presentations.

Margaret Hester, as an old witch, leaning on her staff and threatening calamity, could not be improved upon.

A nominal entrance fee was charged door receipts amounting to about thirty dollars. This amount will be usd for defraying commencement expenses of the high schcool music class.

A valuable dressing for flesh wounds, burns, scalds, old sores, rash, chafed skin, is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT; it is both healing and antiseptic. Sold by Upchurch Drug Co.

OBITUARY

To the W. M., Wardens, and Brethren of Verbena Lodge No. 754, A. F. & A. M.

Dear Brethren:

With bowed heads, we must again acknowledge the work and wisdom of the Supreme Grand Master of the Universe, in the sudden and tragic death of our beloved Brother, Wilber Fisk Claughton; his life being suddenly taken in a Railroad accident on March 11th. 1920.

It had been his custon for many years to come to the postoffice each morning for his mail, and on the fatal morning of his death, he started to cross the tracks in front of the post-office, and owing to his advanced age, and to the fact that there was a train standing on the siding hissing steam and otherwise making a great deal of noise, he failed to notice the train that was rapidly approaching on the main line, and just as he stepped on the track he was struck by the rapidly moving train and instantly killed.

Brother Claughton was born in Dallas County, Alabama, on January 1, 1842. He was reared, educated, and taught school in the county of his birth.

He became a member of the church at the age of sixteen, and moved to this county soon after the close of the Civil War, and became a member of the Baptist Church at this place, where he remained a consistent member until his untimely death.

He joined the Jeff Davis Artillery as a volunteer in 1861, with 26 of his comrades, at Selma, and was wounded in the battle of Cold Harbor in 1862, and remained in the hospital at Richmond, Va., for six months, when he was honorably discharged.

He moved to Baker County in 1868 and during that same year was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, who with their two sons survive him.

He was made a Mason at Amand No. 250, Cooper, Ala., about 1878, moving his membership to this Lodge at the time of its organization.

Brother Claughton was a man of strong convictions, and fearless in defense of what he conceived to be right. He was kind, generous and always active in every move for the upbuilding of his community, state and nation; and was a most valuable friend to all who were worthy of that distinction.

Now, Therefore: As God, in His all-wise Providence has seen fit to call our most worthy and beloved brother from his labor on earth to the Lodge Triumphant, be it resolved:

First—That in the death of Brother Claughton, this Lodge has lost one of its most faithful and loyal members, and this community a valuable and loyal citizen.

Second—That our most heartfelt sympathy is hereby extended to his family and friends, and though his face we see no more, we shall ever cherish his memory.

Third—That a blank page in our record book be inscribed to his memory, and that this report be spread upon our minutes and a copy thereof furnished his family under the seal of this Lodge.

Most Humbly Submitted,
H. T. WILLIAMS,
J. C. PATTILLO,
O. B. SMITH,
Committee.

SINGING AT POPLAR SPRINGS

The singing at Poplar Springs on Easter Sunday seemed to fill everybody with a singing spirit. It being the first also a pleasant day the place thronged with people from far and near. We feel that all who attended will look forward and plan to attend another soon. The day was well spent, with the following program disposed of:

The house was called to order by R. T. Grant, who sang one song, followed by prayer by L. W. Thomas. A. P. Vinson was elected chairman, Ammie Boswell acted as Secretary for the day. A committee of three was appointed by the Chairman—Hiram Devaughn, Holly Cooper and R. T. Grant.

Singers for the forenoon were: O. L. DeVaughn, J. C. Jones, T. L. Grant E. F. Taylor, H. G. Carter, R. T. Grant, fifteen minutes each.

Recess for dinner, one hour and fifteen minutes.

There was plenty of dinner provided for the congregation.

The house was called to order at 1:30. Singers for the afternoon were as follows: J. W. Cagle, L. F. Meckler, Ralph Grant, Ammie Boswell, W. G. Culp, W. M. Boswell; recess; Lee Robinson, W. A. DeLoach, L. T. Grant, J. W. Cagle, R. T. Grant, O. L. DeVaughn, fifteen minutes each.

Organists for the day were: Ralph Grant, Ammie Boswell, Birtie Edwards, Lee Robinson.

Rev. L. W. Thomas dismissed the congregation.

A. P. VINSON, Chm.,
AMMIE BOSWELL, Secy.

Tom Watson is running for President in the Georgia primary. Tom would make about the best one we know any thing about.

Pity Herb. Hoover can't find out whether he is a Democrat or a Republican. We think Jim Reed was right when he said Hoover was neither a Democrat nor a Republican, but a British Liberal.

Must be something to a fellow who can ride a straddle of the Democratic donkey and the G. O. P. Elephant in the same election campaign. Witness Mr. Hoover in thte Michigan primary the other day.

Hiram Johnson has been endorsed for President in the Michigan primary over all other candidates. Wood ran second and Lowden third. Hoover was on both Democratic and Republican tickets, running first on the Democratic and fourth on the Republican.

Did you ever go home at night hungry as a bear and find the wife utterly indifferent toward getting supper ready? Well, just inquire into the situation and you will find that she has been to the club all afternoon and come home all fed up on chicken salad, nut loaf and lemonade.

A fellow came into our office this week to subscribe for the paper, and when we told him what the price was, here is what he said: "Well, I will not buy it; I will just read the other fellow's paper." If that fellow's neighbors have to buy newspapers for him to read, we wonder if they don't also have to buy meat and bread for him.

Something funny about this League of Nations thing. Every fellow who goes out before the people endorsing it gets sick and has to go in. President Wilson was the first to try it. Now Attorney General Palmer has got sick over in Georgia, where he went to speak in behalf of his candidacy for the Presidency on a platform endorsing the League of Nations. Looks like there is a plague on the advocates of the thing.

The inclement weather of last week no doubt interfered to some extent with the clean up plans of quite a few of our people. In that case we want to remind them that they should not resign to that little defeat and remain in the trash. Last week was not the only time to clean up. Any week is the appropriate time. Now is the time. The sooner the better. If you have not cleaned up, brag a rake and a rake and get busy.

Fellow named Tucker down at Montgomery sends us a political story about events at the capital and tells us to publish it. He adds at the botton a note saying "I will send you big paid advertising right away." That note is the bait he put out to catch suckers. All right brother Tucker. We write our own political stories, and as for the "big paid advertising" you are going to send us right away, will say that it takes 20 cents per inch to get space in The Union-Banner. When you a re ready, Gridley fire!

Mr. Carter of the Baptist Church is making some sign around this town, if we are any judge of things. He is getting good crowds out to hear his sermons, and when they go to hear him they invariably hear something that is good and wholesome. If anybody has a notion that Carter struck a snag when he first landed here, let them wake up to the fact that he did not fall off the wagon at all. He came here and showed us the first thing that he was a preacher that believed in standing for the right thing. His stand is giving him strength, which we think he heartily deserves. If the Baptist people will stick to him and not get gun-shy he will show us some marksmanship the like of which we have never before seen in Clanton.

The regular terms of the Court of County Commissioners of Chilton Conuty are held on the second Mondays in February, May, August and November, for the transaction of general business of the county.

Judge McMorris of Wetumpka was in Clanton Wednesday.

REPUBLICAN CLUBS

Announcement that the Division of Republican Clubs has been completely organized with Earle S. Kinsley, national committeeman from Vermont as National Director, is made by Will H. Hays, Chairman of the National Committee.

Mr. Kinsley will have associated with him Lew Wallace, Jr., of New York, in charge of general clubs, and Oden S. Williams of Arkansas in charge of college clubs.

Under his plans already mapped out by Mr. Kinsley, Republican clubs will be placed in every county in the United States and also in every college and university. The work will be carried on in eache state by a vice-director working in conjunction with the nationtl committeeman and the state chairman.

Clubs have already been established in a large number of counties, and the same is true of numerous colleges.

The work will occupy the entire time of the division of clubs in New York City where permanent offices will be maintained at 19 West 44th Street.

Inquiries and suggestions relative to the organization of these clubs will be welcomed by Mr. Kinsley. Letters should be addressed to him at the New York office.

Clean-up week in Clanton has passed into history, along with similar weeks of by-gone years, and lo, we have with us yet the familiar wood pile which is such a delight to gaze upon as we go to the post office daily. And likewise we also have with us in all its former splendor the scrap iron pile which is the delight of those who go to the Baptist Church on Sunday. The wood pile lot really ought to have been cleaned up. There is not a vestige of reason why it should not have been. But there is some excuse for not cleaning up the scrap-iron lot. It would not look much better after removing the debris unless the Baptist Church building were carried off with all the other trash.

Editor Union-Banner:

I want you to say in your much esteemed paper that I will not be a candidate for Tax Collector this time, because I am doing a work that I think is very necessary to the general public and will be beneficial to all the people who are trying to make an honest living. So you will please say to my friends and those who have so strongly solicited me to run for Tax Collector that I thank them most heartily for their confidence and that I will try to act in such a way that they shall not have cause to regret that confidence in my ability and honesty to do the work of that office correctly. Yours truly,

I FELT LIKE MY BACK WOULD BREAK

Dull Aching Pains over Kidneys, Pains in Joints and Muscles, Made Life Miserable for this Anniston Man.

"I've stayed on my job many a time with my back aching like it would break," said Mr. C. T. Morris, the well known machinist of South Anniston, Ala.

"I think my kidneys were at fault but no medicine I ever took helped me much. Every turn or movement gove me pain, and bending over or lifting anything heavy was especially painful.

"I also had a bad case of stomch trouble. After eating I'd have a full, heavy feeling and would belch gas. My bowels were constipated and my liver lazy, which gave me a tired, dull feeling every morning, making me grouchy. I was often dizzy and could see pots dancing before my eyes. My tongue was coated and breath foul.

"After taking Dreco, I am happy to report a great change in my feelings. I can eat anything I want with no fear of gas or bloating, as my stomach digests anything perfectly. I know my liver has been cleaned off thoroughly, for those headaches, dizzy spells, tired, dull, grouchy feeling of mornings have gone, and I get up fresh and full of energy, ready for big work. he backache has been entirely relieved and the soreness in the joints and muscles gone. I believe in Dreco very strong, and have induced several friends to take it on account of what it did for me."

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is being especially introduced in Clanton by Uuchurch Drug Co.

Catarrh is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

Do Not Neglect It.

When you use sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstopping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.

Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Get a bottle of S. S. S., and begin a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for half a century.

S. S. S. gets right at the source of Catarrh, and forces from the blood the germs which cause the disease. Special medical advice regarding your own case free. Address Medical Director, 106 Swift Laboratory. Atlanta. Ga.

Keep Well

Do not allow the poisons of undigested food to accumulate in your bowels, where they are absorbed into your system. HUGE PLURALITY FOR MUSGROVE PREDICTED IN JEFFERSON COUNTY

In Ringing Tones, Musgrove, Invading Home County of Underwood, Denounces Present Senator as Representative of Reactionaries and Defends Himself as Representative of Progressive Forces in State Politics.

Note—The following graphic account of the great mass meeting in Birmingham, at which L. B. Musgrove opened his senatorial campaign in Jefferson County, and at which he received a tremendous ovation, appeared in The Anniston Star, being sent to that paper by a staff correspondent who attended the meeting and saw with his own eyes how enthusiastically the Walker County man was received in the home city of his two opponents. It fully sustains the general prediction that Mr. Musgrove will carry Jefferson County by an overwhelming majority.

Birmingham, Ala.—(Special).—The prediction that L. B. Musgrove, the progressive candidate for United States Senator, will carry the home county of Oscar W. Underwood by a plurality over both opponents ranging from ten to eighteen thousand, was given emphasis here when a crowd that filled every downstairs seat in the Jefferson Theatre and most of the seats in the balcony, cheered to the echo the remarks of Mr. Musgrove, W. C. Davis of Jasper, J. Fritz Thompson of Bibb County, and John W. Altman of this city.

The statement that Mr. Musgrove is no speaker was also emphatically disproved. His voice rang with force and earnestness as he defended his position as the representative of the progressive forces in Alabama politics, and denounced Mr. Underwood as the representative of the reactionaries. His peroration was a gem of eloquence and brought cheer after cheer from the large audience assembled.

Mr. Davis made an eloquent and comprehensive review of the great leaders whom Alabama has produced, concluding with Mr. Musgrove, who led the recent fight in the nation for constitutional prohibition and who is now recognized as a national leader for vocational education.

Bibb for Musgrove.

Mr. Thompson, solicitor for his district, stated that Bibb, once known as the wettest county in Alabama, will go overwhelmingly for Musgrove, and challenged his hearers to name a single piece of constructive legislation fathered by Mr. Underwood during his experience of a quarter of a century in office.

Mr. Altman, who is regarded as the most popular leader in this county, read a letter from Senator Underwood to Samuel Gompers, in which Underwood undertook to dodge responsibility for his boast in his city that he was author of the anti-strike clause in the Cummins bill. The bill, Mr. Altman declared, will impose billions of dollars in taxes on the people of the country, and in all probability will mean the defeat of all that Senator Bankhead accomplished for the development of Alabama waterways, inasmuch as it makes no appropriation for waterway traffic. It was written by the railroads for the railroads and against the interests of the people, he said, and if Mr. Underwood should be elected because of his championship of the measure, every Alabama congressman should be defeated, because Mr. Underwood was the only leader in favor of the bill.

There were representatives here from every section of the state and most enthusiastic reports were given at a meeting preceding the speaking.

Musgrove Endorsed.

Mr. Musgrove, introduced as the next senator, was greeted with applause which was general throughout the house.

"I am appearing in a new role," he began. "I have all of my life been a plain farmer and business man and not a public man. It was not my will and not my wish that I go upon the stump and make speeches in this campaign, but while on a sick bed I was over-persuaded last week by a bunch of lawyers. They billed me to speak in Coosa County. I agreed to go because I felt it safer to try to make a speech among the hills of Coosa than before an audience of lawyers.

In to the Finish.

"I entered this race not at my suggestion, not at my wish. Men who saw the situation stated that I was the man to make the race. Now as I am in the race, I am in to the finish."

Mr. Musgrove spoke feelingly in the interest of the farmers and said he was a farmer and had been one practically all his life, and that he had given much time and thought to his farming interests to link the progressive farmer, and the public school up with the progressive farming of our state.

"There has been started in Alabama," he continued, "a union between the farmers, union labor and the prohibition forces that will drive into the ocean from the Atlantic to the Pacific all standpatters. I stand before you as one of two candidates opposing Mr. Underwood. I thought it better for only one to oppose him. I am going to cast two ballots, my first and second choice, both against Mr. Underwood. I have fought him ever since he has been in public life and intend to keep it up until he is retired to private life.

"I have fought in season and out of season for prohibition and expect to continue the fight. I felt complimented at being selected by the moral Christian element of this nation to be their leader in the fight for national prohibition. It is not for me to say what I did, but suffice it to say that within a short time we went over the top and it is now the eighteenth amendment.

Put Friends on Guard.

"There are forces that would change it. What I think should be done is to put friends on guard. Since it has been setlted, let it stay settled.

"I have given much thought to the subject of education and especially vocational education. Some changes should be brought about and I believe if given your commission I can do something to bring about the change. Boys are leaving the farms. I know of only one channel to change, and that is for the boys to have vocational training, up to three years, so they will be prepared for their life's work."

He advocated federal aid for schools, stating that it might be given along the lines of the federal highway aid.

"When I entered this race and wrote my platform I expressed my views on labor," he said. "I did not know these great questions we have today would be involved, but my platform and the views then expressed are as good today as they were then. My people are working people. Hundreds of my people are laborers, some of them working in the mines. Whether a man is working in a mine, in a factory or on a farm, he is just as good as I am. The fact that I have been fortunate and accumulated some of the world's goods does not make me any better than they are.

"The opposition has undertaken to capitalize the fact that union labor is for me, and to scare the farmers and the men outside of this district away from me. I have gone into other sections and I can say they have failed. The propaganda has had little effect.

Relations Pleasant.

"I worked men by the hundreds and thousands in my mines before I sold them and I always had pleasant relations with them. Don't tell me these men are not my equal. I tell you they are.

"They charge me with wearing the union label. I wear no man's label, but I would rather wear the label of the farmers of Alabama than the label of the stock exchange gamblers of New York, who have robbed them for years. I would rather wear the union label of the miners, the laborers of my state, than the label of the corporate interests. I would rather wear the union label of the railroad brotherhoods than the label of the salaried officials who work them into serfdom. I would rather wear the label of the moral and Christian people of this country than the label of the brewers and the German-American alliance."

Judge Foster's Temerity; The "Superhuman" Is Challenged.

(Editorial from Anniston Star)

"Is he what he is, or is he what they say he is" was the wording of advertisements in reference to Senator Underwood printed in Birmingham papers last week; and if the latter be the case, if the junior senator be in fact a superman, on whose shoulders the whole system of government is poised, then Judge Henry B. Foster, manager for Hon. L. B. Musgrove, must be credited with more than ordinary temerity; for he has challenged this eighth-wonder-of-the-world to a joint debate.

The Underwood apostles remind us of the speech of Cassius in "Julius Caesar," wherein he said: "Why, man, he doth bestride the world like a Colossus, and we petty men walk under his huge legs and peep about to find ourselves dishonorable graves;" for, of a verity, the mighty Oscar is a prodigy in the eyes of these who have fallen for his propaganda. Judge Foster, however, orthodox Baptist though he be, is sometimes skeptical; so he says further with Cassius: "Now in the name of all the gods at once, upon what meat does this our Caesar (Oscar) feed, that he is grown so great?"

It would seem that while the Mighty One has been digesting his pork at Washington, Farmer Breck has been "feeling his oats" at home. Hence the challenge and the speculation as to what the demi-god will do.

(Paid political advertisement by Musgrove Volunteer Committee Jasper, Ala.)

EMBROIDERY RECEPTION

The celebration of Club Day proved a happy inspiration to the members of the Embroidery Club, who on last Thusday afternoon entertained at a reception at the home of Mrs. Gady Broadhead.

Very nearly a hundred invitations in the club colos, green and gold, had been issued. Members of Clanton's various clubs and a few special non-club friends were included upon this invitation list.

Mrs. Broadhead's home had been lavishly decorated for this delightful occasion, with daffodils, smilax and pot plants and ribbons of gold and green.

Guests were received by Mrs. John VanDerveer and Mrs. J. P. Hayes and presented to the officers of the club Mesdames Broadhead, Wyatt, Gerald and Splawn, all of whom, as the club representative hostesses of the afternoon, stood in a receiving line in the drawing room. Mesdames Arthur Johnson, Alva Wade, Ed Plier, Upchuch, Collier, Wood and Pickens all served in an official capacity. Mesdames Heard, Horn and Neighbors dispensed punch throughout the reception hours. The punch bown was nested in a bed of greenery crowned with the ivy wreath of Bacchas and was filled to over flowing with its delectabe amber-colored beverage. The club colors were still futher elaboated upon in the designing of a tempting ice course with its accompaniment of sunshine cake iced green. The mints too were in green and gold.

The guests were enraptured by the splendid musical pogram executed by two artists of state-wide reputation, Misses Daisey Gillis of Grove Hill, pianist, and Miss Mary Curry of Clanton, violinist.

As a unit the members of the club were mindful of details and proved themselves most gracious hostesses. Each guest will cherish a mental photograph of this auspicious occasion. A back-ground of greenery against which is burned the letters in gold the signal word "Triumph."

The Study Club was delightfully entertained Friday afternoon at the Wilson Hotel, with Mrs. P .D. Wilson as hostess. The President, Mrs. John VanDerveer presided in a very charming manner. After a lengthy business meeting, a very interesting program followed.

Reading Act 3, "King John," by Club members.

Discussion, led by Mrs. Wilson.

Paper, "The Indian in Story," by Mrs. G. D. Broadhead.

Current Events discussed, with Mrs. McSwain as leader. During the social hour, a delicious salad course was served by the hostess. 18 members and a number of guets were present.

Mrs. B. M. Roberts was a visitor to Birmingham Saturday.

Mrs. Gladys Speer accompanied by Miss Cleo Broadhead spent the week end with friends and elatives in the city of Bimingham.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE

One of the loveliest social functions of the early spring was given Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Grady Broadhead, when Mrs. Broadhead and Miss Annie Gragg complimented Mrs. Hance Alred at a miscellaneous shower.

This home was never more attractive than upon this occasion. The parlor was decorated with attractive baskets of daffodils and ferns. Here good wishes to the bride were inscribed in a lovely brides book.

The living room was beautifully adorned with decorations of daffodils and Southern Smilax. Punch was served here from a prettily appointed table by Mrs. Hugh Simpson and Mrs. L. F. Gerald.

The guests were then conducted to the dining room, when the expresman, Master Hal Broadhead, came in with several wagon-loads of parcels for the bride. Then the many useful and dainty gifts were displayed. Afterwards a delicious ice course was served. Music was rendered during the afternoon by Miss Curry.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Womens Missionary Society of the Methodist Church held their regular business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Spigener on Monday afternoon. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in transacting business of various kinds. Mrs. Kicker made a report from the Junior Missionay Mite-box opening on Satuday evening.

Mrs. White opened the discussion for bible study by reading 1st chapter of St. John.

During the social hour the hostess assisted by Miss Mabel Thomas served sandwiches and tea.

Mr. M. L. White made a business trip to Birmingham Tuesday.

Mr. Macey Jones was a visitor to Birmingham Tuesday.

Mrs. Macey Jones has returned home after an extended visit to relatives in Montgomery.

Mrs. Marion Foshee and Mrs. Mack Wyatt spent the week-end in Birmingham.

WHY HAVE SPRING FEVER

WHY WORRY, FRET, AND GET NOTHING DONE, BECAUSE YOUR BLOOD IS SLUGGISH?

YOUR BLOOD NEEDS STRENGTH

People Nowadays Take That Wonderfully Effective Blood Tonic, Pepto-Mangan—Your Druggist has it.

Really' isn't it foolish to be handicapped for weeks in the Spring, just because your blood is sluggish,

The glorious spring days! You uoght to enjoy them, instead of feeling unhappy and half asleep—just too tired our for anything. You aut to be finding new vigor for your work in the spring air—"pep" enthusiasm, happiness!

But you can't, because your blood is clogged with poisons. For long months it has had too little fresh air and has fought off many germs. And it now has heat-making properties that are not needed in warm weather.

oDn't work under a handicap, when it isn't necessary at all. Clear up your sluggish blood. Give it help. Get some of thtat famous blood purifier and tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

Pepto-Mangan is used by the physicians everywhere. You can buy it at any drug store in either liquid or tablet form, just as you prefer. No difference in medicinal value.

Make certain that you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gudes Pepto-Mangan" and see that the name "Gude's" is on tthe package.—adv.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

With the smile of God that through the sunshine lighted up the earth last Sunday two splendid congregations were present, the church being two-thirds full at both services. At the Sunday School in the morning 127 were present and at the Senior B. Y. P. U. something like thirty or more attended. We trust with the approach of good weather and the disappearance of flu this good work will continue and the congregations grow until every seat in the house is occupied. We are glad to welcome the visitors to our services, which are grwing in interest and power.

The deeds to the site for the new church building have been duly signed and any contributions by members to complete the payment for same will be gratefully received by the pastor or site committee.

An event of great interest will take place next Friday night, April the 10, when Dr. Bagby, for possibly a quarter of a century a Missionary in Brazil, now home on furlough, will speak at the Baptist Church, commencing at 8:00, p.m. We earnestly request all the members of the church to attend and cordially invite all others who may wish to come. He is a fine speaker and will have a very interesting story to tell of his work in Brazil.

The services next Sunday will be as follows:

Sunday School at 10, a.m.

Preaching Service at 11, a.m. "The Signs of the Times."

Sunbeam Band, at 2, p.m.

Senior B. Y. P. U., at 6:30, p.m.

Preaching at 7:30, p.m.

The Psalmist said "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go unto the house of the Lord." Will you worship with us next Sunday. We extend you a cordial welcome.

Preaching at 7:30, p.m.—Subject "His Majesty, The Devil."

P. G. CARTER, Pastor.

To help repair the results of illness, old age, work and worry in your daily life; to help give strength to your run-down system and to help renew fagged forces and tone up the nerves—you will find a valuable remedy in Ziron.

Read what Ziron did for an old man, who had to stay in bed most of the time. His daughter, Myrtle Mills, of Pulaski, Tenn., says: "Ziron has helped my father wonderfully. He could not do anything before taking it. He was in bed most of the time, complaining with broken-down nerves and backache. He has taken three bottles and says he is as strong as when he was 17 years old."

If your blood needs iron, try Ziron Iron Tonic. What it has done for others, it may do for you.

Ziron is mild, harmless; does not discolor the teeth, and may be taken safely by young and old, men, women and children.

CLINT CONNELL CAUGHT WITH FIFTEEN GALLONS OF WHISKEY

The force of the Sheriff's office is to be congratulated on the successful raid of last Friday night when they succeeded in capturing Clint Connell with a quantity of white lightning whiskey to the amount of fifteen gallons. The raid was made at his home in the eastern part of the county out on the edge of the mountain in the direction of Coosa River.

This man seems to have been a suspicious character in the whiskey business for several years, and many have been the unsuccessful attempts of officers heretofore to get him. But last week Sheriff Gore's deputies, Grant, Culp, and J. P. Gore succeeded in getting the right dope on him which led to his arrest and the location of his whiskey.

They went to his home about nine o'clock Friday night and a search inside the house resulted in Joe Gore pulling down a five gallon keg of booze which was wrapped in a corn sack and hid in the clothes press. This happened while Jim Grant was entertaining Clint in conversation by the fireside.

After Joe found the five gallon keg and while Jim and Clint were sitting by the fire talking, Sheriff Gore was makng a search of the premises, around the garden and other places, to make sure that Clint had told the truth when he voluntarily assured them that the five gallon keg was every drop there was on the place. The search of the garden failed to reveal anything; but when Sheriff Gore turned his flashlight under the kitchen he spied a little barrel. This told his trained mind what to do next. When he went inside the house sure enough just as he expected, there were the loose planks in the floor where they had been liftd up to place the keg underneath. He called to Joe to help him lift her out, and they found that it was brim full of corn juice.

Meanwhile Mr. Grant had suggested to Clint that he put on his coat and shoes, only to be informed by Clint that he was not cold. Mr. Grant, seeing that Clint did not quite catch the drift, further explained the matter by telling him that he would get cold though in going over to Clanton. Clint naively suggested that he could just wait till the next morning and come on over and fix things up; but that did not suit the officers.

Clint came on with them and spent the night in town. He made bond of $500 on Saturday and went back to his former abode. He will be tried before Judge Reynolds in the circuit court May 3, at which time we hope for further details of the matter to be brought out.

FROM MR. J. N. SCOTT

Editor Union-Banner:

Here I come with a little announcement in your paper. I admired very much indeed seeing the little piece you wrote up in the paper some time ago, stating your interest and that you had in the old timey singing, old time religion, and to believe as both is somewhat advancing in every nook and corner.

I want to state that our quartet singing in Jefferson County in the old Christian Harmony meets in the court house in Birmingham next Sunday, April 18th, and I am requested to invite all singers from Chilton and elsewhere to meet with us and enjoy the day in singing the old timey songs with us. So I hope to meet several of my old friends from Chilton and singing on that day.

Yours for success.

LITTLE VIEWER.

WILL RHODES ARRESTED WITH JUG OF WHISKEY

Will Rhodes, who lives out near the river got on a high lonesome the other day and proceeded to run everybody out of the community with a shot gun. When he had done this he laid himself down on the floor of his house with his licker jug close by his side and went to sleep.

He was in this quiet repose when the Sheriff and Deputy Culp arrived upon the scene. They aroused him from his slumber, and brought him and his whiskey to reckon with the law. He will be tried in the county court May 3.

"SAVE MONEY IN MEAT WEEK" CAMPAIGN ON

Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Federation Secretary of the Civic Club of Clanton, has received a letter from Mrs. J. Brevard Jones of Montgomery, State Chaiman of the Womens Division of Activities of the High Cost of Living campaign urging the women of Clanton to devote their attention to "save money in meat week," the campaign for which is now on.

Officials of the Fair Price Commision and of the Division of Womens Activities have instituted a Natonal "Save Money on Meat Week," to be observed at different times throughout the United States.

Use the less expensive portions instead of the choice cuts is the cry that is being made by Mrs. Jones in her letters. Loins and ribs make up only about 25 per cent of the dressed meat of an animal, it is said. Yet it is on that 25 per cent that a great part of the demand is heavy for any commodity which is available in relatively small quantity the effect on orice as obvious, according to the H. C. L. Committee.

MARS HILL

Dar Editor:

Please allow me space for a bit of news from this place.

There was preaching here Saturday evening and Sunday morning. Bro. Littlejohn from Lawley preached. Also he was chosen pastor, which we were proud of, as there hasn't been a pastor here in some time.

Sorry to say, Sunday school is dead here. But hoping we will get started again real soon.

There was singing here Sunday afternoon, quite a crowd enjoyed it.

Mr. Ernest Foshee is spending some time down here.

Misses Carrie and Lillie Gothard dined with Miss Rena Gothard Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Langston and Mrs. Lula Foshee from Bromptin is visiting relatives here.

Miss Mamie Cofer spent Saturday afternoon with Miss Mamie Edwards.

Mr. T. C. Cofer and wife visited Mr. C. W. Scott Sunday.

Mr. John Cofer made a flying trip to Clanton Sunday.

Remember our preaching day—the first Sunday.

Listen—There will be an all day singing at this place the second Sunday in May. Everyone is invited to come and bring your latest Showalter books and a well filled basket.

MT NEBO SINGING SOCIETY

The Mt. Nebo Singing Society met on Sunday afternoon, April 11th, for the first time in quite a while, owing to weathter conditions and flu.

There was a large crowd, which we were glad to see.

Singing was opened in regular order, with song and prayer by S. A. Henley, Chairman.

Leaders for the afternoon were: S. A. Henley, Rufus Popwell, Blanco Durbin, Sam Culp, Sim Henley and Mrs. Zella Scott. Organists were, F. L. Popwell and Mrs. Zella Scott.

Everybody is cordially invited on next Fourth Sunday afternoon.

COUNTY GETS FAVORABLE DECISION IN SUIT AGAINST TOWN

The trial of the case of Chilton County against the Town of Clanton involving the amount of the construction of some streets in connection with the building of the highways through the town in 1916, was consumated in the Circuit Court Tuesday, when the jury rendered a verdict of $——— in favor of the County.

The case grew out of some kind of an agreement between the Deason administration of the county and the Pinckard administration of the town at the time the county highways were being built through Clanton. The streets that were traversed by the roads under construction were improved along the same manner that the roads were being built, graveled and graded. It is supposed to have been understood between the County and the Town that the county would go ahead and build the streets while it was having the roads built, and then the Town would reimburse the County for its pro rata part of the work. Any way, the streets were built and the town has never yet paid the county for building them. The matter was brought into suit in the Circuit Court after some considerable effort between the county and town officials to reach an agreement had been made. After contesting the matter with the lawyer on each side of the case fighting tenaciously for their views of the law, the jury rendered their verdict in favor of the County.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday was a splendid day in the matter of attendance for this church. In the Sunday School the number present reached 147, one of the largest attendances for more than a year. More than 200 were present at the morning service, while the church at night seating some 300 people was almost full to hear the interesting discourse on "His Majesty The Devil." A very interesting feature in the congregations now attending this church is the large number of men frequently present at both services. Something rather unusual for cities of this size and we assure them that we heartily appreciate the interest and support. The services for next Sunday will be as follows—Sunday School at 10 a.m., Superintendent J. J. Pickens; Preaching at 11 a.m., Subject "The Sabbath Day." Sunbeams, at 2 p.m.; Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p.m., Leader, Miss Mary Upchurch; Preaching at 7:30, subject "The Sequence of Marriage." The question may be asked, can a batchelor talk on marriage? From experience—no. From observation—yes.

We cordially inivte you to hear this profitable, interesting and important subject. Engaged couples especially invited. This sermon has been reported in the local papers of other places where it has been delivered. At the close of the morning service the regular church conference will be held, and a very important recommendation laid before the membership for the endorsement.

We welcome everybody to these services.

P. G. CARTER, Pastor.

Master Joe Luckie visited relatives in Birmingham last week.

AN OVERALL CLUB SHOULD BE STARTED HERE AT ONCE

We think the business men of Clanton should start an Overall Club at once. Don't you?

Will you join it if it is started? All right, think it over. Somebody will be around with a petition before long for signatures of those who are willing to put on overalls for the summer and thus make an effort to get even on the high prices of clothing.

Every business and professional man in Clanton should be glad to wear his overalls during work hours on work days. It is absolutely the sensible thing to do. A clerk can sell goods as well with overalls on as he can in a fifteen dollar pair of pants. A lawyer can stand before the courts in overalls and have just as much room in them to carry his knowledge of the law as he has got in his tailor made suit and stiff collar.

A doctor could go out to the homes of the country folks dressed in overalls and we suspect he would receive even a little more cordial reception from the farmer who will also be in his overalls.

Let's have the Overall Club. We need it.

CRIMINAL COURT POSTPONED

The bar of this court having presented a memorial to the Court requesting that the criminal week of court be adjourned to some future date, and the court being of the opinion from the representations contained in said memorial, and from facts brought to its attention, that the farming operations of this county have been very much retarded by the long continued rains, and that there is urgent need that the farmers who compose the larger part of the juries of the county be allowed on their farms, and that the best intersts of the county require on adjournment of the Criminal week of this Court; it is ordered by the Court that the Criminal week of this Court be adjourned until the further orders of the Court, and that all cases set for trial during the week, beginning Monday, April 19th, 1920, and all cases in which indictments are found by the Grand Jury organized at the present call of the Court, be continued, and that all cases pending before the Grand Jury organized at the present call of the court, and not finally disposed of by it be continued.

This, April 14, 1920.

B. K. McMORRIS,
Judge.

PROVIDENCE BEAT 2

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me space in your most valuable paper to say a few words regarding our Sunday School and community.

We have an evergreen Sunday School at this place, that has been through the winter and is now progressing very nicely under the management of G. W. Bailey, superintendent. Also will say that there will be an all day singing at this place, Providence Beat 2, the Third Sunday in April, 18th, Come one and all and bring your baskets well filled We invite especially all the leaders in the latest books to come and let's sing God's praises once more at old Providence.

THORSBY NEWS

On Monday, April 5th the chapel period at Thorsby Institute was devoted to the recognition of those who attained the rank of Knight in the Modern Health Crusade. To attain this rank it is necessary for a crusader to do fifty four health chores for ten weeks. Following is a statement of the chores for which each one marked himself every day on a record chart provided. These charts were handed to the teacher and duly certified.

Statements of Chores.

1. I washed my hands before each meal today.

2. I washed not only my face but my ears and neck and I cleaned my fingernails today.

3. I kept fingers, pencils and everything likely to be unclean or injurious out of my mouth and nose today.

4. I brushed my teeth thoroughly after breakfast and after the evening meal today.

5. I took ten or more slow, deep breaths of fresh air today. I was careful to protect others if I spit, caughed or sneezed.

6. I played outdoors or with windows open more than thirty minutes today.

7. I was in bed ten hours or more last night and kept my windows open.

8. I drank four glasses of water, including a drink before each meal, and drank no tea, coffee, nor other injurious drinks today.

9. I tried to eat only wholesome food and to eat slowly. I went to toilet at my regular time.

10. I tried hard today to sit up and stand up straight; to keep neat, cheerful and clean-minded; and to be helpful to others.

11. I took a full bath on each of the days of the week that are checked

A good many from the public school became health crusaders,, and attained to the rank of Squire, but it takes a good deal of persistence and determination to continue anything for a given time and not all attained to Knight's honors. We are glad to report the following who did win for themselves these honors and were all "knighted" at the chapel service held in their honor:

From the Public School.

Lucile Howard, Lola May Hayes, Morris Freeman, Iola Gerald, Eva Atchison, Helena Collins, Mabel Howard.

From the Institute.

Others from the Public School entitled to Knighthood, but were not Present:

Romalie Pate, Essie Turner, Freeland Marcus, Vernor Carlson, Marcell Wilder, Frances Wilson, Eugene Littleton, Ruth McCary, Hazel Collins, Ruth Turner, Anna Nelson, Effie Lou Neugent, Ostra Ekblad.

The Knight's badge is a red and blue shield, bearing in its center the double cross emblem of the Anti-Tuberculosis League.

If all children in the country would become health crusaders, we believe that this would have a noticeable effect upon the health conditions in Chilton County in the next few years.

Record charts may be secured from May Stoddard, Thorsby, Ala., or the Alabama Anti-Tuberculosis League, 308 N. 21st Street, Birmingham, Ala.

All crusaders who wish to again continue their health chores until they have earned Knighthood, will be awarded this knight's badge, if they will send their records to Miss Stoddard of Thorsby. She wishes to extend her congratulations to all crusaders and especially to the Knights.

Note.—This campaign in Thorsby has been financed by the Junior Red Cross of Thorsby Institute.

THORSBY CITIZENS ARE NOW WORKING FOR COTTON MILL

Mr. Felix Eiland of Thorsby was in Clanton Tuesday and talked with us about the proposition of the citizens of Thorsby to establish a cotton mill. Mr. Eiland says the prospects for the organization of the company to begin operating is very promising. The plan is to organize the stock company out of the local capitalists at Thorsby mainly, so that it will be largely a home enterprise. It is proposed to put $50,000 in the enterprise to begin with.

A local mass meeting of all who are interested in the proposition is called to be at Thorsby next Saturday at two o'clock. It is very probable that the matter will be taken on some definite form.

CIRCUIT COURT WEEK CONTINUED INDEFINITELY

Judge McMorris has indefinitely continued the criminal term of the Circuit Court of Chilton County. We think this a very wise and commendable step on the part of the Court, inasmuch as the farmers right at this time are much behind with their work, and need to be taking advantage of every day that is suitable for plowing and getting ready for making a crop. Judge McMorris will call the court for disposition of the docket at a time which he thinks will serve the best interests of the people of the county.

J. T. Abbott of Pletcher was in Clanton a few days this week.

ELBERT MIMS CAUGHT AFTER LONG EVASION OF THE LAW

Another arrest for which the Sheriff and his officers deserve much credit was the location and capture of Elbert Mims on Monday night.

This episode started last year when Mims was indicted by the Grand Jury of Chilton County in November for making whiskey. On the day the indictment was made, Mims assaulted Mr. L. P. Best and beat him up unmercifully because he thought Best had appeared and testified against him before the Grand Jury. When he had finished his work with Best Mims left the county and has evaded the law ever since. He went away from here with the grand jury indictment hanging over him, and also a warrant for assault and battery for the way he handled Mr. Best.

When Sheriff Gore had located Mims at his home again, he took his deputies last Monday night and quietly went out to his place, six miles west of Clanton. A diligent search of the residence was made and nothing was found. Then the force including deputies Joe Gore, Grant and Curlee, went out to the barn to take a further view of the situation. As they had carefully surrounded the fodder loft they removed a few bundles of fodder and out poked a head. It was the fugitive for whom they had been searching.

Sheriff Gore flashed his forty-some odd in his face and invited him to come o ut whiche he did quite willingly. A furtther searchc of his lair revealed that he had with him a shot gun and a hatchet for his defense. But the officers had him located so cleverly that he did not have even a chance to use his weapons, say nothing of making a get-away.

The prisoner was brought to Clanton and placed in jail. He will go into the county court on May 3 for trial on the charge of assault and battery. The indictment which he is under for making liquor will hold over till the next term of Circuit Court.

Up until the time of this writing Mims had not made bond, and was being held in the county jail.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Joe Ben Downs, Reporter.

Mr. J. J. Pickens, our new principal, has started at once to putting the lid on, especially against cigarettes. On Wednesday he caught several of the "smokers convention members" at their rendezvous, the grave yard, and gave them all a very serious lecture in the office.

Since Mr. Thompson's leaving Mr. Holmes took charge of the Current Events recitations.

He's coming to the front. Who? Euell Robinson, our future orator for C. C. H. S.. At the Third Year history period he rendered a splendid address on Science from Ancient Times up to the present.

The 1919-20 school is now fast coming to a close. We have only about four weeks of school to build before we will bid old C. C. H. S. Good bye until we meet again.

If any of our readers wish to see a modern Bolsheviki, see Hubert Farley, the author of Bolshevism.

With the arrival of our new professor comes a new pupil to the Sophomore class, Mr. Willie Orr, who is a promising addition to the school.

The Julia Tutwiler Literary Society has challenged the Lanierian Society to a debate on the subject, Woman Suffrage, which, of course, the Lanierian, on the positive side.

Friday we were visited by a Mr. Hall, investigator of the High School from the State Department .

The literary society program rendered on last Friday was a very good impersonation of a faculty meeting of special interest, was Pinck Cooper impersonating Mr. Pickens. The others were very good also. Anice Kemp, Birdie Teel, Jennie Robinson and Willie Murphy impersonating repectively Miss Preston, Miss Williamson, Miss Gillis and Mr. Holmes.

Fights aren ot very common down here, but last Friday morning Raymond Smith vs. Ellie Arant were boxing when Raymond hit Ellie in the face and a right lively scrap ensued for a few minutes. No one knows which one was victorious.

Hubert Farley has been wearing a very long face lately. Wonder why, has anybody an idea. He has received the annual hair cut.

Saturday afternoon we all were given the surprise of our life, when it was learned that our science teacher, Mr. Holmes had married the lovely Miss Myrtle Roberts, a diligent member of the Senior Class. After the marriage they left for Coopers in a car to catch the train for Dothan where they visited Mr. Holmes family there.

MASS MEETING

There will be a mass meeting at Thorsby next Saturday at two o'clock p.m. All who are interested in the proposition of establishing a cotton mill at Thorsby are requested to meet on the above date for the consideration of same.

POPLAR SPRINGS

Editor Union-Banner:

I want to say a few words in regard to our school at this place, taught by Miss Janie Taylor. She has taught us the best school we have ever had, and the patrons think she is one of the county's best teachers. She has proved herself a worthy teacher and the pupils and patrons esteem her and her work very highly.

I visited her school on closing day and was very favorably impressed with her conduct of same.

We hope to have her to teach our next school for us.

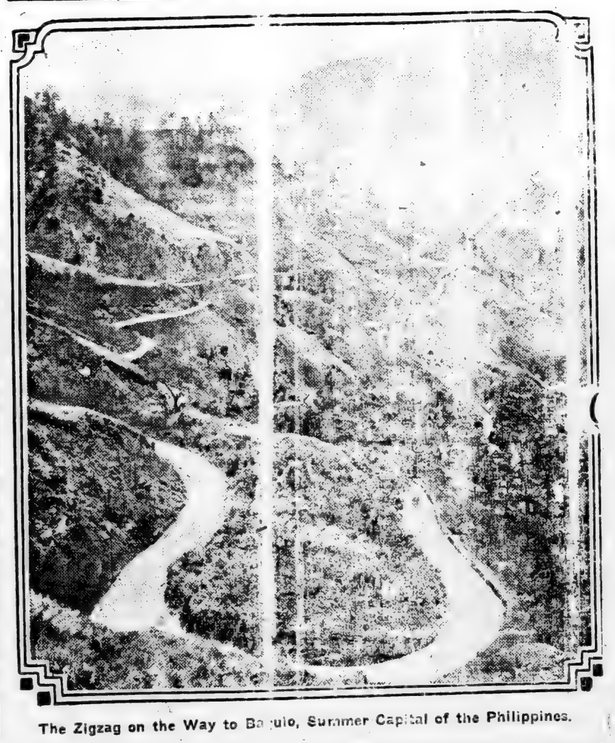
A PHILIPPINE TRAVELOGUE

THE ROMANTIC ISLANDS OF THE FAR EAST. PICTURES OF THEIR NATURAL BEAUTY AND HISTORIC SPOTS—BECOMING A MECCA FOR TOURISTS AND A POPULAR WINTER RESORT.



The Zigzag on the Way to Baguio, Summer Capital of the Philippines.

All aboard! Let's go! We're starting from Manila, the great picturesque, Americanized Oriental city, and will travel by automobile 200 miles to the north to Baguio, the summer capital of the Philippines. The trip can also be made by train.

We have ahead of us one of the most scenic, spectacular and thrilling automobile trips in the world. We will have excellent roads all the way. The Philippines are, in fact, a paradise for autoists, possessing 3,500 miles of fine macadamized roads.

The first part of the trip is through typical small towns and then across the central plain of Luzon and through several rich and fertile provinces, where tropical vegetation is seen at its best. Here one is impressed with the great agricultural wealth of the Philippines, which represents one of the East's greatest producing areas, with the advantage of immense natural resources for the development of further production. It is regrettably true that even in the United States there is far from any real understanding of the potentialities of the islands.

At some points rice fields, looking in the distance like the greenest of green lawns, stretch away as far as the eye can see. If you want color, if you want to feel the romance and mystery of an Oriental twilight, pass this way as the red eyed sun at the end of the dying day is slowly sinking behind the unending expanse of green fields. At first you cry out in ecstacy at the gorgeous scene. But as you ride along, your eyes fastened on the panorama of tints and colors, and with the impenetrably black Oriental night coming on fast, you become enthralled. You no longer try to express your feelings. You cannot. You realize that those now fast changing, colorful masterpieces in the heavens and on the landscape are pictures that no man can adequately describe nor human hands duplicate. So what's the use of trying!

True, these are but impressions, but the traveloguer considers himself justified in mentioning them, for they are a part of the trip to Baguio and return. Indeed, the gorgeous sunsets in all parts of the Philippines leave an impression on the mind of the tourist that is everlasting.

We leave the palms and tropical foliage and enter the zone of rugged pine. We pass from the soft, incense laden air of the warm lowlands to the crisp, invigorating ozone of the temperate zone, all within a few hours' time.

For mile after mile the road now follows the tortuous course of a river, the road lying in the bottom or on the rocky sides of a granite canyon.

The Philippines are rich in hydro-electric possibilities. This power is the cheapest power on earth. And it is everlasting. Your traveloguer is neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but he predicts that one day there will be innumerable Philippine government owned hydro-electric plants in this canyon we are now passing through. Think of the possibilities of such a project! Today the trip from Manila to Baguio is too expensive for the average Manila worker and his family, many of whom may live and die without beholding the wondrous beauties of their own island of Luzon. Think of what a blessing it would be to Filipino mothers and children to feel upon their fevered brows the cool, invigorating breezes of the mountain tops, now so near and yet so far! With the Philippine government owning its own electric railways and hydro-electric plants it would be possible to bring the trip to Baguio within the means of hundreds of thousands of Filipinos. Not only is there sufficient power in this river to electrify a line from Manila to Baguio, but to operate the street railways of Manila, light the city and furnish power for manufacturing concerns.

But we have now arrived at Camp One. From this point the scenery rapidly changes as the elevation increases. We are traveling over the famous Benguet road, the construction of which through the mountains is a most remarkable engineering triumph. At places the road is blasted out of the solid granite. Riding on the edge of a 100 foot precipice makes one feel like he is on the rim of the world. Some of the turns are so sharp it is impossible to see 20 feet ahead, and we seem to be perilously near the jumping off place. We wonder if it is safe to lean out and peer into the canyon far below, and when we do we are perfectly satisfied we are flirting with death. Yet the trip is a safe one, providing our driver has better nerves than our own.

"At times we seemed perilously near the jumping off place."

All too soon we reach the outskirts of Baguio, a city among the clouds, and are rather surprised at the modern city we find it to be. In ten years Baguio has grown from a village of huts to the now justly famed mountain resort of the Philippines, sometimes called the Philippine Simla. It is undoubtedly destined some day to become a large city.

Baguio ranges in elevation from 4,500 to 5,500 feet and is surrounded practically on all sides by high mountain ridges and "hogsbacks" towering into the skies at a height of almost 8,000 feet.

Aside from the scenery, which is noteworthy, the great blessing of Baguio is its temperate climate, which is indeed a godsend to those impoverished by the tropical temperatures of the lowlands. Not only is the mountain air rich in ozone, but it has been demonstrated to be extraordinarily free from germs of all kinds.

Each year during the hot season the school teachers of the entire archipelago are enabled by the government to spend a month at the teachers' camp in Baguio for recreation and conference on school work. American army officers and their families also go to Baguio for the hot months.

And now that your traveloguer has you in Baguio, he believes he will leave you there, for there are many interesting side trips to take, and, besides, Baguio is the most delightful place for a vacation in the entire Orient.

A GRAND RELIEF FROM CATTARRH

Mrs. Brundige says every one can get it just Like She did... Three Bottles of Dreco fixed her up fine.

Also took the ache our of her rhumatism and banished a severe case of constipation.

I've found out from my own experience that it is foolish for people to be annoyed any longer by cattarrh," said Mrs. E. N. Brundige, 85 W. Jeff Davis St., Montgomery, Ala.

"I know what it is to hawk and spit and try to clear your nose, throat and head for a couple of hours every morning. I know what it is to have a constant dripping into your throat that keeps you constantly trying to clear is out. I also know what heavy breathing and unsound sleep catarrh causes, and the head noises too.

"But I also know, after trying lots of remedies, what will go right to the seat of the arouble and overcome the annoying symptoms. Dreco will do ita. Dreco did it for me, and it is foolish for people to suffer like this when this grand medicine is within teh reache of everyone.

"Dreco also eased a bad case of achng rhumatic joints, got my bowels to acting regular every day, wher eas before I used to be severely constipated. This is great medicine and I strongly advise sufferers constipated. This is great medicine and I strongly advise sufferers to give it a trial."

The only way to get rid of catarrh is through the blocd. Dreco is taken up by the blood very quickly, carried to the weakened membranes and restores them to healthy condition. It is the secret of Dreco's power over catarrh.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

M. D. FOSHEE, MANAGER.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

Abstracts of Title Promptly Prepared at Reasonable Charges.

The skin is fed from the blood, and upon the condition of the blood depends whether or not your skin will be healthy and free from boils, pimples, scaly irritations, red eruptions and other disfiguring and unsightly disorders.

The sensible treatment that will show real results is a remedy that will cleanse the blood thoroughly and kill the germs that cause the trouble. And for this purpose no remedy ever made can approach the record of S. S. S. which cleanses the blood of the disease germs, at the same time building up the general health.

WHY BE DULL AND LANGUID THIS SPRING

"Spring Fever" is Natural, But not Necessary — It is due to Sluggish Blood.

KEEP FEELING YOUR HAPPIEST

Purify and Tone Up Your Blood With That Famous Tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

Do you seem unable to do any wark, to concentrate, to take any interest in things, during the wonderful Spring days? Do you feel just useless and "no account?"

Nothing is really the matter, except that, as happens every Spring, your blood is clogged—it is sluggish with poisons from its long winter fight.

In time, your blood will probably adjust itself. But meanwhile you fret and worry, feel unhappy—and accomplish nothing. Why do it, when it is easy to clear up your blood by taking Pepto-Mangan for a while? For thirty year, doctors have been recommending this effective and agreeable tonic to purify and build up the blood of run-down, listless people.

Feel your best. Have a fine color, and spring in your step. Be vigorous, happy red-blooded. Get a bottle of Pepto-Mangan today. The nearest druggist has it, and in either liquid or tablet form, just as you prefer. There is no difference in medicinal value.

But be sure you get the genuine Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by that name—Gude's Pepto-Mangan and sure the full name is on the package.—Adv.

OAK HILL

Dear Mr. Editor:

Here we come again asking permission to tell the readers of your paper that we are still enjoying the good

Sunday was a fine day and we all had a good time. We had a good attendance at Sunday School, good lesson and a fine collection.

After Sunday School we were invited to the home of our friend, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Durbin, where a large crowd of young people had assembled to celebrate the 19th birthday of their son, Earnest, who with his sister, Mrs. J. B. Williams, was visiting them from Cumberlin Furnace, Tenn. The other members of the family visiting them were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Massey of Boyles, Ala. Mr. and Mrs. Huston Rogers of Jemison, Ala., and Miss Ola Durbin of Birmingham., Ala. At noon the tabie was set and a beautiful dinner was served after which an hour or more was spent in making pictures.

At 1:30 the church bell rang and the people began to come from almost every direction. At 2 p.m. the song service began and lasted until 4 p.m. The singing was fine and everybody behaved nicely and all had a good time together singing the praises of God.

The directors for the evening were Professors Glasscock, Roper and Collins, with Miss Sible Langston as organist.

A duet was sung by Prof. Glasscock and Mrs. H. M. Eagle, which was fine, and a quartet by Glasscock, Collins, Roper and Childress.

The Union Grove Class paid us a visit and did some fine singing.

Some of the best singers of the Oak Grove class were with us.

We will sing here again on the 4th Sunday evening, April 25th, and we will have some fine singers here from other places, who will be on the program as directors for the afternoon. We invite all lovers of music to come and share the good things with us.

I will close by asking the Union Grove and Oak Grove boys and girls to come again. We also invite the the good people of Jemison and of Thorsby, Shiloh, Collins Chapel, and other places, who visited us, to come again.

A good many of our young people attended the singing at Mr. W. J. Northcutt's Sunday night and did some more good singing.

Bad breath, bitter taste, dizziness and a general "no-'count" feeling is a sure sign of a torpid liver. HERBINE is the medicine needed. It makes the liver active, vitalies the blood, regulates the bowels and restores a fine feeling of energy and cheerfulness. Sold by Uuchurch Drug Co.

FARMERS RESENT ATTACK AIMED BY THE "BIG" INTERESTS

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ARE UNABLE TO DOMINATE ORGANIZATION; INSULTS FARMERS.

TO ANSWER AT THE POLLS

Yes, Farmers, Remember Underwoods Effort to Have Government Fix Cotton Price at 26 Cents.

To the Farmers of Alabama:

Feeling that you are entitled to know of the outrageous treatment accorded the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union by the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, we take this means to acquaint you with the facts.

Some months ago we were tendered the use of office space in the rooms of the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce and were urged to accept the offer. We did so with no knowledge or intimation that the Chamber of Commerce expected to dominate our organization or in any way interfere with our efforts to promote the farming interests of this state. Nor did we know at that time that the Chamber of Commerce was dominated by the great corporate interests of the Birmingham district.

Matters ran along without trouble until we took the liberty of suggesting to the farmers of this state that they support Mr. L. B. Musgrove for the Senate against Oscar Underwood. This action was taken because we felt that Mr. Musgrove, having had long experience as a farmer and having shown himself to be a real friend of the producing class, was best equipped to represent our State, especially in view of the patent failure of Mr Underwood to give the farming interests the same measure of assistance and cooperation that he has given the big special interests that too often seek to grow fat at the expense of the farmer.

Because of this step, taken purely in the interests of the great producing class in Alabama, the Chamber of Comerce ordered our organization to vacate immediately. A letter was sent us on March 31st, telling us to vacate "at once," and this was followed in an hour or so with a verbal order to leave before the day was oht.

Replying to these preemptory orders to get out of quarters we were occupying by invitation, President Dinsmore sent the following letter to the President of the Chamber of Commerce and on the same day moved the headquarters to 808 Farley building:

Birmingham, Ala.,
April 1, 1920.

Mr. R. A. Brown, President Chamber of Commerce, Birmingham, Alabama.

Dear Sir:

Your preemptory order ejecting the Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union from the quarters you invited the organization to occupy, was received this afternoon. To say that your action in ordering our organization to vacate, came as a surprise and shock, is putting it mildly, especially in view of the fact that we were present as your guests and had done nothing to forfeit your good opinion.

You confess in your letter that your extraordinary action is due to the fact that the Farmers' Union is opposing Mr. Underwood and is advocating the election of Mr. Musgrove. Had you acquainted yourself with the record of our organization before inviting us to become your guests you would have learned that it is the custom of the organization in promoting the welfare of the farmers of Alabama to recomend and support, those who are known to be friendly to our interests, and then you would not have been surprised to find us opposing Mr. Underwood, who in our opinion has shown himself to be indifferent to and neglectful of the farming classes, and supporting Mr. Musgrove, who has been a consistent and sincere friend of the Alabama farmer. In taking this action we are estabilishing no precedent. We are simply following the time-honored custom of trying to defeat those who take no interest in the farmer, and to elect those who are able and willing to do something for the great producing class. Mr. Underwood has demonstrated that he is aligned with the vested interests which have ever opposed that which makes for the welfare and prosperity of the farmers, and, in view of this well established fact, we would be recreant to our duty should we not oppose his election and, at the same time, suggest the name of a man who by inclination and training, is eminently qualified to represent us.

In accepting your invitation to occupy space in your quarters, we did it with no expectation that we should be expected to surrender our independence of thought or of action, and thereby forfeit our right to the confidence and respect of the people of this state.

In conclusion, we feel it proper to say that we consider your order for us to leave your premises nothing less than a gross insult to our organization, as well as to all the farmers and the toiling masses of the State.

Sincerely,
(Signed) C. M. DINSMORE,
President.

Alabama Division Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union.

The outrageous and insulting treatment we have received at the hands of the Chamber of Commerce and the great special interests it serves, is evidence of the consideration we may expect from this class whenever it is in power, and we appeal to you to use your influence to defeat the aims of this selfish element in endeavoring to perpetuate Mr. Underwood in office. Vote and work for a man known to be friendly to the great producing class and a man having the practical knowledge of the farmers needs that is necessary to be of real service.

Sincerely yours,
C. M. DINSMORE, President.

THEATRE PARTY

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. R. E. Luckie delightfuly entertained at a Theatre party in honor of Mrs. Guy Roberts. After seeing "The Eyes of the World" at the Ideal Theatre the guests went to Allen Drug Store for refreshments. Those enjoying the hospitality of these two charming hostesses on this occasion were:

Mesdames Guy Roberts, Hugh Simpson, Evans Parrish, Hance Alred, [illegible] Nichols, E. C. Maye, Elna Roberts, Will Reynolds, Thad Mc Swain, Percy Jones, O. O. Roper, Clyde Jones, Mallie White, Watts Moore, and E. S. Parrish of Birmingham.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Powe motored down from Birmingham Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. VanDerveer.

A marriage which came as a surprise to the many friends of both was that of Miss Myrtle Roberts and Mr. William Holmes, which occurred last Saturday at the court house. Judge L. H. Reynolds performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes left immediately for Dothan, where they were the guests of Mr. Holmes' parents.

FARLEY - PARRISH WEDDING

On Wednesday morning occurred the marriage of two young popular Clanton people, Mr. Leonard Farley to Miss Rosa Parrish.

These two are well known in society circles here, and their many friends wish them God-speed.

Mr. Bob Keenan was a visitor to Clanton Monday.

Dr. E. C. Maye went to Montgomery Wednesday on business.

The Fifth District Convention of the Alabama Federation of Womens Clubs will be held in Clanton on May 4th and 5th. Delegates from womens clubs of all parts of the district will be here in attendance. The visiting delegates will be the guests of the Civic Club and the Study Club of Clanton.

It is hoped by the ladies of Clanton who are interested in club work that the people of the city will co-operate with them in making the event a success and in taking care of the visiting delegates so that their stay here may prove one of pleasure.

THE LARKIN CLUB

On last Wednesday at tthe anartments of Mrs. Ed Plier the members of the Larkin Club held an interesting meeting. After which the hostess assisted by Mrs. Claud Reynolds of Jemison served an ice course.

I notice some statements in your paper in regard to the candidates for County Commissioner of Chilton Co., as to their ability as carpenters, mechanics, farmers, etc. I know nothing of some of the candidates, but I do highly recommend to my friends and the voters of Chilton County Mr. C. T. Walker, Route 1, Lawley, Ala., as being "sane and sound."

I have known him all my life, have served his church as pastor for nearly four years, and am not afraid to recommend him.

If he be elected he will serve the county well.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space for this letter, I remain,

Sincerely,
E. H. LITTLEJOHN.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

All the nights of last week were well occupied by entertainments and concerts at our new school house. On Tuesday, April 6th Glee Club No. 2 gave a concert. The little folks acquitted themselves splendidly and received the praise of every one who was present. The old folks concert was repeated on Wednesday night. The performances exceeded those of the preceding week.

On Thursday night the dumb supper entertainment given by Mrs. Emma Benjamin and Miss Mattie Lee Dickerson was quite a success. The climax was reached on Saturday night when glee club No. 1 gave a concert. The house was crowded and every one spoke in the highest terms of the songs, recitations and drills. On Sunday, April 11th, our first and last Spring Rally came off. At 11 o'clock a.m. pastor Mixson preached a strong and forceful sermon. The report of the childrens clubs was received and read.

Willing Workers Club.

Mamie Sewell $2.62; Cora McCall $5.01; Della McCall $1.63; Gertrude Wright $5.00; Lucy Vinson $5.00; Lillie Sewell $1.12; Albert Sewell, $1.60; Total, $21.98.

Light House Club.

Lacernia Cooper $9.60; Katy Hardy $2.15; Luverne Sewell $1.01; Emma Vinson $7.75; Ethel Harris $3.00; Total, $23.51.

Blue Ribbon Club.

Susie Dupree $16.25; Mat Barbour $3.29; Ethel Mitchell $1.03; Total, $20.57.

Busy Bee Club.

Fadie Dickerson $2.35; Odesso Dickerson $2.35; Francis Wood $5.18; Total $9.88.

The public collection received by the children was $4.06, making a total of $80, for the childrens club.

On Sunday night Rev. Mixson preached another strong and impressive sermon. After the sermon the report of the adults clubs was received:

Club No. 1—Mollie Bedsoe and Carrie Bedsoe, $27.50.

Club No. 2.—Ruby McCall $5.05; Rossie Monroe $3.00; Lula Williams $1.50; Totak $9.55.

Club No. 3.—Lela Woods, $53.00; Estella Benjamin $5.15; Annie Sewell $12.60; Total $70.75.

Club No. 4.—Mattie Wilson $12.75; Malinda Howard $12.85; Total amount $25.60.

Club No. 5.—Callie Lane and Lula Judkins, $62.25.

Club No. 6.—Emma Varner $3.10; Carrie Dickerson $15.00; Total $18.10

Club No. 8.—Emma Benjamin and Mattie Lee Dickerson $22.50.

Club No. 9.—M. E. Brown, $3.50; Sallie Gilchrist, $1.45; Mrs. Rush, $1.00; Total, $5.95.

Club No. 10.—Maggie Benjamin and Anna McCall $30.00; Liza Cooper, $2.00; Total, $32.50.

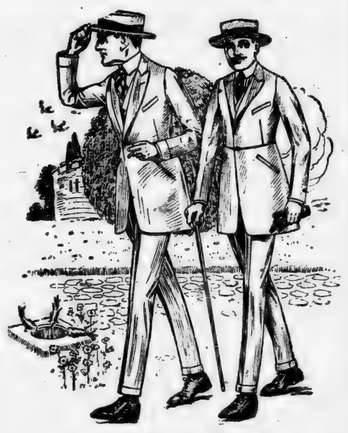
Dr. Mixson collected $8.00 from his other churches for the trustees. Total collection $362.91. The pastors collection for himself and church expenses was $34.00. Total collection for school, pastor and expenses was $402.91. We are grateful to our people for this showing and also to our white friends who have helped us.

Your donations will go a long way in helping to pay off our debts on the new school house.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION AT THE COURT HOUSE

Inasmuch as it has developed that there will not be any Circuit Court here next week, Superintendent of Education, Howard L. Foshee has changed his arrangements for the State Examination for teachcers, and will hold same at the Court House instead of at the Grammar School as formerly announced. All who are concerned are advised to take due notice and be governed accordingly.

You'll not join the Overall Club when you see Kemp's Spring Suits at $17.50 to $45.00



No need to get excited over the high cost of living, 'cause you'll always find a Suit here from $17.50 to $45.00 that'll stack up any suit in this town selling for $50 to $60. This store's policy and its determination to produce a happy, harmonious business by playing the square deal all the way around, even if it pinches at times, is bringing 'em here in ever increasing numbers.

"Are You Ready?"

Soon you'll hear something like this —"Play Ball!" We're ready to outfit you in pennant-winning toggery. Wear a Lyon Shirt to the opener—root in a Regal Tie—sweat all you want to in a Lyon Collar and lambast the umps in Buster Brown Sox. Do this—let's win!

WHOLE SYSTEM RUN-DOWN

Quick Improvement Is Noted After A Few Doses of ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Increase in appetite, the coming back of strength, disappearance of headaches and other ills, are a few of the many good results obtained from the use of a new remedy (Ziron Iron Tonic).

Mr. Sim Grimsley, of Cordele, Ga., tried Ziron and has this to say:

"When I began to take Ziron, it seemed that my whole system was run-down, but soon after I began to take Ziron, I could eat more each day and would feel a great deal better. Ever since it seems that my health has been improving, as I seldom have the headache or feel bad the least bit."

Ziron is a new scientific combination of pure medicinal inorganic iron, combined with phosphorus, the active principle of nux vomica and the hypophosphites of lime and soda. It will help to add more red corpuscles to your blood, resulting in more color in your cheeks—more vitality in your system.

To the Honorable B. K. McMorris, dge of the Nineteenth Judicial rcuit of the State of Alabama:

We, the Grand Jury, duly empanled for the January Term, 1920 the Circuit Court of said County, g leave to submit to your Honor s final report.

We have investigated 33 alleged lations of the law and examined witnesses that have brought be re us and diligently sought for lations of the Criminal Law s county, and as a result of estigations we herewith return 1 e bills.

We regret to report that in our inion the prohibition laws are be violated in many instances. We ve brought a number of witnesses fore us where we have believed t violations of the prohibition laws ve occurred, but find it a very fficult propositon to obtain infortion relative to these violations.

We have examined the records of e county officers and find them tly and correctly kept so far as were able to ascertain: In our inion the bonds of the county o ials are adequate. We herewith tach a report of the county treas er. The county Superintendent of ucation reports that much diffilty is experienced in the enforcent of the compulsory attendance ucational law. If a more hearty -operation is not given to our ed ational laws it will be necessary employ more streneous methods r their enforcement.

We have examined the county ja d find the same in good condition ean and neatly kept. There is on ite man and one negro boy now in il. They report that they a re well pt and cared for.

We have examined the county po use and find seventeen inmates, females and six males. From eir appearance and statements they e well provided for and have every cessity that their condition re ires. There is need of repairs on e roof, steps and sleeping porch.

We find the roads in our county a very bad condition, due largely the unprecedented weather cond ons. There are also several brid es that are in need of repair.

Feeling that we have accomplish d all that could be required of at this time, we respectfully ask at we be discharged, with th anks of the court and the county fficials for their valuable assist nce in our work. Subject to the urther orders of the Court.

CLANTON OFFICERS ARREST AUTO THIEF TUESDAY NIGHT

About seven o'clock Tuesday night Chief of Police Joe Gore, received a message from the police in Montgomery stating that Howard Chisolm, a youth 17 years of age, had stolen a Buick Six Automobile belonging to the Tullis Gamble Hardware Company in Montgomery, and had left that city about dark with the big car in the direction of Birmingham. Mr. Gore was given a full description of the boy and the car and was instructed to intercept him in Clanton.

Right away the Chief of Police with Sheriff Gore and Deputy Curlee went to the highway brigde just south of town and laid a trap for the young fellow and it was only a few minutes till he came into the net at full speed. A big wire caple was stretched across the bridge and Sheriff Gore and deputy Curlee went up the road a short distance to stop the car if they could before it hit the cable. When she came into sight as a high speed flash lights were waved across the road ahead and the driver speeded up the accellerator with more force than ever. Refusing to stop at the signal, the officers opened fire on his rear casings, which excited the driver. He lost control of the car and she went into the side of the bridge. As she came to a standstill on the brink of the fill, Policemen Gore ran up and the young man crawled out with a loud shout, "I'll surrender."

The car was only slightly damaged from striking the bridge. The young man was arrested and placed in the county jail. Officers from the city of Montgomery came up Wednesday and carried the boy and the car back to Montgomery.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. VOLUME IX. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALABAMA, APRIL 22, 1920. NUMBER 4

Report of Grand Jury in Session Last Week

State of Alabama,
Chilton County.

To the Honorable B. K. McMorris, Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit of the State of Alabama:

We, the Grand Jury, duly empanelled for the January Term, 1920 of the Circuit Court of said County, beg leave to submit to your Honor this final report.

We have investigated 33 alleged violations of the law and examined 39 witnesses that have brought before us and diligently sought for violations of the Criminal Law in this county, and as a result of our investigations we herewith return 11 true bills.

We regret to report that in our opinion the prohibition laws are being violated in many instances. We have brought a number of witnesses before us where we have believed that violations of the prohibition laws have occurred, but find it a very difficult propositon to obtain information relative to these violations.

We have examined the records of the county officers and find them neatly and correctly kept so far as we were able to ascertain. In our opinion the bonds of the county officials are adequate. We herewith attach a report of the county treasurer. The county Superintendent of Education reports that much difficulty is experienced in the enforcement of the compulsory attendance educational law. If a more hearty co-operation is not given to our educational laws it will be necessary to employ more streneous methods for their enforcement.

We have examined the county jail and find the same in good condition, clean and neatly kept. There is one white man and one negro boy now in jail. They report that they a re well kept and cared for.

We have examined the county poor house and find seventeen inmates, 11 females and six males. From their appearance and statements they are well provided for and have every necessity that their condition requires. There is need of repairs on the roof, steps and sleeping porch.

We find the roads in our county in a very bad condition, due largely to the unprecedented weather conditions. There are also several bridges that are in need of repair.

Feeling that we have accomplished all that could be required of us at this time, we respectfully ask that we be discharged, with the thanks of the court and the county officials for their valuable assistance in our work. Subject to the further orders of the Court.

J. M. PARRISH,
Foreman.

State of Alabama,
Chilton County.

To the Solicitor and Grand Jury of said county.

The Undersigned, County Treasurer of Chilton County, reports the following amounts on hand in the various funds of said county:

General Fund,	$8543.26
Special road fund,	7233.90
Fine & Forft. Fund,	2118.07
Dog Tax Fund,	939.00
Redemption of land fund,	696.28
Special Fund,	1328.68
Total,	$20,859.19

WOMEN WILL HOLD CLUB CONVENTION IN CLANTON MAY 4-5

Many Delegates will be Here from Clubs of Fourteen Counties.

The Fifth District Convention of the Alabama Federation of Womens Clubs will hold its annual session in Clanton on the evening of May 4th and the day of the 5th. The place of meeting will be the auditorium of the Chilton County High School.

This meeting will bring to Clanton a large number of ladies who will come as delegates from the Literary, Civic and Music Clubs of the Fifth District, which is composed of fourteen counties of this section of the state, and a number of Club officers and workers from the state at large will be here.

Among the cities and towns of the District which will send from one to a dozen delegates are, Montgomery, Greenville, Prattville, Wetumpka, Tuskeege, Union Springs, Auburn, Opelika, Camp Hill, Dadeville, Alexander City, Fort Davis, Georgiana and Luverne.

The hostess to the delegates will be the Study Club, the Civic Club and the Clara Schumann Music Club of Clanton. Mrs. H. F. Chandler is Chairman of the Fifth District Convention and Mrs. Victor J. Heard is Secretary. The ladies of Verbena, Thorsby and Jemison have been extended an invitation to participate in the entertainment of the delegates here.

An interesting program of exercises is being prepared for the meetings, among the numbers of which will be a lecture by Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin of Atlanta, Director of W. S. S. of Georgia, on the subject of, "Thrift and Saving." On the day of the 5th the delegates and visiting ladies will be escorted by their hostesses to Lock 12 on Coosa River for an outing and lunch.

The ladies of the clubs of Clanton are particularly anxious to have the co-operation of all the people of the Town in providing suitable entertainment for their visitors. This will be a signel honor for Clanton to entertain the delegates from the several towns that will be represented here and it is hopd our people will lend their support to the ladies in shrowing the visitors that we are glad to have them with us on this occasion.

BOX SUPPER AND CAKE GUESS

I wish to announce a Box Supper and Cake Guessing at Mr. L. B. Lee's, for the benefit of helping build a house for Mr. Presley, who is disabled to work. Everybody is cordially invited to come to his home Saturday night, May 8 and bring someone with you.

MARS HILL NEWS

Please allow me as mall space in your paper to say a few words.

People here are enjoying the best of health. Everybody seems very pleasant during these sun-shiny days.

Farmers are not doing much around this place. Corn is not being planted as fast as the farmers wish to.

Mr. L. J. Littlejohn made a flying trip to Mr. Langston's Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Lovie Scott has been visiting friends and relatives near this place, and will return home in Birmingham Sunday night.

NOTICE:—There will be preaching at this place next second Saturday p.m. at 2:30 o'clock and Sunday at 11 o'clock. Also there will be an all day singing the second Sunday in May, 9th. Everybady come and bring someone with you. Let's make that day the joyfullness day of all. And don't forget to bring along a basket well packed, and leave the "whiskey" back at home, or somewhere else.

We have singing here every second and fourth Sunday evenings. Next Sunday is our singing evening and every singer is invited to come, as we expect several leaders from other places to be with us.

Wishing the Editor much success.

JUDGE REYNOLDS EXPLAINS COUNTY SUIT AGGAINST TOWN

Editor Union-Banner:

I have had several inquiries since the suit of Chilton County vs. Town of Clanton, as to what is was about and when it orgnated.

It has already been said if it had not been for me this suit would never have been brought; it is customary to lay unpopular acts of this county's on me and there are always some who believe it.

In 1915, during Judge Deason's term of office, they built a highway through the county and graveled it 14 feet wide, but when they reached Clanton the authorities of the town said if the county would build the road as wide as the streets that the town would pay for all graveling and grading over 14 feet. This was never paid for by the town, and, after I was elected Judge of Probate Mr. W. T. Herrod called the attention of the Commissioners to the promise of the town.

I examined every record of the Commissioners Court which I could find for the years 1915 and 1916 and no where could I find the agreement with the town of Clanton recorded. I did find an estimate by Mr. R. L. Kenan, the engineer, which stated that the town of Clanton owed $2,352.00. We have tried for two years to get some kind of a settlement out of the town for this work but have failed.

After we were compelled to bring suit we had a conference with Messrs J. B. Downs, T. H. Neighbors, M. A. Gore, J. B. Atkinson, and Dr. V. J. Gragg, the present officers of the Town of Clanton, and they offered only $500.00 for the debt, which amounted to over $3,000.00 including interest. I told them I had rather give the town the debt than to take $500.00 for it; but offered to take $2,000 for it and stop the suit. But as they refused to do this we brought suit, and got judgment for $3,084.19, and I promise here and now that I will do all I can to collect this debt for the county.

Let us see whether this is a just debt: The county built this highway through Jemison, Cooper, Verbena, Mt. Creek and only made the road 14 feet wide. Was it right to build a 60 foot road through Clanton and the other towns have only 14 feet?

I know this explanation makes me unpopular with a few people who want special privileges and would take all the county has if they could get it, but honest people do not want special privileges.

L. H. REYNOLDS.

IN MEMORY OF F. W. C. BICE

To the W. M. Wardens and Brethren of Century Lodge No. 567, A.F.&A.M.

Your committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Bro. F. W. C. Bice, beg to offer the following:

Whereas, our worthy brother, Rev. F. W. C. Bice departed this life on February 26th, 1920, after a long protracted illness;

And, whereas, he was made a Master Mason in Century Lodge No. 567, A. F. & A. M., and was a member with us at the time of his death:

Be it resolved, that on the death of Bro. Bice, this Lodge has lost a faithful and conscientious member, and we deeply deplore his early death, in the prime of his manhood and usefulness.

Be it further resolved that as Bro. Bice was a minister of the Gospel, a faithful pastor and an earnest worker for the advancement of God's cause in our vicinity, and to all the world; we also deplore his death in the midst of his usefulness as a minister, and that we shall miss him in his ministrations.

And be it further resolved that we bow in humble submission to the will of God, who doeth all things well. That we tender our sympathy to the bereaved widow and other relatives of the family; and that we will pray for them that God's grace may be given them in their time of trouble and prove sufficient in their time of need.

We ask that these resolutions be Lodge and a copy furnished to Mrs. Bice, together with a Widow's Certificate.

Respectfully submitted,
W. J. BILLINGSLEY,
Rev. J. H. LEMBRICK,
L. P. MILLS.

JEMISON ROUTE 3

Dear Editor:

Will you please allow me a small space in your paper to say a few words?

Health of this community is fine at present.

Farming is moving slowly on account of so much rain, but generally a bad beginning makes good ending.

Miss Hazel Crowson of Calera spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Bertha Crowson.

A large crowd attended the prayer meeting at Mr. R. A. Barnett's Saturday night.

Mrs. J. P. Mims is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Crowson this week.

Mr. Austin Barnett was at home Saturday night.

Mr. Vernon Webb spent Saturday and Sunday in Birmingham. He reports a nice time while there, but was shocked when he stepped off the train and saw another boy with his girl. Don't worry Mr. Webb; there are more fish in the sea that have not been caught yet.

Thank you, Editor, for this space.

Leander Mims Caught Making White Ligtning

Last Friday the force of Sheriff Gore of Chilton County in conjunction with Revenue Officer Gus Wall of Montgomery, captured Leander Mims and his wild cat still in full operation out in Beat 16 near Providence Church. The outfit was cleverly concealed in the side of a hill and was hard to locate by the officers but they finally succeeded and brought the outfit down. About two gallons of whiskey was taken in the raid.

Mims and his seven-year old son were the only persons attending the still when the officers surrounded it. After the arrest had been made and the still destroyed Officer Wall accompanied Mims and the little boy to his house nearby to get ready to come to jail. When they had reached the house and Mims was changing clothes, the little boy secured a shot gun and threatened to shoot the officer; but Mr. Wall wrested the gun from his hands before he could fire.

Mims was brought to Clanton and he made bond for the charge in the county court. He was carried to Montgomery Saturday to answer to the Federal authorities. His trial here will be in the county court on May 3rd.

CLANTON BUSINESS MEN COME OUT IN OVERALLS TO-DAY

The Overall Club of Clanton comes out this morning with a good list of members who have adopted overalls as a means of saving their expensive clothing from the wear of work and business during the summer months. Following is the agreement that these men have signed to carry out the mutual pledge:

We, the undersigned business and professional men of Clanton hereby join the Overall Club of Clanton, and by our signatures hereto do pledge ourselves to faithfully and fully abide by the rules of said Club, as follows:

That beginning on Thursday, April 22, 1920, and continuing until September 30, 1920, we will wear overalls during the business hours of all business days while attending to the regular duties of our business or profession or employment.

"That we take these steps in an honest effort to reduce our expenses for clothing, and recognize that the surest way to save money on high clothing prices is not to wear the high-priced clothing during working hours.

—"We hereby solemnly pledge ourselves to the faithful adherence to and performance of the above obligation."

ABOUT MR. C. T. WALKER

Maplesville, Ala., April 20, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner:

I take this opportunity to express my implicit confidence in Mr. C. T. Walker, who s a canddate for Commissioner of the Third District, subject to the acton of the Republican Prmary May 11. It has been my pleasure to know Mr. Walker for many years and I have always found him honest and upright in his dealings, and I am constraned to believe that he is thoroughly qualified for the office which he is seeking.

Mr. Walker is a man of splendid business ability and I believe he will handle the affairs of the county in a strictly business way. I take great pleasure in soliciting the votes of my friends and neighbors in his behalf. Yours very truly,

D. M. APPERSON.

SOME PENSION WARRANTS ARE NOT YET GIVEN OUT

Announcement is made at the office of the Probate Judge of Chilton County that there are still some pension warrants undelivered and the ones to whom they belong are urged to call for them as the law requires that they be returned to the State Auditor on May 1, if not called for before that time.

Hurrah for the Birmingham Post of the American Legion. They have passed a resolution asking the governor to use his offices to prevent the Irish Catholic Devalera from speaking in the State of Alabama. That is what ought to be done, only not quite enough. The government of the United States ought to outlaw the rascal and dump him into the Gulf of Mexico. If our government was not more Catholic than it is American it would be done at once.

The daily papers say that Senator Underwood delivered a message containing the gravest warning that has come from the lips of a public man in Alabama in this generation, when he branded the I. W. W. as a menace to the continued functioning of a free government in these United States. Does not Mr. Underwood also know that the Roman Catholic hierarchy is as great a menace to free government as the I. W. W? Of course he knows it. Why do you suppose he does not say so then, and put the Catholic schemers in their proper rating along with the other anarchists, Bolshevists, Reds and I. W. W.'s?

OAK GROVE

Dear Editor:

Will you please give space to say a few words, as I haven't seen any news from this place since the flu passed through.

All is fine, and we still go on with our evergreen Sunday School, and the singings at Rocky Mount and Oak Grove. There is a singing here the first and third Sunday, at Rocky Mount the 2 and 4 Sunday, in each month, 12 months per year.

There will be an all day singing at Oak Grove, 2 miles north of Jemison the first Sunday in May. We invite all lovers of music and harmony to come and spend the day with us. We will have many leaders with us that day. We want a good singing, and all is invited.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The quarterly report of the work of the church during the first three months of the present pastoriate presented to the conference last Sunday morning showed that considerable progress had been made. The following facts were gieven:

A site had been secured for the new building and $2,300 raised in cash for the payment of same. A new silver individual communion service, at a cost of $57.00 has been installed by the ladies of the church. The B. Y. P. U. has increased from attendance of some six members to frequently as many as 35. The prayer meetings have grown from a very small attendance to some 28 or 30 present. The congregations of the church have greatly increased until for the past four weeks the building at night has been more than two-thirds full. More than 50 visits have been made in the homes by the pastor, and numerous visits in the stores and offices. A splendid Sunday School is also being maintained. A mens brotherhood has also been organized with a better feeling among the men as a whole.

The service last Sunday considering the circumstances were well attended. A good congregation was present at the morning service, and notwithstanding there were no lights at night, the church was more than half full to hear the sermon on "The Sequence of Marriage." Interesting music rendered by members of the choir was an added attraction to the services.

The services for next Sunday will be as follows:

Morning at 11:00 a.m., subject, "Building a House"; Sunbeam Bands at 2:00 p.m.; Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p.m.; Preaching at 7:30 p.m., subject to be announced; Sunday School at 10:00 a.m.

The service in the mornnig will be held specially in the interest of the men of the church, but all are cordially invited to be present. Will the men help us to make this a great service? We very much appreciate the presence of numerous visitors at all our services, and extend to them a cordial welcome at all times.

P. G. CARER, Pastor.

FORDSON TRACTOR FOR FARM

Mr. Lucien C. Duncan of the L. J. Duncan Motor Company of Clanton drove one of his Fordsn Tractrs around to the Union-Banner office the other day for us to take a look at, and it appears to an editor who has served his apprenticeship between the plow handles of an Oliver Goober to be a mighty fine trick for a farmer to use in plowing his land. We believe the day is fast approaching when mule power on the farm will be supplanted by the tractor. We have seen quite a number of tractors and it appears to us that the Fordson is the best for farmers in this section of the country. It will be interesting and worth while, for any farmer who can do so to call on the Duncan Motor Company and look over this machine.

CHAS. T. WALKER HERE

Mr. Chas. T. Walker, candidate for Commissioner of the Third District of Chilton County, was in Clanton Monday greeting his many friends here and getting acquainted with some more of those whom he expects to vote for him in the May primary. Mr. Walker in talking to the Editor of The Union-Banner expressed great satisfaction at the progress he is making in his campaign.

County Commissioner Herrod was in Clanton Monday.

AUTOMOBILES MUST BE BUILT WITH HIGH PURPOSE

"Two Things Determine the True Value of a Motor Car," says Downs Hardware Co.

"One is the purpose for which it is designed. The other is the manner in which it is built to fit that purpose.

"Power, speed, comfort, appearance and equipment are needs which automobiles generally are designed to meet. Their value is judged on these points.

"An automobile must have all the essential qualities that fulfill these requirements. But its object must be greater than any of them. It should be based on the need for the automobile as a utility for the many.

"There is only one way to fulfill this need. That is, to afford economical transportation for the great majority.

This is the dominant purpose behind the medium weight car. All the intricate qualities of these cars of today are the result of it. The policy of the future constructions is based upon it.

"This purpose controls the design and every operation that enter into their manufacture. To insure its fulfilment two fundamental principles are adhered to—quality and quantity.

"Economy in the long run is based upon quality at the outset. If the great majority a re to enjoy it, quantity is necessary. The manner in which the two are combined in the medium weight car proves, in a remarkable way, that one insures the other."

TWO CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS HERE ON MONDAY

The people of Clanton and Chilton County have had the pleasure this week of seeing both the candidates for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District on the Democratic ticket. Both Mr. Blackmon, the present representative of this District, and Mr. Jeffers, who is waging the fight to get Blackmon's place, blowed into Clanton Monday morning, and have been here all the first part of the week visiting various parts of the county. Jeffers seems to be drawing to his support some very good influences here among the Democrats; but we notice Mr. Blackmon is still in possession of the strings that are tied to some of the old heads of the Democratic party ranks around Clanton. We don't know which of the candidates will get the most votes among the Democrats in the county, but both of them put together will not get a great number for they aint here to get.

SHOULTS

The buzzing of the bees, the singing of the birds, the plow boys dodging from the red wasps, make the famrers feel like spring time is here.

We are not bothered with candidates now. They must be busy with their farms. Guess we will have to take a shot at them off hand when the primary comes off. Well, guess work is as good as any when it hits right.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Montgomery, Ala., April 9, 1920.

Notice is hereby given in accord wth the requirement of the Primary Law, that the Democratic Party, in accord with resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Executive Committee on January 30, 1920, will, on May 11th, 1920, hold a Primary Election in the State of Alabama, for the election of Democratic candidates.

State Democratic Ex. Comm.

MR. J. B. WIGGINS WRITES

Editor Union-Banner:

I was somewhat surprised to find that my name was used at the last meeting of the Republican Committee meeting by Mr. Lett. I never gave him my proxy neither did I send it to any one, and it was used without my knowledge or consent.

I have not been able to understand why there was such efforts on the part of a few parties to get proxies from members of the committee. They commenced long before the meeting of the committee asking for proxies.

I want to suggest to the Republicans of this county that they had better be on lookout for the welfare of the party, and try and come to all the committee meetings, and if they cannot come they had better not give out their proxies to just one person; you had better send some of your neighbors in your place.

The first we know our committee meetings, and conventions will be run like Mr. Felix Dudley run them when he was in the county.

I do not like so much professional politics by a few. I want our party to stay in the hands of all the people. We can see how easy it is to get up confusion. We have cattle dipping and other things to contend with. We must be on our guard. We must look well to the delegates we send to the convention May 14th. We must send two good men from each beat, men that will represent all the people. It looks like a few is trying to get control of our party. This is an important year in politics.

Respectfully,
J. B. WIGGINS.

Rushton Declares "Liquor and Loot" Not Issues

Montgomery Candidate to Succeed Bankhead Addresses Two Large Audiences in Bibb County—Extravagance and Excessive Taxation Scored—Asserts That People Not to Elect One-Idea Men to the Senate.

BRENT, ALA., April 10.—"The great American question today is neither liquor nor loot, but whether this nation for which our forefathers and our sons have bled and died shall continue to be the land of religious freedom, personal liberty and constitutional government."

These words were uttered by Ray Rushton, candidate for the short senatorial term, in an address here today before a large and enthusiastic audience of leading citizens of this community. Boldness characterized every utterance of Mr. Rushton, and the popularity of his theme was attested by frequent and loud applause.

Governmental extravangance, excessive taxation and inefficiency in public office were roundly scored by Mr. Rushton who declared he was unalterably opposed to expenditures of public funds in excess of an amount sufficient "to meet the honest obligations of the government."

Questions His Opponents.

Mr. Rushton declared that none of his opponents had given the people any hope of relief from the burden of taxation. "Isn't it astounding," he asked, "that with all their braggadocio about what they will do for some particular class, some particular occupation, or some particular product, they all fail to give us any hope of relief from the burdens of taxation or lack of efficiency in the government service?"

The speaker declared that his opponents evidently expected the people to elect a senator on some one idea. "They all forget," he said, "that the people of Alabama have always been very careful about whom they sent to the United States Senate. The people of Alabama have never yet elected a Senator on any one idea.

Mr. Rushton invited a comparison of his record with that of the other candidates in the short senatorial race. He declared that each one had had his chance in public office, and that any promise they might make in regard to relieving the burdens which are oppressing the people "would be contradicted by their past records."

Debt To Soldiers.

Referring to the debt the country owes the soldiers. Mr. Rushton said the service men should be reimbursed "as soon as we can adjust our affairs. This reimbursement must as far as possible be equal to the extra remuneration received by those who stayed at home."

Mr. Rushton was introduced by J. D. Riddle, a prominent merchant and farmer of this section. Mr. Riddle's introductory remarks were a brilliant tribute to the Montgomery candidate, and were enthusiastically received by those who had assembled to hear Mr. Rushton.

Following the Brent meeting Mr. Rushton went to Centerville, where he delivered another address, speaking at the court house to a large and appreciative audience. He was introduced at Centerville by Prof. J. C. Hicks, who, in a few well chosen words declared Mr. Rushton was the ablest man in the short senatorial race and one of the most brilliant in the State.

At Centerville Mr. Rushton's popularity was evidenced by the many people who came to hear him speak and by the cordiality with which he was greeted following his address. Men and women crowded about him at the conclusion of his talk and warmly congratulated him. At both Brent and Centerville. Mr. Rushton was accorded ovations.

Government Donation to Heflin.

Mr. Rushton was asked during the day whether he thought it right for representative Heflin to send his campaign literature through the mails at the expense of the government.

"Under the law," replied Mr. Rushton, "each candidate must five days before the primary file a sworn account, not only of his expenditures, but of all contributions to his campaign. The gentleman you refer to is an honest man, and I take it for granted that in his account he will make a fair estimate of the value of the contribution received by him from the United States government."

Following is Mr. Rushton's speech in part:

"I have said nothing either publicly, privately or in print, that in any way reflects on the other candidates. I know them all quite well, and am on friendly terms with each of them. I am not going to deal in personalities, but play the game fairly. Enough has appeared in the public print for you to now form an opinion of all of us. The other candidates have all made a special bid for the votes of some special class, some league, or some organization, and have even gone so far as to appeal to prejudice. Anything that they may have done in the past for State's Rights or personal liberty is now thrown in the background by selfish ambition. It plainly appears that they expect the people of Alabama to elect a Senator on some one idea. They all forget that the people of Alabama have always been very careful about whom they sent to the United States Senate. The people of Alabama have never yet elected a Senator on any one idea.

"Isn't it astounding, that with all their braggadocio about what they will do for some particular class, some particular occupation, or some particular product, they all fail to give us any hope of relief from the burdens of taxation or lack of efficiency in the government service.

"In our enthusiasm to whip the Germans, we patriotic people of this great country went over the top in every drive. Even the soldier boys, out of their meager pay, subscribed for bonds. The total increase of our National indebtedness because of the war, amounts to the stupendous sum of twenty-four billion dollars. The government expended money like a drunken sailor. The soldiers returned to find that while the war lasted twenty-three thousand new millionaires had been created, and that their co-workers who remained at home, and even the common negro laborer, had received advance after advance in wages. They also learned that everything had increased in price, that the government had been liberal beyond measure with every one with whom it dealt, and from whom it bought. Extravagance having seized upon the government itself, a madness of extravagance seized upon the people. Taxation in every form has been resorted to by the Federal government, and even the state governments have caught the contagion.

"All wealth is the result of labor applied to land. It does not make any difference how much the exercise of ingenuity may vary the form—a tax is a tax, whatever you may call it—and whatever the name you may give it, in the final analysis it is a burden upon labor.

"Honor requires that all our debts and obligations be paid. The bonds are in the hands of the people who bought them in good faith. The interest on them amounts to the enormous sum of one billion and twenty-four million dollars annually, and it must be paid. We also owe some reimbursement to the soldiers who served us and who saved civilization. This reimbursement must as far as possible be equal to the extra remuneration received by those who stayed at home, and must be paid in some form or other as soon as we can adjust our affairs. We will never plead the statute of limitation against them.

"Why is it that none of the other candidates offer any relief from these burdens of the whole people? The answer is plain. Each one has been a public office-holder, and has been in public life for the past thirty years. Any promise that they would make now in that rgard would be contradicted by their past records. They have never yet so far as any of us have ever heard, made any effort in that direction. They have had their chance in public office. I have done something. Compare our records.

"Regardless of what the Congress may do or say now, the war is over. Extravagance and inefficiency must cease. Prosperity and unbound happiness lie before us if we will but return to normal peace conditions. Taxation will be burdensome enough whatever we may do. An amount sufficient to meet the honest obligations of the government and secure efficient service in all those activities committed to the general government by the Constitution will be met cheerfully and ungrudgingly by every patriotic American, rich or poor.

"For anything beyond this at the present time, I protest.

"The great American question today is neither liquor nor loot, but whether this land shall remain the home of religious liberty, personal freedom and constitutional government."

Ray Rushton's famous speech made at Brent, Ala., on April 10th. Read every word of it and cast your vote for the man who proposes to decrease taxation by running the Federal Government in a business-like economical way.

A REMEDY FOR POTATO BUGS

Buck Hart says the best way to get rid of potato bugs is to move off and leave them. But Grady Broadhead offers what he claims to be a much more practical remedy.

Grady points out that there are two kinds of poptato bugs, which we all know to be a fact. He says the first bugs that arrive on potato plants are the hard shell variety, which lay the eggs that hatch into the far more numerous and destructive soft-shelled bugs. Now his plan is to get an even start with the bugs and pick off and kill all the hard-shelled or egg-laying kind as fast as they arrive, and in that way he says you will be able to prevent the destruction of your Irish potatoes by the bugs.

DOGWOOD TIMBER

I am in the market to buy any quantities of Dogwood timber. Will pay $10.00 a cord delivered at Clanton. Anyone who can furnish any of this timber should see me for further specifications as to cuttng sizes, etc.

ELBERT LITTLEJOHN,

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

Abstracts of Title Promptly Prepared at Reasonable Charges.

The Good News Spreads Fast

One Person after the Other Kept on Telling about what good Dreco was doing, so finally this lady bought a Bottle.

Relieved Constipation; Stopped gas forming; eased her kidney trouble, and strengthened the whole organs.

"It seemed like the good news of what Dreco was doing spread fast, for I kept hearing people talk about what it was doing until I decided to get a bottle also," said Mrs. S. C. Bragg of Newmarket, near Huntsville, Ala.

"I've suffered agonies from rheumatitis. My food soured in my stomach, filling me with gas, and causing pains and a choking feeling in my throat. My bowels were constipated so that I had to take medicine almost every night. I had been under treatment for kidney trouble for months—seems like I had taken everything but the right thing.

The Good News Spreads Fast

One Person after the Other Kept on Telling about what good Dreco was doing, so finally this lady bought a Bottle.

Relieved Constipation; Stopped gas forming; eased her kindey trouble, and strengthened the vital organs.

"It seemed like the good news of what Dreco was doing spread fast, for I kept hearing people talk about what it was doing until I decided to get a bottle also," said Mrs. Sallie C. Bragg of Newmarket, near Huntsville, Ala.

"I've suffered agonies from gastritis. My food soured in my stomach filling me with gas, and caused griping pains and a choking feeling in my throat. My bowels were constipated so that I had to take medicine almost every night. I had been under treatment for kidney trouble for months—seems like I had taken everything but the right thing. I was losing hope of ever being real well again.

"When I started taking Dreco I was truly in a bod condition, for I could eat but very little solid food. Dreco acted in a soothing manner on my stomach, and stopped the gas almost at once. My food began to nourish me and my nerves got steady. My bowels acted in a normal way each day; the headaches stopped and my sleep became restful, and I'd rise in the morning feeling refreshed. Dreco has proven a wonderful tonic to my vital organs and made a new woman out of me."

Dreco is made from the pure liquid extracts of many herbal plants, that act on the stomach, kidneys, liver, bowels and enrich the blood.

All good druggists now sell Dreco, and it is being especially introduced in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

Mr. Jeffers is making it a bit interesting for Mr. Blackmon this way in the race for Congress. It has even caused Fred to start a move to build a Federal building in Clanton to put the postoffice in. Jeffers has his speaking dates for next Saturday announced. He will speak at Clanton, Thorsby and the Soldiers Home.

HAVE YOUR HOUSE WIRED ENJOY LIGHTS & POWER

To the People of Clanton:

Here is the greatest opportunity the people of Clanton have ever had. The Alabama Power Co., is re-building the town of Clanton; so the peopla can have just as many lights as they wish for, and as much horsepower, and the best service you can get. I am glad to have the opportunity to be in your town to give the people the advantage of having their houses wired; and the work will be done absolutely safe, under the Southeastern Underwriters.

I carry a full line of Electrical Supplies, which are labor savers, convenient and sanitary devices, such as electric iron, washing machine, vacuum cleaner, percolaters and G. E. fans and all kinds of heating devices and fixtures. It is an exceptional opportunity. You know the advantage of electricity convenience. Safety, cleanliness, and you know it increases the value of your house in case of sale.

I will be here as long as it takes me to do the work here, and give the people a chance to have what they want in the way of electric work of all kind. You will find me from 6:00, p.m. to 9:00, p.m. at the Tom Kemp old Stand.

BUSINESS MAN SINGS PRAISES

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and gas continually. Doctors thought I had stomach ulcers or cancer. After last attack they advised going to Cochester, Minn., for an operation. A friend advisedt rying the Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I did, and I cannot sing its praises too highly, as I can now eat anything and everything." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ilments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

At dinner, supper and breakfast, we have you something; appropriate and good to eat. Call on the Chilton Cafe, Chandler Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts spent the week-end in Shentera, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Reynolds.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

MRS. R. E. LUCKIE, Editor.

IN HONOR OF MR. AND MRS. W. L. HOLMES

The Senior Domestic Science Class entertained the Faculty and Senior Class of the C. C. H. S. on Friday evening, from 7:30 to 9:30, at a dinner in the school auditorium, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holmes.

Courses were laid for twenty. The guests found their places by unrolling miniature diploma tied with pink and green ribbon, the class colors, and finding a verse characteristic of themselves. Herbert Davis acted as toast master, calling on each one to read their toast. After five delightful courses, which carried out the color scheme, the gay party completed the evenings enjoyment by attending a dramatic performance.

Dr. O. C. McGehee, presiding Elder of Methodist Conference, held the second quarterly conference in Clanton on last Sunday.

Mrs. C. V. Heath, who has made an extended visit to Birmingham, has returned home.

Judge and Mrs. L. H. Reynolds have returned home from Birmingham, and have as their guests Mrs. John Newell and little daughters, Helen and Mary.

LADIES AID MEETS

On Monday evening the Womens Missionary Society held their regular Social and Business meeting at the home of Mrs. Mallie White. The meeting was opened by scripture reading by Mrs. Roberts. Interesting papers were read by Mesdames McSwain, Nix and Luckie. The Bible lesson was most thoroughly conducted by Mrs. Herbert Nabors as leader. During the social hour a delicious ice course was served.

Miss Sarah Luckie spent the week end with Miss Julia Mae Parrish in Birmingham.

Mrs. Elna Roberts was a visitor to Montgomery an Saturday.

The E. C. Maye S. S. Class will postpone their meeting which was to have met on Friday, the 23rd, until Friday the 30th, on account of the Chautauqua.

The many friends of Miss Mary Timmerman will regret to learn that she was called home Saturday on account of the death of her mother at Prattville.

Misses May Roberts and Annie Gragg went to Birmingham Saturday.

To have a fine healthy complexion the liver must be active. The bowels regular and tthe blood pure. All this is brought about by using HERBINE It thoroughly scours the liver, stomach and bowels, puts tthe body in fine condition and restores that clear pink and white complexion so muchc desired by ladies. Sold by Upchurch Drug Company.

SEWING CLUB ENJOYS DAY

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the week was a Sper... The-Day party given by the Sewing Club at the home of Mrs. Luckie in honor of Mrs, E. C. Maye.

The house was decorated in profusion of dogwood and honeysuckle. Covers were laid at noon for ten and a lovely buffet luncheon was served. A lovely cut glass vase of pink rose adorned the table. The guests of the club were Mrs. Maye, Mrs. M... White, Mrs. John VanDeyeer and Mrs. John Newell of Birmingham.

Call around to the Chilton Cafe about meal time and get you some thing good to eat. Prices low.

Mrs. Grady Reynolds was among the visitors to Birmingham last week.

Miss Mabel Thomas and Mrs. Mallie White visited Montgomery last Tuesday.

TIRED, BODY AND SOUL

Not Sick, but Still not at Yourself. Think you'll be Better Tomorrow—Only You're Not.

TRY TAKING PEPTO-MANGAN

It Isn't Sleep You Need, but a Good Tonic—More Red Blood.

Everyone gets run-down occasionally. Sometimes it's week before you get your energy, enthusiasm and happiness back again.

Any doctor will tell you to be careful in a time like this. Your body has little power of resistence, and the danger of catching some serious disease is great. Temporarily, your blood has too few "fighting" corpuscles.

It's the work of these same red corpuscles to keep you free from fatigue. Being constantly tired out—depressed in body and mind—is almost a sure sign that your blood needs help for a time.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a standard remedy in cases of anemia or bloodlessness. It supplies the iron and other properties your blood needs to catch up with its task of keeping you fresh and alert in every fibre.

Pepto-Mangan has the hearty endorsement of physicians, is an agreeable tonis to take, and may be had at any drug store in either liquid or tablet form. Both have some medicinal value.

Be sure to ask for Gude's. There is only one genuine Pepto-Mangan and the name "Gude's should be on the package.—Advertisement.

You won,t have to fan yourself all the time to keep cool if you will come iu and let us fit you out with breezy hose, undermuslins, waist and thin things of all kinds thru which the zephyrs can sift.

It won't cost much to buy a "whole trunk full" eithher if yon come to us.

REESE MULLINS WRITES A LETTER TO ANNISTON STAR

With the open declaration that he is a believer in fair play for everybody, both in politics and otherwise, Mr. C. Reese Mullins of Clanton has written a letter to the Anniston Star asking that paper down for the way it misrepresented the situation in Clanton regarding the visit of Mr. Blackmon and Mr. Jeffers to this county recently in connection with their candidacies for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District. Below is a copy of Mr. Mullins' letter to the Star:

Clanton, Ala., April 27, 1920.
Anniston Star, Anniston, Ala.

Dear Sirs:

Referring to an article which appeared in your paper on or about the 17th of April, 1920, stating that on the day previous that Fred L. Blackmon and Lamar Jeffers, opponents for this the fourth congressional district for congress were in Clanton. I will say. You further state in this article that while Mr. Blackmon was shaking that Mr. Jeffers was on the skirts shaking hands with the people.

I feel that in justice to all parties concerned that this article should be corrected and the facts in the case be stated just as they were, which are as follows: Mr. Blackmon and Mr. Jeffers both arrived in Clanton on Monday morning, April 19th, and each other one made a public speech on that date. Mr. Jeffers after meeting and talking with quite a number of his friends and supporters here and around Clanton, went on to several other towns in the County as he had previously arranged to do. On the fllowing Saturday, April 24th Mr. Jeffers returned to Chilton County and spoke at Thorsby, Clanton and Mt. Creek, to a large number of voters at each place, adding largely to his a lready growing strength in this county.

Please publish this in the next issue of your paper as a matter of news if you will. If not, please publish as a political advertisement and send bill.

Yours Respectfully,
C. REESE MULLINS

OAK HILL

Sunday was a rainy day as usual, in spite of the rain we had a good Sunday School in the morning a good singing in the evening. It has been said of some that we do not believe in harmony but such is not the case. We do believe in harmony unless it is where we have to sacrifice our rights for we believe in all men in society and at a place where we can worship without being disturbed. And we appeal to the old people as well as the young to be careful who they associate with, for it is said that we do not live above our associates and do not follow men and women who are not even friendly to the church but stand by the church which means so much to the community and is like a tree planted by the river of waters, but the ungodly are not so but are like the chaff that the wind driveth away; and if the blind lead the blind they all fall in the ditch together.

We have Sunday School here every Sunday mornng and we invite all who are not in Sunday School to come be with us. We are planning to go on a Sunday School picnic to Lock 12 some time in the near future. Our regular singing evenings are 2nd and 4th Suday evenings. We invite all to come and take part with us that wants to and will not think hard of those who go to other places for it is always the largest crowds that the best singing.

Love to all.

WALKER ANSWERS CHARGES AGAINST HIM IN CAMPAIGN

Lawley, Ala., April 26, 1920.
Editor Union-Banner:

I have been informed that someone has been telling that the Democrats got me to announce for Commissioner. I want to say that such reports are false and have no foundation. If the one that started such reports will ask anyone that is acquainted with me he will find out very quickly what I am.

May I say that the first vote that I ever cast in my life was for Grover Cleveland. I have never voted a Democratic ticket since that time. And when I was a boy I pushed a little dog off a foot log into the Creek.

I hope my friends will not be alarmed by this report that has been put out against me for campaign purposes.

Yours very truly,
CHAS. T. WALKER.

PILGRIM'S REST.

Farmers around here are about to get through with their planting.

Sunday school was fine last Sunday. We had a big crowd. We want all those who were here to come back on next Sunday and bring somebody else with you.

The singing at Mr. W. T. Herrod's last Friday night was fine and was enjoyed by everyone.

Miss Dollie Robinson and little sistetr are visiting her sister, Mrs. Leila Herrod at Pletcher.

Miss Martha Chandler has returned home from Birmingham. We were all glad to have her back in our community again.

There will be preaching here every second Sunday.

Sheriff John L. Gore went up to Birmingham on official business last Monday.

SHOULTS

Editor Union-Banner.

Will you please allow me a small space to say a few words from this part of the county.

The farmers are some behind with their work yet. The rain has kept them behind all spring.

Our literary school here closed last Friday. Mrs. Bessie Garner, the teacher, and her pupils went for a picnic on the little mountain near the school house, and at noon put their lunches all together upon a large rock. They all enjoyed the day and they were all sorry when the day was over.

Mr. Wheeler Walker got bruised between two cars at Lois Springs a few days ago and came home to stay work. He is working on a log train wirk. He is working on a log train for A. E. Bell Lumber Co.

Mrs. Alice McGee and children are visiting their mother in law and their grandmother, Mrs. Mollie McGee.

Miss Mattie Fay Lawrence has just returned from Birmingham, where she has been visiting her brother, Rev. Buford Lawrence.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Sanford Kelly fell Sunday morning and broke her hip, and also Mr. Joe Hicks broke his arm the same morning.

Rev. J. D. Martin from near Centerville preached an excellent sermon at Pleasant Grove last Saturday afternoon and Sunday at 11 o'clock. He has been called to that church since Rev. Bice died. Fourth Sunday is preaching day. Everybody come and show Rev. Martin that you are proud for him to be back with us again. He has served that church before.

Mr. Hort Walker and brother, Mr. Wheeler Walker, attended the box supper at Lawley Saturday night. They reported a nice time.

Mr. John Mitchell and family spent the night with relatives at Lawley Saturday night.

Miss May Hamrick gave a singing Saturday night. It was enjoyed by all that were present.

Mr. Byrd Lawrence and Mr. Brooks Shoults took dinner with Mr. Hort Walker Sunday.

Mr. W. P. Hicks and family spent the night with his mother, Mrs. Celia Hicks one night last week.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McAfee about two weeks ago and took their infant baby boy about six weeks old. It was very sad to give him up, but God knows best. He does all things well.

Thank you for the space.

LOST—Watch charm with emblem of Knights Templar on one side and Chapter on the other, marked with initials, "J.E.R." Lost in Clanton on last Saturday afternoon. Finder will get reward if returned to J. E. Robinson or The Banner office.

Would you believe it? We caught Lewis Easterling at work the other day. We know you won't believe it but we can prove it by TomWyatt, Pink Crumpton and Deacon Foshee. We saw him plowing in his field as we passed along the road going to the river on a fishing trip.

OAK GROVE

Farming is all the go here. Altho it rains quite a lot we keep going all the time.

Sunday School is getting better all the time. We hope it will continue so. Hope there will be more out next Sunday, especially the older people. So come every Sunday.

Some of our girls and boys attended the singings at Oak Hill and Rocky Mount. All reported good singings.

Mrs. Jas. E. Cobb and Mrs. Eupla Brown spent the evening with Mrs. J. D. Sutley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glass of Jemison dined at Mr. Dave Williams Sunday.

Miss Geneva Cobb spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Lillie Cobb.

Mr. Dock Williams called on Miss Iny Sutley Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Oscar Cobb spent Saturday night with Mr. Arthur Cobb.

Miss Ellen Glass and brother Leonard spent Sunday and Sunday night with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams.

Mrs. Manuel Northcutt called on her sister, Mrs. W. J. Northcutt.

Mrs. John Cobb spent the week end with her son at Longview.

Mrs. J. B. Williams left Friday for her new home in Gadsden, Ala.

Mr. Earl and Oscar Cobb, Mr. Grady Sutley and Miss Iny Sutley stopped with Miss Lillie and Arthur Cobb for a while before going to singing Sunday and reported a good time.

Miss Ruth Williams attended the singing at Oak Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb of Anniston have returned home after spending a few days with friends.

Everybody is invited out to Oak Grove for two hours fun. We are going to have a play "A poor Married Man." Be sure to come and bring some one with you, Saturday night, May 1st.

J. E. COBB.

PROF. ALVERSON PRINCIPAL OF CHILTON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

Announcement has been made of the election of Prof. S. E. Alverson of Sylacauga as Principal of the Chilton County High School for the next year. At the present time Prof. Alverson is the first assistant in the Fourth District Agricultural School at Sylacauga, which positinon he has held since the time he was released from service in the army.

The new principal is a young man 28 years of age, married, and comes with high recommendations for his ability and experience in educational work. He has already had considerable experience as a high school principal. He is a product of the Georgia Military College at Milledgeville, and of the University of Georgia.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank neighbors and friends for their kindness shown us in her recent bereavement during the death of our daughter and sister. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. Accept our heartfelt thanks.

REPUBLICAN TICKET FOR CHILTON COUNTY IN PRIMARY MAY 11, 1920.

The following is the Republican ticket of Chilton County which will be voted on in the Primary election of May 11, 1920:

For Tax Assessor—A. L. Collins, W. G. Culp, J. Z. Mims, J. T. Rockett.

For Commissioner, Third District—J. T. Abbott, W. T. Herrod, C. T. Walker.

For Commissioner Fourth District—J. Wiley Littlejohn, A. P. Vinson.

For Members County Board of Education—(Vote for Two) L. A. Calloway, J. L. Vines.

Two justices of the peace and one constable will be nominated in each of the Beats. Their names are not printed on the ballots and will therefore have to be written by the voters.

There are also two executive committeemen to be elected in each Beat. Their names will have to be written on the ballots by the voters.

THORSBY ITEMS

The stockholders of the Thorsby Cotton Mill met in Bates Hll Saturday afternoon and among other things elected a board of directors, who are to meet Wednesday afternoon to select a site on which to put their building.

The wet weather seems to have gotten everybody behind with their work, except Cupid, who must have kept steadily on his job as we had two weddings here Sunday. The parties who gave up single blessedness in search of future happiness were Miss Stella McCain and Mr. John Burnett who were married at the home of the bride at 9:30 Sunday morning, after which they retired to the home of the bride groom, where refreshments were served. Miss Ellene Marcus and Mr. Hardie Hurd, who left on No. 10 for their honey moon. We wish both couples long and happy futures.

A very interesting musical programme was carried out at Bates Hall on Saturday night by Mrs. Male of Mt. Vernon, Ala., and others. Mrs. Male is here visiting her two sons who are attending the Thorsby Institute.

One of Thorsby's most patriotic belles is circulating a petition to call an electon to vote a three-mill tax for our schools. We hope every body will sign it as we need longer and better school and the teachers need more pay.

Straw berries are just beginning to ripen and picking berries will be the cry for the next two or three weeks.

Thorsby's on the map: watch her grow.

PENSION NOTICE

Pensions are still in my office in favor of the following persons, and unless called for by May 1, they will be sent back to the State Auditor:

Minerva Armstrong,
Mary Bristow,
M. E. Blalock,
W. M. Henley,
Fannie Little,
M. M. Scott,
B. F. Sims,
Thos. J. Wyatt,
Ida Watts,

If any of these people died between January 1st and April 1st, 1920, their people are entitled to the pension to help pay burial expenses.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

CIVIC LEAGGUE

Please notice the change in time of the meeting of the Civic League. On account of the meeting of the District Federation of Clubs the Civic will have its regular monthly meeting with Mrs. J. B. Downs, Monday May the 3rd, at 4:00 o'clock. They have secured some talented speakers and urge all members to be present and hear the following program: "The Care of Children's Teeth," Dr. Will S. Wilson; "What the Parent owes the Child," Mrs. E. C. Maye; "Care of Children's Health in Summer," Dr. F. J. Brown; "Federation News," Mrs. J. P. Hayes. Music.

It must be a pretty soft job to be a tax collector for Uncle Sam. The official figures sent out from Washington show that the tax collection cost for the government for the last year was 53 cents for each $100 of revenue collected. The total collections for the year were $3,850,-150,000, and the total expense in collecting that amount were $20,-573,000.

Dr. and Mrs. V. J. Gragg are attending the American Medical Association in New Orleans this week. After the Medical Association the doctor will remain in the city a few weeks to do some special study at Tulane University. Dr. Gragg believes in keeping up with the latest ideas in medicine and to that end takes occasion to devote himself to some specialty work every year or two at some high class medical institution.

JEFFERS IS NOT AFRAID

The fellows that are trying to put Jeffers up as being a tender foot and afraid to go up against an opponent would have changed their minds if they could have seen him take off his coat a nd wade into Mr. Fox at his speakikng here last Saturday.

When Jeffers made reference to Mr. Blackmon's record in regard to the Catholics, Fox assumed to defend Blackmon. When Fox had finished his harangue and got himself miserabzly entangled, Jeffers very coolly took off his coat, rolled up his shirt sleeves, mounted the platform and with a calm deliberation that was most admirable, he made such a thorough denunciation of Mr. Blackmon's record that the crowd went wild with cheers for the speaker. That one incident won many votes for Jeffers.

As he finished his speech he came down from the platform and the crowd followed him as he went away. Fox tried to hold them for his auction sale but they hollered back at him, "We don't want anything you have got."

The Alabama Supreme Court has declared the State Income Tax Law unconstitutional and void in toto. The action of the Court will make it necessary for the state legislature to be called into extra session for the passage of other measures to provide revenue for the state that was calculated to come out of the income tax provision.

The Chautauqua here last week lacked a little bit of coming up to the guarantee in its financial receipts, and some of the citizens who were backing it had to pay some sixty or seventy dollars to make up the full amount guaranteed. But before the manager had left town on Saturday twenty-five citizens had signed the contract to guarantee five hundred dollars in order to get the same management to bring their program here again next year. We are glad they will come back, for it is something worth while.

SUPPRESSING DEMOCRATIC REVOLT.

The rapid disintegration of the Wilson brand of democracy is filling administration leaders with alarm and they intend to carry their fight for solidarity of their organization into every State where there are symptoms of revolt. It seems now that the energies of the party leaders will be expended in preventing the disruption of the forces of democracy from within rather than in repelling the onslaughts of Republicans from without.

INTEREST IN THE SECOND.

Things are warming up down in the Second Congressional District of Alabama, where L. H. Brassel has turned the heavy artillery loose on Congressman Dent trying to rout him from his position of several years confidence among the voters there. In Mr. Brassel's circular which he is sending out there are some things that look a bit amusing to a fellow up a tree. The most amusing thing is what he says about Mr. Dent's attitude in regard to the negro question:

"Many negroes were inducted into the army, and Emmett J. Scott, a negro from Tuskeegee, Ala., received an appointment as Assistant Secretary of War, and of course was second in authority in that department, and superior in authority over many white officers and all white enlisted men. Under army regulations, not only were generals and other officers but all enlisted men were compelled to salute him as they did the Secretary of War and white officers. Many negroes were appointed and commissioned as officers and had authority and power over all white men, and the negro officers demanded recognition as did white officers. The white enlisted men were compelled to salute obey and show negro officers military courtesy and respect as they did white officers.

"Does the record show that Mr. Dent ever protetsted against the appointment of Emmett J. Scott as the Special Assistant Secretary of War, or the appointment of any other negro as an officer in the army of the United States?

"In the hospitals the negro soldiers and white soldiers occupied bunks side by side, and the young white women of the South, who patriotically volunteered their services as nurses in the army were compelled to wait on the negro soldiers. Does any white man of the south believe this was right? Did Mr. Dent, as Chairman of the great Committee on Military Affairs, ever make protest against such affairs and if so, does the record show it?"

Looks funny to see the Democrats fussing among themselves about the negro question in their politics. What will those lily whites of the Democratic party (those who believe that the Republicans are the only ones who were ever guilty of taking the negro into political counsels) think when they see one of their Democratic Congressmen from the Solid white South forced to swallow such charges as the above, coming too from one of their own political faith?

We are glad to see Mr. C. Reese Mullins call the Anniston Star down for their misrepresentation of the situation here between Blackmon and Jeffers. The Star would have the people of Calhoun County believe that while Mr. Blackmon was making a big speech down here Mr. Jeffers was scouting around the edges afraid to show himself at the center of the performance. The fact is as Mr. Mullins states that Mr. Blackmon did not make a speech in Clanton when he was here. If he had done so Mr. Jeffers would not have been afraid to show himself. Jeffers is not gunshy. He has heard the roar of cannon that were bigger than Blackmon and he did not flinch, but faced the music like a man. He bears to-day the scars of the bullets that pierced his body as he went over the top in France.

Macey Jones and Jim Huckabee say the people of Clanton don't have to have a fellow from somewhere else to do their wiring. They offer to do the work and guarantee it. They are home fellows and everybody here knows them. See their adv. and give them your work.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Joe Ben Downs Reporter.

On Friday, April 16 the Domestic Science class gave a banquet to the Senior Class at the high school in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes.

Lester "Quick Elmer, get a doctor; I've swallowed a bottle of ink."

Elmer, "Oh, that's all right; go eat some blotters."

We are sorry to report that Everett Doggrell has quit school and moved to Sylacauga, Ala. Everett was secretary of the Junior Class before leaving. Rubin Ozley has been elected to fill his place. Everett will be missed by all—especialy Marjorine.

Hubert Farley says the report of recent date concerning his haircut was a mistake and should be nine months instead of 12 months between times.

Ellis "Waiter, that pie you served me had a mighty tough crust."

Waiter "It had no crust sir; it was served on a paper plate."

Monday Dr. Williams, president of Howard College was with us and made a fine talk to us about "The Kind of Man the World was looking for."

Tuesday Mr. Winglay, representative of the Y. M. C. A. was here and gave a fine talk. Also some prizes to the one who guessed the nature of certain articles.

C. C. H. S. is a busy house this week, for next week comes the final examinations.

FROM MR. D. P. MARTIN

Jemison, Ala., April 27, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner:

Will you please allow me space in your paper to say a few words in regard to politics in the county.

First, I wish to say that I was very sorry to know that there had been anything wrong done in regard to proxies at the last Committee meeting as was shown by Mr. Wiggins letter in the Banner. However we have some people who are drawing salaries from a democratic administration who are now and have been going around trying to discredit our county officials. What is all this for? Isn't it for the sole purpose of trying to gain some political preference for themselves in the future? Do you think it is fair to use such tactics as this. Why don't they come out in the open and let the people have a say, and not try to dictate everything?

I hope that the people in the county will go to the voting places on May 11 and elect some good delegates to the county convention, who will come to the convention without being pledged and do what they can for the benefit of the party, and let us keep the party in the hands of the people and not turn it over to two or three men. Remember that the Republican voters will meet at the voting places at 1:30 o'clock the day of the primary and elect two delegates from each beat to the convention to be held at Clanton on May 14th, 1920.

Hoping that the people will turn out at the primary and that we will elect our ticket by a big majority this fall, I am, Respectfully.

D. P. MARTIN.

REGISTERS SALE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Circuit Court in Equity. Peoples Bank & Trust Co., Complainant, vs. Mrs. Lucia T. Roundtree, Defendant.

By virtue of a decree rendered on the 31st day of March, 1920 of the Circuit Court in Equity, in said cause, I shall proceed to sell to the highest and best bidder, for cash, at public auction, at the courthouse door in Clanton, Alabama, within the legal hours of sale on Monday, the 24th day of May, A.D., 1920, the following described real estate—to-wit:

Seven and one-half acres off the east side of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 15, Township 24, Range 14; and twenty-one and three-fifths acres off the north side of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 31, Township 24, Range 14 East, in Chilton County, Alabama, to satisfy said decree.

W. D. SPIGENER,
Register.

LEGAL NOTICE

State of Alabama, Chilton County. Circuit Court in Equity. Town of Clanton, complainant vs. David B. Adams, defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the sheriff's return of summon to defendant that he was "not found" after ten days.

The Register therefore causes publication to be made in the Union-Banner, of Clanton, Ala., for thirty days. To DAVID B. ADAMS, Defendant:

You are hereby notified that the above complainant filed a delinquent tax list in this court on the 31st day of March, 1920, for the year 1919, in which said list the following described real estate was assessed to you, with the amount of taxes due for said year on said property, to-wit:

Lots number 11, 12, 15 and 16, in Block number 31; also east 40 feet of lot number 3 in Block number 8; all located and situated in the corporate limits of said Town of Clanton, Chilton County, Alabama.

Amount of taxes claimed by complainant $5.50.

You are therefore commanded to plead, answer or demur in said cause by the 17th day of May, 1920, or in thirty days thereafter, a final decree adjudging the above described property liable for said taxes, and directing the Register to sell said property for payment of the taxes, charges, penalties and costs and interest, that are charged thereon, will be taken against you.

Done at office in Clanton, Ala., this 24th day of April, 1920.

W. D. SPIGENER,
Register.

MT. PLEASANT SHOCKED AT THE DEATH OF HOUSTON MASSEY.

Since we last wrote to the Union-Banner, our community has had a severe shock on account of the sudden death of one of our most beloved citizens and neighbors, Mr. G. Houston Massey. On last Friday he worked all day as usual, and at night he retired after eating a hearty supper. Soon after he went to his bed he was heard struggling for breath. He never spoke again and lived but a few minutes. This community will miss him greatly for he always took the lead in everything that was upbuilding. Where money was needed in civic improvement he always paid in more than his part, and was always ready in need and sickness to do all he could. He was a deacon in the Baptist Church. He leaves a wife and seven children and many relatives and friends to mourn his loss. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. W. P. Lowery and A. L. Foshee at Liberty Hill Sunday. The great crowds of people who attended the funeral attested the esteem in which the deceased was held by his friends and acquaintances.

The relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were Messrs. Wallace, Willis and John Massey, and Brock King of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crawford and family of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. John Askins of Autaugaville, Mrs. Rilla Massey, mother of the deceased, Miss Rena Massey, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon Baxley, Will Baxley, Mr. and Mrs. D. Tant, and O. S. Stewart of Weogufka, Miss Talitha Raines of Elmore, and Mr. Bud Baxley of Marble Valley, father of the bereaved wife.

Hundreds of friends extend to the bereaved family their deepest sympathy.

Mrs. A. J. Duncan has returned home from Talladega Springs, where she went to attend the funeral of her father, M. V. Joiner.

W. T. Johnson visited L. O. Vickers last Sunday.

G. W. Robinson spent part of last week in Talladega.

Mrs. Mollie Hughes of Mt. Creek spent part of last week at W. A. Blalock's.

Mrs. J. L. Dupree is in an infirmary in Birmingham, where she has undergone an operation.

W. E. Nix and family spent Sunday at Milton Cotton's.

LITTLE VIEWER.

CLANTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Weather permitting, next Sunday should be a good day for this church. The service will be as follows:

Sunday School at 10, a.m.; preaching at 11 a.m., subject "The Building of a Church." Sunbeam Band at 2 p.m.; Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:45, p.m., leader, Miss Mary Upchurch. Special musical program at 7:30 p.m. with a brief sermon on "The Folly of Foolishness."

The men of the church are earnestly requested to be present at the morning service, and a large congregation is anticipated at night. We appreciate the numerous visitors that are attending our services and tender to them a hearty welcome.

PASTORS & WORKERS MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Pastors and Workers Conference of Chilton County will be held at the Clanton Baptist Church on Monday, May 3, 1920, at 9:30, a.m. at whichc time a large attendance, especially of laymen, is desired. The most important subject to be discussed will be a better arrangement of pastorial fields so that pastors will be able to give more time to their churches and thus be better able to combat with the inter church world movement. This is a question that must be solved by pastors' deacons and all workers coming together. So it is hoped all will make a special effort to be present. Rev. P. G. Carter will lead the discussion.

Come and bring another with you.

Mr. Voter—Your vote will be appreciated by A. L. Kimbrough, candidate for Conservation Commissioner of Alabama. (Paid political adv. by A. L. Kmbrough.)

CHILTON COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

M. D. FOSHEE, MANAGER.

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

"BEST IN THE LONG RUN"

MR. VINSON WRITES

April 27th, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner:

I have been thinking of writing a letter for some time explaining to the people of the county my position on matters they are interested in.

I am a candidate for commissioner from the fourth district asking for an endorsement of my administration. I feel like I have done my duty as best I could. This Commissioners Court has had a hard time trying to run the county affairs; sometimes it has looked like we could not keep going.

All I ask is for the people to examine my record. I have the largest district in the county to look after, and I would be glad too if any voter in the county would examine my expense account. I save all the trips I can to save expense, but sometimes I make enemies trying to save expense. Some people get mad at you if you don't give them all they ask for, but we have had so many heavy accounts to pay that we have had to reduce the expenses where we could.

I do not feel like the people will ever appreciate the struggle this Commissioners Court has had in the last three years. We have had to rebuild the court house, have had to provide for dipping cattle. This I was opposed to, and hated dipping as bad as any one could hate anything, but after the law was passed and we were ordered to comply with the law there was nothing for the court to do but to go ahead and carry out the law. The dipping this year seemed to all of the court unnecessary, and we tried in every way we could to get out of it. Judge Reynolds submitted the question of carrying out the law to the attorney general and he said it was legal.

In conclusion I want to thank the people for their votes four years ago and I promise you if you elect me, that I will do my best for your interest the next term.

I am sorry I could not get over the county and see the voters, but I am very much behind with my crop, and it will be impossible for me to see you before the election. I leave this matter in your hands and your decision will be my decision, and I shall be satisfied wth what you do. If you nominate Mr. Littlejohn I will help elect him with all the rest of the ticket, and I am sure he will make you a good officer.

Respectfully,
A. P. VINSON.

J. THOS. HEFLIN

Candidate for United States Senate to Succeed the Late Senator Bankhead.

"Congressman Heflin has earned my friendship and esteem from the outset by reason of his intense Americanism and unfaltering support of every American measure."—Woodrow Wilson.

"His powerful presentations of the farmers' side of the cotton question fixes his place before Congress and the American nation as the leading champion of the cotton producers."—"Savoyard," in Nasbville Banner.

He is now the dean of the Alabama delegation and by right of seniority it is now his time for promotion.

He will give his whole time and attention to the duties of the important office and will make a faithful and useful servant to all the people in that exalted position.

He asks the support and influence of the democracy of Alabama on May 11th, based upon his sixteen years' record, training and experience in Congress.

He has kept the faith—He has held the line—He will continue.

"ZIRON IS A GOOD MEDICINE"

Says Rock City, Ala. Gentleman, After Having Given It Conscientious Trial.

Ziron is a new scientific combination of pure, inorganic, official, U. S. Pharmacopeia iron, with the hypophosphites of lime and soda and other valuable tonic ingredients, recommended by the best medical authorities in the treatment of anemic conditions.

Ziron helps to put iron into your blood and this helps to build strength for you, when you are pale, weak, nervous, depressed.

Read what Mr. Sidney Fry, of Rock City, Ala., says, and then try Ziron. He makes the following statement:

"Something over a week ago I used Ziron for the first time. I was troubled with indigestion and had a spell of weakness. Ziron helped both troubles. I felt stronger and my stomach quit hurting. I really feel that Ziron is a good medicine. It surely helped me."

Your druggist will sell you Ziron on a guarantee that if the first bottle does not benefit you, he will refund the money you paid him.

But we know Mr. Hays would like to be back up here in Chilton County so he could go to some of those good old time singings here again.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Gonzales, Tex.— Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days ...I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go...I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle...I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

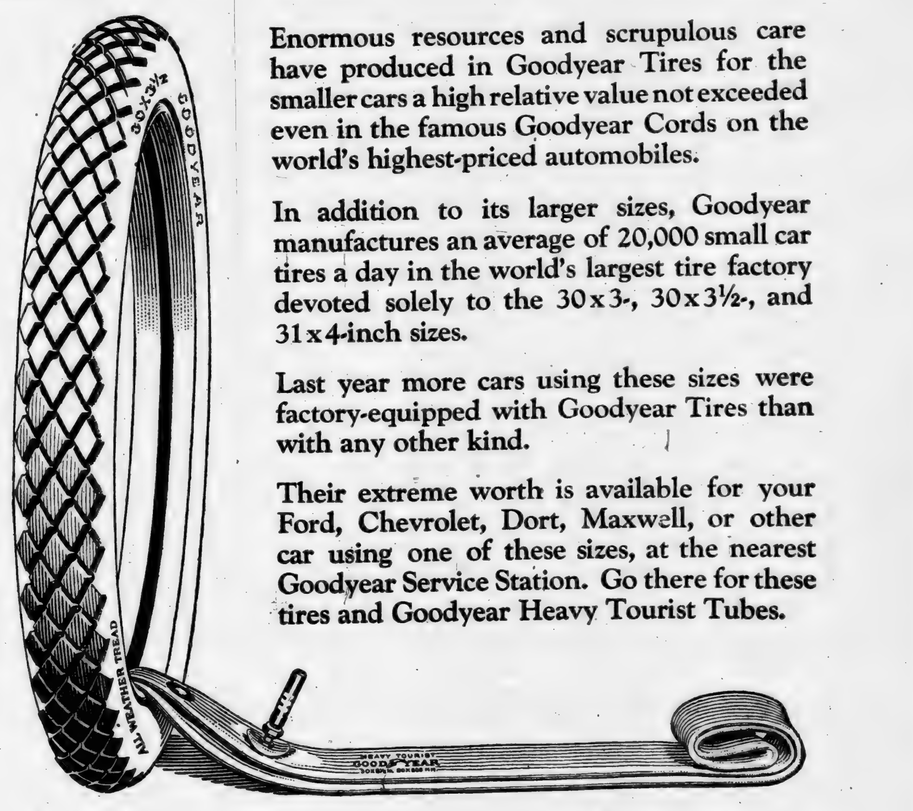
Goodyear Leadership— and Tires for the Smaller Cars



Enormous resources and scrupulous care have produced in Goodyear Tires for the smaller cars a high relative value not exceeded even in the famous Goodyear Cords on the world's highest-priced automobiles.

In addition to its larger sizes, Goodyear manufactures an average of 20,000 small car tires a day in the world's largest tire factory devoted solely to the 30x3-, 30x3½-, and 31x4-inch sizes.

Last year more cars using these sizes were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

Their extreme worth is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other car using one of these sizes, at the nearest Goodyear Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread..... $23.50

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread..... $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are built to protect casings. Why endanger a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag..... $4.50

The Endorsement of the Boys for Lamar Jeffers

Candidate for Congress.

Upon entering this campaign for Congress as Representative of the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama subject to the action of the Democratic Primary May 11, I clearly stated that I would make no effort to push my war record as an issue in the campaign, and I stick positively to that position.

As will be seen, the following endorsement contains nothing about my personal war record as a fighter, but it is a statement that will prove beyond all shadow of doubt, the relationship that existed between myself and the matchless American doughboys with whom it was my high privilege to serve. I want to say this endorsement was prepared and sent to me entirely voluntarily by the boys. Some of them conceived the idea and had it all done of their own free will and desire, and sent it to me. It is signed entirely by men who were enlisted men, privates, corporals and sergeants. It shows their deep interest, and of course there are no words that would express my heartfelt appreciation of their real friendship.

Evey one of these fellows saw actual service in the trenches and in the Argonne Offensive. They are entitled to two service stripes, and many of them were wounded. Their letter speaks for them, and I hope it may reach all the people of this whole Congressional District.

When this letter is printed, of course the signatures will appear in print-type. The original signatures will remain in my possession all the time, and can be seen at any tim eby anyone who may be interested.

Respectfully Submitted,

LAMAR JEFFERS.

To the Citizens of the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama:

Having heard through one of our number, that Lamar Jeffers (more familiarly known to us as Capt. Jeffers) is making the race for Congress, to represent the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama, we offer for your consideration, our endorsement of him. We do this not only voluntarily, but gladly. We appreciate the fact and are grateful to know, that he is not trying to inject his war record into the campaign as an appeal to the voters, nor appealing through any organization of ex-service men. And we do not submit this endorsement as members of any organization, but as citizens who while we were soldiers, served under his command, both in the camps on this side and while overseas.

We leave his war record to the official historians, but we want you to know that which is not recorded in history, but is impressed indelibly upon our hearts. We know him not only as our captain, but as our friend. He gave us, as enlisted men, a square deal, treating us like white men and as American soldiers ought to be treated. We want you to know that, happy and jovial in disposition, he cheered us when we needed a word of encouragement and a smile; sympathetic nature, he sympathized with the least of us when our spirits were low, and there was no man who would not go to him with his private troubles; patriotic and able with a fighting spirit when aroused, he fought anywhere and any time for what he thought was due and coming to the men under his command. In looking after the welfare of his company or the batallion, under trying conditions, he often went far beyond what duty actually required. He is a natural champion of the little fellow, or the fellow who is not getting a square deal. Hating unfairness, he will try to see that justice is done. He will fight for principle against any odds, and he will fight for you, as your Representative in Congress, the same as he stood up for us. He is a man born to lead—not a follower. One thing the boys always said was that he would never ask you to go where he would not go.

We want you to know that Capt. Jeffers, later Major Jeffers, not only made good with his superiors, but he made good with us. And he will make good for you, if you give him thte opportunity.

With great interest we will await the result of the race, hoping for the nomination of Lamar Jeffers.

"OH, LET'S DON'T"

PEOPLE WITH THIN PALE BLOOD ARE LISTLESS AND WANT TO DO LITTLE.

MORE RED BLOOD CELLS NEED

Take Pepto-Mangan, Famous Tonc, and say "Let's Go," instead of "Let's Don't."

When normally healthy, ambitions people begin to lack energy and tire easily—when they are quickly discouraged and low in vitality, it usually means their blood has grown weak.

Such people are called anemic or "run down." Build up the blood and you build up the health and spirits. Pepto-Mangan is a pleasant-tastiny red blood builder and it contains exactly the elements which poor, pale blood needs to become rich, red blood.

Red blood means rosyc heeks, bright eyes, a clear brain, a firm step. Pepto-Mangan has placed thousands of people who needed building up in the full-blooded, energetic, vigorous class. It changes the let's dont attitude to a let's go attitude. Recommended by physicians for thirty years and sold all over the world.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both loquid and tablet form. Both contain the same medicinal ingredients.

Buy Pepto-Mangan at your druggists. Be sure the name Gude's is on the package. Without Gude's it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Adv.

THIS YOUNG LADY GAINED 10 LBS BY TAKING DRECO

Mother States it is Marvelous how her daughter has Improved.

"I think of how a caterpillar turns into a butterfly when I see the remarkable change that has come ever my daughter in the past few weeks since taking two bottles of Dreco," declares Mrs. Fannie Bottes, who resides at Madison Station on the North Besser car line.

"My daughter is sixteen and attends school. She has been looking so badly for some time that I became alarmed over her condition. She was so thin and pale you could see the blue vains in her arms and hands ver yplainly; it seemed she wos all nerves; had no appetite and felt tired, dull and listless all the time, and her sleep was very broken.

"Knowing what Dreco has done for the Wallace family, living near us, I got a bottle for my daughter and her improvement began at once. Her appetite increased; sleep became sound and refreshing; her cheeks took on color and that tired, dull feeling was chased away. Her weight has gone up ten pounds and to say that our family is happy does not half express it. We simply adore Dreco."

The good old fashioned roots, herbs, barks and leaves like our forefathers brewed their teas from and raised a hardy race of people, are still recognized as the best remedies for the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and blood. Dreco is made from twelve herbal plants and its action is prompt and pleasant for man, woman and children.

All good druggists now sell Dreco nd it is being especially introduced in Clanton by Upchurch Drug Co.

REDS QUOTE WILSON

When on trial in the court of a Western State, some "Reds" offered in evidence in their defense certain quotations from the writings of Mr. Woodrow Wilson, claiming that these utterances proved that the president entertained principles upheld by the radicals. The court ruled out the evidence on the ground that the president's opinion could not be received as legal evidence. But the Reds continue to quote the president in their support.

Don't LetCatarrh Drag You into Consumption

Avoid Its Dangerous Stage.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and the hawking and spitting and other distasteful features.

The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source, and tends to remove the germs of the disease from the blood. Get a bottle from your druggist today, and begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. For free medical advice write to Medical Director, 104 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta. Ga.

BLACKMON TO SPEAK HERE

Congressman Fred L. Blackmon, representative of this, the fourth Congressional District of Alabama in the United States House of Representatives, will speak at the court house in Clanton on Thursday night, April 29th, 1920.

Mrs. A. D. Harper and her lovely daughter, Miss Annie, have returned from a two weeks visit to her son Clarke Harper of Columbus, Ga.

The town of Clanton would now be a fairly decent place to live in if we had anybody to furnish us lights The town council, through the energy and persistence of Councilmen Gragg and Atkinson have put in a new pumping outfit at the city water plant and the water supply is making a noticeable improvement. But the pumps won't run without power to pull them. May the Lord be with us on these lightless nights and powerless days until the Alabama Power Company brings us relief

There will be an all day singing at Walnut Creek Church, near Clanton, on the Second Sunday in May.

The latest Showalter and Beasley books will be used, and all are invited to come and take part. Bring along your dinner.

PROVIDENCE BEAT TWO

Dear Editor:

Please allow me only a small space in your good old paper to say a few words in regard to this community.

Health around here is very good at present. Our Sunday School seems to be moving along very nicely.

Misses Alice and Sybil Glass of Saginaw are visiting Mr. J. A. Lowery now.

Oh yes, they like the good old fresh air around Providence. There was quite a number of young people out to preaching Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Pierce has accepted a position with the wire gang.

Seeing our lovely new spring garments all ready to put right on and wear means buying them—because in one moment when you look at our styles and examine materials you will know the superiority in every way of our goods.

Come in today and see the new things that have just arrived. You will go out haveing told us to send a bundle to your home because—we keep the quality; we keep down the price.

MR. HERROD WRITES TO CHILTON COUNTY VOTERS

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a short space in your paper to say a few words to the voters of Chilton County.

First, I want to ask all the voters to come out on May 11th and vote for the men of their choice, and as I am in the race for County Commissioner for the third district, your vote and influence will be appreciated. As I have served the people for two terms I have done the very best I could. My service is a public record, and I am not ashamed of any vote that I have ever cast in the Commissioners Court. I would be glad for any one to look into the records if you wish to see how I have always voted on different subjects.

Mr. Walker and Mr. Abbott are my opponents, and both are nice men. If either of these men are the choice of the people of the county they certainly will be my choice and I will get behind them and help to elect them along with all the rest of the Republican ticket.

Now, in conclusion, I want to urge all the voters again to go to the polls on May 11th and let's roll up a good vote for the Republican ticket in old Chilton County.

Plantersville, Ala., May 4, 1920.
Respectfully,
W. T. HERROD.

WEST CHILTON

Everything quiet and lovely. Refreshing seasons and May flowers.

Mrs. Francis Atchison, an aged lady of this community, is quite sick.

Mr. H. H. Armstrong attended the singing at Salem Sunday.

Mr. Bush and several others from the Turpentine plant were just ready to start when the flivver just would not go; so it was all off.

Miss Georgia Armstrong visited her sister near Free Springs Saturday.

Mrs. John P. Atchison is reported quite sick.

J. T. Waldrup and sister spent some days last week visiting near Clanton.

The writer had the pleasure of being at the Salem singing Sunday. It was a great time. Among the many prominent visitors and friends we had the pleasure of meeting was our gallant young Editor. The Sanders sisters of Lomax just charmed the people with their fine directing.

Some of our people attended the burial of Mr. Frank Foshee at Mars Hill Saturday. He was raised here and died in Louisville, Ky.

OAK GROVE

There was some very fine singing at Oak Grove last Sunday. The convention was opened by the chairman Bro. Robert Murphy, singing "Jesus Savior Pilot Me." The directors for the morning were Profs. Ernest Murphy, A. E. Glass, W. M. Boswell, Robert Murphy. N. T. Cleckler, Amm Boswell, L.T. Grant, O.L. Devaughn

The leaders in the afternoon were Profs. L. T. Grant, A. H. Glasscock, Garland Dooly, W. G. Cullp, Aki Collins, O. L. DeVaughn, Ralph W Grant, and others.

Organists for the day were Ralp Grant, Amie Boswell, Ernest Murph W. G. Culp, Miss Claudie Murph Miss Bettie Edwards and Mrs. Sar Crim, and others.

We had some of as fine singi as could be. The singers were bl ed at 3:30 by the chairman singi "Walk with the Lord."

Plenty of dinner and everybo seemed to enjoy the day.

Editor Union-Banner:

Please allow me a short space in your paper to say a few words to the voters of Chilton County.

First, I want to ask all the voters to come out on May 11th and vote for the men of their choice, and as I am in the race for County Commissioner for the third district, your vote and influence will be appreciated. As I have served the people for two terms I have done the very best I could. My service is a public record, and I am not ashamed of any vote that I have ever cast in the Commissioners Court. I would be glad for any one to look into the records if you wish to see how I have always voted on different subjects.

Mr. Walker and Mr. Abbott are my opponents, and both are nice men. If either of these men are the choice of the people of the county they certainly will be my choice and I will get behind them and help to elect them along with all the rest of the Republican ticket.

Now, in conclusion, I want to urge all the voters again to go to the polls on May 11th and let's roll up a good vote for the Republican ticket in old Chilton County.

Plantersville, Ala., May 4, 1920.

Respectfully,
W. T. HERROD.

WEST CHILTON

Everything quiet and lovely.

Refreshing seasons and May flowers.

Mrs. Francis Atchison, an aged lady of this community, is quite sick.

Mr. H. H. Armstrong attended the singing at Salem Sunday.

Mr. Bush and several others from the Turpentine plant were just ready to start when the flivver just would not go; so it was all off.

Miss Georgia Armstrong visited her sister near Free Springs Saturday.

Mrs. John P. Atchison is reported quite sick.

J. T. Waldrup and sister spent some days last week visiting near Clanton.

The writer had the pleasure of being at the Salem singing Sunday. It was a great time. Among the many prominent visitors and friends we had the pleasure of meeting was our gallant young Editor. The Sanders sisters of Lomax just charmed the people with their fine directing.

Some of our people attended the burial of Mr. Frank Foshee at Mars Hill Saturday. He was raised here and died in Louisville, Ky.

OAK GROVE

There was some very fine singing at Oak Grove last Sunday. The convention was opened by the chairman, Bro. Robert Murphy, singing "Jesus Savior Pilot Me." The directors for the morning were Profs. Ernest Murphy, A. E. Glass, W. M. Boswell, Robert Murphy. N. T. Cleckler, Amne Boswell, L.T. Grant, O.L. Devaughn.

The leaders in the afternoon were Profs. L. T. Grant, A. H. Glasscock, Garland Dooly, W. G. Cullp, Akins Collins, O. L. DeVaughn, Ralph W. Grant, and others.

Organists for the day were Ralph Grant, Amie Boswell, Ernest Murphy, W. G. Culp, Miss Claudie Murphy, Miss Bettie Edwards and Mrs. Sarah Crim, and others.

We had some of as fine singing as could be. The singers were blessed at 5:30 by the chairman singing "Walk with the Lord."

Plenty of dinner and everybody seemed to enjoy the day.

Robert Murphy, Chm.,

MANY CASES TRIED IN THE COUNTY COURT

Last Monday was a busy day in the county court of Chilton County. A number of cases were on the docket and the result was the turning into the county treasury a handsome sum in the way of fines. Some of the boys, in addition to fines were given sentences of hard labor.

The following are the cases tried and the manner in which they were disposed of:

Rufus Turner, charged with violating the prohibition laws; plead guilty and fined $50 and costs.

Robert Tippett, charged with violating the prohibition laws; plead guilty and was fined $50 and cost.

Sam Foshee, charged with violating prohibition laws; plead guilty and was fined $50 and costs.

Mary Samuels, charged with violating prohibition laws; defendant was convicted and fined $50 and costs.

Leander Mims, charged with making liquor; defendant plead guilty and bond fixed at $1,000.00.

Elbert Mims, charged with assault and battery; convicted and fined $50 and sentenced to 60 days hard labor for the county.

Ikke Farris, charged with violating prohibition laws; defendant plead guilty, and was fined $150 and costs.

Erby Webb, charged with failures to work public roads nolle prossed.

Clint Connell, charged with violating prohibition laws; fined $300 and costs.

MINOOKA NEWS

Dear Editor:

Please give us a little space in your paper.

People are working hard on their farms, which are growing nicely.

Shiloh Sunday School will have Mothers Day program Sunday, May 9, at 11 o'clock. Everybody come out and spend an hour of happiness in honor of our mothetrs.

Miss Gertrude Killingsworth and little niece spent the week-end with her sisters in Birmingham.

Quite a crowd from here enjoyed the singing at Oak Grove Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hartsfield and grandmother spent the week-end with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Will Armstrong.

Mr. Oldham and Miss Lena Watts were out motoring Sunday.

The usual crowds "let the trains by" at South Calera, Sunday afternoon, and a young lady looked very blue.

Misses Annie Vest, Maurice Anderson and Mr. Elwood Kinman attended the singing at Oak Grove Sunday.

Mrs. R. P. Busby and Mrs. Bee Campbell spent Sunday with Mrs Killingsworth.

Mr. Frank Shaw and family spent Sunday with Mr. Jim Armstrong.

Messrs Jesse Killingsworth and Wilburn Busby went to Calera Sunday night.

Will close till next week.

MR. PATE WRITES

Thorsby, Ala., May 3, 1920.

Editor Union-Banner:

As this will be the last opportunity to say anything through your paper before the primary election on May 11th, please allow me a small space.

I feel that it is my duty to say a few words to the voters of the county. Four years ago I made the race for Tax Assessor and got a good vote, and now I am asking you people for the same place that I asked for then. I want each and every one to investigate my past record and if you feel that I am worthy of the office I will appreciate it just as much as any man you could vote for.

Now, I want to ask the voters to come out to the polls on May 11th and vote for their choice, and the Republican ticket will be elected by a big majority in November.

I want to say again that I would be glad to have the support of every voter that votes in the Republican primary.

I feel that I am competent to fill the office for which I am asking, and if elected will conduct the affairs of the office in such a manner that you will never regret voting for me.

Now, I want to ask you all again to come out on May 11th and give us a big vote.

Yours truly,
S. M. PATE.

LETTER FROM MR. CULP

To the people of Chilton County:

Clanton, Ala., May 3, 1920.

As I am a candidate for the office of Tax Collector of Chilton County, subject to the action of the Republican primary of May 11, 1920, I ask your consideration in the matter, and hope you can see fit to render me your favorable support and influence.

I am a candidate for the office because I would like to have it, first as a means of making myself a living, and second, in order that I might be of more service to the people of Chilton County in the filling of the duties of one of your county offices. If I am nominated and elected I shall devote my whole time to the duties of the office, and not depend on anyone else to do the work for me.

When I decided to enter the race for the office I did so of my own free will. I am running the race strictly on my own merits and am not controlled or influenced in my campaign by any faction of the Republican party or set of men in the party. I am looking to the whole party to nominate and elect me and when I am elected I will be responsible to the whole party for my official record. I am not seeking any side show demonstration in my favor. I appeal openly to the entire Repubican party for my support in this campaign.

In the past I have aways voted with the majofity of the people and I am sorry the voice of the people has not been recognized in matters that concern their welfare. I think that all local matters concerning the people should be referred to the people before they are written into our laws. I am for the best things for all the people and I recognize that the best way to secure to the people the best things for themselves is to give them the exclusive right to choose those things that concern to them.

For the past year or more I have been the deputy sheriff of your county and have made an honest effort to fulfill my duties according to law and the welfare of the people. If I am nominated and elected to the office of Tax Collector I shall try my very best to fill that office with the same consideration.

In concluson I wish to say again that I will appreciate your vote in the primary of May 11. I have made as much canvass of the county as I could and seen as many of the people as I could, now I leave it up to the voters to choose, hoping that the ultimate result will be to the best welfare of the Republican party.

Yours very truly,
W. G. CULP.

JEMISON, R. 3

Dear Editor:

I beg a short space to say a word in regard to happenings at this community.

Everybody seems to be enjoying best of health, and this is beautiful weather. The farmers are almost through planting.

A large crowd attended meeting at Mr. T. P. Crowson's Saturday night and Sunday. It progressed nicely and was conducted by Rev. J. S. Collins.

Mr. Austin Burnett spent Saturday night and Sunday with home folks.

Mr. Will Askins of Bessemer was in this community a while Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh Rogers, Misses Ellen Glass and Ola Rogers, of Jemison, visited Miss Bertha Crowson Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Vernon Webb is wearing those smiles again. He didn't have the blues very long, did he?

Mr. Monroe Blow spent Saturday night with Mr. Lem Sims, and attended meeting at Mr. Crowson's.

Miss Bessie Barnett spent Saturday night with Miss Nancy Sims.

Many thanks to the Editor.

THE GROUPING OF BAPTIST CHURCHES

(By Rev. P. G. Carter.)

At the Pastors and Workers Conference of Chilton County, held on Monday, May 3 the very important question of grouping the churches together and by so doing locating pastors to live on the field, and give their whole time to the work, was fully discussed. As the result of the conclusions arrived at I was requested by the conference to write this article and through the kind courtesy of the Union-Banner lay the matter before the churches of the county for their due consideration.

The subject was outlined by the writer, touched upon the purpose, the possibility and the method of procedure.

The Purpose.

Every Baptist Pastor of Chilton County who is limited to a fourth time field or once a month preaching in one or more localities has come to realize that it is impossible to properly develop their own churches in this way, visiting them only on Saturday and Sunday once a month. It is also recognized by the brethren that no uastor who has to manage a farm or engage in some other form of secular labor for the means of a livelihood owing to the inadequate support received from the churches they supply can do efficient pastoral work. Hence the churches, the cause of Christ, and the Denomination are suffering as a result.

The Plan.

The plan as outlined by the meeting is grouping of two churches geographically situated, and the locating of a pastor to give his entire time to the oversight of these churches. Two half-time fields is the ideal, but if necessary one or two more churches might be added to provide an adequate support. It is obvious to all that such an arrangement would be of great benefit to the churches. There would be more preaching, better congregations, a closer fellowship between pastor and people, and between each individual member of the church. With more services and greater interest the membership and income of the churches would naturally increase. In this way the pastor could not only do more visitation work, but organize and supervise the other organizations of the church, such as the prayer meeting, B. Y. P. U., Sunday School and W. M. U.

The Possibility.

With the proper co-operation of the churches and pastors the plan is quite feasible. There is hardly a church in the county but what has sufficient membership and financial strength to support a pastor for at least half time work, and with more efficient pastoral work the numerical and financial strength would increase.

The Method of Procedure.

This perhaps is the most important phase of the whole matter. In brief the following would be about the method of procedure:

First, to geographically group two or more churches together who would agree to call and support the same pastor.

Second, to present the matter to the individual churches at a special conference called for that purpose. It is clearly recognized by the pastors and workers present that every church is a unit unto itself, and has its own self-governing powers. That no man or body of men has the right to dictate what the chcurches shall do or otherwise. Therefore it is simplyl the desire of the pastors to lay the matter before the churches and after due consideration let them decide what they shall do. There are many details to be worked out which cannot be embodied in this article. The main desire of the conference is to secure first of all the hearty consent and cooperation of the churches concerned.

Endorsed by the Pastors.

With a splendid christian spirit the plan was unanimously endorsed by the pastors. To do this means a considerable sacrifice on tthe part of many of the preachers, who have their farms and their homes which would have to be disposed of some way of other either by renting or by selling. Regardless however of the sacrifice it might entail ,everyone present expressed the willingness to make whatever sacrifice necessary in order to better and more adequately serve the churches for the glory of God, and the good of the church and denomination. The plan will be further duscissed at the Fifth Sunday Meeting. In the meantime the earnest and prayerful consideration of the churches is requested with the elimination of all selfish motives, seeking to promote only the glory of God, and the progress of the church and Kingdom.

SINGING CONVENTION

The Chilton County Singing Convention using the Sacred Harp and Christian Harmony Music Books will hold the spring session at Hampton, known as Zion's Rest Church, on the Fourth Sunday in May, and Saturday before. Parties coming by rail and wishing to be met will notify J. H. Scott or T. F. Patterson, Verbena, R. 1. Get off at Verbena.

All invited.

LETTER FROM MR. ROCKETT

To the Republican voters of Chilton County:

Cooper, Ala., May 3, 1920.

As you no doubt already know, I am a candidate for the office of Tax Collector of Chilton County, subject to the action of the Republican primary of May 11, 1920; and I take this method of appealing to you to give me your support and influence if you can see your way clear to do so.

I claim to have a record of loyalty and faithful service to the Republican Party in Chilton County in the past, and I wish you would take the trouble to investigate this record and see if you do not find that I am entitled to some consideration from the people of the county therefor.

I also claim to be capable of filling the office of Tax Collector to the satisfaction of the people of the county, and I want you to look well into my qualifications in this respect.

If you have considered my past record and qualifications, you can give your consent to vote for me in the primary, I assure you I shall greatly appreciate it, and if nominated I will do my very best to be elected in November; and I shall also do my best for the election of the entire Republican ticket.

My opponents are all good men, and there is nothing I would say against them; but I believe I am as much entitled to the office as they are, and for that reason I ask you to vote for me on May 11.

In conclusion let me say to you that I hope our people will remain loyal to the Republican party in our county and in the country, for we know ours is a party that stands for the best interests of the people.

Thanking you for your consideration in this matter, and again assuring you of my appreciation of your vote and influence in the primary of May 11th, I am,

Yours very truly,
J. T. ROCKETT.

REFORM DELAYED

Not long ago, Mr. Lansing, while Secretary of State, wrote a letter to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in which he submitted facts which revealed a startling congestion, with facitilies utterly inadequate to handle the tremendous increase in the work of the Department since the beginning of the war. One of the significant facts about the matter is that the former secretary should have waited until he was no longer a member of the President's Cabinet, and for a Republican Congress, before taking measures of correction. Probably he knew that Mr. Wilson would certainly disapprove any recommendation that he might make, and that the administration leaders in Congress would likewise deny him the means for making the reforms.

PROVIDENCE BEAT TWO

Dear Editor:

Please allow me only a small space of your good old paper to say a few words in regard to this community.

Health around here is very good at present. Our Sunday School seems to be moving along very nicely.

Misses Alice and Sybil Glass of Saginaw are visiting Mr. J. A. Lowery now.

Oh yes, they like the good old free air around Providence. There were quite a number of young people out to preaching Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Pierce has accepted a position with the wire gang.

For more than Forty Years Cotton Growers have known that

POTASH PAYS

More than 11,651,200 Tons of Potash Salts had been imported and used in the United States in the 20 years previous to January, 1915, when shipments ceased. Of this 6,460,700 Tons consisted of which the cotton grower knew was both a plant food and a preventive of blight and rust,—with it came also 1,312,400 Tons of which has the same effects on Cotton, but which was used mainly in mixed fertilizers.

20 per cent MANURE SALT

Shipments of both Kainit and Manure Salt have been resumed but the shortage of coal and cars and high freight rates make it more desirable to ship Manure Salt, which contains 20 per cent of actual Potash, instead of Kainit, which contains less than 13 per cent actual Potash.

MANURE SALT can be used as a side dressing on Cotton in just the same way as Kainit and will give the same results. Where you used 100 pounds of Kainit, you need to use but 62 pounds of Manure Salt, or 100 pounds of Manure Salt go as far as 161 pounds of Kainit.

MANURE SALT has been coming forward in considerable amounts and cotton growers, who cannot secure Kainit, should make an effort to get Manure Salt for side dressing to aid in making a big Cotton Crop.

Muriate of Potash

50 per cent actual Potash, has been coming forward also,—100 pounds of Muriate are equivalent to 400 pounds of Kainit or 250 pounds of Manure Salt.

These are the three

Standard GERMAN Potash Salts

that were always used in making cotton fertilizers and have been used for all these years with great profit and without any damage to the crop.

The supply is not at present as large as in former years, but there is enough to greatly increase the Cotton Crop if you insist on your dealer making the necessary effort to get it for you.

Man and Wife, All Run-Down From Farm Work, Were Greatly Helped by Ziron.

"MY WIFE and I, after a hard spring on the farm, were tired and run-down," says Mr. E. B. Mulkey, of Route 1, Acworth, Ga. "We neither felt well. I knew my blood was bad, as I had little boils on the back of my neck.

"We felt we needed a builder. We had heard of Ziron and thought it must be what we needed. It certainly was. We took it faithfully, and after a week or such matter we began to feel better. My wife felt like cooking, and I sure felt like eating.

"Ziron sure did us good. It made us both feel stronger and better for the fall work, which everyone knows is 'some work' on a farm. My boils began to dry up, though just at first they seemed worse.

"We are much better and can highly recommend Ziron, and gladly do so for it sure did us good."

Ziron is a safe, reliable, tonic medicine, good for men, women and children, when an iron tonic is indicated. It is easy to take and contains no habit-forming drugs.

1921 CONVENTION GOES TO SHEFFIELD

D. H. MARBURY, ELECTED PRESIDENT ALABAMA SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

OXFORD TO BUILD SCHOOL

Ten Thousand Dollars Raised in Ten Minutes Toward Thirty Thousand Dollar Expenditure.

1921 Convention to Sheffield.

Selma.—Sheffield is given the next convention of the Alabama Sunday School Convention ofthe hmbhmbm School Association, Gadsden having withdrawn, and given its assistance to the Tennessee Valley cities. D. H. Marbury, Birmingham, was made president; M. M. McCall, Opelika, and L. M. Hooper, vice presidents; Spright Dowell, Montgomery, chairman executive committee, and Leon C. Palmer, Montgomery, general superintendent. Mr. Palmer, upon his re-election as general superintendent, announced his resignation to accept a similar position in South Carolina.

Oxford Builds School.

Anniston.—Oxford has inaugurated a campaign for a new public school building, and has started the campaign with a subscription of $10,000 raised in ten minutes among twenty-five citizens. The movement was started by the Commercila Club at a special meeting to devise plans for getting a $30,000 school building erected during the summer. The additional funds needed will be raised among the Oxford people.

Attalla Needs Depot.

Gadsden.—The chamber of commerce is considering the question of forcing the building of a nadequate passenger station at Attalla. It is learned that when this matter was put up to the Alabama Public Service Commission two years ago, one of the railroads involved quietly obtained an injunction, and there the case has remained ever since. The court proceedings were in Montgomery County and Attorney General Smith has promised to see that it really gets into court by being placed on the calendar for an early hearing.

Negro Physicians Meet.

Tuskegee Institute.—A splendid representation of negro physicians, surgeons, pharmacists and dentists from various sections of the county attended the third annual meeting of the John A. Andrew Clinical Society, with the Ninth Annual Clinic at the St. John A. Andrew Memorial Hospital, of Tuskegee Institute. A large number of patients from various states came here for medical treatment and surgical operations. The outstanding feature of the program was the annual ddress of Dr. C. V. Roman, president of the society. Dr. Roman's address presented important information and facts.

Culture of Fruit Studied.

Mobile.—Members of the Gulf Coast Horticultural Society opened their annual convention here with representatives of all sections of the country present. President O. F. E. Winberg, of Silver Hill, opened the convention. The program includes studies of insects and their influence on citrus fruit crops on the gulf coast, control of citrus diseases, sweet potato ulture and persimmon growing. At the closing session of the convention Dr. Winberg was re-elected president.

Orchards Are Sprayed.

Montgomery.—Miles A. Allgood, Commissioner of agriculture, together with experts from the extension service bureau at Auburn, conducted demonstrations in the spraying of apple orchards at a number of points in North Alabama. Only a few trees were sprayed in each orchard visited, so a comparison of the fruit can be made when the apples are ready to pick this Fall. Spraying operations at this time are conducted to kill the larvae of the coddling moth, one of the most destructive of pests. The apple industry in North Alabama is said to be growing rapidly, climatic and soil conditions in that section being pronounced identical with those existing in parts of Virginia and Tennessee where the growing of apples for market has for years been carried out on a large scale.

Train Is Wrecked.

Mountain Creek.—A freight train, loaded principally with heavy building stone, jumped the track between Verbena and Mountain Creek, ditching seven cars, which delayed all trains seven hours. No one was hurt in the wreck.

Crop Conditions Poor.

Mountain Creek.—Rains continue to interfere with farming in this section of Alabama. But little cotton, so far, has been planted, and corn planting is very much delayed; a number of farmers have not yet broken land for either corn or cotton. Fruit trees are not doing so well as was anticipated two or three weeks since, because of wet weather. Vegetables intended for market purposes will be late and not in normal quantities.

Absentee Voters Law Explained.

Montgomery.—In order that there be no confusion resulting from the casting of absentee ballots in the May primary and general elections, Ira Champion, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, issues a statement in which he explains the rules to be followed in making out and forwarding such ballots. Absentee ballots cast in the primary must be mailed to chairmen of county Democratic committees, while ballots cast in the general election to fill existing vacanies in the legislature, on the same date, must be addressed to probate judges. Probate judges will also receive absentee ballots for the general election in November. Heretofore, it has been generally understood that absentee voters should send their ballots to the probate judge in the county where such absentee voters are qualified. It develops, however, that this construction placed on the absentee voter's law passed by the last legislature is incorrect.

$80 Made Minimum for Teachers.

Gadsden.—The day of beggarly salaries for school teachers passed in Gadsden when the board of education adopted a minimum of $80 per month for teaching in the public schools. The change takes place next term. No maximum was fixed, but there will be a general raise for the sixty-five teachers to be employed. The board also decided to borrow $25,000 to provide the temporary shelter for theo verflow attendance in September rather than to ask the council to sell $250,000 bonds at the present market price.

Firms Incorporated.

Montgomery.—Two new Alabama business concerns, each with an authorized capital stock of $100,000, filed notices of formation with the secretary of state, as follows: O. K. Naval Stores Company, Seminole, Baldwin County, authorized capital stock, $100,000. Rainbow Manufacturing Company, Ozark, manufacture cloth, operate cotton gins, etc., authorized paid in capital stock, $100,000.

$1,000 Suit Filed.

Mobile.—James Nelson, fireworks dealer, filed suit in the circuit court for $1,000 damages against Sidney Frenkel, who on New Year's morning is alleged to have destroyed Nelson's business for the day. Frenkel, the charge alleges, while driving from one street into another ran up on on the sidewalk, completely destroying the sidewalk canopy for the space of half a block, and ended up by weding his machine in the front of the Nelson store.

Million for Schools.

Montgomery.—By an overwhelming vote, voters of Montgomery ratified a series of bond issues aggregating $1,450,000, the proceeds of which will be used for expansion of city schools, water and sewer systems and refunding the public debt. Of the total $1,000,000 will be used for erecting new school buildings.

General Gorgas Sails.

University—Major General William C. Gorgas will sail from New York May 5 for Brussels, where he expects to be presented with a medal of the English Royal Society of Hygiene by King Albert, of Belgium, according to a letter he has written Miss Mary Gorgas, assistant librarian of the University of Alabama. This high honor is to be bestowed upon General Gorgas as a reward for his priceless sanitary work during the world war.

"YES, MY FRIENDS, IT'S GREAT."

It is an outstanding fact that the merits of Sul-Ferro-Sol will withstand the exacting test of a feast—an occasion when the stomach is overloaded and its maximum resources must be displayed.

There are many who daily feed drug store pepsin to their stomachs in hopes of curing indigestion—but the cure seems never to come. And it never will.

To attain a cure, the stomach must be conditioned to produce its own pepsin—and that's Sul-Ferro-Sol all over.

Sul-Ferro-Sol is a mineral water—made by nature as nature's own permanent cure for indigestion of all forms. For Sul-Ferro-Sol causes the stomach to produce its own pepsin.

"Yes, my friends, it's great."

Booklet giving details mailed on request. Liberal bottle one dollar (6 for $5) at all drug stores or post paid upon receipt of price. The Sul-Ferro-Sol Co., Desk 4, Montgomery, Ala.

Mrs. Toddles Sadly Misunderstood the Note Sent to Her Hubby From the Library.

When a member desires a book that is not in a certain library, he files his application for the volume, which the librarian reserves for him on its return, notifying him that the book awaits his pleasure.

Now, it happened that one of the members applied for, but could not get at the time, a copy of a novel entitled "The Girl He Left Behind Him." In course of time a postcard arrived from the library, and as the member's wife is of a suspicious nature that postcard caused trouble, for it read:

"Mr. Toddles is informed that the girl he left behind him is now in the library, and will be kept for him till next Tuesday morning."—Pearson's Weekly.

Dog Gone.

"I hear your dog died."

"It did."

"Was it a lap dog?"

"Yep; it would lap anything."

"What did it die of?"

"It died of a Tuesday."

"I want to know how it died."

"It died on its back."

"What did it die of?"

"It fought a circular saw."

"What was the result?"

"Lasted only one round."—Boys' Life.

Ouija Board Said No.

A local tobacco salesman stopped in at a combination grocery and tobacco store kept by a colored woman. He spent some time trying to convince her of the merits of a brand of chewing tobacco. She was undecided whether to lay in a supply. He was very anxious to get her on his customers' list. They argued back and forth until she was almost convinced it would be good policy to carry the line. Finally she said with an air of finality: "Let the ouija board tell me what to do." The little three-legged pointer was put into commission and whether propelled by her fingers or the going of its own volition, it started speedy tracks to "No." And the tobacco salesman left without the order.—Indianapolis News.

France Establishes 30 as Bachelor Age.

The time-honored question of the ages at which a man becomes a bachelor and a woman a spinster is about to be settled by France. The finance committee of the chamber of deputies intends to fix 30 years as the age at which an unmarried man in France becomes liable to the bachelor tax of 10 per cent. It is expected that this tax will become effective by June 1. The impending decision is said to have hastened many marriages during the Easter holidays.

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. Death would have been a welcome relief. For six months I was in bed and never expected to leave it alive. I was too weak to move without the help of my nurse and so nervous I screamed when she touched me. My back and head hurt like a throbbing toothache. I had awful dizzy spells, my eyesight failed, my hands and feet felt dead. I was pain-racked all over. The kidney secretions looked like thick, black coffee and burned terribly. PRODUCTS FROM TIMBERED AREA

Valuable Object Lesson to Farmers Who Have Not Marketed Woodland "Crops."

SUCCESS OF ASSOCIATIONS

Way Pointed Out to Secure Returns on Many Wooded Tracts Now Unprofitable—Co-operative Organization of Big Benefit.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

By utilizing the by-products of their business and handling them in large quantities many concerns have added materially to their profits.

There is a valuable object lesson in this to farmers in many parts of the country who have not been marketing the products of their woodlands. Most farmers have not realized that timbered areas can be made to yield a regular "crop," which could be counted a profitable by-product, if not a principal product—nor do they appreciate the benefit that would come through handling the output of the woodland in such large quantities as is possible through co-operative purchasing and marketing organizations among the farmers of the United States, and forest service experts in the United States department of agriculture believe that the principle on which these associations have succeeded can be applied to handling woodland products in many parts of the country.

Size of Association's Interests.

A co-operative association of woodland owners should represent a sufficient stand of timber to provide operations for a considerable term of years, if not indefinitely. While it might pay such an organization to market 5,000,000 feet of lumber—the product of perhaps 1,000 acres of woodland—such an organization would be vastly more profitable if its members were owners of 25,000,000 feet. In any case, the capital invested should be quite definitely limited by the amount of lumber available for manufacture.

The kind of forest products to be marketed will of course vary in different sections, but in most cases lumber will be the chief product. For this reason an association should employ a competent manager familiar with the lumber business and one able to grade lumber. He should familiarize himself with the woodland resources of association members, and should know the marketing situation with respect to lumber and related products, as this will be a factor in deciding whether existing plants are sufficient for the association's woodland products, or if additional equipment such as auto trucks, railroad sidings, and machinery are needed. It is highly desirable that he have a working knowledge of forestry, in order that he may direct the cutting of timber in such a way that the stand will be perpetuated.

Use of Portable Sawmill.

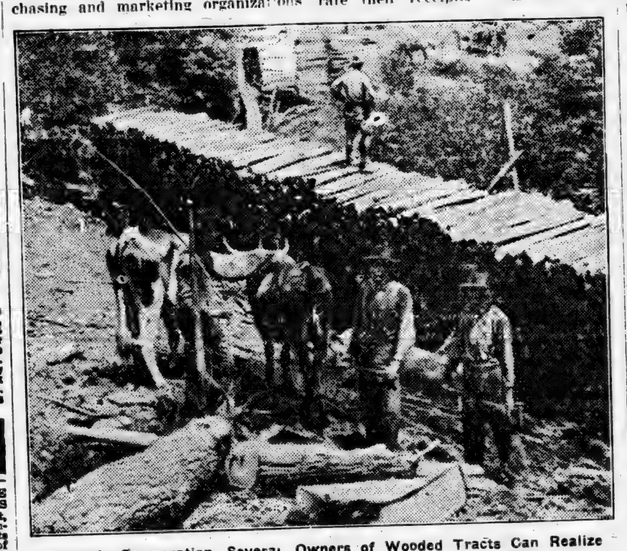
A specific illustration of the advantage to be derived from co-operative effort is found in the use of a portable sawmill. If properly employed it becomes an exceedingly profitable investment for a group of woodland owners, although an individual could scarcely afford to buy one. The mill can be moved from one section to another from year to year until practically the entire area has been cut over, after which, if sufficient time has elapsed, a second cutting can be started.

It is not necessary to put a large amount of money into a plant if the association decides to arrange with a local mill man to saw the lumber for its members. In that event its main function becomes the shipping and sale of its product after the manner of many fruit shipping associations which pool their fruit according to grade and variety and prorate their receipts. On the other hand, if a sawmill, turning plant, or other wood-using machinery is to be operated, considerable capital will be required and the salary and expenses of the manager and his co-workers will have to be provided.

Permanent Benefits Secured.

Not the least valuable result to be expected from a co-operative forest products association is the establishment of permanent local industries, and prosperity resulting to the whole community. In contrast to the exploitation of forests by temporary industries and imported labor. The tendency has been to develop the wood-using industries entirely apart from the community life. Forest resources have been exploited so extensively by imported labor has largely supplemented local labor. One of the unfortunate results of this policy has been to cause the abandonment of farms in certain communities, notably in New England and Pennsylvania.

Persons interested in securing more detailed information on this subject should address the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture.



Through Co-operation Several Owners of Wooded Tracts Can Realize Profits on Land Which Otherwise Would Yield No Return.

EARLY OUTBREAK OF HESSIAN FLY LIKELY

Another Invasion of Pest Is Expected This Spring.

United States Department of Agriculture Has Made Complete Preparations to Make Number of Important Studies.

It is likely that more will be learned this year about the Hessian fly than in any year since General Howe's hired Hessians are supposed to have brought the pest to Long Island during the Revolution. There have been numerous destructive outbreaks of the Hessian fly and a great deal has been found out about it, but nobody was in position to do the job properly. Another outbreak is likely this spring, and the United States department of agriculture is ready for it.

Two years ago the appropriation for Hessian fly work was increased sufficiently to provide for the principal needs. Shortly afterward the bureau of entomology established three stations for the purpose of systematic study. They are at Carlisle, Pa., Centralia, Ill., and Wichita, Kan. Each station is equipped with a full set of weather instruments, and several readings are taken each day throughout the year. Sowings have been made at various dates for several years to determine the fly-free period for each year. Experiments have been conducted with many varieties of wheat to determine their fly-resisting qualities. Exhaustive investigations are under way on parasites of the Hessian fly. The main object is to determine what effect the presence or absence of any particular parasite has on periodical outbreaks of the fly.

When the last great outbreak came five or six years ago no such complete preparation for study had been made. If the threatening one materializes this spring the preparation that has been made should result in a number of important studies.

NEW FARMERS' ASSOCIATIONS

Survey Shows 12,500 Purchasing and Marketing Organizations in This Country.

A survey made by the bureau of markets of the United States department of agriculture a few years ago showed that there were approximately 12,500 farmers' purchasing and marketing organizations in this country. These included grain warehouses and elevators, creameries and cheese factories, stores, and cotton, tobacco and live stock associations.

LEOPARD CANNOT CHANGE SPOTS

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.—Adv.

You can make almost any man nervous by telling him that a policeman was asking about him.

MOTHER!

"California Syrup of Figs" Child's Best Laxative

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its fruity taste. Full directions on each bottle. You must say "California."—Adv.

Don't worry over lost opportunities. Keep your eyes open for the next one that comes along.

WATER WITH ASPIRIN

Bayer Company, who introduced Aspirin in 1900, give proper directions.

The Bayer Company, who introduced Aspirin, tell in their careful directions in each package of genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" that to get best results one or two glasses of water should be drank after taking tablets.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" to be genuine must be marked with the safety "Bayer Cross." Then you are getting the genuine, world-famous Aspirin, prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years.

Each unbroken "Bayer" package contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, and Pain generally.

Handy tin boxes of twelve tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.—Adv.

99 OUT OF 100

Of the little ills and hurts, such as Toothache, nervous Headache, or soreness anywhere may be quickly relieved by applying Vacher-Balm, which is harmless. Keep it handy, and avoid imitations.

If you cannot buy Vacher-Balm locally, send 30c in stamps for a tube, to E. W. Vacher, Inc., New Orleans, La.—Adv.

Every man who has the courage of his convictions has to have a lot of it.

A SOFT, VELVETY SKIN

should be the ambition of every woman as there is nothing so attractive as a fair, smooth skin. Neither soaps nor powders can give this. Thousands of southern women know from experience that Tetterine will quickly rid the skin of its disfiguring pimples and blotches and give it that bright clear appearance so much admired. Tetterine is sold by druggists or sent by mail for 50c. by Shuptrine Co. Savannah, Ga.—Adv.

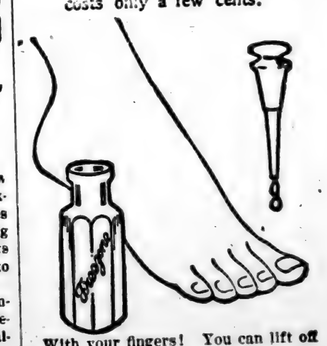
A Jawbreaker.

"What dreadful name are you applying to that man?"

"Merely his own," responded the Reading sportsman.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.



With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callous. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callous right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!—Adv.

GET READY FOR "FLU"

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nauseless Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and their organs in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

Naturally.

"The hygienic experts set their faces against kissing."

"Who doesn't?"

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription.

Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. On Detail.

Private Napoleon Booker Washington Simpson had obtained leave of absence to visit his buddy, who had been wounded and was in a nearby field hospital. He was stopped at the entrance by an army nurse, who asked him what he wanted.

"Has you got a dark complected man named Johnson what's been shot in dis hospital?" he inquired.

The nurse replied that there was such a person there, adding, "But he's convalescing now."

"Ah beg yo' pardon?" said Nap perplexedly, scratching his wool.

"He's convalescing now," she repeated.

"Well," said Napoleon, "if yo' don't mind, I'll set right here and wait till he gets through."—The Home Sector.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF CHILTON COUNTY:

The matter of electing a delegate from Chilton County, in the county convention May 14th, who will go up to the District Convention for endorsement of the Republicans of the4th Congressional District as their representative in the Republican National Convention at Chicago on June 8, has assumed some proportions here of late that seem to be detrimental to the best interests of the party in Chilton County. A rather bitter spirit has been engendered between some of the Republican leaders on account of reports that have gotten into circulation to the effect that certain parties have resorted to unfair methods in the effort to get the county delegation pledged to a definite action in the county convention here May 14th.

As stated above these things have caused some undue and unwholesome confusion. Charges and countercharges are being passed around from one to another and there is more or less danger in the situation. Anybody knows that whoever is recommended in our county convention as the county's choice for delegate he should have the solid confidence and endorsement of the county Republican organization, and should attain the honor in an open and fair manner.

In an effort to smooth over these differences, there has been presented to me a petition containing the signatures of a number of the Republicans of the county, asking that I consent to have my name placed before the county convention for the endorsement of that convention as a delegate to the national convention.

I want to say in this respect that my sincere desire for the harmony and welfare of the party in the county prompts me to say in reply to this petition that if I can be of any service to the people and the party in any respect for harmony and solidifying our Republican strength, I stand ready to do whatever you would have me to do. I am not seeking any honors or privileges. I am not trying to place myself in anybody's way. I merely consent to serve in whatever way the Republicans of the county feel that I can serve.

I have been a worker for the Republican party here in the county for several years, and I do not know of a man in the county who would discount my loyalty and interest in the wellfare of the party. I have worked for the party and plead for harmony through all the little disturbances that have arisen. I have been the friend of all the members of the party, at all times listening and advising with every Republican alike for our mutual interest.

As editor of the county Republican paper fighting for the party on the broadest plane possible to conceive, I have sought to stand on the middle ground between all possible factions in the party, and have at all times endeavored to maintain that stand unquestionably. I nave yet to find a man who can charge that I have not done this.

Now, as has been suggested to me, if I can be of further service in consolidating the ranks of the party by allowing my name to be considered for delegate from the Fourth District to the National Convention, I repeat that I stand ready and at the service of the Republican party of Chilton County and of the Fourth District of Ala. I want it to be understood by everybody that in consenting to this I do so with no other idea in mind than that I shall stand squarely for the protection of the interests of the whole Republican party, and absolutely not for the special interests or privileges of any faction of the party.

With humble thanks for the confidence reposed in me by the Republicans of the county, and with the hope that I may be of service to you in the future, I am,

Respectfully,
W. M. WYATT.

PETITION AS TO DELEGATE TO NATIONAL CONVENTION

W. M. Wyatt Asked to Consider Place of Delegate to National Republican Convention.

Clanton, Ala., May 3, 1920.

Hon. W. M. Wyatt,
Clanton, Ala.

We, the undersigned citizens of Chilton County, Ala., nereby ask you to become a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention to be held in Chicago, June 8th, 1920, and for the reason stated below, believe that you should make the race:

First, that this is a very important position to the Republican party of this county, state and nation.

Second, that owing to your experience in the past, you are eminently qualified to fill the position.

Third, that we believe, owing to your past experence you are in position to do more for the Republican party than any other man in this county.

Therefore, for the reasons stated above, we earnestly urge you to become a candidate as above stated.

ATKINSON'S ANNOUNCEMENT

To the Republican Voters of Chilton County:

I take this method of announcing to you that I am a candidate for delegate from the Fourth Congressional District of Alabama to the National Republican Convention to be held in Chicago June 8th, 1920, subject to the action of the District Convention of the Republican Parry to be held in Anniston, Alabama, on the 18th day of May, 1920.

My political affiliation has always been with the Republican party. I sincerely believe in its platforms, principles and traditions, and I have a desire to do everything in my power to upbuild the Republican party in Alabama. It has heretofore been my pleasure to have an opportunity to render some service along this line.

While I have no aspiration to represent a few self-appointed political leaders who act in secret caucus and by underhand methods, I do have a desire to represent all the Republicans, and if I am chosen by the Republicans of this District to represent them at Chicago, it will be my purpose to do everything in my power to carry forward the work of upbuilding a strong Republican organization in this state.

My record as a Republican is open. I have never asked for an office at the hands of the people of this county or state. I was nominated for Congress from this District by the Republicans, but that nomination came to me unasked and unsought. In that campaign I canvassed the entire district and made a fight to the finish, and though I was defeated, I take pride in the fact that I received the largest Republican vote throughout the District that had been polled in several years.

In my humble opinion the American government is facing one of its greatest crises, and that the old ship of state is about to be run upon the shoals of disaster. I believe that the surest and only channel through which this nation can be restored to its stable form is through the Republican party.

If the Republicans of this county believe that I am capable of representing them in this great cause, I shall appreciate the confidence and honor. Whether I am your choice or not, I ask you to be at the polling places on the day of the primary at 1:00 P. M. and elect delegates to the county convention in accordance with your views. Remember this government is yours—it does not belong to a few self-appointed political leaders.

Yours very truly,
J. B. ATKINSON.

Clanton, Ala., May 5, 1920.

LETTER FROM MR. H. A. HARRIS

Clanton, Ala., May 5, 1920.

To the Republicans of Chilton county:

As this week's issue of The Union-Banner is the last issue before the primary to be held on the 11th, I desire to call the voters' attention to the importance of the election and to urge each and everyone to go to the polls on that day and vote for the candidate of his choice for the various offices to be filled.

You are to elect in this Primary two members of the Executive Committee from each Beat. The future welfare of the party depends on what interest the committee takes and we want men who are interested and who are willing to give some time and labor toward the upbuilding and bringing of success to the Republican Party, which has always stood for the intetrests of the common people; also you are to elect two delegates to the County Convention to be held at the Court house on May 14th. These delegates must be elected by mass meeting held at a voting place in each of the Beats on the 11th day of May, 1920, at 1:30 P. M. Men should be elected as these delegates who are not pledged to any one man and who will not be influenced by the personal ambition of some candidiate.

It has come to my attention that it is being charged by some of our party workers and leaders that Chilton County has been traded off by two or three men, including myself, and I wish to state that this charge is without foundation or truth and is only made to stir up confusion and strife within the party. The Republican party of Chilton County is "BIGGER" than any two or three men and no man individually nas the right to say what the party shall or shall not do and it is absurd to think that any man with common sense would attempt such a thing, and I say emphatically that I have not been in any meeting or took part in any caucus whatever (not even the one held in the court house last Saturday) and further I have too much respect for the integrity of the Republicans of this county and besides pride myself, too much of a gentleman to engage in any thing which would tend to bring reprosch on myself and family. And further, I appreciate the honors heretofore conferred on me too highly to do anything that would be detrimental to the Republicans or the success of the Republican party. I still believe, as I have always believed, in a square deal to every man and the rule of the people for the people.

In conclusion, I wish to say that, as chairman of the Executive Committee, and every other office, which I have held, I have always strived to do my duty in an honest and conscientious way and have tried to conduct the affairs of the party in such a way that would bring about harmony in our ranks and shall continue to do so. We must do everything with a desire and an eye single to the establishing and re-building of the principles which our party has stood for during all these years.

Wishing each and every voter and member of our party the best of success, I am,

Yours very truly,
H. A. HARRIS.

LETTER FROM JUDGE REYNOLDS

To the Republican Voters of Chilton County:

You doubtless know the Republican voters of this county will meet at their respective voting places Tuesday, May 11, 1920, at 1:30, p.m., to elect delegates to a county convention to meet here Friday, May 14, 1920.

This is the most important time in the history of the Republican party of this county. There seems to be a determined effort on the part of a few men to take entire control of the party or divide it over a small question, which is, "Who shall go as a delegate to the National Convention?"

I have been requested and petitioned to offer as a candidate for the place of delegate to the National Convention, but a few have said they had rather have someone else and said if I went it would cause prejudice in the party, so I said if at any time my name would divide the Republicans on any question I would not permit it to be used for I consider the interest of the party to be more than any one man's interest. I have been in the councils of the party for over thirty years and have always tried to put my party first and all individuals second.

Mr. W. M. Wyatt has been petitioned as a compromise candidate, and he has agreed to go as a delegate if the people want him to go. He is our Editor; he has fought the battles of our party for years: he has always been on the job and we have never given him anything. He is fair to all and now he will represent us if we want him to, and I believe it will be to the best interests of the party to send him.

I want to call your attention to some things that have happened to our party during the last few months. We have had one thing after another but all to the same pomt, and if carried out will in the end divide our people.

Mr. J. B. Atkinson is a member of the Republican State Executive Committee and is Secretary of the County Executive Committee; Mr. W. H. Gillespie is Chairman of the Republican District Executive Committee; and Mr. H. A. Harris is Chairman of the County Executive Committee. Now it looks like it is nothing more than fair that we divide the honors of the party and send Mr. W. M. Wyatt to the National Convention. I have never believed that our party ought to be in the hands of just a few, but so far as could consistently be done all the voters should be consulted on all questions.

The strength of the Republican party in this county lies in the fact that the people have always been taken into the confidence of the party, and the party will still go forward if the voters go to the polls and elect such men to represent them that will not act in the interest of just a few.

One or two have said a great deal about me, but it does not hurt me. They say I have enough honors. I will say that I have had many honors and appreciate every one that has been given me, but I got them direct from the voters of this county, and did not have to go to a democratic administration for any.

I want to thank the voters for any honors they have bestowed upon me, and I want to say that I am not a candidate for any office, and all the intetrest I take is for the Republican party. If the party ever needs me, I shall be glad to serve it in any way that I can.

Now in conclusion, permit me to say to you that the people have a chance to elect good delegates and a good committee, which will not follow the advice of just a few and drive men from the party, but will welcome all good men who believe in our party and will do what the majority of the voters want.

Respectfully yours,
L. H. REYNOLDS

CLANTON, ALA.

REGARDING DELEGATES

Clanton, Ala., May 5, 1920.

To Chilton County Republicans:

As you doubtless know, the Republican voters are to meet at their voting places on May 11, 1920, at 1:30, P.M. to elect two delegates to come to the convention to meet at the courthouse on May 14, 1920, for the purpose of electing delegates to the District and State Conventions. It is very important to the Republican party in this county that the voters go out and elect two good delegates from each Beat to come to the convention on May 14th.

Perhaps you already know that there are a few men in this county that have been going around sometimes at night picking out the delegates to be elected. We do not believe that any three men should delegate to themselves the authority to tell the Republican voters of this county just who they should elect as delegates to a convention. We believe that the whole people should have a fair and square chance to say who they want to elect from each Beat and not be dictated to by a few men.

We further believe that it is wrong for three or four men to go to Birmingham last winter and trade off the delgation from this county and now to tell the people of this county that it does not make any difference what they do now that they (meaning the three or four) have everything fixed to send a certain man to the National Convention. Don't you think it is time for the voters in each Beat to see to it that they cannot dictate to them and for hem to elect just who they want for delegates? It seems to us that the people in the various beats should have a voice in saying who should go. Therefore, we earnestly request you to do what you can to get the people to go to their voting places on May 11 at 1:30 p.m. and elect two good delegates to the convention who will come and not be pledged to two or three men but men that will do what they think best for the Republican party.

It is also very important that you elect two good committeemen from each beat.

There will be a public speaking at the court house Saturday, May 8, 1920, at 2 o'clock. Come to the meeting everyone and tell others to come. Judge Longshore and Judge Weaver are to speak here.

Trusting that you will do what you can in your beat to see that three or four men do not take complete charge of the Republican party in this county, and that there will be two good delegates elected from your beat that will come to the convention in person and not by proxy, and men who will do what is best for the Republican party, we are,

ENJOYS HIS 3 MEALS A DAY

Mr. Wooten Thinks Much of ZIRON Because It Made Him His Old Self Again.

Sick people do not get much out of life. In order to enjoy your meals, to do your work well, you must be strong and healthy.

Pale, weak, nervous people frequently need iron to enrich their blood and to restore vitality to their system, and a good way to supply the iron is to follow the example of Mr. Clayton Wooten, of Scotland, Ga., who used Ziron Iron Tonic and has this to say about it:

"I have taken Ziron according to directions and I can truthfully say that it is a fine tonic. It has done me all the good. Since I began taking it, I have gained eight pounds in weight and enjoy eating three meals a day. I shall do all I can to recommend Ziron."

Try Ziron! Your druggist sells Ziron on a guarantee to refund your money if the first bottle fails to benefit. You cannot lose anything, but very likely will gain much, by getting a bottle of Ziron, today!
